

After a while, it was their turn.

Chen Hao pulled out the Emerald Dragon Jade Amulet from his pocket and passed it to the person in charge in front of him.

The person in charge took the amulet and examined it. Surprised, he stared at Chen Hao in disbelief.

“Please follow me here!”

After he hesitated for a bit, the person gestured for the trio to come with him.

As he finished, he led the trio into Golden Auction Center.

When they were inside, an elderly man wearing a golden crown came out and greeted the trio.

The person in charge passed the Emerald Dragon Jade Amulet in his hand to the elderly man and whispered in his ear.

The elderly man in the golden crown was slightly surprised, and proceeded to observe Chen Hao carefully.

“Where did you get this Emerald Dragon

Jade Amulet from?" Soon, the elderly man in the golden crown snapped out of his daze and asked Chen Hao.

Chen Hao hesitated for a moment before replying, "I got it when I slayed a green dragon during the challenge in the Illusion Realm."

The elderly man in the golden crown became even more surprised and delighted when he heard Chen Hao's answer.

"The Emerald Dragon Jade Amulet is the most precious treasure in the Illusion Realm. No one has ever obtained it before! I can't believe that you had actually slain that green dragon. That is truly incredible!" The elderly man in a golden crown praised Chen Hao.

Upon hearing his words, Chen Hao knew immediately that the Emerald Dragon Jade Amulet was indeed a very valuable object.

"Is it a valuable item?" Chen Hao asked curiously.

"Hahaha!" Chen Hao's question made the elderly man in the golden crown and the person in charge burst out in laughter.

“Valuable? I can tell you that this Emerald Dragon Jade Amulet will be worth a high price of at least several million gold coins in the auction. The only question now is whether you want to auction it off or not!” the elderly man in the golden crown explained to Chen Hao.

Several million gold coins was an incredibly large amount of money; it greatly excited Chen Hao and his friends.

“Alright, I want to auction it off!”

After pondering for a while, Chen Hao agreed to auction off his Emerald Dragon Jade Amulet.

Since they were in dire need of gold coins at the moment, he had to sell his amulet at the auction first. Otherwise, they would have trouble surviving in the Celestial Continent.

“Alright. Since you have agreed to auction it, I must inform you of the rules and regulations at the Golden Auction Center. The center will share the profit of every auctioned item in a 30:70 ratio. To put it simply, the Golden Auction Center will earn 30% of gold coins, while you will get the remaining 70% of gold coins. Do you accept the rules?" The elderly man in the golden crown explained to Chen Hao about the rules of the Golden Auction Center immediately after the latter agreed to auction the amulet off.

Chen Hao turned around to look at Zhou Nuo and Lin Zilan in an attempt to ask for the duo's opinion. When they did not show any signs of objection, Chen Hao nodded in agreement.

"Very well. Will the three of you please follow me to the waiting area? We'll be auctioning your Emerald Dragon Jade Amulet soon!" The person in charge reminded the trio while leading them to a private area. This section was exclusively reserved for the people who sold their items at the auction. This was to allow the sellers to see and hear the real situation at the auction.

Chen Hao and his friends sat down in their seats and waited for the event to begin.

After a few minutes, the auction officially began.

The elderly man in the golden crown went up the stage and announced to the audience below. “Welcome to the auction, our honorable guests. Today, I have some valuable treasures to be auctioned here. Now, allow me to reveal the first treasure for today’s auction—a Phoenix Feather Fan!”

As soon he finished speaking, the elderly man in the golden crown removed the piece of red cloth covering the first item. A golden fan appeared before the eyes of the audience. It was made with real phoenix feathers, and looked simply exquisite.

“The starting price for the Phoenix Feather Fan is 100,000 gold coins. The minimum increment for each bidding is 50,000 gold coins!” The elderly man in the golden crown announced the fan’s bidding price, causing an immediate stir among the audience.

“200,000 gold coins!” The first person who stood up and started bidding was a man dressed in expensive clothing. It was an extravagant bid when he added 100,000 gold coins to the bidding price immediately.

“300,000 gold coins!” As soon as the man in expensive clothes announced his bid, an overweight man from the other side shouted, increasing the price by another 100,000 gold coins.

In fact, it was just a lousy fan. From the trio’s point of view, it could not have been worth that much. Well, it couldn’t be helped anyway; those people were rich, and could do anything with their money.

After several biddings, the Phoenix Feather Fan was finally auctioned off at a high price of 600,000 gold coins. It was sold to the man in expensive clothes who started the opening bid.

There were a total of four valuable items waiting to be auctioned, and Chen Hao’s Emerald Dragon Jade Amulet was the climax of the auction.

Hence, the trio waited for several hours for their item to be auctioned.

Finally, it was time for Chen Hao’s Emerald Dragon Jade Amulet to be auctioned off. The three of them became alert and paid full attention to the auction.

They watched as the elderly man in the golden crown removed the red cloth, revealing the Emerald Dragon Jade Amulet.

“Ladies and gentlemen, this is our final object for today’s auction—the Emerald Dragon Jade Amulet! I’m sure all of you have heard about it before. It is one of the most precious and rarest objects in the world! The starting price is at 3 million gold coins. The minimum increment for each bidding is 1 million gold coins. The bidding begins now!” As soon as he finished speaking, the audience started to bid vigorously.

“5 million gold coins!”

“No, I offer 6 million gold coins!”

“Stop the nonsense! 7 million gold coins, it’s mine!”

Everyone at the auction was bidding like crazy.

Within a few minutes, the price of the Emerald Dragon Jade Amulet had reached 10 million gold coins. Moreover, its price was still increasing without any signs of slowing down.

The bidding finally stopped when it reached a high price of 20 million gold coins. The auction hall quietened down as no one dared to offer a higher bidding price.

20 million gold coins was the limit; the price was much already higher than originally estimated.

“Prince Yuxian has offered 20 million gold coins. It seems like no one else wants to compete with him anymore. Therefore, the Emerald Dragon Jade Amulet now belongs to Prince Yuxian!” The elderly man announced loudly, looking at a young man dressed like royalty. He sat in the front row.

The young man was Prince Yuxian who belonged to the royal family of the Celestial Continent. To him, 20 million gold coins was a small and insignificant price to pay for such a precious treasure.

“Holy smoke, 20 million gold coins! Chen Hao, you have made a huge profit!” Zhou Nuo could not help but gawp at Chen Hao in shock when she saw the hammer price.

Chen Hao did not expect his Emerald Dragon Jade Amulet to be worth such a high price either. What about the Dragon Egg? Wouldn't it be worth more than hundreds of millions then?

However, Chen Hao did not plan on showing the Dragon Egg to anyone just yet. With over ten million gold coins in possession, Chen Hao was not short for cash at the moment.

As soon as the auction was over, the elderly man in the golden crown ordered his men to carry three large crates of gold coins over and placed them in front of the trio. Chen Hao and his friends were dumbfounded by the startling amount of gold coins in front of them—they had never seen such a big pile of gold coins in their entire lives.

Although Chen Hao was once a wealthy man on Earth before, it was his first time seeing all these gold coins.

“Chen Hao, how are we going to carry so many gold coins with us?”

Looking at the heap of gold coins, Zhou Nuo gazed at Chen Hao in confusion.

There were three big trunks of gold coins. It would be strenuous even if they carried one trunk each. Furthermore, if people saw them lugging around such a huge amount of dazzling gold coins, they were surely going to get themselves robbed.

Chen Hao was getting frustrated. He had to think of a solution.

Seeing that Chen Hao and his two friends were facing difficulty, the elderly man in the golden crown decided to help them out.

He took out a small ring and handed it to Chen Hao.

Chen Hao was stunned for a moment as he did not know what the elderly man in the golden crown meant by that. Why would the old man give him a ring?

“What is this?”

“This is a Storage Ring. It has a lot of storage which you can store all of these gold coins inside it. This way, you can transport the gold coins with ease!”

The elderly in the golden crown put on a benign smile while explaining it to Chen Hao.

“I-I can’t take your belongings in exchange for nothing. I will give you one million gold coins as payment for the ring!”

Chen Hao was not the kind of person who accepted handouts. He would feel uneasy if he took people’s handouts without giving anything back to them. Thus, he quickly offered the elderly man one million gold coins.

The elderly man in the golden crown did not turn down his offer because he felt that Chen Hao was an earnest man. After accepting one million gold coins, he handed the ring over to Chen Hao.

As soon as Chen Hao obtained the ring, he put it on before giving it a gentle tap.

Ding!

An empty hole appeared in front of Chen Hao instantly.

Chen Hao immediately relocated the remaining 10.6 million gold coins into the hole, including his backpack.

This Storage Ring, which could also be considered as a treasure, was extremely convenient.

After figuring out the logistics of transporting the gold coins, Chen Hao got ready to leave the place with Zhou Nuo and Lin Zilan.

However, just when the three of them took one step forward, the elderly man in the golden crown blocked their way.

“Hold up, guys! There is someone who would like to meet you!” said the elderly man to the three of them.

Chen Hao, Zhou Nuo, and Lin Zilan were puzzled. They had just arrived at the Celestial Continent not long ago. Who would be wanting to meet them?

After that, the elderly man in the golden crown brought the three of them to a big living hall behind. Prince Yuxian was sitting inside the hall, waiting for their arrival.

Indeed, it was Prince Yuxian who wanted to meet the trio.

Prince Yuxian had bid 20 million gold coins to purchase the Emerald Dragon Jade Amulet. Naturally, he would want to see for himself the man who auctioned off the jade amulet. Who'd have the heart to sell such a precious treasure?

“Guys, this is Prince Yuxian from the royal family of the Celestial Continent. He is the one who bought the Emerald Dragon Jade Amulet!”

The elderly man in the golden crown gazed at Prince Yuxian respectfully as he introduced the prince to the three of them.

Chen Hao looked at Prince Yuxian, but he did not know how he should address the prince. Nonetheless, he was still a prince, and Chen Hao had to show some respect regardless.

“How are you, Prince Yuxian?” Chen Hao greeted Prince Yuxian.

“Were you the one who put the Emerald Dragon Jade Amulet up for auction?” Prince Yuxian stood up before asking Chen Hao with a curious gaze.

Chen Hao nodded his head. “You are right, your Highness. I put it up for auction. The three of us come from the Border Realm. We did not have any gold coins on us, so we decided to sell the Emerald Dragon Jade Amulet!”

“Don’t you know how precious this Emerald Dragon Jade Amulet is?” asked Prince Yuxian, baffled.

Regarding its value, Chen Hao really did not know how precious the Emerald Dragon Jade Amulet was.

Truth be told, if he wasn’t short of gold coins, Chen Hao wouldn’t have auctioned the Emerald Dragon Jade Amulet because he had yet to look into it properly.

However, after hearing what the Prince Yuxian had to say, Chen Hao knew that the Emerald Dragon Jade Amulet was surely a unique treasure.

Chen Hao shook his head. “I don’t. Please enlighten me, Your Highness!”

“This Emerald Dragon Jade Amulet is a symbol of the green dragon. Whoever possesses the Emerald Dragon Jade Amulet will inherit the power of the green dragon, which is the strongest power among the Four Heavenly Beasts!”

Prince Yuxian told Chen Hao everything about the Emerald Dragon Jade Amulet.

After listening to the prince’s revelation, Chen Hao and his two friends were in shock. They did not expect the Emerald Dragon Jade Amulet to have such powers.

Immediately, Chen Hao regretted auctioning the Emerald Dragon Jade Amulet off.

However, there was no turning back now, for he could not take it back anymore. Furthermore, the Emerald Dragon Jade Amulet’s buyer was the prince of the Celestial Continent. He could only admit that he was out of luck.

“Prince Yuxian, this Emerald Dragon Jade Amulet now belongs to you. Even if you tell us every detail about the jade amulet now, we will not have any other intentions. Don't you worry about this!" Chen Hao looked at Prince Yuxian and assured him.

Prince Yuxian stared into Chen Hao's eyes, and he could see that Chen Hao was not lying.

"Very well, I will take your word for it!" Prince Yuxian decided to trust Chen Hao's words.

After a brief chat, Chen Hao and his friends left the Golden Auction Center.

Although Chen Ho felt slightly regretful, there was nothing else he could do. A stone that has been thrown cannot be recovered. On the bright side, they received a huge amount of gold coins in exchange for the jade amulet, which was a great consolation to them; it was still better than nothing.

After obtaining the gold coins, the three of them could finally find a decent place to settle down and have a hearty meal.

With more than ten million gold coins on them, it was enough for the three of them to live comfortably in the Celestial Continent for one whole year.

That night, Chen Hao and Zhuo Nuo shared a room while Lin Zilan slept in another room alone.

Initially, Chen Hao had wanted to sleep by himself. However, Zhou Nuo told him that she was scared of sleeping alone, and wanted Chen Hao to sleep with her. Chen Hao had no choice but to agree reluctantly.

While Chen Hao was sitting in the room, he took the green dragon's egg out from his bag, and put it on the table.

He examined the green dragon's egg closely, wondering if a green dragon would really hatch out of it.

"Chen Hao, do you think a green dragon will hatch from this egg?" asked Zhou Nuo as she walked up to Chen Hao and sat down beside him. She was also staring at the dragon egg curiously.

"It's not entirely impossible. We just don't know when it will hatch!" Chen Hao replied casually.

Crack!

At that very moment, a crisp, cracking sound came from the dragon egg.

Soon after that, more cracks started to appear on the green dragon's egg.

Chen Hao and Zhou Nuo were astounded when they saw it happen. Their eyes went wide as they fixed their gazes on the dragon egg.

The very next second, the dragon egg cracked open. A green dragon stuck its head out from the egg shell; it stared at Chen Hao and Zhou Nuo with its eyes that were as big as Chen Hao's thumb.

"Wow, what a cute little green dragon!"

Zhou Nuo could not hold it in any longer when she saw the baby dragon. She yelled out in excitement—an adorable baby green dragon like it simply melted people's hearts.
