

Every friend of the New Bai Family Group would be the Golden Age Group's friends, while all enemies of the New Bai Family Group would be the Golden Age Group's enemies as well!

When everyone in the hall heard Leng Kang's words, they found it absolutely unbelievable.

W-What is going on?

In the hall, everyone gazed at each other in speechlessness.

Were they not talking about the thief of the Skeleton Emperor Card? Were they not talking about Bai Yi becoming a scapegoat for Lin Fan?

How did Bai Yi end up becoming the fourth Skeleton Emperor Card holder? Now, even the New Bai Family Group became the Golden Age Group's major business partner!

However, everyone was clear about the significance of being the Golden Age Group's partner.

It was a partnership with the top tycoon in Jiangnan Province.

By becoming the Golden Age Groups major partner, the New Bai Family Group's status would surely skyrocket; all the top businesses in Jiangnan Province would surely compete with each other to become business partners with them as well.

Thump!

Upon hearing the news, Gao Zhilong and the other distributors felt drained and they all slumped onto the floor one after another.

"Oh god, h-how is this possible?! Did the New Bai Family Group just become the Golden Age Group's partner? And did I just stupidly terminate my contract with the New Bai Family Group?”

“How can this be? If I hadn’t terminated the contract, I would have been one of Golden Age Group’s partners too! But now...”

“F*ck! Gao Zhilong you b*stard! You just f*cking made a fool out of me!”

The commotion went on and on; it was a mess now!

All the distributors were full of regret at this moment.

When they turned their gazes to Gao Zhilong and his son, they looked as though they wanted to skin them alive.

After all, the New Bai Family Group would become an up-rising star in the Jiangnan Province’s business industry after getting support from the Golden Age Group.

Anyone who had a business relationship with the New Bai Family Group would definitely make rapid advances in their careers. However, they just foolishly terminated their contracts with it and even felt glad about the small amount of termination fee.

Smack! Smack! Upon thinking about this, the distributors slapped themselves heavily out of their extreme regret; they seemed as though they were regretful enough to disfigure their own faces.

They were not alone.

Gao Zhilong's mouth twitched and he could literally feel his heart bleeding when he came back to his senses.

Initially, his Tiansheng Group was the New Bai Family Group's major distributor.

If he had not terminated the contract, his company would have become a top tycoon in the Jiangnan Province in an instant, just like the New Bai Family Group.

However, reality went another way round.

Upon thinking about this, a look of hatred and cruelty flashed across Gao Zhilong's face when he looked at his son.

"You son of a b*tch! I'm going to kill you!"

Then, Gao Zhilong kicked over Gao Zhiyuan's wheelchair as though he had gone crazy and started beating Gao Shengyuan ruthlessly.

"Dad... D-Don't beat me anymore! It's my fault! I really know that I've done something wrong now!"

At this moment, Gao Shengyuan was so terrified that he almost peed in his pants.

He clearly understood why his father was so furious.

Meanwhile, he felt deeply regretful too.

However, what was done was done. Gao Shengyuan could feel that his father really wished to beat him to death, but he couldn't do anything other than to shiver out of fear.

In contrast to them, everyone from the New Bai Family Group senior management team was dumbfounded upon hearing Leng Kang's words.

Bai Yi, Bai Shan, and the other senior managers widened their eyes in shock as though they had been struck by lightning.

"D-Did I mishear it? Have we become a major partner of the Golden Age Group?”

“O-Oh god! Are we going to make a fortune now? Is this a gift for us from heaven?”

“No, wait a minute! I remember Lin Fan said that we’ll skyrocket to our success today! Is this what he was implying?”

After a short moment of shock, Bai Shan, Bai Yi, and the others thought about Lin Fan’s words.

Previously, he said that the New Bai Family Group would attain instant success on this day.

At that time, almost everyone thought that he had gone crazy.

Now that the chance to succeed had appeared before their eyes, they felt a shiver running down their spines.

Everyone turned their gazes to Lin Fan as though they were looking at a monster.

They could not figure out how Lin Fan knew this beforehand.

Aside from the distributors, Leng Bufan and his people were the most astounded ones among everyone else in the hall now.

“No... That’s impossible! Has my Dad gone crazy? Bai Yi and Lin Fan are the ones who have stolen the Skeleton Emperor Card! Lin Fan has even caused me serious injuries! It doesn’t matter whether Dad will help me take revenge or not. But, h-how can he make our opponent’s company our major partner?! How can this be?!”

Leng Bufan went as white as a sheet because he could not figure out the reason behind this even after racking his brains.

Behind his wheelchair, Bai Yifan, Shen Jian, and Lin Guangyao gaped in shock.

Particularly, the color drained from Bai Yifan's face at once.

"It's over! As the New Bai Family Group has become the partner of the Golden Age Group, our Bai Family Group... is doomed!"

Bai Yifan nearly slumped onto the floor as though he had seen the end of the Bai Family Group.

Meanwhile, Lin Guangyao's eyes almost popped out of his head.

Since he hated Lin Fan to the core, he obviously did not wish to see the New Bai Family Group become successful.

"Young Master Leng, p-please stop Mr. Leng! We can't let the New Bai Family Group get this opportunity!" At that thought, a murderous look appeared in Lin Guangyao's eyes as he continued, "Besides, please don't forget that Miss He's grandfather, Grandmaster He and your grandfather, Grandmaster Leng are coming soon! They've said that they will beat this Lin Fan into a coma! Hence, how can your father cooperate with your grandfather's enemy?"

Hmm? After the series of consecutive shocking incidents, Leng Bufan had almost forgotten about his grandfather. He came back to senses upon being reminded by Lin Guangyao.

At once, he shouted at Leng Kang, "Dad! You can't do this! Just now, Bai Yi's husband, Lin Fan humiliated Grandpa and Grandmaster He! They're on their way now and both the Grandmasters have said that they'll definitely beat this rascal into a coma! How can you cooperate with Grandpa's enemy?"

What?! Leng Bufan's words made Leng Kang and the Golden Age Group board members

' faces turn pale at once.

As they had just arrived at the Jiang City on this day, they were not clear about what had happened to Leng Aotian and He Lanshan.

However, both of them were not only Grandmasters; they were also Leng Kang's elders.

If they really bore a deep grudge against Lin Fan, the situation would become extremely complicated.

Screech! Screech! Right at this moment, everyone could hear the screeching sounds of the tires of two cars by the entrance of the building.

Then, the angry voices of two elderlies rang from the outside.

“Where's Lin Fan that b*stard? How dare he injure my grandson and humiliate me? Come out and get ready to die!”

Chapter 332 He Is... Grandmaster Lin?

Right after those two thunderous voices rolled into the hall, everyone's expression shifted.

What horrifying sounds.

Everyone felt that the voices seemingly contained a terrifying power, as though it could shake their souls free from their mortal bodies.

Those voices came from none other than Leng Aotian and He Lanshan.

After the momentary shock, Lin Guangyao, Leng Bufan and He Jiaojiao were immediately beside themselves with glee.

"They're here! The two grandmasters are here at last! Lin Fan is done for!"

Thick venom of hatred seemed to be dripping from Lin Guangyao's face now.

He loathed Lin Fan right to his bones.

Chapter 332 He Is... Grandmaster Lin?

But what made him gnash his teeth was that this b*stard Lin Fan would always be able to find a way to bounce back from dire straits and rub it in his face.

This time, however...

“I believe that you’ll die with two grandmasters after you!” Lin Guangyao glared at Lin Fan, his delight shooting through the roof.

Leng Bufan called out to his own father Leng Kang, “Dad, did you hear that? My grandfather is here! He certainly won’t let this swine go! I advise you to retract your command, otherwise my grandfather will...”

Leng Bufan did not finish his sentence, but the subtext in his words made Leng Kang’s expression as well as all of the higher-ups from the Golden Age Group turn as stormy as a lake on an overcast day.

Chapter 332 He Is... Grandmaster Lin?

Bai Yi, Bai Shan, and the New Bai Family Group's top brass panicked at the back of the crowd.

The grandmasters were here!

And two of them to top it off!

This frightening scene made everyone's scalps crawl.

"Lin Fan, I-leave! Leave!" Bai Yi nearly cried from panic.

However, much to Bai Yi and the others' disbelief, Lin Fan did not look nervous at all. On the contrary, he smiled and patted Bai Yi's shoulder. He said to her comfortingly, "Darling, I said it before but those two old farts can't hurt me!"

What! He called them 'old farts' again!

Upon hearing Lin Fan's words, a dense cloud of despair and anguish appeared on the corners of Bai Yi and company's lips.

Lin Guangyao, Leng Bufan and the others looked at Lin Fan as though they were looking at a dead man.

“Hmph! Stubborn till the very end I see. You also are gutsy for calling my grandfather an ‘old fart’! Just watch! See how my grandfather’s gonna kill you in a moment!” A cold smile split Leng Bufan’s face.

Lin Guangyao, He Jiaojiao and company also had eerie smiles on their faces.

Right then, two sets of heavy footsteps rang out from outside as Leng Aotian and He Lanshan stepped inside under everyone’s shocked gazes.

The air was cold and violent.

Right after the two of them entered, everyone in the hall felt as if the temperature had dropped to a freezing point, making all of them shiver involuntarily.

“Is... Is this the aura of a grandmaster? How frightening!”

The gazes of everyone in the hall were filled with thick fear when they looked at Leng Aotian and He Lanshan.

The two old men immediately roared furiously the moment they stepped inside, “Who is Lin Fan? Step out here now!”

That call made everyone shake with fear again.

The chairman of the Golden Age Group, Leng Kang, immediately steeled himself and scrambled out upon seeing this.

“Dad!”

Hmm?

Leng Aotian stiffened. Upon seeing his son's appearance here, he couldn't help but frown and ask, "Leng Kang, why are you here?"

"Dad! You can't lift a finger against Lin Fan!" Leng Kang's expression was downcast.

Those words, however, seemed to have touched one of Leng Aotian's nerves. Vehement anger immediately rose on his face. "Nonsense! Leng Kang, are you touched in the head? That Lin Fan maimed your son and demeaned your father! And now, you want to stop me from going after him, you spineless thing?"

Leng Aotian's eyes were round and wide-open. He practically could not believe his own ears.

Lin Fan was now the number one enemy to the Leng Family, and yet he never imagined that his own son would stick his own head out for him.

However, that wasn't all. Leng Kang's following words baffled everyone in the hall.

"Dad, I'm doing this for your own good! I don't want you to lose your life!"

What?!

It was like a silencer had been activated the moment those words tore themselves out of Leng Kang's mouth, making every sound in the hall disappear into the ether. No one could believe what they had just heard.

Leng Kang was worried that Leng Aotian would die?

But... But how could this be?

When everyone snapped back to their senses, the hall went into a furor. Disbelief was in everyone's gaze as they stared at Leng Kang.

“Dear lord, is Leng Kang mad? Does he think that Grandmaster Leng is not that Lin Fan’s match?”

“That’s right! No matter what he said, Leng Kang is still Grandmaster Leng’s son. How... How could he shield someone else and look down on his own father instead?!”

The whole crowd was talking; practically everyone suspected that Leng Kang had gone insane.

Even Leng Aotian and He Lanshan’s gazes toward Leng Kang looked as though they were looking upon an idiot.

“You whelp! You... You dare to look down upon your own father?” Leng Aotian blew his top. How he wished he could beat the living daylights out of this unfilial son of his.

However, a bitter smile hung on the corners of Leng Kang’s lips when he saw this.

Only he knew Lin Fan truly was.

This was the ultimate mastermind behind the Golden Age Group's scenes, one of China's four greatest generals. He could easily annihilate even all the tycoons in Jiangnan with one sentence, never mind Leng Kang's father, Leng Aotian. How could his father even hope to go against such a terrifyingly powerful man?

Wasn't he just walking toward his own death?

"Dad! What I said is true. Please, don't be rash! Do not go against Mr. Lin and Miss Bai!" Leng Kang couldn't voice his worries even if he wanted to; he was on the brink of tears.

This scene made Leng Aotian and He Lanshan absolutely livid.

He was being contemptuous!

To these two grandmasters, Leng Kang's words and actions were a humiliation to them.

"Get out of the way!" With a sweep of his hand, Leng Aotian instantly pushed Leng Kang to the side. Then, he looked right at the crowd and roared out in fury, "Lin Fan, get out here! Today I shall see whether you are truly as impressive as they say you are. You have not only crippled my grandson, you have also terrified my son into this state! I shall skin you alive!"

Murderous intent flared out.

Right then, everyone could hear Leng Aotian's rage and murder in his roars.

His words, however, made Lin Guangyao and the others jump for joy.

They knew that Lin Fan was finished.

Chapter 332 He Is... Grandmaster Lin?

At that thought, Leng Bufan hastily said to Leng Aotian, "Grandpa! That swine is right here! Look..." As he spoke, Leng Bufan pointed in Lin Fan's direction, his smile venomous yet delighted as though he could already see the gory scene as his own grandfather skinned Lin Fan alive.

Leng Aotian and He Lanshan followed Leng Bufan's finger and immediately saw a skinny figure standing at the back of the crowd. The moment they caught sight of this figure, however, the two grandmasters were astounded, as though they had been struck by lightning.

"H-He's... He's G-Grandmaster... Grandmaster Lin!"
