

Chapter 605 The Party Invitation

“Honestly, when he hugged me just now, I was almost moved by him. I even thought that the girl whom he loves is very blessed to have someone who cares for her this much!”

A look of envy flashed across Su Chuchu’s beautiful eyes.

“Alright, alright. Stop immersing yourself in such thoughts, and don’t waste your time thinking about it. I would be more interested to know more about this if he loves you. But for now, let’s think about Young Master Shen’s party tomorrow. I heard that many influential people from Willow City, and even from the Southern Region will show up tomorrow. They even invited a mysterious guest!” Su Ranran said.

“You go ahead. I will not go.” Su Chuchu rejected the invitation firmly.

“Why not? Young Master Shen invited you especially, and he spent so much time chasing after you. I heard from his friends that he is going to confess his love to you tomorrow!”

“I know his motives, which is why I don’t want to go. I’ve already told him that I love someone else, but he is still pestering me. I don’t have any feelings toward him, and I know that he spent so much effort trying to get my attention because he wants something from me. Girls have good intuition; he underestimates girls too much!” Su Chuchu shook her head.

“Even if you say you already have someone you love, he won’t believe you! Unless you manage to find someone who could stand in front of him and show it to him, otherwise he won’t give up! If this drags on any longer, nothing will work out.”

“I know what you mean, but where can I find this ‘someone’? I can’t possibly simply grab anyone, can I?” Su Chuchu shook her head exasperatedly.

Su Ranran also sighed in distress.

She walked to the window and looked outside morosely. She wanted to share her sister’s troubles.

Suddenly, her eyes widened and she said excitedly while jumping, “Ha-ha! I have an idea! To be precise, I’ve found the suitable candidate!”

“What candidate?”

“Look, it’s that beggar! He came to our house again. He’s basically sending himself here!”

Su Chuchu walked to the window and had a look. It really was Chen Hao.

“Why is he here again? I understand what you are going to do, but he has someone he loves, how could we use his feelings? If you’re asking him to pretend to be my boyfriend, it definitely won’t work!” Su Chuchu shook her head.

“Bleh! He has no rights to pretend to be my sister’s boyfriend. How about this? Let me take charge of this matter, and we’ll go to the party like usual tomorrow. I can guarantee that Young Master Shen’s plans won’t work, and our parents will approve of it too!”

Looking at her mischievous sister, Su

Chuchu nodded half-heartedly.

Su Ranran then ran downstairs and yelled at Chen Hao, "Little beggar!"

Chen Hao looked at her. "You're talking to me?"

"Who else is there? Hey, why did you come to our house again? Do you still want to harass her?" Su Ranran asked.

"No, of course not. I just wanted to see Miss Su and apologize to her formally," Chen Hao said hastily.

"Hmph! We don't need your apology! But if you really feel guilty, you can do her a favor tomorrow. By the way, from your accent, are you from the Southern Region?"

"I'm from Jin Ling. What can I do to help you?" Chen Hao asked.

"What? You're from Jin Ling? That's great! You're the perfect candidate then!" Su Ranran jumped happily.

She then calmed down and said, "It's like this—the Shen Family is having a party tomorrow, I want you to send an invitation card to my sister in front of everyone. You only have one line to deliver, and you must let everyone know, especially the host tomorrow—Young Master Shen! So? Are you willing to help her out? If you are willing, my sister will forgive you completely, and she would be very grateful to you,” she said.

Upon knowing this, Chen Hao initially wanted to do something for Su Chuchu so that she could forgive him.

He wouldn't mind giving Su Chuchu a few hundred billions as it was nothing to him.

But he was worried that Su Chuchu would hate him even more if he decided to settle this using money. It was not worth the loss.

After knowing that he just had to do something as simple as this, Chen Hao wouldn't reject it.

“No problem!”

“Good. Before going to the party tomorrow, come to my house early in the morning first. I’ll give you the invitation card to you, and then we’ll follow my plan...”

The Shen Family was a powerful and well known family not just in Willow City, but in the entire Southern Region.

Within Willow City, there were two big families—the Shen Family and the Su Family. According to the local rumors, the Shen Family had a dragon bloodline and had connections everywhere in the country.

Even though the Su Family was also powerful, they were still a rank lower than the Shen Family.

The entire Willow City treated the Shen Family as the leader of the city. Whatever that they did, everyone in Willow City treated them with much dignity and honor.

And today was the most important day in Willow City—the party which the Shen Family had prepared for a year had officially begun.

Chapter 605 The Party Invitation

Early in the morning, the streets on Willow City were flocked by expensive, branded cars.

Everyone from all corners of the world, including some internationally well-known billionaires, came here to witness the most important event.

The location of the party was at the International Hotel of Willow City—the most prestigious hotel in Willow City.

Expensive sports cars from different parts of the world filled the entire basement of the hotel, and a long, red carpet was placed at the entrance of the hotel.

Everyone was very envious of those who could walk on the red carpet. If they could do that, it would be worthwhile to even reduce ten years of their lives in return.

Being one of the locally powerful families, everyone in the Su Family attended the party.

Madam Su dressed up exquisitely today, looking smug with two beautiful daughters behind her.

She also received a report that—apart from the mysterious guest, another big event was going to happen—Young Master Shen would propose to her daughter Chuchu in front of everyone.

This was confirmed to be true.

Once the two families tied the knot today, it would become the greatest news of the day.

Many families which received the news came to congratulate Madam Su.

However, only Ranran was looking for someone and smiled furtively.

Time passed very quickly after they socialized with the rich families from all over the world.

Soon, as it was noon.

The guests began taking their seats in the hall.

Chapter 605 The Party Invitation

There was a tall platform at the top corner of the hall, where many internationally distinguished guests sat.

However, there was a downside to the party.

As everyone was expecting the appearance of the mysterious guest, they were disappointed to hear that the guest had some problems on the way there, so he would be late.

Perhaps to alleviate everyone's disappointed mood, the Young Master of the Shen Family decided to cheer everyone up by using a different method.

His glance fell on the seats of the Su Family.

Madam Su was full of excitement. The moment that she was waiting for her daughter—was it going to happen in advance?

Everyone in the hall quietened down and looked at Young Master Shen curiously.

Chapter 605 The Party Invitation

“Bastard, it’s you!”

The silence, however, was broken by an argument outside.

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

Chapter 606 The Slander

The extremely loud voice belonged to a woman. It seemed like she was arguing with another person outside.

Everyone looked at the entrance automatically.

They saw a woman with thick makeup stopping a young man and scolding him..

“After hitting me, you thought everything would be over just like that? I thought you’ve escaped, and I was trying to find you. Who knew you showed up here on your own? Good! Since you have the guts to attend this party, I will not forgive you today!” The woman glared fiercely at the young man in front of her.

When Su Ranran saw the young man, her expression changed.

They had everything arranged, but now some other problems had occurred.

That’s right, the young man being stopped outside was Chen Hao who came here to deliver the invitation card to Su Chuchu.

Chapter 606 The Slander

According to Su Ranran, he had to deliver it right in front of Su Chuchu before Young Master Shen confessed.

Hence, Chen Hao did not dare to be late.

Early in the morning, he took the invitation card and rushed to the party immediately.

However, he met the woman he slapped yesterday, who was Young Master Guo's girlfriend.

"You better stay away from me. Otherwise, you will regret it!" Chen Hao glared at the woman coldly.

After being glared at by Chen Hao, the woman who was just insulting Chen Hao a while ago suddenly felt a chill running down her spine that shrouded her entire body.

She actually staggered back in fear.

However, this was not enough to extinguish her flame of arrogance.

Looking behind her, her boyfriend and her parents were here.

Hence, she had a lot of confidence this time.

“Dad, mom, he’s the one who slapped me on the streets yesterday, and he almost hit Guo Qiang too! You can ask him if you don’t believe me!” she said.

Guo Qiang said darkly, “Bing’s brother was seriously injured by this man. He’s very skilled, dad!

There was a hint of fear and reverence in his tone.

“Really? It’s such a coincidence today to meet again today.” Guo Qiang’s father smiled icily.

He’s skilled? I’ve seen numerous skilled people, and I’ve been in the martial arts world for half my life. I don’t depend on courage, but on strategy!

“Young man, I heard from Qiang that you came from another city. Perhaps you don’t know about the rules here at Willow City,

Chapter 606 The Slander

but don't be too harsh and cruel. You have to be more careful. You might have entered this city easily, but it's difficult to get out!" He smiled friendly at Chen Hao while speaking, obviously using another way to warn Chen Hao.

"That's right. Don't die without knowing why you're dead! How dare you offend my son?" Guo Qiang's mother looked at Chen Hao disparagingly.

"The clothes that you wear are like a beggar's! People who don't know you might have thought you came here to ask for food. Moreover, how could you bring yourself to come to such events? Have you looked at yourself in the mirror?" she added.

"What's going on?"

The butler from the Shen Family walked out.

Do you know the occasion today? How dare you make a scene here?

The butler had a grim expression on his face.

“Oh, it’s Mr. Shen! No worries, no worries! I’ve just met this young man here and talked to him for a while. I’m really sorry for the trouble caused.”

The woman was trying to say something, but she was stopped by Guo Qiang’s father immediately. He then explained to the butler in an experienced manner.

The butler did not believe that he was just ‘talking’ to the young man.

Since Guo Xing was one of the top guys in Willow City, Mr. Shen didn’t say anything.

“No matter what happens today, the prestige and dignity of the Shen Family is the most important! I believe you understand Master Shen and Young Master Shen’s intentions—if anything happens today, don’t settle it right now. Whoever dares to tarnish the reputation of the Shen Family today will know the consequences!” Mr. Shen warned coldly.

“Of course!”

“As for you, what are you doing here? Do you have an invitation card?” He then looked at Chen Hao disparagingly.

As Chen Hao was dressed like a commoner in the city, he was very different from the people who were from the upper-class society.

Hence, it was natural that he looked down on Chen Hao.

“No, I’m from Jin Ling, and I’m here to hand an invitation card to Young Lady Chuchu of the Su Family.”

“Invitation card? Whose card is it?”

“I’m afraid that I don’t have the liberty to tell you that,” Chen Hao said.

Every word that he was saying was taught by Su Ranran. As for the origin of the invitation card, Chen Hao honestly had no interest in it, so he didn’t look it up.

“Mr. Shen, let him in. Since he’s from Jin Ling, he must have some errands to run here!” Su Ranran suddenly appeared.

Chapter 606 The Slander

According to their plans, she was the one who should bring Chen Hao in.

“Oh, since he’s a friend of the Su Family, come on in! It’s all good then!”

Because of the relationship between Su Chuchu and Young Master Shen, Mr. Shen couldn’t really embarrass him in public.

Su Ranran stuck out her tongue at Chen Hao and made a face before pulling him into the hall.

As it was just a small argument, the atmosphere immediately returned to its original liveliness.

“Just let him go like that? I can’t take this!” Guo Qiang glared at Chen Hao and looked at him grudgingly.

“Don’t worry. Why are you so anxious? I’ve already made some arrangements via the phone just now. I can promise you, after he enters this hall, he will never get out alive!”

A hint of ruthlessness flashed across Guo Xing’s eyes.

Chapter 606 The Slander

Guo Qiang and his girlfriend looked at each other, admiring his father who was skilled in arranging tricks and strategies.

Predictably, when Young Master Shen took a deep breath and was about to begin the event, something cropped up.

A group of people rushed into the hall screaming, "Let us in! We have to catch this thief! We have to!"

Around twenty people who looked like they were vendors protested angrily.

"What are you doing?" The bodyguards tried to stop them but failed.

"B*stards! What's going on?"

With many internationally renowned guests, Young Master Shen's face darkened once he saw them.

"We want to see Young Master Shen! Please uphold justice for us!"

The vendors barged into the hall at once.

Upon hearing this, Young Master Shen gestured to let them in.

“What can I help you with? What happened?” Young Master Shen asked with one hand in his pocket.

“Young Master Shen, the story goes like this—we’re businessmen, but this man here stole our goods and ran all the way here to hide from us. He even hurt a few kindergarten students and left them seriously injured! We want to ask you—why are you keeping a thief here?”

Around twenty of them pointed at Chen Hao angrily.

After hearing their complaints, many people in the hall looked at each other awkwardly,

“I can’t believe this thief sneaked in here! What is the Shen Family doing? Why did they let a thief in here?”

“He even hurt kids who are still in kindergarten. This guy is a beast!”

Everyone's emotions rose rapidly.

As twenty of them came to find one person, no one asked for evidence as no one suspected the authenticity of this matter.

Moreover, Young Master Shen was infamous for being short tempered. Right now, he was being held accountable for judging the morals of the situation. Hence, he would have to perform well.

"What? This happened here? You've done so many wrong doings, and even came to our Shen Family to hide? Do you want to die here?" Young Master Shen glared at Chen Hao frostily.

"No, it's not him!"

Su Ranran had never thought that Chen Hao would be accused by so many people, and even Young Master Shen wanted to kill him.

Hence, she tried to defend him.

Chen Hao, however, looked at the people who accused him coolly. Even though they were dressed in normal clothes, they were sturdy and alert. It was obvious that they had a background in martial arts.

Chapter 606 The Slander

After glancing at the father and son from the Guo Family, Chen Hao then immediately understood what had happened.

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!