

Chapter 781: Poisoning

Director Wang said hatefully, "I really wanted to kill those people to vent my anger! I really don't understand why there are such scumbags in this world! They possess wealth that most people could only dream about in their lives, but they do things that make them even worse than animals!"

Director Wang pressed her hand against her chest as though she was trying to soothe the pain in her heart.

Song Ning silently pulled Director Wang's hand down and inserted a needle between Director Wang's thumb and index finger. Then, she said, "Senior sister, you haven't gotten your revenge yet so you have to stay calm."

Director Wang looked at Song Ning, regaining her composure. She silently adjusted her emotions before she said, "Gao Xue had plastic surgery because she was worried her appearance would make them wary of her. She took on the identity of a young miss of a wealthy family, who had been studying abroad and was oppressed by her stepmother. She blended in with that group of animals. She partied every night and used her charm to attract those rich kids. Then, she slowly poisoned them."

"Gao Xue has a Ph.D. in biochemistry. She had a bright future ahead of her, but in the end, she used all her knowledge to research and create the drug she needed. How could she allow those who harmed her sister to be free and unfettered? She wanted them to become impotent, unable to have descendants. Then, she planned to slowly poison them so they would die a horrible death..."

Director Wang's eyes were bloodshot, and her expression was fierce.

Song Ning felt extremely sad. In just one night, Director Wang's life changed. No one other than Director Wang could truly empathize with Gao Xue. Song Ning knew she could never understand how Director Wang and Gao Xue felt.

There was no way to ease Director Wang's hatred. After all, there was no way for her husband and daughter to return to her. Moreover, the only daughter she had left had also chosen to embark on the path of no return, changing her face for the sake of revenge.

Director Wang sneered before she said, "Gao Xue is a genius. She let those people live and made them suffer. She told me she wanted them to live in hell, unable to crawl out of it forever. That's what she said to me..."

"Not long after, a patient with testicular cancer was admitted to our hospital. At that time, I was already aware of Bai Yu and Director Li's matter, and I was inspired. Hence, when I treated the patient, I directly told the patient about the worst outcome. However, unlike Director Li, I treated him and gave him the best medicine. When he was on the rise, I'd use the drug Gao Xue developed to make the symptoms worse before treating him again..."

This time, Song Ning's hair stood on end when she heard this. However, she found it difficult to judge Director Wang's actions since she did not go through the hardships and heartbreaks that Director Wang did. After a moment, she asked softly, "Is that what you're doing to Yin Zheng and Yin Jian?"

"Them? No, this is too good for them," Director Wang said frostily, "Those two are the heirs of the Yin family. To deal with two of them, we have to make them lose everything as well. Hence, Gao Xue charmed them and made them fall head over heels for her. However, she drugged them every night they stayed over. Then, she hired those girls with diseases to sleep with them, infecting them. She also took blood samples from them, tampering with the virus in their bodies so they would not show signs of having STDs. This way, they would not be suspicious. When the time was right, she deliberately exposed her relationship with both of them, causing the two cousins to turn against each other. She made them think that she was in love with them and that she was coerced by the other cousin. In fact, this method is quite common..."

Chapter 782: Allies

"While I was still worried about Gao Xue, the duo's illnesses flared up. The Yin family naturally hired famous doctors to treat them. I felt like the time was right so I asked Gao Xue to withdraw immediately and send her overseas to ensure her safety. Then, I took over the two cousins' treatment."

"The Yin family and I didn't fall out. They assumed I'm unaware of what they'd done. They thought that I was still treating them sincerely even after they harmed me. To return the favor, I took charge of Yin Zheng and Yin Jian's treatment. The Yin family didn't suspect me, and they even obediently looked for kidney and bone marrow donors."

"If they managed to use their filthy money and buy the organs, I wouldn't mind letting them undergo the transplants. I feel happy when I think about how they would be using their money to pay for their own suffering. After the transplants, I planned to let them live a life worse than death, wandering in the depths of hell. They have to live. Only if they live would they suffer. The hatred in my heart can only be resolved when I see their retribution."

Song Ning held Director Wang's hand. They both did not speak for a long time.

Director Wang, who seemed like she had aged over the time she told the story, finally broke the silence and asked, "Song Ning, did I scare you?"

Song Ning shook her head gently. "Senior sister, you've suffered."

Director Wang's eyes lit up as she asked tentatively, "Then, are you willing to help me?"

Song Ning looked at Director Wang and said, "Senior sister, the person the Yin family wants to harm is my husband's younger brother, my grandma's beloved grandson. I'll help you and help my brother-in-law, but senior sister..."

Director Wang raised her hand to stop Song Ning. Then, a tired smile appeared on her swollen-from-crying face as she said, "I only want you to stand on my side. I don't want you to harm people with your medical skills. I can do that alone. I didn't expect this matter would implicate innocent people. Now that situation is spiraling out of control, I need your help to keep unnecessary people from getting involved."

This grudge is between me and the Yin family; only I can resolve it. Those whom Gao Xue poisoned deserve to die; we didn't hurt the innocent. I'll only seek revenge from those who are related to the matter."

Song Ning could not help but feel touched. She thought that Director Wang had been completely blinded by hatred. She did not expect Director Wang was still clear-headed. She nodded immediately and said, "Alright, senior sister. I'll definitely do my best to deal with this matter. Is Gao Xue safe now? If you trust me, you can tell me about her situation. I'll ask my husband to send people to protect her immediately. Revenge shouldn't be the only thing in her life. She has to live well for her sister, don't you think so?"

Upon hearing Song Ning's words, Director Wang straightened her back and nodded repeatedly. "That's right, that's right. Song Ning, you just spoke the words in my heart. I've long seen through life and death. For me, from the day I lost my husband and daughter, I'm just an empty shell. My soul has long gone with them. However, Gao Xue is different. She's still young. If it weren't for this incident, she would've had a bright future ahead of her. If, if you can help me protect her, in my next life, I'll repay you even if I have to work like a horse or an ox."

Chapter 783: Report

After Director Wang finished speaking, she moved to kneel to Song Ning.

Song Ning hurriedly pulled Director Wang up and said, "Senior sister, don't be like this. I don't want you to repay me. I only want you to live well. Even if you don't bring honor to our profession, you can't sully it as well. There are certain things in life that must be done; there's no right or wrong. I'm sure our teacher will understand you. Now, the most important thing is to deal with what's about to happen and what's happening now."

After that, Song Ning persuaded Director Wang to take a nap on the couch. She also performed acupuncture on Director Wang. Director Wang had been planning her revenge for such a long time, and her emotions were abnormal and unstable. Director Wang was only living now fueled by her desire for revenge.

After Director Wang fell asleep, Song Ning turned on the monitor again. Upon seeing Yin Zheng and Yin Jian, she was filled with disgust and hatred.

The two young men looked extremely bored in their respective rooms. They spent their time watching movies, playing games, and doing filthy things. She really did not want to look at those two scumbags. She really did not understand what Old Master Yin was thinking. She wondered if he was blind. To think he wanted to use Cheng Che's life to exchange for the lives of those two beasts who deserved to die.

After a while, Song Ning walked out of the room, gently closed the door, and found a quiet place. After making sure there were no surveillance cameras, she called Mu Chen.

Mu Chen and Cheng Che were extremely anxious.

Cheng Che had brought people to S City a few times now. He could bear the thought of his sister-in-law risking her life for him.

Even if Mu Chen could keep his cool, it was slowly eroded by Cheng Che's anxiety. After all, the person risking her life was his most beloved wife.

After listening to Song Ning recounting Director Wang's story, Mu Chen and Cheng Che could not help but feel surprised. The information they gathered so far was just like a drop of water in the ocean. They did not expect the seemingly clumsy Yin family to be so scheming. Most importantly, the Yin family was more insidious than they had imagined.

Song Ning said, "Mu Chen, the most important thing now is to send people to protect Gao Xue. It's fine if the Yin family is unaware of her involvement in the matter. However, if they grow suspicious, Gao Xue will be the first to bear the brunt of their wrath. We have to protect her first."

"Alright, I'll get to it immediately," Mu Chen replied.

Song Ning took a deep breath before she called out, "Cheng Che." Then, she said calmly, "You're really lucky that you grew up by Grandma's side. Although you don't have your parents, you have many happy things to replace them. Don't pity yourself or complain. Just like Grandma said, everything happens for a reason. You must always remember that even if your blood relatives betray you, you still have Grandma, your brother, sister-in-law, and Jiahui. We'll always be a family."

"I understand, sister-in-law," Cheng Che said, holding back his tears.

Song Ning could not help but feel sorry for Cheng Che.

Cheng Che cleared his throat before he said again, "Sister-in-law, I'm going to S City in the afternoon. Don't worry. Brother is accompanying me so I won't be at a disadvantage. I also won't let anyone take advantage of me."

"Alright, I'll protect myself as well so don't worry, both of you," Song Ning said. She knew Cheng Che was most worried about her safety and that he did not want anyone to risk their lives for him.

Song Ning, who was standing in the beautiful and lush garden, could not help but sigh inwardly. Compared to the Yin family, she felt that the things she had experienced since she was young were truly insignificant. Indeed, human nature was the worst.

Chapter 784: The Table Has Turned

When Guan Tang heard that Cheng Che had decided to return to S City with them, she was elated and excited. She was confident she would be able to capture Cheng Che's heart once they were in S City. Even if Cheng Che decided to bring Jiahui with them, it did not matter because she had 1,000 ways to make Jiahui disappear from Cheng Che's life in S City. Naturally, it was still best if Jiahui did not come with Cheng Che. However, she could only depend on Yin Yi regarding this matter.

However, before Guan Tang could speak to Yin Yi, she met Jiahui. Clearly, Jiahui was waiting for her.

Jiahui greeted with a smile, "Hello, Guan Tang."

Guan Tang was taken aback. "It's, it's you?"

Jiahui's smile widened. "Why? You don't want to see me?"

Guan Tang quickly shook her head and avoided Jiahui's gaze as she said, "No, no, no. I, I have an appointment with Yin Yi."

Jiahui stepped forward and grabbed Guan Tang's hand before she said, "I came to look for you because I found a good place. There are some good things that are the most suitable for you. Let's go and have a look together?"

Guan Tang tried to struggle free from Jiahui's grip, but Jiahui refused to let go.

Jiahui said with a meaningful smile, "What? Are you worried that I'll harm you? What can I do to you in broad daylight?"

Guan Tang looked around furtively and noticed that no one was paying attention to them. In the end, she had no choice but to get into Jiahui's car. Unexpectedly, Jiahui drove to her house and led her to the house next door.

Guan Tang was in a daze as Jiahui opened the door and gently pushed her inside.

Upon seeing the room inside, Guan Tang stopped breathing for a moment. She instinctively turned around to leave but was stopped by Jiahui. Moreover, Jiahui had also already closed the door.

"Why are you in such a hurry to leave? I haven't shown you anything yet?" Jiahui asked, still smiling, "What do you think? What do you think of this place compared to yours? I renovated it strictly according to the measurements of your room. I strove perfection in every detail," Jiahui said as she looked at Guan Tang smugly.

Guan Tang's face was ashen, and her palms were sweaty. She forced herself to say, "Jia, Jiahui, I don't understand what you mean by this..."

Jiahui nodded. "I knew you wouldn't admit it. Fortunately, I have evidence." Then, she grabbed the remote control and turned on the television.

On the screen, Guan Tang said arrogantly, "Trust me, your man will definitely fall for me. Cheng Che is mine. You can stay here for the rest of your life. Initially, I planned to kill you, but now, I feel like it's best to let you watch as your man's heart changes. I want you to see how loving he is to me. So, I'll keep you alive to witness my success."

Guan Tang fell to her knees immediately with a thump. She pleaded, "Jiahui, please, please spare me..."

Jiahui did not step forward to help Guan Tang up. She only said, "Hey, what are you doing? Stand up and speak properly."

Guan Tang did not get up. She continued kneeling and joined her palms together as she continued to say, "Please spare me. Please, Jiahui."

Jiahui sat down on the chair by the door before she said, "Spare you? When you imprisoned me, you didn't think about sparing me, right? You only kept me alive so you could show off your success, right?"

“Yes, yes, everything you say is right! You’re right. Please spare me! Please!” Guan Tang continued to beg anxiously.

Jiahui knew what Guan Tang was like so she was too lazy to waste words with Guan Tang. She only said slightly impatiently, “Enough. Stop acting. Get up and talk.”

Guan Tang stood up in trepidation and carefully sat across from Jiahui.

Chapter 785: Threats

“Tell your people to withdraw. If anything happens to me, if no one hears from me for three hours, your videos will be spread all over the Internet. They include the things you said about the Yin family. You should consider whether you can afford to bear their wrath,” Jiahui said solemnly.

Guan Tang’s face paled further as she looked at Jiahui in shock and disbelief.

Jiahui said calmly, “Why are you shocked? I dealt with that person you sent to assassinate me. It’s better if you don’t ask me about his whereabouts. If anything happens, that person will become a witness in court. What do you think? Is it hard to believe? You better accept the reality. This is M City, not S City. The Yin family can control the sky in S City, but not here. Cheng Che has to go to S City to formally return to the family so how can I not set up a layer of defense to protect myself first? Right, Guan Tang?”

Guan Tang remained silent. Her brain was working overtime now, trying to think of a countermeasure.

Jiahui smiled and said, “You don’t have to think about it anymore. I have recordings of everything that you did to me back then.”

“How did you get the recordings?” Guan Tang could not help but ask.

Jiahui’s smile was especially sweet as she said, “Well, that’s not something you need to know. I already told you. This is M City. It’s my territory. You can’t beat me here.”

“Then, what do you want me to do?” Guan Tang asked tentatively.

Jiahui tilted her head slightly and said, “Guarantee Cheng Che’s and my safety in S City...”

“Are you kidding? How am I going to do that?” Guan Tang protested.

Jiahui reached out and patted Guan Tang’s shoulder as she said, “You can do it. Since you’re able to find people in M City to deal with me, I’m sure you’ll be able to protect me when I’m in S City.”

“I didn’t. That’s Yin Yi...” Guan Tang suddenly stopped speaking. As soon as these words came out of her mouth, she instantly regretted them.

Jiahui was very satisfied with this reaction. She said, “Both of you really have a deep sisterly relationship. In any case, I don’t care about the details. I have your weakness in my hands now. Think about it. You imprisoned me for so long. It’s impossible to do bad things without having to pay the price. Guan Tang, you’re an adult now. You don’t need me to teach you everything, do you?”

Guan Tang’s face was ashen as she stared at Jiahui.

Jiahui smiled. "I know what you're thinking. You think that someone like me should've done things in an open and aboveboard manner, right? In my life, I ate it the most when people try to label me and put me in a box. There's no rule saying good people have to be bullied by wicked people, unable to retaliate. Sometimes, you have to be wicked to deal with wicked people. I actually don't mind being wicked. It's quite interesting. I'm not a kind person to begin with. Guan Tang, you imprisoned me for half a month. I didn't report it to the police, but it doesn't mean I'm willing to let the matter go. You have to understand this."

When Jiahui and Guan Tang arrived at the Yin family home together, everyone looked at them in a daze.

Cheng Che stepped forward and held Jiahui's hand, asking her to sit next to him.

Jiahui bowed gracefully to the elders of the Yin family and said, "I came late because I had an appointment with Guan Tang."

Everyone looked at Guan Tang.

Guan Tang tried her best to smile naturally as she said softly, "I was chatting with Jiahui and lost track of time."

Old Master Yin said to Guan Tang, looking greatly satisfied, "You child, you're really the most sensible person I've ever seen."

Meanwhile, Yin Yi stared at Guan Tang, looking as though her eyes were going to pop out of their sockets.

Guan Tang did not look at Yin Yi and silently took a seat next to Guan Ning.

Ye Cheng raised an eyebrow slightly as he looked at Guan Tang, whose eyes were slightly narrowed.

Chapter 786: Meeting

Yin Jia took in the interaction between the two of them without batting an eyelid.

Old Madam Yin smiled and said, "We've been here so long, and the matter has finally been settled. Should we visit Old Madam Mu? We should thank her for raising Cheng Che for so many years."

Old Master Yin's expression darkened immediately, and no one dared to say anything upon seeing this.

Cheng Che said bluntly, "No need. Grandma doesn't care about the outside world. She only wants to stay at home and accompany her great-grandson. I've already told her about my decision, and she respects my decision. After all, she's always doted on me."

Upon hearing this, Old Master Yin said, "We can't be rude. Before leaving, make the arrangements for me to visit your grandma."

Cheng Che was about to speak up again when Old Madam Yin said, "What's wrong, Eldest Young Master? Old Master only wants to visit Old Madam Mu. Although they used to have conflict, they're old friends after all. Now that such a long time has passed and you're all grown up, the conflict should be gone, right? Old Master?"

Old Master Yin did not say anything.

Jiahui tightened her grip slightly around Cheng Che's hand before Cheng Che said, "Very well. Then, let's set the appointment on Saturday. Grandma will be at home all day."

Old Master Yin was slightly surprised. "You... Don't you have to discuss this with her first?"

Cheng Che shook his head. "No need. Grandma won't refuse. After all, she trusts me a lot and respects the choices I make."

Old Master Yin fell deep into his thoughts while Yin Bin and Guan Ning could not help but exchange a look. All of them did not expect Cheng Che to be able to make such decisions in the Mu family.

Old Master Yin rubbed his forehead and finally said, "Alright, then it's settled. I'll go and rest for a while."

Everyone knew Old Master Yin's old ailment was acting up so they quickly rose to their feet, preparing to leave.

However, Jiahui asked, "Grandfather, do you have a headache?"

Old Master Yin closed his eyes and replied curtly, "Mmm."

Jiahui asked, "Why don't you let me have a look, Grandfather?"

Everyone looked at Jiahui with a strange expression.

As Jiahui walked toward Old Master Yin, Cheng Che said, "Grandfather, why don't you let Jiahui take a look?"

Old Master Yin opened his eyes and looked at the person standing in front of him skeptically before he said, "No need. I'll be fine after resting."

Cheng Che said, "Grandfather, nothing's more important than your health. Jiahui is a doctor. Let her have a look. It'll be great if she can treat you. Otherwise, you'll have to go to the hospital for a more thorough check-up."

Cheng Che's attitude was very gentle when he spoke.

Old Master Yin, who was slightly moved, nodded slightly in agreement.

Jiahui sat down and checked Old Master Yin's pulse.

Upon seeing this, the others naturally returned to their seats, intending to watch a good show.

Jiahui concentrated on checking Old Master Yin's pulse. After checking the pulse on both wrists, she got up and moved to stand behind him before she began to massage his head and shoulders.

Old Master Yin's eyes were closed the entire time.

However, everyone could tell from Old Master Yin's expression that was gradually relaxing that Jiahui had managed to ease Old Master Yin's pain. With that, their gazes toward her changed immediately.

Perhaps, they were too focused on Jiahui, no one noticed that Ye Cheng and Guan Tang had silently left the room. By the time Yin Jia discovered their absence, Guan Tang had already returned to the room. Upon seeing this, she left the room to look for Ye Cheng and found him smoking and talking on the phone on the balcony. When she walked over, she heard him say, "Alright! Brother, this is an important matter. If I can't go back with Yin Jia, my marriage might be ruined! Do you really have the heart to do this to me? Think about it. It's not easy for me to find such a good partner. This is a blessing from God. If I don't cherish it, I'll be struck by lightning. If you don't help me with my work this time, you'll also be struck by lightning! Heh, that's right! You're my best brother! Thank you! Alright, alright, I owe you a favor this time."

Chapter 787: Eavesdropping

Ye Cheng turned around and saw Yin Jia. He smiled at her before he continued to say on the phone, "Alright, I promise you. If you have any problems in the future, I'll help you. Alright, alright, I promise."

After ending the call, Ye Cheng asked Yin Jia, "Why are you here?"

Yin Jia smiled and did not answer his question. Instead, she asked, "Is your work delayed because you're going home with me?"

Ye Cheng smiled and put his arm around her shoulders before he said, "Even if my work is delayed, I still want to go home with you. There are priorities, after all."

Yin Jia looked to the left and right before she asked, "Did you see Guan Tang earlier?"

Ye Cheng nodded. "I saw her. She seems like she's in a bad mood. It must be due to Cheng Che. How pitiful. Everyone loves Cheng Che, but he's a very loyal person. Guan Tang's destined to be disappointed."

Yin Jia smiled faintly and said, "That's because she doesn't have the ability. If she were able to move Cheng Che, our entire family would've been very willing to see them get married. No matter how outstanding that Jiahui is, she's still an outsider."""

Ye Cheng did not comment on these words. Instead, he changed the topic and said, "Well, let Cheng Che handle his own affairs. Is there anything you still need to deal with in M City before you leave? I can help you."

Yin Jia rolled her eyes and said, "It's not like I won't be returning in the future."

Ye Cheng was briefly stunned. When he regained his senses, he said with a smile, "I was muddle-headed. After all, we're getting married. How can you not return to M City?"

Yin Jia was a little embarrassed. Then, when she raised her head slightly, Ye Cheng reached out to hold her waist and leaned down to kiss her.

Yin Jia's body trembled slightly. Her mind went blank at this moment, causing her to forget what she had wanted to say.

...

After Guan Tang came home, she was incredibly restless. She searched the house again and again, falling into despair.

When the doorbell rang, she rushed to open the door. When she saw Ye Cheng, she felt her anxiety disappear.

“Thank you, brother-in-law!” Guan Tang said.

Ye Cheng strode in and brought a device out from his back before he made a shushing gesture at Guan Tang.

Guan Tang nodded. Her eyes were teary when she looked at him.

Ye Cheng silently used the device to scan the house carefully while Guan Tang stared at him unblinkingly.

When the device swept over a painting in the living room, a beeping noise rang in the air.

After putting down the device, Ye Cheng removed a small bugging device at the bottom of the painting. He showed it to Guan Tang before tossing it into a glass that was half-filled with water.

Guan Tang sat down on the ground as she covered her face and wept.

Ye Cheng stepped forward and helped her up before he said reassuringly, “It’s okay, it’s okay. It’s done.”

Guan Tang, who felt aggrieved, seized the opportunity and threw herself into Ye Cheng’s arms and burst into tears.

Ye Cheng was briefly stunned. Then, he slowly reached out to hug her waist.

Guan Tang continued to cry.

Ye Cheng could only pat her gently and say, “It’s okay. Don’t cry, don’t cry.”

Guan Tang held onto Ye Cheng as she said, “Brother-in-law, I’m so scared. I don’t know who did it. I don’t know what the culprit’s intention is. I’m so scared.”

Ye Cheng reached up and stroked her head. “Don’t be scared. I’m here.”

Guan Tang raised her head and looked at him with eyes that were wet from tears. “Brother-in-law, can you tell me... if, if I were the Young Miss of the Yin family, would you like me?”

Ye Cheng was stunned by this question. He lowered his head to look at Guan Tang.

Guan Tang said pitifully, “I’m just an orphan. I don’t have an extraordinary family background so no one likes me, right?”

Tears fell from her eyes again, making her look even more delicate.

Chapter 788: Pleasure

Ye Cheng could not help but kiss Guan Tang. Her lips were soft and sweet; they were unlike Yin Jia’s lips that had lipstick on them.

Guan Tang seemed to be overwhelmed by the favor. Her body trembled slightly before she pressed herself closer to him. At the same time, she tightened her arms around him.

The faint fragrance that wafted into Ye Cheng's nose lit the fire in his body immediately. He deepened the kiss, causing her to moan. With that, his desire grew even more.

When Ye Cheng suddenly carried Guan Tang, she let out a cry of surprise and wrapped her arms around his neck.

Ye Cheng laid her down on the couch and removed her clothes in just a few moments.

Guan Tang looked at him with a fearful, eager, and slightly flattered expression.

This pleased Ye Cheng greatly. He leaned down and kissed her again as he unbuttoned his shirt.

Every kiss made Guan Tang tremble in joy.

Ye Cheng thought to himself, 'This is what a beautiful woman looks like. Cheng Che truly has bad eyesight. Since he doesn't want her, then I won't be polite. Since she presented herself to me, how can I refuse? I'm a normal man, after all.'

When Ye Cheng entered Guan Tang's body, she let out a little exclamation of surprise and pain that carried a hint of allure.

Ye Cheng continued to kiss her, making her whimper. In turn, it stoked his fire even more, causing him to speed up his action. He soon realized that the rougher he was, the happier she seemed to be. This made him even more satisfied.

To Ye Cheng, Yin Jia was someone who helped him maintain his status and identity. As for Zhuang Ning, she was someone he cherished. Since she refused his advances, he did not want to force her, and he felt it was blasphemy for him to be tempted by her sometimes.

As for the women outside, they would pretend to be happy to cater to him, which made him feel bored.

Tonight, he found that the woman under him greatly satisfied him.

Guan Tang's long hair was messy, and her eyes were teary, making her look seductive and frail. She closed her eyes, looking intoxicated as she cried out, "Brother-in-law, please, please..."

Ye Cheng stilled his movements and asked gently, "Please what?"

Guan Tang seemed to be in a daze as she replied, "Please don't... don't stop..."

Ye Cheng felt as though his mind had exploded, and he lost all control. At the same time, in his eyes, Guan Tang's face seemed to have changed into Zhuang Ning's face, causing his desire to grow even more. He said over and over again, "Be good. I'll treat you well, I'll treat you well..."

Guan Tang no longer suppressed her voice. She sounded soft and charming as she responded to Ye Cheng's action, making Ye Cheng even more satisfied.

Later on, when Ye Cheng felt like the couch was too cramped, he moved Guan Tang to the floor, the dining table, and the dressing table before he finally moved her to the big bed in the bedroom.

Ye Cheng also did not expect to lose control to his extent. No matter what he did, rough or gentle, Guan Tang seemed capable of accepting it all. Her hoarse voice and the traces on her body filled him with a sense of achievement. There had never been a woman who gave him such a sense of accomplishment. At this moment, he felt like he loved Guan Tang to death.

When Ye Cheng finally released in her body, he thought to himself, 'Forget it. Even if she gets pregnant, I'll let her give birth. I really can't bear to let a woman like her be tainted by another man.'

Guan Tang was in a state of joy. Tears hung on her eyelashes, and the expression on her face was one of joy and satisfaction. She looked so beautiful at this moment that Ye Cheng could not help but feel moved.

Chapter 789: Satisfaction

Ye Cheng hugged Guan Tang.

Guan Tang struggled gently to sit up, intending to wash up. However, Ye Cheng did not let her go. Instead, he gently bit her earlobe and said teasingly, "Can you bear to leave?"

Guan Tang's face flushed red immediately. Her bashful expression made Ye Cheng unable to let go of her.

After an unknown amount of time, when Ye Cheng's breathing grew even, Guan Tang opened her eyes. Under the dim light, a satisfied and smug smile could be seen on her face.

She had finally conquered a man. It did not matter if it was not Cheng Che; it was enough that it was Yin Jia's man. She felt happy just thinking about how she could make Yin Jia suffer for the rest of her life.

The men she met during this period of time were staunchly loyal, causing her to lose confidence in herself. She even began to question her own charm.

Mu Chen, Cheng Che, and Ye Cheng were truly high-quality men who were simply superior to the men she met in S City. Being able to take any of them down would give her a true sense of accomplishment.

Previously, she had thought Yin Zheng and Yin Jian were the best, but compared to these few men, she thought they were really lacking.

After a while, Guan Tang found a comfortable position in Ye Cheng's arms and snuggled up against him before she slept, not caring about the traces left behind on her body. She had never felt so grounded and real before.

The man treated her like a trophy, but unbeknownst to him, he was her prey.

Guan Tang fell into a deep sleep.

Han Mo quickly turned off the monitor. It was best to forget about the scenes that were unsuitable for children. He glanced at Xiao An and asked, "How should we tell Young Master Cheng about this?"

Xiao An pursed his lips before he said, "Let's not talk about it."

Han Mo said, "But that Yin Jia is Young Master Cheng's biological sister. If she's unaware, and she marries Ye Cheng, then... then..."

Xiao An did not speak.

Han Mo sighed. "Forget it. Let's report it to Chairman Mu. It's best to let Chairman Mu deal with this matter."

Xiao An nodded before he said angrily, "This Ye Cheng is really too hateful!"

When Ye Cheng woke up, he was a little dizzy. The night was dreamless, and he actually had a good sleep. When he moved, a soft cry rang from beside him, causing the memories from the night before to flood his mind. When he sensed the bare body against his, he turned and swiftly pressed the person next to him under his body.

Guan Tang was still half-asleep, looking very seductive. Most men would find it hard to resist such a beauty.

Once again, Ye Cheng felt that his body was more honest than his mind

Guan Tang, whose body was being invaded again, moaned softly and muttered, "Brother-in-law, be gentle..."

Ye Cheng increased his speed even more. Her soft voice excited him like never before. He felt like the woman before him was like poison.

When they were done, Guan Tang lay on the bed limply.

Ye Cheng kissed her and said before he got out of bed, "Rest well, babe. I'm leaving now."

Guan Tang hummed softly and continued to sleep.

When Ye Cheng emerged from the bathroom after washing up, Guan Tang was still sleeping. Seeing how exhausted she was, he felt proud of his ability. He believed that she would be completely devoted to him from now on. In his opinion, women were all like this. Once they were conquered, they would completely devote themselves.

When Ye Cheng left Guan Tang's house, he inhaled deeply, and he felt his mind clear. He was slightly surprised by his excitement. He had not felt like this for many years. All these years, for the sake of power and status, he had really suppressed himself too much. It seemed like last night he found some of his former passion in Guan Tang's body.

Ye Cheng was unaware that the moment the door closed, Guan Tang opened her eyes. She got out of bed, naked, and went to the living room to extinguish the burning incense. Then, she kept the box of incense by the bedside table before she opened the windows to air the room.

Chapter 790: Pride

Guan Tang stretched lazily near the half-drawn curtains before she slowly made her way to the bathroom to wash up.

It had been such a long time since she had experienced such passion. Her body was tired and satiated. She could not help but smile when she recalled Ye Cheng's excitement last night.

Men were mostly the same. She could not understand the deep affection between Cheng Che and Jiahui or Mu Chen and Song Ning, but she thought they were just putting on a sanctimonious act. They would still be like the other men once they had gotten naked.

Now that she had conquered Ye Cheng, she felt like she had a reliable person to order around. She felt much more at ease. After all, since she came to M City, she had been constrained and everything went against her plan.

When she thought about Jiahui's threats, her expression darkened.

'That wretched woman! If I knew this would happen, I wouldn't have shown mercy back then! Now I'm forced to deal with the consequences! However, I can't touch her now. She's protected by so many people that if I make a move now, I'll inevitably leave traces behind.'

One thing Guan Tang was certain of was that Jiahui did not tell Cheng Che about their matter. Based on Cheng Che's feelings for Jiahui, if he had known what she had done, he would rush to strangle her immediately.

There were two types of men.

for faster releases read on webnovel.site

One was the type that did not care about a woman's body and only focused on feelings. They would seem noble and see their partners as sacred and inviolable, only placing importance on love. However, once they got married, the sense of mystery and the sense of sacredness would vanish. It was at this time that they would be most vulnerable to temptation. This type of man had to be disillusioned first before they could recognize the reality.

In Guan Tang's opinion, Cheng Che undoubtedly belonged to the first type. Hence, she was not in a hurry. She would wait until Cheng Che's feelings for Jiahui were exhausted before she made a move. All she needed was to maintain a sense of existence in front of Cheng Che, and once there was a gap between Cheng Che and Jiahui, she would easily move in. This was the best tactic to deal with him.

As for the other type, they were fools who were extremely confident. They felt that they had seen many women and none could make them lose their minds. They looked like a gentleman on the surface, but in reality, they were cunning. What they wanted was someone who was wild in bed but also innocent at the same time.

Ye Cheng was definitely this type of man.

In Guan Tang's opinion, to deal with this kind of man, she had to put him on a pedestal, making him think that he was the best. Then, she would be able to manipulate him into doing whatever she wanted. Even if it was beyond his ability, he would do his best to satisfy her wishes to prove that he was indeed the best.

After washing up, Guan Tang used concealer to cover the traces on her body. After putting on the elegant dress, she was once again the elegant and intellectual Miss Guan.

She decided to go along with Jiahui for now and lulled Jiahui into a false sense of security. When they were in S City, she would slowly gain the evidence in Jiahui's hand. There was nothing to be afraid of. She would let Jiahui think that she had won. She would only have a chance to act when Jiahui let her guard down. Moreover, she had that fool, Yin Yi, and the puppet, Ye Cheng, in her hands now. There was no need to be afraid.

Guan Tang could not help but smile in satisfaction when she looked at herself in the mirror.

She touched the embroidered hem of the dress. It was really beautiful. It was made by Zhuang Ji. No wonder so many people coveted it.

Guan Tang thought that Song Ning was really lucky. She obtained the protection of the Mu family, bringing Zhuang Ji back to life. However, it brought danger with it as well. She could defend against open attacks, but what about hidden attacks? There were too many people who coveted Zhuang Ji. Did the Mu family really think they could protect Zhuang Ji alone?

Guan Tang thought it was a joke.

Chapter 791: Spring

When the forest was big enough, there would be all kinds of birds. Now that he had bribed two high-ranking employees of Zhuang Ji, he was quietly waiting for good news.

Ye Cheng arrived at the office in an incredibly good mood. The corners of his lips curled up unconsciously.

Ye Cheng's subordinates could all see that he was very happy. As such, the atmosphere in the office was quite good.

When Chen Chen arrived, he was surprised as well. He asked, "Young Master Cheng, what happened?"

Ye Cheng raised an eyebrow. "What happened? Nothing happened."

Chen Chen wanted to say something but hesitated.

Ye Cheng asked, "What's been happening?"

Chen Chen composed himself before he replied, "Mu Chen has already decided to go to S City. We've already looked for those elders from the Mu family as well. We're prepared to stir up trouble for Mu Chen once he leaves. With Mu Chen and Cheng Che gone, Old Madam Mu will be alone. She's advanced in age after all; it won't be easy for her to hold on by herself. This time, we can accomplish everything in one go."

Ye Cheng nodded. "Pass down the orders. No mistakes are allowed. Also, you must keep an eye on Zhuang Ji. In the future, Zhuang Ji will be the bargaining chip for negotiations with all parties."

Cheng Che looked at Ye Cheng, puzzled.

Ye Cheng smiled and said, "They're all a bunch of cunning old foxes. On the surface, the Yin family came to look for Cheng Che and to cooperate with us. Under the surface, they had not been idle at all. They'd thoroughly investigated Zhuang Ji. Isn't their motive obvious?"

"It's all thanks to that kid, Ning Dong, that Old Man Ning Zhe fell ill. Otherwise, with Old Man Ning's shrewdness and ability, I'm afraid this little Zhuang Ji would've long fallen into his hands."

Chen Chen nodded in agreement. "Song Ning refuses to acknowledge Ning Zhe no matter what. Mu Chen can be considered to have picked up a treasure. With him, Zhuang Ji had grown a lot as well. Young Master Cheng, if we don't make a move soon and allow Zhuang Ji to grow again, I'm afraid we won't be able to obtain it in the future."

Ye Cheng did not respond to that. Instead, he said, "During the time when I'm in S City, I can avoid the limelight and keep the trouble away from the Ye family as well. My father now knows how to hide his strength and avoid trouble. I feel quite relieved. After Cheng Che's matter is settled, I'll marry Yin Jia. At that time, it won't be too late to deal with Zhuang Ji."

Cheng Che nodded. "I'll keep an eye on the Mu and Ning families as well."

Ye Cheng was very happy when he thought about his grand future. When his goals had been achieved, he could love whoever he wanted. At that time, he wanted to be like Cheng Che. He would enter the entertainment industry and invest in Zhuang Ning's movies and TV series. At that time, she would be able to play whatever role she wanted, and he could openly help her become the best actress.

There was also Guan Tang, that charming little vixen.

Zhuang Tang was inviolable in his heart, his spiritual partner.

On the other hand, Guan Tang was like an indispensable appetizer. She had walked right into his trap.

When Ye Cheng thought about Guan Tang, he could not help but smile.

Chen Chen was very surprised when he saw the expression on his boss' face.

'Could it be that Young Master Cheng has gotten his hands on Miss Zhuang? Impossible. Miss Zhuang is still filming in S City and has yet to return. He's going to the S City this time, not only because of the Yin family, but to accompany Miss Zhuang as well. Did he receive some kind of promise from Miss Zhuang? Otherwise, he won't look as though it's springtime. No matter what, it's good that things aren't going well...'

...

While Chen Chen was feeling happy, Han Mo and Xiao An were deeply troubled. Their success came with its own trouble. In the end, both of them quietly told Mu Chen about the disgusting matter between Ye Cheng and Guan Tang. The duo did not dare to tell Cheng Che and could only sigh. They thought that Cheng Che was truly unlucky to meet these kinds of people in his life.

Chapter 792: Meeting

Mu Chen sighed as well when he heard about the disgusting matter. He knew no matter what, he had to tell Cheng Che about this matter. Cheng Che could make his own decisions, and they could not make any decisions on his behalf.

Cheng Che was dumbstruck when he found out. He did not expect Ye Cheng would do such a disgusting thing. After a moment, he said icily, "Keep an eye on the Ye family. No matter what they do, don't stop them. I'll deal with them in one fell swoop when the time comes."

Xiao An quickly nodded in agreement before he briefly reported the Ye family's recent movements.

After listening to Xiao An's report, Cheng Che scoffed. "They just want to reap the benefits from all sides. What a dirty trick."

Mu Chen patted Cheng Che's shoulder and said, "It's okay. Let them play. You have to act well and don't show any flaws. We'll catch everyone in one go."

Cheng Che did not say anything. His expression was dark.

...

Old Master Yin had insisted on meeting Jiang Jin before leaving M City. In the end, Cheng Che agreed on Jiang Jin's behalf.

for faster releases read on webnovel.site

Jiang Jin was noncommittal. She was not interested in meeting Old Master Yin. She only cared about her grandson.

Old Madam Yin accompanied Old Master Yin to the Mu family house.

When Jiang Jin met the woman who was only a few years younger than Old Master Yin but still retained her charm, she sighed inwardly.

Old Madam Yin acted very familiar with Jiang Jin. "Sister, I've heard so much about you. It's an honor to finally meet you."

Jiang Jin was indifferent but polite. She nodded slightly and said, "Hello."

Following that, Jiang Jin and Old Master Yin looked at each other.

Old Master Yin sighed softly and said, "It's been so many years since we last saw each other. It's truly a miracle that we're able to meet again."

Jiang Jin smiled perfunctorily and said, "It's good that we're still alive."

When they entered the living room, Old Madam Yin sized the room up before she praised it.

At the same time, Jiang Jin quietly studied the woman in front of her who made Cheng Che's grandmother throw everything aside and leave the Yin family. There was no doubt that Old Madam Yin was not very presentable. However, she was able to push Cheng Che's grandmother out of the house and stay in the Yin family for more than 30 years. In that regard, she could be considered quite capable.

Seeing Jiang Jin's indifferent treatment, Old Madam Yin could not help but feel slightly awkward. Hence, she gradually stopped the small talk. She cleared her throat and said, "The main reason we came this time is to thank Sister. You helped us raise Cheng Che, and you even raised him so well. We really can't thank you enough."

Jiang Jin glanced at Old Master Yin before she said, "I didn't help you raise Cheng Che. Back then, I was entrusted by Cheng Yi to look after her grandson. It was my duty to do so. Cheng Che and I have a very deep relationship, and I treat him like my own grandson. I've never thought of any unnecessary things. Back then, I sent someone to contact you because I didn't want Cheng Che to have any regrets. In short, what I did had nothing to do with the Yin family, and I didn't help the Yin family. So there's no need to thank me."

Old Master Yin nodded slightly before he said, "Jiang Jin, I was responsible for what happened back then. Jiang Jin, thank you for taking care of the three of them back then. I came to thank you sincerely."

Jiang Jin looked at Old Master Yin and said solemnly, "Cheng Che has already grown up. He can make his own decisions, and I won't interfere. It's a good thing for him to get to know his family. However, I hope you remember that I won't allow Cheng Che to be treated badly or to be schemed against."

Old Master Yin's heart trembled slightly upon hearing these words, but the smile on his face remained the same. He said, "Look at what you're saying. He's my grandson. Of course, I won't let him suffer again."

Jiang Jin only scoffed lightly. Her expression was icy.

At this time, Old Madam Yin chimed in, "Sister, you can rest assured. Old Master really dotes on this grandson of his. He definitely won't allow anyone to mistreat him."

Jiang Jin said, "That better be the case."

Chapter 793: Accusation

Jiang Jin's indifference really made Old Madam Yin feel uncomfortable. After all, she had gotten used to being flattered. When was she ever treated this coldly? Nonetheless, she could not find any fault with Jiang Jin.

On the other hand, Old Master Yin felt restless. He had told Cheng Che he wanted to meet Jiang Jin to thank her, but he really had some old matters to ask Jiang Jin. Unfortunately, his wife insisted on coming alone so it was inconvenient for him to speak.

At this time, the sound of footsteps rang in the air.

"Little Master, don't run. Slow down, slow down..."

A small figure rushed into the living room toward Jiang Jin. "Great-grandmother! Great-grandmother!"

Jiang Jin, who was initially expressionless, beamed with joy immediately. She reached out to stabilize the young boy who ran over and said, "Didn't A Nuan tell you to slow down? Why didn't you listen to her?"

The little boy felt aggrieved upon hearing these words. He said, "I have something important to tell Great-grandmother!"

Jiang Jin held his hand and asked, "What is it?"

The little boy raised his head and saw the old couple from the Yin family looking at him curiously. Then, he said politely, "Great-grandmother, you have guests? Mu Lang is sorry for interrupting."

Old Master Yin and Old Madam Yin were slightly surprised by the little boy's politeness.

Old Master Yin smiled and asked, "Is this Mu Chen's son?"

Now that Mu Lang was here, Jiang Jin was no longer as indifferent as before. She proudly pulled Mu Lang over and said, "Yes, this is Mu Chen's son. Mu Lang, greet Old Master Yin and Old Madam Yin."

Mu Lang frowned but still politely greeted the guests. Then, he tilted his head slightly before he asked Jiang Jin, "Great-grandmother, how many Yin families do we know?"

Jiang Jin was slightly surprised by the question. Then, she said patiently, "Only one. The Yin family is Uncle's biological family. This is Uncle's grandfather."

Mu Lang looked at the duo from the Yin family for a moment. The expression on his chubby face seemed slightly unhappy as he asked, "Then, may I ask if Miss Yin Yi is also a member of the Yin family?"

The duo from the Yin family were slightly stunned. They exchanged a glance.

Then, Old Madam Yin smiled affectionately before she said gently, "That's right. Yin Yi is our granddaughter. She's also your uncle's sister."

Mu Lang seemed to understand. Then, he tilted his head again and said, "Then, Mu Lang has a favor to ask."

The duo from the Yin family was rather amused by Mu Lang who was acting like an adult.

Old Master Yin wore a kind expression on his face as he asked, "May I ask what Little Master Mu has to say?"

Mu Lang's expression was serious as he said, "The Internet says that Miss Yin Yi is pursuing my father, giving him flowers and gifts. Everyone knows about it, and it's causing a storm in the city. I'd like to ask both of you to tell Miss Yin that my father has a wife and a son. Her behavior is immoral. If she doesn't restrain herself, then I'm not going to be polite to her."

Mu Lang spoke in a very domineering and righteous manner.

Even Jiang Jin was a little stunned. She could already see traces of Mu Chen in Mu Lang.

Old Master Yin's face turned green and red upon hearing these words. He really wished he could find a hole to hide in.

In contrast, Old Madam Yin seemed happy to continue the topic. She said with a smile, "Little friend, you can't force matters of the heart. If your parents' relationship isn't good, then anyone, including Yin Yi, can pursue your father. This is an adult matter. There's nothing you can do about it."

Mu Lang was not flustered by Old Madam Yin's words. He said, "My parents have a very good relationship. Miss Yin Yi knows this but still chooses to act immorally. If she continues to harass my father, I'll expose her behavior to the public and damage her reputation. My father said that for a family like ours, it's important not to tarnish our reputation."

Chapter 794: To Defeat the Enemy By Capturing The Leader

Mu Lang's words shocked the three adults present.

Jiang Jin did not stop Mu Lang, allowing him to deal with the two old foxes in front of her. She only gently placed her hand on his back, making sure he could feel her support.

Old Madam Yin was slightly flustered. In the end, she only said to Jiang Jin, "This child is very smart."

Jiang Jin smiled and did not say anything.

Mu Lang looked at Old Master Yin and asked, "Old Master, can you speak to Miss Yin Yi?"

Old Master Yin suppressed the embarrassment and anger in his heart before he said gently, "I'll definitely speak to her and restrain her."

Mu Lang nodded in satisfaction. "That's good. I'll wait to see the results. If she continues to be like this, I won't be polite anymore."

Old Master Yin sighed inwardly, feeling envious. He had many children and grandchildren, but none of them was as courageous or responsible as the little boy in front of him. He was already so old, but he still had to worry about the younger generation in his family. On the contrary, the long-standing Mu family might not have many descendants, but just one of them could fight against ten people.

At this time, Jiang Jin finally said perfunctorily, "Mu Lang, you can't be so aggressive. Hurry up and apologize."

Mu Lang was very obedient and apologized immediately. He even bowed to the duo from the Yin family.

Old Master Yin quickly seized the opportunity to take his leave. He had been so embarrassed, how could he stay any longer?

After the two guests left, Jiang Jin sat down and said seriously to Mu Lang, "Baby, you can't reveal your plan so early. If you do, you're giving others the opportunity to guard against you. You have to learn how to hide your strength."

Mu Lang did not understand. He tilted his head, falling deep into his thoughts. Then, he said, "Great-grandmother, you said we have to prioritize things. That family has gone too far. Instead of looking for that Yin Yi, isn't it better if I expose her to her elders? It's better to defeat the enemy by taking down their leader!"

Jiang Jin did not comment on these words. Instead, she said reassuringly, "Baby, there's no need for you to worry about this matter. Your dad and mom will take care of it."

However, Mu Lang pouted and said, "I don't want others to bully Mom."

Jiang Jin reached out to hold Mu Lang in her arms before she said, "You're really such a filial child. When I see your mother, I'll have to tell her about this."

Mu Lang struggled for a moment before he said to Jiang Jin, "Great-grandmother, please don't tell Dad and Mom. I can't let them know these things."

Mu Lang's thinking was much more unique compared to children his age, and he was also more perceptive.

"Why?" Jiang Jin asked.

Mu Lang replied, "I'm sure they don't want me to know about these things. However, news of this has already spread in the kindergarten. If Mom finds out about this, she'll feel very guilty. Not only that, but won't Dad tear down the kindergarten if he hears about this?"

Upon hearing this, Jiang Jin felt shocked and distressed. "Baby, did you have a hard time in kindergarten? Did the other children make fun of you?"

Mu Lang shook his head gently. He looked at Jiang Jin with his bright eyes as he said, "I'm not having a hard time. I don't care about what they say. They're just followers who know nothing. They don't know if their words are right or wrong. Why would I have a hard time because of a group of little fools? I'm just worried about my parents. Now that they're not together, I'm worried the wicked people will scheme against them. Moreover, Dad said that sometimes, public opinion can obscure the truth..."

Jiang Jin was truly shocked. She looked at the little boy next to her as pride rose in her heart. After a moment, she asked, "Do you want to go to school?"

Mu Lang was puzzled by the sudden change of topic.

Chapter 795: Phone Call

Mu Lang's talent should not be wasted. A child with such intelligence should be carefully nurtured. Hence, it was a good idea to take him out of kindergarten and let him enter elementary school.

The old couple from the Yin family's visit made Jiang Jin feel as though she had swallowed a fly, but her great-grandson had pleasantly surprised her. She did not expect the child, who had encountered hardships as soon as he was born, would be so talented and smart.

Jiang Jin no longer cared about anything else at this moment. She had a serious discussion with Mu Lang about school, and they quickly reached a consensus. Mu Lang was very eager to attend school.

However, after a moment, Mu Lang said hesitantly, "Great-grandmother, can I wait for Mom to come back before I go to school?"

Jiang Jin nodded happily. "Of course. We can wait until your Uncle Cheng Che and Aunty Jiahui get married. You can follow Great-grandmother to the company as well. Do you know that when your father was eight years old, I brought him to the company with me? Although you're only six, you're much more sensible than your father when he was eight."

Although Mu Lang was very precocious, he was ultimately still a child. He could not help but feel happy when he was praised, especially when he was told that he was more outstanding than his father whom he admired the most.

While the great-grandmother and great-grandson were immersed in their joy, Sister Yu suddenly walked in with a solemn expression, holding a satellite phone. She handed the phone to Jiang Jin wordlessly.

The smile on Jiang Jin's face vanished immediately as she took the phone.

Mu Lang looked at Jiang Jin curiously, sensing the change in the atmosphere.

Sister Yu was about to bring Mu Lang away when Jiang Jin waved at her, indicating Mu Lang could stay.

Jiang Jin's voice was calm and cold as she asked, "You're finally willing to show yourself?"

"... Jiang Jin, I'm sorry."

"No need. You don't have to say sorry to me. You should say it to Cheng Che and his mother. For so many years, I thought you hid yourself away to repent regarding Yi Wan and Cheng Che's mater. I didn't expect you to be thinking of ways to stir up trouble."

Jiang Jin continued to say, "I don't care about what you do. I'm sure you have your reasons. However, your actions have endangered Cheng Che, and I won't tolerate this. I only hope that it was not your intention to hurt Cheng Che and that it was only an accident."

"I'm sorry, Jiang Jin. I'm really sorry. I didn't know that old man, Yin Jun, would be so heartless. I really wish I could tear his flesh and drink his blood!"

Jiang Jin said lightly, "He and his wife just left. They came to thank me for raising Cheng Che. He's the same as before; he hasn't changed at all. He won't admit he's wrong. He acts like nothing happened as though everyone has the memory of a goldfish."

"Ha! How can that beast change his ways?"

Jiang Jin sighed. "Cheng Che is going to S City next week to have a look at the Yin family's situation. He's aware that the others want to harm him, and he has chosen to face this matter directly. Fortunately, he doesn't have any feelings for them so he won't be hurt too deeply. I've asked Mu Chen to go with him. I'll take care of him. I won't allow anyone to hurt him, and Mu Chen won't allow it as well!"

"As for what you intend to do, I'm not interested in knowing. I just want to tell you that your grandson has already walked into the web that you've woven. I don't care how, but you better make sure Cheng Che doesn't get hurt, accidentally or otherwise. Otherwise, I won't let this matter go. Remember this. Although Cheng Che has your surname and your blood runs in him, I raised him."

The person on the other end of the line sobbed softly before saying, "Even if I die, I won't let Cheng Che fall into danger. I'll make the people who hurt him pay the price!"

At the end of her words, the voice grew fierce again.

Chapter 796: Arrangements

Jiang Jin's expression was dark when she ended the call.

Upon seeing this, Mu Lang tugged on her shirt and asked, "Great-grandma, what's wrong?"

Jiang Jin bent down and gently held Mu Lang's hand as she replied, "Great-grandma was just angry with a friend earlier, but it's fine now. We've talked it out."

Mu Lang tilted his head and said, "Is it like how Dad and Uncle are? Angry, quarreling, and that's it?"

Jiang Jin smiled and nodded. "That's right. When you have friends, remember to be honest with them. A good friend will still stick by you even if you have a disagreement."

Mu Lang nodded.

At this moment, Zhuang Ning, who was standing at the entrance, saw this scene, and her eyes were a little moist.

Jiang Jin looked up and saw Zhuang Ning. She smiled warmly. "You're here."

for faster releases read on webnovel.site

Zhuang Ning nodded slightly. "Old Madam."

Mu Lang looked at Zhuang Ning as she bent down and smiled at him. "Little Master, I came to talk to you Great-grandma about some work matters. Is that okay?"

Mu Lang was very pleased that he was treated like an adult. He nodded solemnly with an understanding expression on his face and said, "Okay, then I'll go play by myself. Please get on with your business."

Then, Mu Lang went upstairs obediently.

Zhuang Ning looked at Mu Lang's composure and could not help but smile. She asked with a smile, "Old Madam, you must be really happy that Mu Chen has a successor..."

"Yes. When I look at Mu Lang, I see the future of the Mu family. With him, I really have no worries and regrets," Jiang Jin said. Then, she invited Zhuang Ning to take a seat before she asked gently, "Is everything ready?"

Zhuang Ning nodded. "Yes, Old Madam. The money you asked Uncle Wen to transfer is in place..."

"Alright, go ahead and do it. I'll be your support. For Mu Chen and Cheng Che, I'll do whatever it takes. Your experience gives you an edge over them. In the future, please take care of them. I'm old, and I just want to spend time with Little Mu Lang," Jiang Jin said with a nod.

Tears welled up in Zhuang Ning's eyes as she said, "I really have to thank you, Old Madam. I don't deserve such treatment from you. I'm willing to do anything for you even if it means giving up my life."

Jiang Jin said with a gentle smile, "Child, I like your ability. There's no need to feel uneasy. The relationship and fate between people are mysterious and wonderful. You're worthy of me entrusting my entire fortune to you. You deserve a better future. Don't give up on yourself. Don't think about dying along with those who hurt you. Trample those people under your feet while you raise your head and live a wonderful life. This is true victory."

Zhuang Ning was greatly encouraged by these words.

After Zhuang Ning left, Jiang Jin was in a daze for a long time.

When Sister Yu came over with a bowl of bird's nest, she asked softly, "Why do you trust Miss Zhuang so much?"

Jiang Jin leaned against the couch and said, "I can feel she's already standing at the edge of the cliff. If I don't pull her back, she'll definitely jump down. I'm old, and I don't have much time left. I don't have the energy to support Mu Chen and Cheng Che anymore. Hence, I'm trying to make arrangements for them. It'll be beneficial to them in the future."

After handing the bowl of bird's nest to Jiang Jin, Sister Yu said, "Drink it while it's hot. Young Madam has repeatedly instructed me to make sure you drink a bowl every day. This is my mission. You have to cooperate with me."

Jiang Jin glared at Sister Yu playfully before she took a sip. "I feel rest assured with Ningning. With her around, the Mu family won't fall into chaos. There's also no need to worry about Mu Lang's upbringing and education. She's the best gift that God has given me. When I leave, I'll also feel at peace."

Sister Yu said angrily, "Look at what you're saying. What's wrong with you? Why do you always say such words? It's bad luck! I'll accompany you to live a happy life. Isn't that good? I completely forget about my age whenever I look at Little Master Mu Lang. I even dream of seeing Little Master Mu Lang as a groom one day."

Chapter 797: Visit

Jiang Jin smiled. She and Sister Yu had been together all their lives, and their feelings could be understood by each other with just a glance.

"Then, from now on, you have to drink the bird's nest with me every day. You have to accompany me after all," Jiang Jin said as she handed the unfinished bowl of bird's nest to Sister Yu.

Sister Yu pushed it back and said, "There's half left. Young Madam said you have to drink a bowl!"

The duo laughed at their own antics.

Age was nothing. They could make waves and withstand storms.

Everyone would make arrangements for themselves, and those who schemed against others all day long naturally would not dare to trust others.

Although Yin Bin was the eldest son of Old Master Yin, he was not complacent in regard to inheriting the Yin family business. Since he was young, Yin Yang had been eyeing his position. For this reason, he had made long-term plans for himself and his children.

He had to return to S City soon. Fortunately, his business in M City had already stabilized. He only needed to maintain his relationship with the locals in M City.

Before leaving, Yin Bin brought Guan Ning and Yin Yi to visit Ning Zhe.

Su Tong was so excited that she did not sleep well the entire night. As soon as she woke up, she inspected the house again and again, making sure everything was in place. She even dressed up meticulously. When she came downstairs, she saw Ning Dong, who had just returned from a jog. When she saw him dressed in his sportswear, she pulled him and said anxiously, "My son, why haven't you gotten ready yet? Hurry up. Go and take a shower and change your clothes before coming down. The Yin family will be here soon."

Ning Dong did not mind his mother's behavior. He said nonchalantly, "Why are you so anxious? It's not like they're important."

"How are they not important?" Su Tong asked, shocked by her son's nonchalance. Then, she quickly said, "Son, this concerns your marriage. We wouldn't be able to find a better family than theirs. Yin Yi is loved by her grandfather, father, and siblings. Think about it. If you marry her..."

Su Tong looked at her son with bright eyes, hoping her son would understand her painstaking efforts.

Ning Dong did not want to discuss this matter with his mother. After all, even if he explained it to her, she would not understand. He said before he went upstairs, "I'm going to take a shower."

Su Tong felt happy, thinking that her son had heeded her advice.

At this moment, Ning Chun came into the house. When he saw Su Tong, he greeted her. "Madam."

Su Tong frowned. "Are you here to look for Master? Is it important? He can't go out today. The family of Ning Dong's girlfriend is coming to visit today. He has to stay at home?"

Ning Chun was slightly stunned by the barrage of questions. He quickly recovered and said, "Master isn't going out today. He only asked me to send him some documents so he could look at them."

Su Tong, satisfied with the answer, made way for Ning Chun.

Ning Chun lowered his head and went upstairs. From the corners of his eyes, he studied the freshly decorated living room.

When Ning Chun entered the study, Ning Zhe was reading the newspaper. After closing the door, he asked in a low voice, "The Yin family is visiting today?"

Ning Zhe nodded. "They probably want to settle Ning Dong's matter before they return to S City."

Ning Chun was slightly surprised.

Ning Zhe said calmly, "The internal strife in the Yin family is getting worse. Yin Bin wants to form an alliance. His eldest daughter is going to marry Ye Cheng, and he wants his youngest daughter to marry into our family. This is a very secure arrangement. In the future, with the three families joining forces, even the Mu family won't be able to stop us. We'll be able to dominate M City in the future. How many more years can Old Master Yin live? Until now, he hasn't given any power to his two sons at all. Yin Bin isn't stupid. He knows the best thing to do now is to find good allies."

Chapter 798: Grandson

Ning Chun muttered, "I don't think we need to ally ourselves with them..."

Ning Zhe only smiled and said, "Remember. They're marrying their daughter into our family."

Ning Chun did not look convinced.

Ning Zhe restrained his smile and said slowly, "If this thing is really successful, with Ning Dong's underhanded tricks, sooner or later, the Ning family will be swallowed up by the Yin family..."

Ning Chun remained silent.

Ning Zhe continued to say unhurriedly, "So, the matter of me being poisoned isn't for nothing. At least, it cleared my mind. I won't let the Ning family be destroyed."

"Master..." Ning Chun knew that Ning Zhe was definitely not feeling well at this moment. He wanted to comfort Ning Zhe, but he did not know what to say.

Ning Zhe stood up and patted Ning Chun's shoulder. "Don't worry, I'm fine. How's the situation with Zhuang Ji?"

Ning Chun straightened his back and said, "Zhuang Ji's management is very meticulous and systematic. All the core employees are Mu Chen's people. Recently, various forces are trying to infiltrate Zhuang Ji. Even Guan Tang, Yin Bin's niece, is very close to two sales managers from Zhuang Ji. Their intentions are very obvious."

Ning Zhe sneered. "Their ambitions are indeed not small. Think of a way to break all their connections."

"Understood," Ning Chun said. Seeing that Ning Zhe longer spoke, he asked tentatively, "Master, are you trying to help Young Miss?"

Ning Zhe let out a long sigh. "Do I have a choice? My own son actually wants my life. Obviously, everything I have will belong to him sooner or later, but he couldn't wait. If I hand over the Ning family to him, how am I going to face my ancestors?"

Ning Chun lowered his head. This matter was not something he could get involved in; he knew his place. At this time, he suddenly thought of something. He brought his phone out and said, "Master, I want to show you something."

Ning Chun played a video of a little boy dressed in a kindergarten uniform who was narrating a historical story in a clear voice. He narrated the story in a very lively and engaging manner. The little boy was very handsome and cute.

Ning Zhe could not move his eyes away from the screen. "Whose... Whose child is this?"

Ning Chun said softly, "It's Eldest Young Miss' son, Mu Lang. I obtained the video from the kindergarten. I heard that the Little Master is very intelligent and outstanding."

"Ning Xia's son?" Ning Zhe's voice trembled slightly.

Ning Chun nodded.

Ning Zhe reached out and paused the video. He looked at Mu Lang's face and felt his heart melt instantly. As though he could not believe it, he asked, "This is my grandson?"

Ning Chu nodded. "His name is Mu Lang, but his nickname is Baobao. Although he's young, he's very mature."

Ning Zhe touched the screen, clearly overjoyed. "He's as outstanding as his mother. Ning Xia has been smart since she was young as well. She has always been at the top of her class. Although she missed high school a lot due to acting, she still managed to enter a top university. It seems like he takes after his mother. That's great, that's great..."

Ning Chun could tell that Ning Zhe's mood had improved greatly.

At this moment, Ning Zhe suddenly said, "I want to see him in person! Can you arrange for me to meet him? He's my biological grandson! My blood is flowing in his body too!"

Ning Chun hesitated for a moment before he said, "I'll try. It might take some time."

"Okay, okay. Take your time and arrange it. I want to see him," Ning Zhe said excitedly.

At this moment...

Knock! Knock! Knock!

Ning Chun quickly put away his phone.

Ning Zhe lowered his voice and said, "Send that video to me."

Ning Chun nodded before he went to open the door.

Su Tong stood at the door and said excitedly, "Hubby, the Yin family will be here soon!"

Chapter 799: Plan

In the living room of the Ning family house.

Yin Bing was grinning ear to ear when he looked at Ning Dong and Yin Yi who were sitting next to each other. He said happily, "Brother Ning, I feel that fate is really amazing. I didn't expect my unruly daughter to actually fall in love with such a refined and handsome young man. As the saying goes, there is a rock to every scissor, a scissor to every paper, and a paper to every rock."

Ning Zhe said with a smile, "Brother Yin, you're too modest. I think your daughter is very obedient. My son, on the other hand, is a little dull. I'm grateful that you don't mind."

"Brother Ning, you're too polite. When I look at them, I feel that they're really a match made in heaven," Yin Bin replied.

Ning Zhe smiled and took a sip of tea.

The two women were also looking at their children with a smile on their faces.

At this moment, Ning Dong rose to his feet and said, "Dad, Mom, why don't I take Yin Yi for a walk in the garden?"

Su Tong said immediately, "Sure, sure! Go on..." Then, she said to the others, "Let them go and play..."

Yin Yi bowed to everyone politely before following Ning Dong away.

After they arrived at the garden, with the elders out of sight, Yin Yi sighed in relief. She casually took a seat and said, "How annoying! What do we do now? My parents' eyes are set on you!"

Ning Dong reached out to straighten a pot of orchids. Upon hearing Yin Yi's words, his movements paused, but he did not turn back. Then, he asked, "Did you make any progress?"

Yin Yi said, annoyed, "Don't you know? Mu Chen avoids me like the plague."

Ning Dong, whose back was facing Yin Yi, smiled. However, his voice remained normal as he asked, "What do you plan to do next?"

Yin Yi remained silent.

When Ning Dong turned around, he saw the determined expression on Yin Yi's face. He asked, "You... What do you want to do?"

Yin Yi looked at Ning Dong solemnly and said, "Help me again."

Ning Dong looked troubled. "How do you want me to help you? I'm afraid I won't be able to help much with my limited abilities."

Yin Yi stood up and moved to stand in front of Ning Dong before she reached to hold his hand and said, "Ning Dong, you're my best friend. Since I was young, I've never had a friend as loyal as you. We'll always be good friends, right?"

Ning Dong hesitated for a moment before he nodded slowly.

Yin Yi bit her lip before she said, "Ning Dong, my family and I will return to S City soon. I don't know when we'll be back. You must help me get Mu Chen. Otherwise, even if I leave, my heart will remain here..."

Ning Dong smiled slightly. "What's wrong? You can come here often. It's very convenient."

Yin Yi frowned. "What excuse should I use? I have to use you as an excuse every time. It's not a long-term solution. What happens when you get a girlfriend? I can't use your name at that time, can I?"

Ning Dong said softly, "It's okay, I don't mind. Even if I have a girlfriend, I'll make it clear to her. I'll only be with someone who accepts that you're my friend."

Ning Dong's words made Yin Yi feel as though she was drinking ice water on a hot day. She reached out and patted his shoulder as she said, "I'll always remember your kindness, Brother! I'll definitely repay you in the future."

Ning Dong smiled and asked, "Can you tell me what you plan to do now?"

Yin Yi waved at Ning Dong, indicating for him to move closer before she whispered into his ears.

Upon hearing Yin Yi's words, Ning Dong's eyes widened. His mouth was agape as he stared at Yin Yi in shock.

Yin Yi looked pleased by his reaction.

Ning Dong stammered, "T-this... Will it work? No, this isn't good, right?"

Yin Yi said proudly, "Why isn't it good? I'm a good match for him. His wife won't be coming back. Sooner or later, he'll be mine. It's just that I'm not willing to wait. When I want something, I'll take action immediately."

Chapter 800: Party

Ning Dong lowered his head to look at Yin Yi and said with a hint of admiration, "How bold!"

Yin Yi could not help but feel pleased with herself. "What do you think? Help me find a suitable photographer. Just like the previous two times, I want the pictures to be high-definition. He won't be able to deny it even if he wants to."

Ning Dong nodded. "No problem. Get ready. I'll find someone to help you."

Yin Yi was very satisfied. When she turned around and saw her parents in the distance, she could not help but feel guilty. She said, "Ning Dong, when the matter between me and Mu Chen is exposed, your... your reputation might be slightly affected..."

Ning Dong adjusted his spectacles and said calmly, "It'll be fine. After all, no one paid much attention to our matter..."

Yin Yi was filled with gratitude upon hearing these words.

Meanwhile, Ning Zhe suggested for Ning Dong and Yin Yi to get engaged first. They would get married once Ning Dong graduated from university.

Yin Bin naturally did not have any objections. After returning to S City and dealing with the family affairs, he planned to get Old Master Yin's approval before holding an engagement ceremony for Ning Dong and Yin Yi.

As for Guan Ning and Su Tong, there were already holding hands, looking as though they were sisters.

Mu Chen invited a few good friends to Cheng Che's farewell party.

Cheng Che's matter was widely known, and everyone knew that after Cheng Che left, he would no longer be the Cheng Che of old. He would be the Eldest Young Master of the Yin family. These friends, who did not know better, were naturally happy for Cheng Che since Cheng Che did not explain the matter to them.

To add to the liveliness, Mu Chen invited Ye Cheng, and Ye Cheng brought Yin Jia, Yin Yi, and Guan Tang.

This was the first time that the three young women from the Yin family came in contact with the elite young masters of M City. It could be considered that they finally entered the circle.

Yin Jia was calm, but Yin Yi and Guan Tang were extremely excited. Due to their joy, they drain an extra few glasses of wine. With alcohol in their bloodstream, they gradually grew less and less restrained.

Yin Yi passed through the crowd before coming to a stop in front of Mu Chen. She said, "Brother Mu Chen, let me toast you."

Unexpectedly, Mu Chen did not decline. He picked up his wine glass and clinked it against Yin Yi's glass before he drained the wine in one gulp/

Yin Yi was overjoyed. She finished the wine in her glass as well. Then, she leaned against Mu Chen and said with teary eyes, "Brother Mu Chen, my grandpa scolded me today."

Mu Chen raised an eyebrow, looking at Yin Yi and waiting for her to continue speaking.

Yin Yi pouted her red lips, looking extremely aggrieved as she said, "My grandpa told me not to pester you anymore. He said that I've shamed our family. He said your son, who's only in kindergarten, lectured him, causing him to feel embarrassed. Brother Mu Chen, I, I can't control my feelings for you. I don't care if you're married or if you have a child. I don't care about anything at all. I just want to stay by your side. I'm satisfied as long as I can see you from time to time. Brother Mu Chen, tell me, is it wrong to love someone?"

Nearing the end of her words, Yin Yi reached out to hug Mu Chen.

Mu Chen, who was quietly listening to her, pulled his arm away from her grip and said, "You've had too much to drink."

Mu Chen's voice was mellow and magnetic, causing Yin Yi's heart to tremble when she heard it. She had no immunity against handsome men at all.

Mu Chen rose to his feet, swaying slightly, before he said to the person next to him, "I'm going outside to sober up."

Yin Yi was inwardly delighted upon hearing this. Her gaze followed Mu Chen to the door. When a waiter who had stepped forward to support Mu Chen gestured to her, she nodded imperceptibly. She really felt grateful to Ning Dong at this moment. Ning Dong was really reliable; he handled the matter well so she did not have anything to worry about.

After a moment, Yin Yi rose to her feet and said to Guan Tang, "Cousin, I'm going to the bathroom."

At this time, Guan Tang was seated next to Ye Cheng. On the surface, she was chatting with a young master, but in fact, she had allowed Ye Cheng's hand to reach up her skirt. She did not even look at Yin Yi as she nodded in response.
