Druig looks to me as Phastos explains every detail of the unimind he created. "It combines our powers. It should be enough for Druig to put Tiamut to sleep." I nod and say "Ikaris will be waiting."

Thena nods and says "Phastos and I will stay on the domo as you take the others down to ground level. He'll attack here first and I will stall him for as long as possible." Druig nods and I say "Okay. And then what?" Phastos says "Then we defend Druig and let him do his thing." I nod slowly saying "And you can do this Druig?" He nods and says "Years and tears of practice will finally have payed o . That's for sure." thousands of years finally paid o then." I grumble and swat her arm "You're annoying. Shut up."

Makkari signs "I guess Gaia's need for mind control for thousands and Thena looks to me as I close my eyes as I stand in my designated spot beside Druig. He avoids eye contact with Sprite as she shakes her head, guilt setting in. She nods and Druig says "Stay away from Ikaris, Gaia." I nod and say "Uh huh. Sure." He gives me a look and I press my hands to his shoulders. Leaning into him pressing a kiss to his cheek. He really expects me to not whoop that douche bags ass? Sersi says as we face the large volcanic mountain in front of us "It's time to put a god to sleep." Druig nods and spins the uni mind bracelet he has on his wrist. I feel my body grow anxious quickly and I grab his wrist stopping him from initiating the uni mind. He looks to me and says "Gaia?" I shake my head and say "Maybe.. maybe this isn't a good idea. I just got you back. In some form at least

I shakily nod and I feel my hands tremble as I rest a hand on his chest and hold his cheek in my other. I attempt to hide my fear by giving him the faintest smile. I feel like I'm gonna vomit oh my god. I'm so nervous.

He nods and says "I have no plans on dying. Even if I was we'd meet again in the next life. Just like the many lives we've lived before."

I kiss his cheek and say "alright. I trust you." He twists the band and the device wires and makes noises as I watch it closely.
