

Master Ghost had always been a very resolute and calm man. Besides, he could precisely predict the future, which meant that he would not have thrown away his trusted magic tool just like that. Perhaps, he meant something else?

“Chen Hao, do you think that Master Ghost left it behind on purpose for us to find it? Could it be a signal of distress?” Zhu finally spoke up.

Chen Hao nodded in agreement. “You’ve got a point. Since Master Ghost is able to predict the future, he must have known that we will come and find him—he might even know when we will come! Otherwise, it wouldn’t have been such a coincidence for us to come across his fly whisk just as it was about to be auctioned! Let’s not think about this first. We’ll go to Ji Province College and find the student named Xiao Yan. We’ll find out after we ask him!” said Chen Hao.

“Master, I used to study at Ji Province College. Can I come along with you? It would be easier this way! No matter what, you’d need someone by your side,” said Shen Piaopiao.

“Good idea! Alright then, you can come along with me!”

Soon, they arrived at Ji Province College.

For some inexplicable reason, the campus surroundings reminded Chen Hao of when he first entered college. It had been three years since then. He had also been separated from Su Tongxin for almost three years now. Yet, all the memories were so fresh and clear in his head, as if it had just happened yesterday. Indeed, time had a knack of slipping away quietly when one was least prepared for it.

Meanwhile, Shen Piaopiao had been walking alongside Chen Hao when she noticed how lost he was in his thoughts while looking at his surroundings. She did not bother interrupting him. Instead, she went straight to the School of Business and Administration to look for the student named Xiao Yan. As for Chen Hao, he wandered around the school campus; he felt that every college looked almost the same.

“Hey! Watch out!” Suddenly, a large kite fell from the sky toward Chen Hao’s direction. The girls flying the kite were scared out of their wits, and rushed toward Chen Hao while screaming at him. It was normal to see a kite falling rapidly with nothing stopping it in the absence of the wind. As Chen Hao noticed the falling kite, he raised his finger unconsciously and pointed at it.

“Ah!” The girls ran up to him, only to see their kite completely burned to ashes. They were very annoyed and furious. “What’s the matter you? It’s not like we did it on purpose! Why did you burn our kite?”

There were four girls in total. All of them had slim and slender figures with shoulder-length hair. Each of them looked pretty in their own unique ways. Three of the girls pointed at Chen Hao and scolded him angrily. The last girl was quiet and gentle; she merely stared at the kite with slight disappointment on her face.

Oh god! Chen Hao looked at them apologetically. That was why he preferred to cover up his vital energy; if he used it by accident, it could potentially hurt someone.

“I’m really sorry. I didn’t mean it!” Chen Hao apologized quickly.

“You didn’t mean it? You’re absolutely terrible. Even though the kite almost hit you, you did not have to set it on fire!” Clearly, the girls had no idea how Chen Hao burned their kite. But of course, that was not their main point of concern.

“I’ll compensate you for your loss!” Chen Hao said.

At the same time, the elegant girl standing in the middle of the group was trying to coil up the kite string, but she tripped on a hole in the ground and almost fell down. Just as her face was about to hit the ground, Chen Hao held out his arm immediately, grabbing the girl’s slim waist and helping her to her feet.

“Damn you! What the heck do you think you’re doing? How dare you take advantage of Xue?” The other three girls were already angry with Chen Hao for burning their kite; their anger increased when they saw him taking advantage of their friend in public.

“Xiuxiu, that’s not true!” The girl named Wan Xue was trying to stop her friends from blaming Chen Hao. Regardless, her friends were reluctant to let Chen Hao off the hook after they witnessed such lewd behavior from him.

“Xue, don’t be afraid! You have us here with you. I’ll call someone now—don’t let this dude go so easily!” The girls came together as they decided to teach Chen Hao a lesson.

“It’s not what you think! I almost fell just now, but he saved me by wrapping his arm around my waist!” Wan Xue explained immediately.

“What?” The girls were surprised. Their antagonism toward Chen Hao had slightly decreased, especially Wan Xue. Her beautiful face reddened for seemingly no reason when she looked at Chen Hao.

“Hmph! But he did set our kite on fire, and he needs to apologize for that!” said several of them.

“Alright, I’m sorry!” Chen Hao could not help but smile bitterly.

“Do you think that everything is over after you apologize?” The girl named Xiuxiu folded her arms across her chest.

Wan Xue pulled Xiuxiu's arm and asked, "Xiuxiu, what are you doing?"

"We'll do it this way then. Our kite is very expensive. Do you know what kind of material the kite is made of? The material itself is already worth a few thousand! Judging from your plain clothes, it would be too much to ask from you if you were to compensate us for the kite, right? Since you saved Xue earlier, why don't you buy a cup of milk tea for each of us instead? How's that for compensation?" Xiuxiu suggested.

The girls agreed unanimously.

"No problem!" Chen Hao smiled.

Soon, all four girls got their own cup of milk tea.

"By the way, what's your name? Which department are you from?" Just as the girls were about to leave, Xiuxiu remembered to ask Chen Hao for his name.

"My name is Chen Hao." Chen Hao did not hide his name from them.

“Alright then. I’ll remember you. Let me tell you this—a cup of milk tea isn’t enough to pay us back. If we see you around campus next time, we’ll ask for more milk teas!” Then, Xiuxiu dragged her friends along and left.

It was only a little incident on campus; Chen Hao did not think that it was troublesome in any way. Rather, he felt that those young girls were quite interesting. Suddenly, he remembered why he was there in the first place, and rushed toward the School of Business and Administration building.

On the other hand, the girls had split up and several of them had left. Meanwhile, the girl named Xue kept turning around to catch a glimpse of Chen Hao’s back until he vanished from her sight.

“Xue!” Xiuxiu yelled at Wan Xue suddenly, startling the girl.

“Ah? What’s the matter?”

“Hmph, I knew something was going on just now. Why were you acting so weird when you saw that guy? You were so happy and cheerful moments earlier. But the minute you saw him, you became so shy and blushed without even saying anything. Even now, you have been secretly eyeing him from time to time. Don't tell me you developed a crush on him just because he held you lightly? It's not like that, right?" Xiuxiu and the other girls asked in disbelief.

"No, no, it's not like that. To be honest with you, I don't know why I am feeling this way either. It's just that when I saw him, I-I..." Wan Xue stuttered. She did not know how to describe her feelings.

"I what? Just say it, Xue, come on!" Xiuxiu and the girls asked anxiously.

"Oh, I don't know how to explain myself! Xiuxiu, do you still remember the fortune teller we met about six months ago?"

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

“The fortune teller? Oh, I remember him! It was that old man, the one we met when we went on a trip!”

“Yes, that’s him!” Wan Xue nodded.

“Haha! I remember he said that you’ll meet the love of your life soon; a guy who will make your heart pound rapidly when he touches you.” Xiuxiu recalled fondly. Immediately, her jaw dropped as she stared at Wan Xue in disbelief. “Don’t tell me you have a crush on that guy?”

Looking at her friends’ questioning eyes, Wan Xue nodded shyly before shaking her head. “I’m not sure whether this is the right feeling, but I don’t think he is the one. According to the old man, the love of my life is someone with a unique destiny—someone who is a brilliant martial arts expert with exceptional skills. He is a great man, like a knight in shining armor. However, that guy looks like a gentle young man. Besides, he seems a little weak and skinny too. So, it can’t be him...”

Xiuxiu cleared her throat. “I think so too. I think you were confused about your feelings just now. Indeed, that guy is very good-looking. To be honest, I would want someone like him as a husband and but I wouldn't want him as a boyfriend. Hence, I couldn't help but tease him a little just now. Xue, don't think about it too much, just wait patiently for your knight in shining armor to arrive!" Xiuxiu teased with a laugh.

"Stop laughing at me!"

The girls joked around for a bit and were about to leave.

Wow! Suddenly, a commotion could be heard near the main road of the campus. Instantaneously, many boys and girls gathered around to see what was going on. A luxury car could be seen driving into the campus, and all girls were screaming at the car.

What was happening? Just as Xiuxiu, Wan Xue and the rest of the girls were about to leave, they heard the screams and made their way over there to catch a glimpse themselves. They stopped a student who was on his way to join the crowd and asked him what was going on.

"Haven't you guys heard of Young Master Li? He is the most astounding transfer student ever! He's handsome, comes from a prominent family, and is a very incredible person!" Several students spoke about him as if they were talking about the weather.

"Holy sh*t! In what way is he an incredible person?" Xiuxiu asked.

"I'll try explaining it to you guys briefly. Young Master Li is Li Shaozong. He is very famous, both nationally and internationally. Apparently, he killed a fierce tiger just by pointing his finger at it when he was only twelve years old. He is basically a legend!" The student ran away as soon as he finished explaining to them.

"Holy smoke! He has such an extraordinary presence! Xue, is he similar to the kind of people you saw in your family years ago?" Xiuxiu asked in surprise.

Evidently, to a certain extent, occurrences related to people with extraordinary abilities were no longer a big secret to them.

"I don't think so. My father said that these people prefer to keep their identities confidential, and will stay hidden most of the time. They're not likely to flaunt themselves in public and attract so much attention like that." Wan Xue was very puzzled.

"Hey, Xue!" Xiuxiu exclaimed suddenly. "Do you think it is possible that Young Master Li is the love of your life? You see, he has a prominent family background, and he is a very incredible person with exceptional abilities. Li Shaozong fulfils all the traits, doesn't he?"

Wan Xue lowered her head bashfully after hearing that.

"Haha! Come on, let's have a look at that Young Master Li!"

Soon, Xiuxiu dragged Wan Xue toward the crowd.

Li Shaozong looked like an anime character with his long hair, tall body, and thin frame. However, all of these did not mask the intelligent and sharp look in his eyes. Besides, anyone who read through his profile would be shocked by his unusual yet legendary life experiences.

"It is said that Young Master Li comes from the border of the West Desert. He is the great young master from the prominent Li Family. Furthermore, he received special cultivation training in mountain valleys ever since he was a young boy. Years ago, there were rumors about a boy who practiced cultivation circulating the internet, but the information was soon deleted. It sounded fake that time, but I can't believe it is true after all—the little boy who practiced cultivation really did exist back then.”

“Yeah, the young cultivator, who was very popular on the internet back then, has become a young man now! Why is he here in Ji Province all of a sudden? Surely he did not come all the way here just to study?”

The students were busy gossiping while Wan Xue and the others listened in as well.

However, Li Shaozong was obviously a proud and aloof young man. He did not even cast a glance at the people trying to catch his attention, leaving the crowd with a cold and distant expression on his face.

Naturally, the crowd stopped their chatter after Li Shaozong left.

Could it be him? But something's not right! Wan Xue thought to herself. Although everything about the young man matched the description mentioned by the old fortune teller, Wan Xue did not feel anything special toward Li Shaozong when she saw him.

"Well, well, Miss Wan Xue, what are you thinking about now?" Xiuxiu poked Wan Xue's arm.

"It's nothing!"

"Hahaha, I know what you're thinking even if you don't tell me. Even though the young man is very famous and talented, he is fortunate enough to be the love of our Miss Wan Xue's life. Who knows, maybe you will be of great help to him in his journey of cultivation training!" Xiuxiu said with a smile.

"Alright, that's enough, let's not talk about it anymore. I'm tired, let's go back to the dormitory and have a rest!" As she said that, Wan Xue followed her friends back moodily.

At the same time, Chen Hao and Shen Piaopiao brought a bespectacled, honest-looking boy with them out of the campus.

“That’s interesting!” Chen Hao glanced at Li Shaozong who had walked far away.

“Master, what’s the matter?” Shen Piaopiao asked.

“Nothing’s wrong. I was just wondering; we used to meet a lot of people from all walks of life back when we were studying and working. However, we realize later on that some of those people might not be humans. Rather, they are mortals with extraordinary abilities!” Chen Hao murmured.

“Eh? What do you mean, Master?” It was evident that Shen Piaopiao could not understand what Chen Hao was trying to say, given her current abilities and perspective of the world.

Chen Hao pointed at the young man far away from them. “He is a cultivator too. If we were in the past, I couldn’t have recognized him too!”

“Holy smoke! A cultivator at such a young age?” Shen Piaopiao was surprised.

“Besides, there are a lot of unusual ‘humans’ around the campus. Do you still remember that female student with glasses who showed you the way earlier?” Chen Hao said.

“Yes, I do remember!” said Shen Piaopiao. She had asked a girl for directions to Class Two when she was in the Business and Administration School building. The person Chen Hao was referring to must be her.

Chen Hao nodded and said, “She is one of those unusual mortals. In fact, she has been possessed by the spirit of a rabbit. It lives and studies among normal human beings around us.

Shen Piaopiao covered her mouth in shock.

“You’ll slowly notice these sort of mortals in the future!” Chen Hao said with a smile.

Soon, the trio arrived at a restaurant. Inside a private dining room, Chen Hao ordered a variety of dishes.

“Relax, Xiao Yan, don’t be so nervous. Actually, we don’t mean anything in particular when we came to look for you today!" Chen Hao poured him a cup of fruit juice.

Chapter 746 A Chat

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!