

A Marriage 801

Chapter 801: Concern

When Yin Jia's gaze fell on Guan Tang and Ye Cheng, Guan Tang's heart skipped a beat. She forced herself to remain calm.

On the other hand, Ye Cheng chatted cheerfully with the others as though he did not notice the sisters at all. However, secretly, he pinched Guan Tang's thigh.

Guan Tang's body trembled slightly, but she forced herself to remain silent.

Seeing the unnatural expression on Guan Tang's face, one of the wealthy young masters hurriedly asked, concerned, "Guan Tang, are you not feeling well? Do you want me to accompany you to get some fresh air?"

Guan Tang hurriedly brushed Ye Cheng's hand away and nodded. "Sure."

Guan Tang stood up, looking flustered. Her legs were a little weak, and she leaned against the young master.

With such a beauty throwing herself into his arm, the young master was naturally overjoyed. He hurriedly supported her and led her out.

Ye Cheng could not help but frown.

Upon seeing this, Yin Jia asked in a slightly cold tone, "What's wrong?"

Ye Cheng smiled. "Why don't you go take a look? Yin Yi and Guan Tang seem a little drunk."

Yin Jia swirled her wine glass gently as she said tonelessly, "You don't have to worry about them needlessly. They're both frequent patrons of nightclubs. This little bit of alcohol is nothing to them. The fact that they looked drunk only means that they've found someone they like?"

Ye Cheng looked stunned.

Yin Jia smiled with a hint of disdain as she looked at Ye Cheng and asked, "What? Don't tell me you think they're some young innocent girls?"

"They're your younger sisters," Ye Cheng said, sounding shocked.

Yin Jia lowered her gaze and took a sip from her wine glass before she said indifferently, "They're my younger sisters, but what does it matter to me how they conduct themselves outside?"

"What I mean is... Don't you care about them?" Ye Cheng asked, feeling like Yin Jia was a little different tonight.

Yin Yi looked at him, puzzled. "Care? What can I do? If Guan Tang is interested in that young man, wouldn't it be awkward if I go outside now? As for Yin Yi, she's clearly chasing after Mu Chen. If she really manages to catch Mu Chen, I can guarantee that my grandpa will help her marry into the Mu family."

“What about Guan Tang? Aren’t you worried she might be in danger?” Ye Cheng asked in a deep voice.

Yin Jia rolled her eyes. “What kind of danger would she be in? These people are your friends, and they’re from famous families in M City. Why would she be in danger? They can’t be bad people. Moreover, you know about Cheng Che and Guan Tang’s matter. It’s impossible between them. What’s wrong if she finds someone she likes? The best solution for her now is to find another young master who’s like my brother, right?”

Yin Jia stared at Ye Cheng intently after she finished speaking.

Under Yin Jia’s gaze, Ye Cheng felt like he had nowhere to hide. In the end, he could only smile and nod. “You have a point. You’re really thoughtful. I didn’t even think about this at all.”

Yin Jia smiled and said, “It’s normal that you didn’t think about it. In fact, it’d be strange if you did. That means you have other thoughts about her...”

Ye Cheng hastily denied. “How’s that possible? What thoughts would I have about her? I just thought that they’re younger sisters, and as their older sister and brother-in-law, we shouldn’t let them suffer a loss.”

Yin Jia’s smile and voice were gentle as she said, “Don’t worry. Faced with both of them, only others will suffer losses...”

Ye Cheng did not dare to speak anymore. He did not know what to say and could only look at Yin Jia tenderly.

Yin Jia wore a very satisfied expression upon seeing this. Then, she said with a soft sigh, “Since I was young, because I’m the eldest, I have to give in to my younger brothers and sisters. Since my grandpa has high expectations of me, I have to be magnanimous and broad-minded. From toys to clothes and properties, I have to give in. They’ve gotten used to it, and I’ve gotten used to it as well. When we grew up, I couldn’t do anything even when Guan Tang snatched my boyfriend away...”

Chapter 802: Veiled Threats

Ye Cheng listened attentively.

Yin Jia looked at Ye Cheng’s handsome face with a gentle gaze as she said, “In the past, I didn’t care if she stole my boyfriend away. I don’t care about who can be so easily moved. However, Ye Cheng... you’re different.”

Yin Jia stopped talking and looked at Ye Cheng.

Ye Cheng felt that his smile was a little stiff at the moment.

Seeing that Ye Cheng was quiet, Yin Jia said, “Ye Cheng, from all aspects, we’re the most suitable. I’ve decided on you. It’s for the rest of my life. I’ll take every word you say to me seriously. This time, whoever tries to ruin my relationship, I’ll make sure she dies a horrible death.”

Ye Cheng reached out to hug Yin Jia’s shoulders before he said with a smile, “You’re right. We’re the best match. Don’t worry. I won’t let others ruin it either. Let’s not talk about the past. Now and in the future, there’s only you in my heart.”

Yin Jia looked at Ye Cheng and smiled slowly.

An inexplicable sense of unease rose in Ye Cheng's heart at this moment.

Meanwhile, Cheng Che watched Yin Jia and Yin Jia coldly from the side. Then, he lowered his head and drank from his glass.

Cheng Che thought that Jiahui was right. Everyone was independent and had their own lives to live; this included blood relatives. He could not help others to live their lives. It was already miraculous enough that his sister managed to grow up safely in the Yin family's environment. The kind of person she grew up to be was not under his control. He could not change anything, and at most, he could only help her when she needed it. He believed his sister knew very well what kind of man Ye Cheng was like and that he did not need to go too much into detail. Nonetheless, it did not mean he could let Ye Cheng go.

As soon as Yin Yi stepped outside, someone stuffed a keycard into her hand. She did not need to look to know that it was someone Ning Dong had arranged to help her. Once again, she felt grateful to Ning Dong. She was determined to be a good friend to Ning Dong.

After looking at the number on the keycard, Yin Yi quickly made her way to the corresponding room.

When she entered the room, the room was extremely dark. She tiptoed in and closed the door. She stood quietly at the door, waiting for her eyes to adjust to the darkness. She could smell the alcohol in the air. She had noticed that Mu Chen had drunk quite a lot earlier. She thought Mu Chen would have a very high tolerance for alcohol and did not expect him to get drunk so easily. Nevertheless, this worked in her favor. Otherwise, where would she get the chance to act?

After her eyes adapted to the darkness, Yin Yi could vaguely see the outline of a figure on the bed. She could also hear the sounds of light breathing.

Yin Yi hurriedly brought out an incense stick and lit it up in the bathroom. She saw a suit scattered on the floor in the bathroom so she assumed Mu Chen had taken a shower earlier. She thought it was truly a godsend opportunity.

Yin Yi hurriedly undressed as well and quietly made her way to the bed.

The person on the bed was sound asleep and breathing evenly.

Yin Yi seemed as though she had fallen into a trance.

Due to the fragrance of the incense, the person on the bed gradually grew restless as well.

Upon seeing this, Yin Yi climbed into bed joyfully.

The person on the bed lifted the blanket because of the heat, and when Yin Yi's cold body came in contact with his, he instinctively pulled her into his arms as though he had found a life-saving raft.

Yin Yi did not dare to make a sound. She bit her lips to suppress her throbbing feelings.

The man's body grew hotter and hotter.

Yin Yi's hands grew restless, teasing the man's body.

How could a man who was overwhelmed by hunger and thirst let off the prey next to him?

Yin Yi allowed the man to conquer her. While she was immersed in her joy, she suddenly thought of something. She had asked Ning Dong to arrange for someone to take their pictures. How could the pictures be taken when it was so dark?

Chapter 803: Shock

However, the pleasure of the body quickly drowned out Yin Yi's reason.

The man she had been waiting for such a long time did not disappoint her. It had been a long time since she had met a man who made her feel so happy. It seemed like the power of the incense was truly amazing.

It was only when Yin Yi was exhausted that the man left her body. As she closed her eyes, she prayed fervently that she would be with child. She wanted to give birth to a child for the man she loved. With that, she would be able to trap him even more tightly.

The man seemed very attached to her body. He hugged her from behind and fell into a deep sleep.

Yin Yi was very satisfied. She thought that by the time she returned to S City, Song Ning would have been taken care of. At that time, this man and everything he had would be hers.

This world was one where the strong preyed on the weak. She was born into a wealthy family so this was even more true. She had to rely on her brain to survive.

Not only was she the youngest in the family, but her elder sister and brothers were all much more capable than her. She knew apart from a generous dowry, she would not get anything from the Yin family.

The best husband her family and elders could choose for her was someone like Ning Dong. With his family background, she would be able to live a comfortable life. However, that was not what she wanted. She wanted to stand on top of everyone. She wanted to marry a very successful man; apart from money, she wanted power and status as well. She wanted to command the wind and the rain. Among all the young madams, she wanted to be the person who had the final say. This naturally depended on the identity and status of her husband. In her eyes, the only person who could realize her dream was Mu Chen. It did not matter if he had a wife and a son; she could get rid of them easily.

After planning for such a long time, Yin Yi could finally heave a sigh of relief now that her goal had been achieved. She fell asleep peacefully.

When Yin Yi woke up, she saw that the room had gotten brighter. She was a little worried, wondering if the person Ning Dong arranged had taken the photos.

The man in the bed was breathing evenly. She did not dare to move so she could only continue to close her eyes and pretend to sleep.

At this moment, the man suddenly pulled her closer against him. Before she could react, she was violently invaded.

The slight pain made her cry out. She did not expect the sound to make the man move even more violently. It was even fiercer than the night before.

She was a little surprised. She instinctively catered to him, creating a spring-like scene in the room.

When the passion faded, the man fell asleep again.

'What a heartless man. He doesn't know how to be gentle at all,' Yin Yi thought to herself. Despite her thoughts, a small smile could be seen on her face. She could not complain. After all, someone like Mu Chen had the capital to do as he wanted.

Yin Yi rubbed her waist, thinking that it was worth it to die under the man's body. After stretching slightly, she turned around and slowly opened her eyes. In the next moment, she froze.

When she reacted, she screamed and jumped out of bed, completely ignoring the fact that she was naked. She looked at the man sleeping on the bed with a horrified expression on her face.

Instead of Mu Chen, Ning Dong was sleeping on the bed.

Yin Yi screamed again.

Ning Dong was sleeping deeply so he did not react at all.

Yin Yi could not care less about the mess on her body. She reached out and pushed Ning Dong, but Ning Dong did not even open his eyes.

The fragrance from the incense would make men lose their minds, left only with bodily desires.

She had specially obtained this incense to trap Mu Chen. How could the other party turn out to be Ning Dong?

Chapter 804: Bite Back

Yin Yi was shocked, horrified, and confused. She did not know how the man from last night turned out to be Ning Dong. Her heart was filled with bitterness, and she could not speak at this moment.

She rushed into the bathroom and returned with a glass of water. She splashed the water on him before she screamed and pounced on him, raising her hand to slap him. "Bast*rd! You ruined my plan!"

Ning Dong woke up, looking dazed. He did not seem to feel the slaps or the water that drenched his body. Then, he glared at Yin Yi viciously before he backhanded her and threw her on the bed.

"You set me up!"

Before Yin Yi could say anything, Ning Dong straddled Yin Yi and slapped her. "B*tch! You're such a b*tch! How dare you set me up! You like men a lot, right? Very well, then I'll let you have a good taste!"

Ning Dong entered Yin Yi's body again.

Yin Yi screamed and struggled. She did not expect the gentle and weak-looking Ning Dong to be so strong. He pressed her shoulder down, and the more she struggled, the rougher he was.

Yin Yi cursed shrilly, "You bast*rd! You're the one who set me up!"

Following that, she cried out when she felt a sharp pain. Ning Dong had bitten her.

Ning Dong leaned down and said viciously, "Who set you up? You cheap b*tch! You ran into the room and climbed into my bed! You even drugged me! What? Aren't you going to admit it? Didn't you feel good last night? Now you want to bite back? Are you going to accuse me of raping you? Fine! I'll let you have a taste of what it's like then! Stop pretending to be innocent. Who knows how many men you've slept with before!"

Yin Yi was completely at Ning Dong's mercy, and Ning Dong did not show any mercy at all. He insulted her mercilessly as he abused her cruelly. He called her shameless and promiscuous as he left painful traces on her skin. In the end, she completely broke down under the mental and physical torture.

Alas, Ning Dong did not let her go. He continued to vent his anger on her. When he was finally down, he kicked her out of bed like a broken doll.

Ning Dong walked into the bathroom naked to wash up.

When the sound of water rang from the bathroom, Yin Yi finally cried. She was in pain. The bruises on her body showed how ruthless Ning Dong had been. For the first time, fear rose in her heart.

Ning Dong was not like what she knew of him at all. He was a completely different person.

When Ning Dong finally walked out with a white towel wrapped around his waist, he looked at Yin Yi, who was curled up on the bed, and said with a sneer, "Why aren't you washing up? You're so filthy."

As soon Ning Dong approached, Yin Yi quickly leaped out of bed and rushed into the bathroom. She was terrified by his gaze.

By the time Yin Yi emerged from the bathroom, Ning Dong was already fully dressed. He was looking at the tablet in his hand.

Yin Yi sobbed as she mustered up her courage and said, "You set me up! We agreed that you'd help me get with Mu Chen! It was your subordinate that gave me the keycard. I thought, I thought this was Mu Chen's room. I thought..."

"You thought I was Mu Chen, and you thought you were sleeping with Mu Chen," Ning Dong said with a sneer.

Yin Yi leaned against the wall and covered her face as she wept.

Ning Dong smiled coldly and handed the tablet in his hand to Yin Yi as he said, "Stop lying. This is all your scheme. I've checked it. This room is registered under my name. Mu Chen's room isn't on this floor at all. You also brought the incense here. What? You still want to deny it? The person I was waiting for was not you! You've ruined my innocence!"

Chapter 805: Showdown

Yin Yi could not say a word when faced with Ning Dong's false accusations.

Ning Dong's smile was vicious as he asked, "Now, what do you plan to do?"

'What? What do you mean by 'what do I plan to do?'

Yin Yi's mind was spinning. She still had yet to process what was happening and what had happened.

Ning Dong continued to say, "You've ruined my plans. I could've been married to Miss Cheng. I didn't expect to see you here. To think you still have the nerve to blame me? How ridiculous! You're disgusting!"

Yin Yi's tears flowed down her face. She felt extremely aggrieved.

Ning Dong reached out and gripped her chin. "You did pretty well last night. I thought about it. The Yin family isn't any worse than the Cheng family. Maybe I should switch you. It makes no difference anyway."

Yin Yi trembled and asked, "W-what do you mean?"

Ning Dong withdrew his hand and crossed his arms as he said, "I wanted the help from the Cheng family so I decided to marry Miss Cheng. However, she was arrogant and didn't like me. I was inspired by you so I came up with this plan. I didn't expect you to come to me. It seems like this is fate. Very well. You're it."

"I'm it?" Yin Yi asked in a daze as though she did not understand Ning Dong's words.

Ning Dong smiled icily and said, "I need help. Since there's no hope with the Cheng family, I'll have to make do with your Yin family. Our relationship was only in name previously because you have someone in your heart and won't marry me. Similarly, I had my sights set on someone else. However, now... there's no need for that. Since things have developed like this, you'll have to marry me even if you don't want to."

Yin Yi shouted furiously, "You bast*rd! Keep dreaming! I will never marry you! I will never marry you!"

Yin Yi clutched the blanket tightly as she glared at Ning Dong. She had never suffered such a loss since she was young. She did not expect to fall into the hands of an unknown brat.

Yin Yi did not think much of Ning Dong. Although he had a good family background and was good-looking, he was just an ordinary wealthy young master. He did not have the noble and domineering bearing of someone with power. He was not her type and was only fit to be her sidekick.

However, the Ning Dong in front of Yin Yi now seemed to have changed into a different person. When she thought about last night, chills permeated her heart.

Ning Dong was neither anxious nor angry when he looked at the frustrated Yin Yi. He waved the tablet in his hand and said, "My dreams are very realistic, and I also have the ability to realize my dream. What about you?"

Ning Dong continued to say, "Whether you marry or not is not up to you to decide. Next, the major media outlets will report your lewd deeds. You'll become a young miss whom everyone despises. No one will marry you at that time. Your elders naturally will try to mitigate the damage to the family's reputation at that time. Your escape route will be cut off." His smile was like that of the devil as he continued to say, "Everyone knows we're dating. When your reputation is in tatters, I'll come and ask for your hand in marriage. Yin Yi, do you want to know what will happen at that time? Your dowry will be twice as much as before. Your grandfather and your parents will be extremely grateful to me, and they'll regard me highly because I save you and your family's reputation."

Yin Yi felt chills running up her spine when she heard Ning Dong's words.

Ning Dong said mockingly, "So, stop dreaming. You will never be able to marry into the Mu family, and Mu Chen will never like someone like you. Your family is nothing in Mu Chen's eyes. Although I don't want to admit it, my sister, from her looks to her personality, is someone you can never surpass. No matter how drunk or delirious Mu Chen is, he'll never want a sl*t like you!"

Chapter 806: Seduction

Yin Yi gritted her teeth, furious. "You... You helped me get close to him and let people think we have an ambiguous relationship, stirring up conflicts between them... You... Have you been scheming against me since that time?"

Ning Dong smiled. He was not stupid; he would not confess too much at this time. He moved closer to Yin Yi and revealed the gentle smile Yin Yi was familiar with before he said, "How can you say that? I was sincerely helping you. Moreover, you're filthy and lowly, why would I like you? Scheme against you? Which man would like a woman like you as his wife? Remember, I'm not willing either. You're the one who sent yourself to my room. I'm a good-for-nothing so I have no choice but to use you."

Ning Dong used the gentlest tone to say the most vicious words. He looked at the silent Yin Yi and smiled faintly before he turned to leave.

Yin Yi let out a shriek as she covered herself with the blanket and cried bitterly.

The corners of Ning Dong's lips curled up into a smile. A scheming person would not be able to accept being schemed against. He let out a soft sigh now that the dust had settled and everything had gone according to plan. After obtaining the Yin family's support, his father would have to be wary of him.

In fact, Ning Dong had noticed the change in his father's attitude recently. He could guess the reason behind it. However, he no longer cared because he knew his father could do nothing to him. After all, they were father and son. As for the Ning family, the thing they could not afford to lose most was their reputation.

Although most wealthy families had a few scandals, the Ning family had more than their fair share. Ning Zhe abandoned his wife and daughter and killed his stillborn son. After that, he married another woman. If there was another scandal again, whatever reputation Ning Zhe had left would be ruined.

When Ning Dong arrived at the lobby, he saw a group of reporters swarming in. He quickly dodged them, surprised.

‘Why are there so many reporters? What happened?’

Puzzled, Ning Dong quickly left the hotel to make follow-up arrangements. He wanted to edit the video from last night and send it to reporters he was familiar with. He could not let anything be traced back to him.

However, Ning Dong did not expect that the story he wanted to expose about Yin Yi would not cause a ripple in the Yin family at all. This was due to the explosive story about Guan Tang.

The night before.

Guan Tang was helped out of the private room by the young master. She wanted to take a breather, and she was certain Ye Cheng would follow her out. She was very confident about this.

The young master who followed Guan Tang out was Cheng Ping. He was a typical wealthy young master who lived a hedonistic lifestyle. He was one of Guan Tang’s suitors.

Guan Tang naturally did not like men like Cheng Ping. In her opinion, he was not worthy of her. Nonetheless, her principle had always been the same. She would not refuse men’s goodwill even if she did not like them. As someone who was excellent in all aspects, she would give all suitors just enough attention and affection to string them along so they would stay by her side and be her loyal spare tire.

In Guan Tang’s eyes, Cheng Ping was really not qualified even to be her spare tire, but she still did not refuse him. She did not ruin his illusion of her being interested in him.

Cheng Ping looked at Guan Tang with a distressed expression and asked, “Is it suffocating inside? Is that why you don’t feel well?”

Guan Tang smiled weakly and shook her head gently as she said, “It’s not that. Perhaps, I drank a little so my stomach feels a little uncomfortable. I feel a little nauseous.”

Her brows were slightly furrowed, making her look pitiful. After saying that, she quickly walked toward the bathroom.

Cheng Ping quickly stepped forward to support her as he asked, “Do you feel really bad, Guan Tang? What should we do?”

Guan Tang leaned against his arm that was supporting her. Who knew if it was intentional or not. She said softly, “It’s alright. I’ll be fine in a while. I’m sorry to trouble you.”

Chapter 807: Bargaining Chip

Cheng Ping hurriedly said, “What are you saying? Isn’t taking care of girls the right thing to do? Moreover, you’re such a sensible girl. How about this? Why don’t I help you to the room upstairs to rest?”

Guan Tang hesitated.

Cheng Ping hastily added, "Oh, I'll inform Miss Yin Jia about it when I return and tell her to come and see you, okay?"

Guan Tang's mind was spinning with thoughts at this moment. She did not care if Cheng Ping told Yin Jia or not. What she cared about was Ye Cheng and that Ye Cheng knew where she was. After a moment, she smiled and said, "Okay, then I'll have to trouble you."

Guan Tang skillfully placed her hand in Cheng Ping's hand and let him help her to the room upstairs.

After entering the room, she placed her hand on her forehead and said weakly, "I'll rest now. You can go down first."

Cheng Ping helped her sit on the bed before he said worriedly, "Alright. If you need anything, you call me."

Guan Tang nodded gently. "Okay."

The way Guan Tang looked at Cheng Ping made his heart skip a beat, and he was even more reluctant to move.

At this time, Guan Tang rose to her feet and said before going into the bathroom, "I'm going to shower first."

Cheng Ping smiled meaningfully when he saw Guan Tang entering the bathroom but there was no sound of the door being locked.

As for Guan Tang, she sneered when she heard the sound of the room door closing. Although she did not intend to let things go far with Cheng Ping, she scoffed inwardly and thought to herself, 'Just a coward with no guts. I've already made it so convenient, but he still doesn't dare to do anything.'

Guan Tang really looked down on these wealthy young masters. Not only were they irresponsible, but they were also cowardly. What made them think they were worthy of her? Just because her family background was inferior to theirs, they thought she would stay with them and be a good wife. She could be a good wife and mother, but it depended on who the other party was.

Guan Tang turned the shower on and let the water run, calming the fire of desire in her body. She was not reconciled when she recalled the affectionate and intimate look that Ye Cheng and Yin Jia shared earlier. She had to find a suitable time to show Yin Jia that Ye Cheng was already hers. She knew that at that time, Yin Jia would surely shed all pretenses with her and that she would lose the protection of the Yin family and her aunt as a result. However, she did not care anymore.

Ye Cheng's family background was enough to offset the loss of the Yin family's support. Moreover, if the Yin family went overboard, she still had a trump card. Hence, she was not afraid of anything now.

Since the Yin family left her with no way out and did not intend to make her the Young Madam of the Yin family, she would steal the young son-in-law of the Yin family away from them as compensation. She would show them that there was nothing in this world that could be obtained for free. She would make those who hurt her and scheme against her pay the price.

As for Cheng Che and Jiahui, she would not let them off as well. When she had secured Ye Cheng's heart, the first person she would get rid of was Jiahui. Hatred surged in her heart whenever she thought about Jiahui's threats to her. She really regretted being soft-hearted back then. She was careless and did not get rid of Jiahui immediately, and as a result, she brought a disaster to herself.

Guan Tang wiped the water off her face and turned the shower off before she reached out to take the towel and dry her body. After that, she turned around and wiped the vapor off the mirror. When she saw her curvaceous body in the mirror, a satisfied and proud smile appeared on her face.

Guan Tang let out a long sigh. The most important thing now was Ye Cheng, her bargaining chip. She had to hold on to him well.

After wrapping the towel around her body, she walked out. When she looked up, she saw Cheng Ping looking at her with a lewd expression on her face.

Guan Tang was shocked. She clutched the towel around her body tightly and exclaimed, "Why are you here?"

Chapter 808: Worried

Cheng Ping reached out to pull Guan Tang's towel as he asked, "Didn't you invite us here?"

"Us?!"

There was a loud buzzing noise in Guan Tang's ears. She turned to the side and saw four or five men sitting on the bed, looking at her with the same expression on Cheng Ping's face. She backed away in fear immediately. "You! What do you want?"

Cheng Ping stepped forward and smiled suggestively he said, "What do we want? Do you even need to ask?"

Guan Tang lost her temper immediately. "Get out! Get out now! Otherwise, I'll call the police!"

Cheng Ping and the men behind him laughed as though they had heard a funny joke.

"Call the police? Alright, but wait a moment. Wait until we're done with you before you call the police. Otherwise, you won't have any evidence. What can you do even if you call the police if you have no evidence?"

Guan Tang's heart beat wildly in her chest. She forced herself to calm down as she said, "I'm the fiancée of the Eldest Young Master of the Yin family! My brother-in-law, Ye Cheng, is in the Public Security Bureau! Don't mess around! Even if you're wealthy and powerful, you won't be able to get away with this!"

for faster releases read on webnovel.site

Cheng Ping was unmoved by those words. He said, "Oh? So you still know Ye Cheng is your brother-in-law? Even then, you still act so brazenly?"

Guan Tang was shocked. "You, what do you mean?"

Cheng Ping did not bother explaining anything to her. He reached out and pulled the towel again as he said fiercely, "Why are you talking so much nonsense? Why do you act like you don't want this when your actions say otherwise? Your thoughts are written all over your face. Stop pretending!"

Guan Tang shrieked when her towel was pulled away and thrown to the side. She instinctively covered her body with her hands, but it only drew laughter from the men.

Yin Jia lowered her head to look at her watch.

Meanwhile, Ye Cheng looked a little absent-minded as he looked around. Mu Chen, Yin Yi, and Guan Tang had yet to return. Finally, he moved to Cheng Che's side and asked loudly, "Where did Mu Chen go? Does he usually go to the bathroom for so long whenever he drinks?"

Cheng Che only smiled faintly and said, "My brother can't hold his liquor, you know that."

Ye Cheng scoffed. "He can't hold his liquor? Please. You can lie to others, but not me."

Cheng Che only looked at Ye Cheng from the corners of his eyes and did not say anything else.

At this time, Yin Jia came over and asked, "Are you worried about Mu Chen, Yin Yi, and Guan Tang?"

Despite the gentle smile on her face, there was no warmth at all.

Ye Cheng said frankly, "Yes. I don't know where they went. Mu Chen should be fine since this is his territory. However, Guan Tang and Yin Yi are girls, after all. They've been gone for so long. Why don't I go and look for them?"

With that, Ye Cheng stood up.

Yin Jia stood up as well and said, "In that case, I'll go with you."

Ye Cheng could clearly sense Yin Jia's change. Perhaps, she had already discovered his affair with Guan Tang. He had no choice. Yin Jia was the Eldest Young Miss of the Yin family, after all. As for Guan Tang, she could only be kept in the dark. He quickly sorted out the pros and cons in his mind. Then, he put on the righteous mask of a brother-in-law and said, "Alright. Let's go and take a look. The people in this place aren't simple, after all. We can't let anything happen to the two of them. As their sister and brother-in-law, we're responsible for them."

Cheng Che rose to his feet before he said with a frown, "I've never seen you care so much about anyone. It seems like you've changed a lot."

Ye Cheng said smoothly, "Of course. I've decided to be with your sister my entire life. Since I love her, I naturally love her family as well."

After saying that, Ye Cheng smiled. However, he soon discovered that Yin Jia and Cheng Che were not smiling at all. Their eyes when they looked at him were different, causing him to break out in cold sweat. He quickly recalled his actions, wondering if he had given himself away. However, he really did not find any flaws in his words and actions.

Chapter 809: Mishap

After a moment, Yin Jia stepped forward and held Ye Cheng's arm as she said, "Let's go then. Let's go and find them and see what they're up to. They're gone for so long."

Cheng Che followed as well.

As soon as they came out, they saw a group of reporters rushing past them.

Ye Cheng was stunned.

On the contrary, a faint smile appeared on Yin Jia's face.

Ye Cheng muttered, confused, "What's going on?"

Yin Jia glanced at reporters' backs and said nonchalantly, "Perhaps, a popular celebrity is here. Apart from celebrities, I can't think of anyone who's able to draw so many reporters out."

Ye Cheng frowned.

At this moment, Cheng Che's phone vibrated. He walked away to answer the call, and when he returned, he said to Yin Jia and Ye Cheng, "My brother has already gone home."

"He went home?" Ye Cheng was surprised.

Cheng Che nodded. "The baby isn't feeling well. Grandma called him back to take a look. My sister-in-law is on a business trip."

Ye Cheng had nothing to say. If Mu Chen used excuses like not being able to hold his liquor well or not feeling well, he could find a reason to make Mu Chen stay. However, he could not find a reason to stop Mu Chen from leaving if Mu Chen's son was not feeling well. It was an iron-clad excuse.

"What about Yin Yi?" Ye Cheng and Yin Jia asked in unison.

Cheng Che looked at the duo with a profound gaze.

The duo knew immediately that they had misspoken.

Yin Jia hurriedly said, "I saw Yin Yi leave with Mu Chen so I assumed she went to look for him. Since Mu Chen went home, did Yin Yi go back to the Mu family with him?"

Cheng Che took a deep breath to calm down before he said very icily, "My brother is a married man. He's a husband and a father. How long are you going to pretend to be ignorant?"

Yin Jia was slightly embarrassed, but she quickly returned to normal. She said, "Cheng Che, you're now a member of the Yin family. Yin Yi is your sister. We're her elder siblings so we have to look after her. I know Yin Yi's thoughts. I don't think it's wrong for her to pursue her happiness. If Mu Chen and his wife are close, then Yin Yi's actions will only be in vain. If the relationship between the two isn't good, then Yin Yi can't be blamed."

Cheng Che sneered at Yin Jia. "Are you saying that if a man cheats, it's the fault of the woman?"

Yin Jia did not say anything and only stared at Cheng Che.

Cheng Che's eyes shifted to Ye Cheng before he slowly said, "Sister, don't forget that you're also a woman."

Ye Cheng laughed awkwardly. "Alright, alright, look at both of you brother and sister. What's the point of arguing? Why don't you call Mu Chen and see if Yin Yi is with him?"

Cheng Che said coldly, "Is this the first day you met my brother? How could he possibly let Yin Yi leave with him? My brother isn't like you. He won't make mistakes like you..."

"Cheng Che, I know you're brothers with Mu Chen, but don't trample on me, okay? I didn't make any mistakes. Your brother is good, but your brother-in-law is good as well. Otherwise, how could your sister like me?" Ye Cheng said self-righteously as he reached out to wrap his arm around Yin Jia's shoulders.

Cheng Che naturally did not buy Ye Cheng's act. He only said, "Why don't you call Yin Yi to ask where she is. No matter where she is, she's definitely not with my brother."

Yin Jia had no choice but to call Yin Yi.

"I heard that she's the cousin of the young misses of the Yin family. She grew up in the Yin family since she was young. I didn't expect her to be such a sl*t!"

"I heard she's originally the fiancée of the Eldest Young Master of the Yin family. I didn't expect her to cheat on him!"

"What are you saying? The Eldest Young Master of the Yin family already has someone he loves. He didn't want to marry her. Fortunately, he didn't. Otherwise, he'd be greatly humiliated.

Chapter 810: Interrogation

The trio was shocked by what they heard.

Ye Cheng grabbed one of the reporters who had just spoken and said, "Wait a minute! Who are you talking about?"

The reporter instinctively shook Ye Cheng's hand off and asked, "Who are you?" After taking a closer look, he hurriedly said, "Oh, it's President Ye. I'm sorry, I'm sorry."

These reporters were entertainment reporters. They were naturally familiar with Ye Cheng who had many scandals with women. Hence, this reporter knew Ye Cheng was not simple. Ye Cheng was not only from a wealthy family, but he was also in the Public Security Bureau. He knew Ye Cheng was not someone he could afford to offend so he hurriedly apologized.

Ye Cheng did not care much and asked, "Who were you talking about?"

The reporter quickly lowered his voice and said, "Something happened, President Ye. There's a woman upstairs playing with a few wealthy young masters. It's so bad that a few of the young masters' girlfriends came to look for her!"

"You didn't see it, but there was a huge battle! That woman was naked and beaten up by the group of girlfriends! They even called us over to take photos. They're forcing us to expose her. Otherwise, they're going to make things difficult for us. President Ye, we can't afford to offend all these young misses. We have no choice but to do as we're told."

Ye Cheng asked anxiously, "Who's the woman you're talking about?"

"Oh, this is even more shocking. Do you know the Yin family? They're one of the richest families in S City and recently came to M City to expand their business. That woman is a cousin of the children of the Yin family! She grew up in the Yin family and was supposed to be the fiancée of the Eldest Young Master of the Yin family. However, I heard that when the eldest young master came back from abroad, he already had someone in his heart and had no interest in her at all!"

"If you ask me, I think this woman is seeking revenge on the eldest young master by playing with a few wealthy young masters. This level of promiscuity is really... I really wonder how much she hates the Yin family to do such a thing..."

The reporter was so immersed that he began to analyze the matter as well. Perhaps, it was an occupational hazard.

The Yin family had ulterior motives so they naturally did not publicize Cheng Che's return to the family. As for Yin Jia, since she came to M City, she did not make any public appearances so most reporters did not recognize her.

For this reason, the reporter spoke in an unrestrained manner and only fawned over Ye Cheng.

Ye Cheng was shocked. He did not say anything to Cheng Che and Yin Jia before he rushed upstairs.

Cheng Che looked at Ye Cheng's back and asked Yin Jia, "Are you sure he's your lover?"

Yin Jia turned and smiled sweetly at Cheng Che as she said, "Don't worry. I'll turn him into my lover."

Cheng Che could not help but feel annoyed. "Why? Is he the only man in the world? Don't you think there's something wrong about how worried he is about Guan Tang and how eager he is to see her?"

Yin Jia faced her brother and softened her tone as she said, "Cheng Che, based on your concern for me, I'll do my best to fight for the things you deserve. Don't worry about me. I'll live well. Marrying Ye Cheng is my best choice at the moment. Even if he's not a good man now, I'll make sure he becomes a good man. I'll make sure that anyone who stands in my way dies a horrible death."

Cheng Che looked at Yin Jia in disbelief as he asked in a low voice, "You, you did this?"

Yin Jia smiled proudly, "Cheng Che, remember this. After returning to the Yin family, you don't have to care about anything. Put away your conscience and good intentions. No one is worthy of your sympathy and kindness."

Cheng Che took a step forward and asked through gritted teeth, "Did you do this?"

Yin Jia raised an eyebrow. "Don't you hate her? She tormented your girlfriend so much. Don't you hate her at all?"
