

Gu Yuxiao began her narration.

As it turned out, everything was set up as a trap in the beginning to lure Chen Hao in.

Other than being assigned the task to look for the lady in white in the Sea Palace, Gu Yuxiao was instructed to capture Chen Hao without being noticed and bring him back to the Gu Family.

Therefore, she had acted as though she was injured to attract Chen Hao's attention, and to make him pity her.

At first, she had decided to act according to plan. However, Chen Hao had managed to move her unexpectedly by his meticulousness.

That was why she could not bear to kill him.

In the end, the two of them went to Sea Palace together.

The elderly lady was none other than the Master of the Gu Family, who was Gu Yuxiao's great-grandmother.

The great-grandmother knew Chen Hao's weaknesses, and she managed to inflict grave injuries on him by using the Spirit Flower.

She was worried she would get him killed. Therefore, the great-grandmother had locked up some parts of her skills inside her body.

At that time, the great-grandmother was about to take action.

Gu Yuxiao had pushed back strands of her hair and gave her great-grandmother a look as a warning for her to not harm Chen Hao. Otherwise, she would kill herself right in front of her.

She had sent out signals several times to stop her great-grandmother from doing anything.

Enraged, her great-grandmother had pretended that she was injured and left.

However, her great-grandmother wanted to make sure that Chen Hao didn't find out the whereabouts of the lady in white.

In fact, the structure of the Sea Palace was built according to how the Spirit Flower was made.

Inside the Sea Palace, there were two realms which were exactly the same as each other.

Therefore, the great-grandmother had utilized a secret skill at the entrance of the Sea Palace, leading Chen Hao into another unknown realm.

As for Gu Yuxiao, she was brought by her great-grandmother to the real Sea Palace. They then took away the body of the lady in white.

“I’ve got it. However, I’m still puzzled by one thing. Back then, my men hadn’t detected any traces of both of you in the waters!” said Chen Hao.

“A very complicated secret is kept in the Spirit Flower. Not only can it cause disturbances to one’s spiritual energy, it can also cause a certain level of disruption to the magnetic field. Using the Spirit Flower as cover, great-grandmother could make us invisible even if someone was right in front of us,” explained Gu Yuxiao.

“Why is your family trying so hard to find the body of the lady in white? Also, why is your family trying to capture me?" asked Chen Hao at last.

"My great-grandmother has only briefly mentioned to me before about the fact that you're closely related to the lady in white, and there is a huge secret waiting to be unravelled between the both of you. Whoever that possesses this secret will be able to control a very powerful force!"

"A secret?"

Chen Hao was baffled.

No wonder the King of Nine Doors had been eyeing him all the while. Now, the Gu Family was going after him too.

As it turned out, they were actually aiming for the secret.

However, what secret could he be carrying?

Regarding this, Gu Yuxiao clearly didn't have much clue either.

"Chen Hao, you have to hide yourself as soon as possible. You're not good enough to fight either the Three Saint Sect, the Nine Doors or even our Gu Family. Once you are captured, your life will be in danger!" advised Gu Yuxiao.

"Moreover, the Nine Doors has deployed an extremely skillful man, whose name is General Black. He doesn't look like he's human at all, and he's very scary. Even my great-grandmother is extremely afraid of him. Therefore, once you are brought to the Gu Family, you will definitely not be able to escape!"

Gu Xiaoyu's words were tinged with intense terror.

"Even your great-grandmother is deeply afraid of General Black?"

Chen Hao was stunned.

He had learnt something. At first, he thought Mo Changkong was the best fighter in the world, but then Mo Canglong had emerged.

Now, he realized what he had seen or experienced before were just the tip of the iceberg. There were a great deal of things which were unknown to him in this world!

“According to my great-grandmother, he was a corpse that was modified by the King of Nine Doors. He has his own consciousness, and he only accedes to the instructions of the King of Nine Doors. More precisely, he is the King of Poison. Anyone who is attacked by him will be exposed to fatal poison. You might be able to escape from him, but there’s no antidote for the poison!”

“When they first visited my family, our family had an epic fight with the men from the Nine Doors. Eight elders from our family were defeated by General Black, and they were all exposed to fatal poison. If they hadn’t made a compromise with the King of Nine Doors, the entire family would have been slaughtered. So Chen Hao, if you were to bump into him, you must avoid him at all costs!” warned Gu Yuxiao grimly.

Judging from her tone, what she said was genuine. Moreover, her words were imbued with intense trepidation.

“Why did the King of Nine Doors visit the Gu Family? Do they know that I am going to the Gu Family’s place?” asked Chen Hao.

“I have no idea. That might be one of the reasons. I believe they had another reason for their visit, which was for the sake of the Ancient Mountain in Ancient City. Once every few years, a peculiar phenomenon will occur in the Ancient Mountain!” said Gu Yuxiao.

“What peculiar phenomenon?” asked Chen Hao curiously.

“That’s something off-limits to me.”

Gu Yuxiao shook her head.

Now, the entire matter had started to become clearer.

Indeed, there were now three forces coming after him.

Despite having gone through the Way of Heaven’s baptism, it merely meant that he would no longer be completely vulnerable to the attacks of these three forces.

Moreover, he could not even win Yun Qing.

Not to mention now that he also had to deal with the Gu Family, the disciples of the Nine Doors, General Black and the King of Nine Doors.

Chen Hao realized that he was in dire straits.

It was likely that he would be captured by any of them at any minute.

“In short, you should lie low from now on. I’m telling you all this for the sake of the friendship we once had. We will be enemies at our next encounter! Take care!”

Gu Yuxiao stared at Chen Hao calmly.

Then, she directly turned around and left.

By the time Gu Yuxiao made a quiet return to the Gu Family’s house, she was shocked to find the spacious living room of the house filled with all her family members.

The leader of the family was an elderly lady.

As soon as Gu Yuxiao entered the living room, everyone looked at her.

“Great-grandmother!”

A nervous look flashed across her face.

After all, she had sneaked out of the house today.

She was sure her great-grandmother had already gotten to know about it.

“Ever since we came back from the Sea Palace, I have confined you in this house. I suppose life has been too boring for you recently!” said her great-grandmother with a complicated smile.

Thud!

Gu Yuxiao immediately knelt down.

“Great-grandmother, you must have already known about my meeting with Chen Hao, which has caused your plan to fail. But I... just wanted to return a favor to Chen Hao for what he has done for me! Chen Hao is a decent guy. He is not a wicked villain like how you have described him to be. He really is a kind-hearted person. Great-grandmother, please let him go!” pleaded Gu Yuxiao, her eyes brimming with tears.

After listening to her, all family members started to look stern.

The elderly lady looked enraged. "Rascal! It seems like my worry was not pointless. You're just smitten by him. None of the people from the Chen Family are decent. As for Chen Hao, he is very good at putting up an act, and he even used to help him locate the Sea Palace. As for you, you've actually betrayed me and sneaked out to give him a tip-off! Betrayer! Indirectly, you've caused the death of the seven highly-skilled fighters of our family. If it wasn't for my decision to turn Chen Hao's tricks to my own use, I am afraid you would not have been able to escape from punishment tonight!" chastised the elderly lady with a twitch at the corner of her mouth.

Obviously, her great-grandmother had already gotten to know about the death of the seven highly-skilled fighters.

"Turning his tricks to your own use? Great-grandmother, what do you mean?"

Upon listening to her words, Gu Yuxiao's entire body shook tremendously.

"Humph, since Chen Hao is already here in Thai City, do you think I will allow him to escape?"

“Someone, please bring Miss Gu to her bedroom and keep a close watch on her. Starting from today, she is not allowed to leave her bedroom!”

With the instruction from the elderly lady of the Gu Family, Gu Yuehe, Gu Yuxiao was immediately taken away and locked in her bedroom.

This time, she had to capture Chen Hao by hook or by crook!

At that moment, it was already late at night.

Being aware of the plans of the three forces to capture him, Chen Hao ran at a high speed without further delay.

He intended to look for Tie Cheng, then leave this place together with him.

Rustle!

Just as Chen Hao was entering the town area from the outskirts, a rustling sound was suddenly heard from the forest around him.

It was as though a creature was running through the forest at a high speed, causing the branches and trees around to sway continuously.

Chen Hao was rooted to the spot.

He became alert right away.

According to his instincts, there was someone nearby!

At that moment, a piercing coldness overwhelmed Chen Hao suddenly. Because of that, he was immobilized.

The coldness got increasingly intense.

It crept from his back and spread all the way to his entire body.

Was he being targeted by someone?

His forehead was covered with beads of sweat.

He had never felt such an intense fear before. It was as though his body was sending him an intuitive signal.

Slowly, he lifted up his head.

It was only then did he notice a man standing on a huge tree beside him.

A burly man of a height of two meters was crossing his arms and standing on the tree.

Under the feeble moonlight, Chen Hao could see him clearly.

His face was purplish black, and his lips were of an intense purple color. However, his eyes were bright red in color.

His entire body was shrouded in a cloudy and gloomy air.

He looked strikingly similar to a dead body!

The man was staring unflinchingly at Chen Hao.

The coldness that had crept up to his body originated from that man.

“General Black?”

Chen Hao was terror-stricken deep down inside.

Subconsciously, he took a few steps back.

Just his imposing air was oppressive enough for Chen Hao.

“Chhh!”

The leaves rustled softly, and the gigantic body of General Black was seen making light steps on the branches.

Thereafter, he launched himself at Chen Hao just like a cannon.

At a rapid speed, he charged toward Chen Hao.

Signals of imminent danger sounded in his mind again.

Mustering all his strength, Chen Hao anxiously retreated.

Bam!

When General Black landed on the ground, the earth shook slightly.

He revealed his hands.

All ten of his fingers looked like sharp claws that were made of steel, and they looked blackish. Each and every one of them looked similar to the fangs of a famished wolf.

Exactly like what Gu Yuxiao had told him, he was not human. Instead, he was a piece of weapon made out of a dead body.

“Are you trying to run away? It’s not as easy as you think! Follow me! My owner and Mrs. Gu are waiting for you!”

General Black sounded like an old raven.

As he was talking, he started striding toward Chen Hao.

The Breaching Army!

Using the Inner Energy in him, Chen Hao summoned the Breaching Army with great effort.

The Breaching Army had already been consecrated.

As for General Black, it was as though his entire body was covered with steel.

The Breaching Army was the only thing capable of dealing with him.

The Breaching Army moved at a rapid speed and transformed into a ray of light, shooting straight toward General Black's neck.

Smack!

Out of his expectation, Breaching Army, the magic tool which was usually invincible, was clamped in between General Black's two steel fingers nonchalantly.

"Follow me back!" he tossed the Breaching Army to the ground casually before reiterating.

Chen Hao's eyes almost popped out of his head as his face filled with disbelief. That man was way too powerful!

In a flash, he charged straight toward Chen Hao and hit him with one of his mighty and huge hands.

As Chen Hao failed to avoid the blow, he was hit and thrown to a distance immediately.

The muscles and bones in his entire body felt a numbing pain. Blood spurted out from his mouth.

It was as though all the organs inside his body had been pushed to a deviated position under the impact.

He fell hard to the ground and rolled over a few times before finally coming to a halt.

Chen Hao tried hard to concentrate the Inner Energy in his body. However, he found that his Inner Energy was already in a scattered manner under the impact. He had suffered a grave injury and could no longer concentrate his Inner Energy.

I'm finished!

Will I really die in Thai City?

The Jade?

Chen Hao was desperate for help. He wished the Jade would repeat what it had done before and save his life from a crisis.

Yet, no matter how hard he screamed, the Jade offered no response this time.

With an icy face, General Black walked over to him.

In one movement, he lifted up Chen Hao who was gravely injured.

“You tried to kill me. I have to torture you before bringing you back to meet my owner and Mrs. Gu!” declared General Black in a vicious tone.

Thereafter, he flung Chen Hao forcefully, and Chen Hao flew across the air. He snapped around seven to eight towering trees before coming to a stop.

Chen Hao heard a cracking sound from his bones.

He had lost all sense of touch.

However, General Black had no intention to pardon him.

Judging from his look, as long as he could bring Chen Hao back alive, the task assigned to him by the King of Nine Doors would be considered as being completed.

Because of Chen Hao’s counterattack earlier, General Black started seeing him as an enemy.

He tortured Chen Hao using all kinds of means.

The organs in Chen Hao's body were greatly disrupted by General Black. His limbs were snapped and broken as he was thrown again and again by General Black.

For several times, he was on the verge of losing consciousness because of the intense pain.

Yet, Chen Hao was not capable of defending himself.

Thud!

With a darkened face, General Black stepped on Chen Hao who had just vomited blood and pressed him to the ground. Next, he lifted his steel claws and aimed it at his chest.

Chen Hao tried his best to avoid his claws.

In the end, his steel claws jabbed into Chen Hao's left shoulder.

Son of a b*tch!

He felt excruciating pain, and the fatal poison in General Black's body flowed into Chen Hao's body by a substantial amount.

The pain and dizziness put him into semi comatose in an instant.

Chen Hao's lips turned purplish black at once.

As for General Black, he sniggered continuously.

Whoosh!

Suddenly, the sound of the movement of light was heard from the surroundings.

It was as though an arrow had pierced through the sky.

"Who's that?"

General Black, who was torturing Chen Hao, stood upright.

Angrily, he observed the source of the sound.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

The arrow-like sound got increasingly intense.

Thereafter, General Black caught sight of an intense brilliance forming in the sky ahead of him all of a sudden.

A ray of light which looked similar to a meteor was charging toward him at a high speed.

The light seemed to be drawing energy from everything around it, slicing through the sky.

General Black was actually terror-stricken at once.

Danger was lurking ahead!

At that moment, General Black could not be bothered by Chen Hao anymore. Deeply shaken, he took several steps back.

He fell to the ground on his buttocks before fleeing the scene anxiously.

However, his pupils dilated continuously.

It was as though the ray of light had a vision of its own.

The ray of light was following General Black wherever he went.

In the end, General Black dragged his cumbersome body and hid behind a huge tree.

Bang!

A deafening sound followed.

General Black let out an agonizing scream after something exploded on him. White fumes billowed out from his body.

His entire body was blown tens of meters away, just like a kite with a broken thread.

Argh!

Screaming in misery, he covered his chest which was oozing out black blood and fled the scene.

Soon, he disappeared into the darkness.

As for Chen Hao, he had witnessed everything in a blurry state.

Blood was flowing out from his mouth, and his limbs had lost all sense of touch. What was more, he was gradually losing his consciousness.

Chapter 660 A Life-Threatening Disaster

Just seconds before he closed his eyes, he managed to catch sight of a middle-aged man dressed in black, who was walking toward him at a brisk pace...
