

“Don’t you worry. Once you help me capture Chen Hao, I will have complete power to travel between the Border Realm and the real world. By then, boosting the Gu Family to become the most powerful and influential family in the Border Realm would be a piece of cake! Besides, you know my background well, don’t you? Haha, back then when Chen Hao accidentally let me out, that was a gift from God for me being sealed for ten thousand years! Haha!”

Suddenly, a black beam appeared on top of the piece of jade.

The black beam spiralled in the air for a moment before it turned to a shadow of a human form.

One could vaguely see that the shadow was a shadow of a young man with dashing eyebrows and a hooked nose; every once in a while one would even catch an evil flicker in his eyes.

Who would have thought that even though he had the looks of a young man, he had existed for over tens of thousands of years.

“King of Nine Doors, to be honest, I have some regrets now. Back then, I was pestered by you and was forced to agree to work with you, which may be the cause of the destruction of the Gu Family. What I just said to Yuxiao was true—Chen Hao is too scary and he is making rapid progress!” A complex look flashed through Gu Yuehong’s eyes as she said, “However, it is different for you as the King of Nine Doors. You are just a soul that is able to use your power to control numerous people to become your puppet and I am only one of them. Even if all things fail, you can still continue living and you will definitely find a way to return to your Border Realm to continue your life as a Young Master. It is easy for you to back out but for us, we might even die disembodied. Do you even know what we are facing?!”

The King of Nine Doors replied, “Hahaha, you worry too much. Perhaps I told you too much and frightened you with Chen Hao’s background story. Actually, now he is far from fearful and from what I see, he is just as insignificant as an ant. What’s more, you can’t turn back now because Chen Hao has remembered you. So what we will do now is to stick to the plan! Besides, you are also greedy for a longer life. I already promised you to bring your family to live in the Border Realm. By then, your life span will at least increase by a thousand years. This arrangement is worth every sacrifice you make! Isn't it?" The King of Nine Doors burst into laughter.

"That is why I'm not backing down. I have decided that when the time comes, I will catch him myself!" Gu Yuehong's voice suddenly turned cold as she spoke.

"Back then, there was a riot in the Border Realm and the eighth reincarnation of the Essence of Nine Cycles died, then it broke through the border and landed on earth. To obtain the Essence of Nine Cycles, I followed it but I underestimated the power of the border. I was struck by lightning and turned into ashes. My soul was captured and since then I have never seen my family. The person who should really be anxious is me! I have waited for more than ten thousand years for an opportunity like this. For me to succeed, your help is essential. So be rest assured!" The King of Nine Doors then continued, "Good! May the day our success come as soon as possible!"

Gu Yuehong nodded.

“Do you two really think you can defeat him? I have told you both numerous times to treasure your own life. Be grateful for the fact that you are not completely dead now. Don't go and pick a fight with him because both of you are no match for him. Your evil plans will never succeed!”

Just then, a voice that sounded as sweet as an oriole appeared; the tone of the voice was so refreshing and beautiful that it felt like a spring breeze.

A woman dressed in white could be seen floating above the longevity coffin; she was so beautiful that she looked like an angel.

The King of Nine Doors was dazed by her beauty.

“Are you finally willing to come out?!” said the King of Nine Doors.

“I came out to give you two a warning. Speaking of which, both of you don't have any hatred and desire for revenge, but the only conflict between both of you and Chu Hao is your greed! The result of conflict is chaos!" said the lady in white lightly, her red lips moving slightly as she spoke.

"Damn you and your words of chaos. Are you so sure that with the two of us working together, we still cannot defeat a small weakling like Chen Hao? You have underestimated me as the King of Nine Doors. I promise you, in a few days, I will force the eternal love of yours to kneel before me. I will make him beg in sniffles and tears for me to spare his life and let him go back to continue his life as a Young Master! Hahaha!"

A tinge of jealousy and anger appeared on the King of Nine Door's face.

The King of Nine Doors loved the lady in white as much as the lady in white loved Chen Hao.

However, there was only Chen Hao in her heart; it was like he was the only one for her. Her obsession was so strong that it was like there was no other man in the world that would ever take a place in her heart except for him.

His heart burned with jealousy.

He gritted his teeth as he continued, "What's more, when I finally obtain the Essence of Nine Cycles, I will dominate the world! By then, I will make you willingly become my woman, the woman who belongs to the man who will be at the top of the world!"

The lady in white couldn't help but shake her head. Her figure slowly disappeared as she returned into the longevity coffin.

"What did you mean by that? Have you not heard what I just said?!" the King of Nine Doors roared.

Gu Yuehong looked on with her hands behind her back.

"I think her reply is very clear!" Gu Yuehong said.

"What do you mean?"

"A woman who has seen an eagle in the skies would never set her eyes on an insect on the ground!" Gu Yuehong said subconsciously.

The King of Nine Doors was furious. "As*hole, what did you just say?!"

Chapter 687 Shuixia's Scream

It was then when Gu Yuehong realized that she accidentally said what was on her mind out loud.

Gu Yuehong quickly apologized. "King of Nine Doors, sorry, I said the wrong thing!"

"Hmph, hurry up and go and finish your business. Now I have sealed her with my magic. I want her to witness that I will fulfill everything I just said!"

With that, the King of Nine Doors turned into a black beam and disappeared into the jade.

Turning the story back to Chen Hao, he had cured Su Ruoxi's mother's illness long ago and brought Su Ruoxi with him to send Shuixia and Shuisheng back home.

According to Li Ba, they would have to wait till midnight to conduct the ritual to conjure the spirit, so they were not in a hurry.

"Shuisheng, the snake cave that you mentioned is in the nearby mountains. Do you still remember the exact location?"

Chen Hao suddenly remembered the snake cave where Shuisheng obtained his powers.

There seemed to be a lot of information recorded in the snake cave, and these information were what Chen Hao wanted to obtain.

After the incident with the Gu Family, he understood that venturing out to look for Tongxin and Chen Pingan without an actual plan was simply suicidal.

The more he understood about this world and the more things he knew, those knowledge would help him and play a part in the path that he was taking.

"Oh, of course I remember the snake cave you were talking about. I visited the place several times a while ago. Chen Hao, I'll take you there now!" Shuisheng nodded.

"Wait, snake cave? What snake cave?" Su Ruoxi was listening at the side, but she couldn't wrap her head around the whole situation. "Take me along too! I want to follow you two to widen my knowledge!" she said with a face full of curiosity.

Crash!

Chapter 687 Shuixia's Scream

While they were talking in the front yard, they heard a sound of bowls crashing from inside the house, followed by a scream from Shuixia.

“Huh? What happened?!”

Shuisheng was startled.

Shuisheng rushed into the house.

As soon as he opened the door, a gun was aimed at his head.

A group of bodyguards in suits were holding Shuixia and Shuisheng's grandfather hostage and they walked forward.

A middle aged man who led the group shouted coldly, "Don't move! All of you stay put! I will shoot anyone who moves!"

At the same time, a dozen armed bodyguards rushed out from the woodshed nearby.

The cold gunpoints were aimed at everybody, especially Chen Hao.

"Miss, Chen Hao is really here just as you predicted! We just made a huge contribution this time!" the middle-aged man exclaimed in joy.

At this moment, a woman slowly came out of the house.

By her side was a handsome young man; they walked side by side with an evil smile on their faces.

“Duan Fei, you are amazing! You figured out who killed the bodyguards of the Ximen family with just one glance at their bodies. We set up an ambush here and we actually managed to run into Chu Hao! Hahaha! I’ll report this to the Gu Family immediately! We’ve just made a great accomplishment!”

The man and woman were no ordinary bystanders; the man was the leader of the same martial arts group as Bai Xiaofei, Duan Fei, who was defeated by Chen Hao in front of everyone back at the banquet, while the woman was Ximen Yu from the Ximen family.

It looked like that they both never gave up searching for Chen Hao.

Something had happened to the bodyguards. Usually, the two of them would not personally check on the incident but the subordinate who found the bodies reported that the bodyguards died in a tragic manner; it looked like it was done by a master of the martial arts.

That was why Duan Fei, who was rehabilitating in the house of the Ximen Family, went to investigate together with Ximen Yu.

When he saw the scene, Duan Fei immediately knew that other than the Gu Family, almost no one else would have the strength to do so in the whole of Thai City.

The only other person that could possibly do this was Chen Hao.

He wasn't very sure, but after much investigation, he found his way to Shuisheng's home, which led them to this scene in front of them.

Unexpectedly, his guesses were correct—Chen Hao was actually here and it was him who killed the bodyguards of the Ximen family.

“If you ask me, it was because of you, Ximen Yu. You quickly reacted and immediately set up an ambush. Otherwise, how could we seize Chen Hao so easily?” Duan Fei shook his head and smiled bitterly as he coldly looked at Chen, the man who ruined his reputation. “You didn't expect this, did you? Someone with martial arts skills as good as you do had actually fallen into our trap! What's more, I know how good you are, so we prepared dozens of people to point their guns at you. I warn you, it's best if you stay put. Otherwise, in a few seconds you will be turned into pulp!"

Turning to Ximen Yu, Duan Fei continued, "Ximen Yu, let's not report to the Gu family yet. The Gu family is very anxious to find Chen Hao. It is obvious that Chen Hao is important to them. If Chen Hao was taken by subordinates of the Gu Family, we will receive nothing. The best option is to meet the master of the Gu Family face to face! Only then will we have the chance to negotiate with them. By then, we can ask for the secret skills of the Gu Family and with that, I believe my skills will improve by leaps and bounds! When that time comes, nobody in the whole martial arts group will be a match for me, Duan Fei!" A look of strong longing flashed across his eyes.

"You are right Duan Fei! The Ximen family could ask for some assets. By then, we might even become the strongest and wealthiest family! It's like killing two birds with one stone! Duan Fei, you are amazing! I admire you so much!" Ximen Yu was laughing happily.

“Excuse me, have you two finished yapping? After all those stuff you two had said, you still have yet to report my capture to the Gu Family. Are you two so sure that you want to deploy these dozens of toys to deal with me?” Chen Hao swept a cold gaze across the men that were aiming their guns at him.

It was like these bodyguards dressed in black who stood in front of him were not adults but children aiming their water guns at Chen Hao, which made him feel like laughing.

“Hmph! Chen Hao, you are still talking big even when you are about to die. Back then, I lost to you because I was careless. It was the biggest disgrace of my life! From that day on, I swore that sooner or later, I will kill you! And now at last, you are finally in my possession!” Duan Fei let out a cough; it was obvious that the injury he suffered from Chen Hao had not completely recovered.

“Besides that, Chen Hao, it is time for the feud between us to come to an end. This time, I will not let you get away!” Ximen Yu roared in laughter.

Chen Hao shook his head and sighed.

Duan Fei's eyes narrowed as he said, "What do you mean by shaking your head? Oh, now I understand. I am only a person who was defeated by you and you look down at my methods of revenge. However, let me tell you this—other than being born with talent in martial arts, I, Duan Fei, am a genius. At the age of six, my intelligence has surged and since then, my intelligence surpasses ordinary people. So to summarize, you were defeated by my wits and I have a hundred ways to kill you!"

"Oh? Your intelligence surged at the age of six? You? Intelligent? I really couldn't tell!"
Chen Hao burst into laughter.

Duan Fei was furious. Just as he was about to order someone to give Chen Hao a few slaps on the face to teach him a lesson, Chen Hao continued, "Forget it. If you release my friend and his family, I shall give you a chance to live. After all, it's not like we have some huge feud and hatred between each other. I have sworn that if anybody dared to hurt my friend, I will kill them. You'll have to die sooner or later, but since you have yet to do anything too severe, I can still spare your lives! Just like what you said, you have talent. If you continue practicing hard, your future in martial arts will be bright. As for Ximen Yu, even though you are stubborn and annoying, I believe it would be great for you to find a husband and live your life peacefully. There is no need for you to die here, let alone die for the sake of the Gu Family!" Chen Hao then sighed.

"Hahahaha!"

"Is this man crazy?"

"Yes, I think so. Now that we have more than a dozen of our guns aimed at his head, if he dared to move even his brows, we'd crush him in an instant! But he's saying that he would consider letting us go? Hahaha!"

Many of the bodyguards were laughing their heads off; it was as if they were looking at an idiot.

"Chen Hao, oh, Chen Hao. I thought you were smart. However, apart from your amazing martial art skills, it seems like you're a real fool. Take a good look at the situation—your friends are in my hands and you have gunpoints aimed at your controlled by an invisible force. Then, the guns were being lifted in to the air and dropped onto the floor in a formation of the word 'four', which sounded like 'die' in Chinese.

All of this happened in an instant!

“What?!”

Everybody was in shock!

The smile on Duan Fei's face suddenly froze...

head. Are you really that stupid?”

Duan Fei roared with laughter.

“Oh right, what did you just say? You will kill anybody who dares to hurt your friends?”

As he said that, Duan Fei pulled out a dagger from his arms and cut Shuixia on the face with a slash.

“Ah!” Shuixia shouted; there was a cut on her cheek.

“Hahaha, does this count as hurting your friend? You can’t even do anything to retaliate! Or should I go even further?”
Duan Fei shook his head and laughed. “So are you still going to kill me now?”

Chen Hao sighed, then said, “I have already given both of you a chance. Why are you both so determined to die? I was not so sure at first, but now it seems like the both of you really think that these few guns can hurt me! Idiots!”

With that, Chen Hao raised his hand and with a wave, the guns in the hands of the twenty-or-so bodyguards seemed to be
