

After that, Qi Xiaoyun pulled out his own wallet and took out banknotes worth a thousand to hand to Chen Hao.

Chen Hao naturally accepted the money readily. That money rightfully belonged to him, so he wasn't bashful about taking it.

Chen Hao then made a gesture at Qi Xiaoyun to indicate that he would be taking his leave before returning to Zhen Ji's side.

Seeing Chen Hao's return, Zhen Ji asked him, "Why are you back?"

"Oh, I'm fine. We just had a simple game and I felt a little tired, so I came back!"
Chen Hao smiled blandly as he explained to Zhen Ji.

Zhen Ji naturally didn't suspect anything and believed Chen Hao. She didn't know what had happened between him and Qi Xiaoyun earlier.

Even if she did, Zhen Ji wouldn't say anything. She'd actually think that Chen Hao did very well.

After another while, Qi Xiaoyun brought over a few bottles of wine and some dice. He directly sat before Chen Hao.

“Chen Hao, buddy. That previous game there hadn’t been fun enough. Why don’t we play something else? What do you say?” Qi Xiaoyun smiled at Chen Hao after he sat down.

Zhen Ji, who sat beside Chen Hao, took a glance at him and couldn’t help but frown. She wondered why Qi Xiaoyun had come for Chen Hao again.

Chen Hao mentally began to laugh. This Qi Xiaoyun was rather a sore loser; he had just lost to Chen Hao, and now he had come knocking on Chen Hao’s door again. He truly didn’t know when to quit.

Since Qi Xiaoyun was being like this, Chen Hao would absolutely not hide his true power anymore. He would play with Qi Xiaoyun properly and let him know how great he was. He wanted to let Qi Xiaoyun know that he wasn’t one to be messed around with this time.

“Sure, no problem. What would you like to play?” Chen Hao immediately agreed after a brief pause. He smiled at Qi Xiaoyun as he asked this.

Upon hearing Chen Hao's answer, Qi Xiaoyun instantly brought out the dice that he had been holding and placed them in front of Chen Hao.

"Dice then. You played this before?" Qi Xiaoyun asked him.

Chen Hao inclined his head slightly and replied, "Yep, I've played a bit!"

"That's good. I won't be explaining the rules to you then. So, we will still have to bet. 500 bucks for one match—what say you? I trust that you won't miss such a little bit of money. Besides, you just won 1000 bucks from me!" Qi Xiaoyun said to Chen Hao. He was well and utterly disgruntled with Chen Hao, so he had to get back the pride he had just lost.

He had been too careless earlier. For this upcoming game, he had wisened up; he was sure to crush Chen Hao completely.

"Sure, alright. Since you brought this up, I'll have to agree!" Chen Hao didn't have any protests as he cheerfully agreed to the match.

Zhen Ji stared at Chen Hao in surprise from where she sat. She reached out and gently tugged at Chen Hao's shirt.

"Chen Hao, don't do anything reckless!" Zhen Ji whispered a reminder to him.

Chen Hao casted a reassuring look at Zhen Ji.

"Relax, I'll be fine. I know my limits!"

"That's right Zhen Ji, you have to trust Chen Hao!" Qi Xiaoyun said to Zhen Ji as well.

Zhen Ji didn't continue that line of conversation after that. All she could do was to stay quiet. She trusted Chen Hao's words that he wouldn't behave rashly.

With that, Qi Xiaoyun passed the dice to Chen Hao.

Chen Hao took the dice and began to shake them.

Chen Hao had played games of dice before, so he was already familiar and practiced with it. He wasn't afraid of playing with Qi Xiaoyun.

In addition to that, Chen Hao also had a skill that no one else knew of—he could tell the dice faces apart by listening to the dice.

This wasn't something anyone could do; only Chen Hao knew how to.

That was why Qi Xiaoyun was a little too much of an amateur for wanting to play with him. It was impossible for him to match up against Chen Hao.

After the two of them had shaken their dice for a while, they placed the dice on the table and covered them.

“Chen Hao, you go first!” Qi Xiaoyun offered as he smiled at Chen Hao, allowing Chen Hao to call out his guess.

Naturally, Chen Hao accepted. He immediately called out, “Three sixes!”

“Four sixes!”

Chen Hao had just finished announcing his guess when Qi Xiaoyun called out his own; he had guessed one extra six than Chen Hao.

Chen Hao mulled over the sounds he had just heard. He knew that Qi Xiaoyun definitely only had two sixes, while he himself also had two sixes. Thus, he most definitely couldn't reveal his hand. The only way out would be to lose a few games on purpose and let Qi Xiaoyun crow about it first. That way, Chen Hao would be able to go against Qi Xiaoyun better.

"Five fives!" Chen Hao immediately called out again after thinking his plan through. This time, he had decided on different numbers.

Qi Xiaoyun couldn't help but show an eerie smile when he heard Chen Hao say that.

"Reveal the dice!" Qi Xiaoyun exclaimed, choosing to see Chen Hao's dice.

With no other way, Chen Hao could only reveal his dice.

At a glance, neither of their dice totaled up to five fives. There were only three fives, so that meant that Chen Hao lost this round.

Of course, this was all within Chen Hao's plan. He had done this on purpose.

“Chen Hao, buddy, I’m sorry, but you lost!”
Qi Xiaoyun said to Chen Hao.

Chen Hao wasn’t bothered. It was just 500 bucks anyway. He would just give back the money he had won to Qi Xiaoyun anyway.

Returning the money that Qi Xiaoyun had just lost to him... This was indeed an extremely ironic thing.

Chen Hao pulled out 500 bucks and handed the money to Qi Xiaoyun. Qi Xiaoyun readily accepted the 500 bucks, as though he was deathly afraid that someone would snatch it.

It was clear as day that Qi Xiaoyun valued money as much as he valued his life.

“Chen Hao, let’s continue!” Qi Xiaoyun urged Chen Hao, having experienced the sweet taste of victory.

“Okay!” Chen Hao immediately agreed.

And with that, the two of them picked up the dice and began to shake them again.

After shaking the dice for a few seconds, they then placed the dice onto the table, hiding the dice faces.

“Why don’t you go first again, Chen Hao? You lost the last round!” Qi Xiaoyun still let Chen Hao be the first one to call out the dice values.

Chen Hao immediately cried out, “Three fives!”

Chen Hao could already tell that Qi Xiaoyun had two threes and three fives from listening to all that shaking from beginning till the end.

Chen Hao, on the other hand, had two fives and three threes, which was the exact opposite of Qi Xiaoyun.

Chen Hao still chose to lose to Qi Xiaoyun for this round.

“Four fours!”

Qi Xiaoyun announced a guess that neither of them actually had.

In truth, Chen Hao really wished to get Qi Xiaoyun to reveal his hand now, but he stifled the urge.

Chapter 883 Another Game

Chen Hao didn't want to make Qi Xiaoyun lose this quickly. He should at least play a few more games first, and let Qi Xiaoyun get high on the elation of victory.

That way, Chen Hao would be able to defeat Qi Xiaoyun later without much effort.

“Five 4’s!” shouted Chen Hao after a moment of hesitation.

“I’ll check yours!”

As soon as Chen Hao shouted, Qi Xiaoyun immediately decided to count the points of Chen Hao’s dice.

Upon hearing his decision, Chen Hao was not surprised at all. In fact, he was actually delighted because it was all going according to plan. He was waiting precisely for Qi Xiaoyun to check his dice.

Chen Hao revealed the points of his dice willingly.

“So sorry, buddy. I’m still winning. It seems like you still have much to learn about this game!”

Seeing how Chen Hao had lost the game again, Qi Xiaoyun pretended to be sorry. However, his words were dripping with sarcasm.

At that moment, Qi Xiaoyun was completely immersed in the elation of winning. In his eyes, Chen Hao was no match for him.

“I’ll concede defeat,” Chen Hao said simply before taking out 500 again and passing it to Qi Xiaoyun.

Qi Xiaoyun’s face was overcome with delight.

Standing at the side, Zhen Ji looked at Chen Hao when she witnessed his defeat.

“Chen Hao, I think we should call it quits if it isn’t working!” suggested Zhen Ji in concern. They had already lost 1000 now.

Although 1000 was insignificant to them, 500 for a game would still add up to an insurmountable amount if they continued to lose.

“Don’t worry, Zhen Ji. Just wait and see. The game has just started. Besides, the money I lost was all originally won from him before this. I haven’t even forked out my own money yet!” Chen Hao explained to Zhen Ji.

Upon hearing his explanation, Zhen Ji did not say anything more.

The duel between Chen Hao and Qi Xiaoyun continued.

At that moment, it was the time for Chen Hao to unleash his skills. Since the 1000 had been returned to Qi Xiaoyu, he could now go all out to defeat him.

Soon, both of them shuffled the dice again.

This time, Chen Hao only shuffled once before he stopped.

“Buddy, you can go first as usual!” Qi Xiaoyun told Chen Hao again.

In this game, Chen Hao had figured out by the sound that Qi Xiaoyun had four 4’s and one 3 on his dice. He himself had four 2’s and one 5.

“Three 2’s!” shouted Chen Hao after that.

Upon hearing Chen Hao’s points, Qi Xiaoyun instantly shouted, “Three 5’s!”

“I’ll check that!”

This time, Chen Hao would not let Qi Xiaoyun win. Therefore, he took the initiative to check his dice.

这让齐霄云顿时哑然一惊，他没想到陈灏竟然会直接选择开自己。

This made Qi Xiaoyun utterly shocked as he did not expect Chen Hao to check his dice.

Leaving him with no choice, Qi Xiaoyun revealed his dice.

At the same time, Chen Hao did the same too.

“So sorry, Xiaoyun. I have only one 5, so you lost!” Chen Hao informed Qi Xiaoyun calmly.

Qi Xiaoyun could not believe what he was seeing. He had never imagined that he would lose, and to lose so simply and quickly.

“Fine. I’ll concede defeat. Here’s 500!”

Although he was unwilling, he still passed the 500 to Chen Hao. He did not even get to hold this 500 for long before he had to give it away again.

Anyway, this was just the beginning. The climax had yet to come and Chen Hao would not allow Qi Xiaoyun to lose just 500.

“What do you say, Xiaoyun? Do you want to continue the game?” asked Chen Hao while looking at Qi Xiaoyun with an amusing expression.

Obviously, Qi Xiaoyun would not admit defeat that easily. Of course he decided to continue.

“Of course, we have to continue. It’s only been a few games. Buddy, I won’t go easy on you from now on!” Qi Xiaoyun readily agreed to continue the game, repeating the sentence he said before to Chen Hao.

Chen Hao’s ears were almost worn out from hearing that. He felt that Qi Xiaoyun was too overconfident.

The more confidence he had, the more arrogant he would be. In the end, the consequences would often be dire.

After that, both of them immediately picked up the dice again and rapidly shuffled them in their hands.

Chen Hao only shuffled it twice before he put it down while Qi Xiaoyun shuffled for a long time.

Even so, Chen Hao still figured out the points on Qi Xiaoyun's dice by their sound. It didn't matter how long he shuffled the dice because the sound could not escape Chen Hao and his superb hearing ability.

Of course, Chen Hao's hearing ability was incomprehensible to Qi Yunxiao.

"Buddy, it's my turn this time!" Qi Xiaoyun reminded Chen Hao after putting down his dice.

Whoever lost would be the first to guess the points. Chen Hao knew this rule clearly.

But so what if Qi Xiaoyun had the first call? He would never win anyway. He was just struggling in vain.

With his ears, Chen Hao discerned that the points on Qi Xiaoyun's dice were three 6's, one 5 and one 4 in this game.

In other words, Qi Xiaoyun had lousy points in this game, causing his chance to win to be even slimmer.

"Three 2's!" Qi Xiaoyun shouted.

This surprised Chen Hao. He did not expect Qi Xiaoyun to be this daring and call out a number that he did not have on his dice. It seemed like he was trying to trick him.

Needless to say, Chen Hao would not let him have his way.

However, Chen Hao did not choose to check him straight away because it would be too obvious.

“Three 5’s!” Instead, Chen Hao called out the points he had on his dice.

Qi Xiaoyun would definitely not have the guts to check him with this number. After all, there was a huge possibility that they had three 5’s.

“Four 4’s!” very soon, Qi Xiaoyun shouted again.

“Check!”

As soon as Qi Xiaoyun finished his call, Chen Hao chose to check him immediately.

Well, Chen Hao could not be blamed. Since he did not have any four and so happened that Qi Xiaoyun called four of four, when would he check him if not now?

Upon hearing Chen Hao's decision, Qi Xiaoyun was stunned for a while before he revealed his dice.

Upon checking, he realized that Chen Hao had no four and he himself only had one. This meant that he lost.

At once, Qi Xiaoyun's face became sullen. He did not expect things to turn out this way. He had fallen for his own trap again.

"Oops, so sorry, Xiaoyun. I won again," Chen Hao said to Qi Xiaoyun while pretending to be embarrassed.

Although Qi Xiaoyun was displeased, there was nothing he could do. After all, Zhen Ji and Gu Ruoting were sitting and watching them from the side, so he had to acknowledge the results.

With no choice, Qi Xiaoyun took out the last 500 of the 1000 which he had won from Chen Hao just now from his wallet and handed it to Chen Hao.

Chapter 884 Concede Defeat

What was the best phrase to describe this? It was returning the property to its rightful owner.

“Xiaoyun, I think we should end the game. Playing for too many rounds would not be worth it!” After receiving the money, Chen Hao suggested to Qi Xiaoyun with a smile.

Did you think that Chen Hao was speaking out of kindness?

No, no! That would be overthinking. Chen Hao only said that to provoke Qi Xiaoyun.
