

Chapter 811: Conversation

Cheng Che looked at his biological sister. He could not conceal the shock he felt. "It's really you? You, you... Guan Tang..."

Although Cheng Che was a grown man, he could not finish his words.

Yin Jia looked at Cheng Che indifferently and said, "What? You're going to say I harmed her? What did I do to her? Do I need to harm her? How could I harm her if she was a good person?"

Cheng Che was rendered speechless. Although Yin Jia's words were reasonable, he still found them hard to accept. He asked, "But... You can't ruin her like this, right?"

Cheng Che felt conflicted.

Yin Jia looked at Cheng Che and said, "Brother, being kind to certain women is the worst. I know you have Dr. An in your heart. What can you do to protect her? The only thing you can do is to be on guard. Being on guard is passive, and it's only suitable for those who care about their reputation and don't want to get their hands dirty. People like Guan Tang who are shameless and despicable can't be treated with kindness..."

After a beat, she continued to say tonelessly, "She relied on her aunt's indulgence and love for her to do unspeakable filthy things. This isn't the first or second time she's stolen my boyfriend. I can forget about the past, but she definitely cannot touch Ye Cheng." Her voice turned icier as she continued to say, "In the past, I was injured because of love. Now, I'm past the age where I'm stuck in the trappings of love. What I care about now are my reputation and dignity. Since Ye Cheng wants to marry me, he has to be clean. If Guan Tang weren't so despicable, I would've helped her to become my sister-in-law. However, it's impossible now! She doesn't deserve it!"

Initially, Cheng Che had been worried his sister would be hurt by the pair of despicable lovers. However, now, it looked like his worry was completely unnecessary. His sister was incomparably clear-minded and bold.

At this time, Ye Cheng, who turned to look back, wore an extremely unsightly expression on his face.

Yin Jia adjusted her expression immediately and asked, "How is it?"

Ye Cheng said, "Yin Jia, go and take a look. Guan Tang has locked herself up and wants to commit suicide. We can't let the reporters have any more materials to write about, right? It's better if you go in and persuade her."

Yin Jia frowned for a moment before she asked, "Do you have a way to get rid of the reporters?"

Ye Cheng nodded. "Yes, I'll get to it immediately."

Yin Jia said, "Alright then. I'll go in and see Guan Tang. Cheng Che, there's nothing for you to do here. Go back to the private room and pretend that nothing happened." Then, she pushed Cheng Che away without waiting for Cheng Che's reply as she said to Ye Cheng, "Let's split up and act."

Ye Cheng was still a little worried, but Yin Jia had already left without looking back. She walked toward the group of reporters and raised her voice as she said, "Everyone, please don't jump to conclusions and spread rumors. If you have any questions, please speak to Mr. Ye."

After that, Yin Jia cut through the crowd and made her way into Guan Tang's room.

Ye Cheng looked at Yin Jia's back, and for the first time, an uneasy feeling rose in his heart. He thought that he might have misjudged Yin Jia. He had a vague feeling that Guan Tang must have fallen into Yin Jia's trap and that Yin Jia was aware of everything but had remained silent. With that thought in mind, he could not help but feel a chill in his heart.

Yin Jia used the spare key card and opened the door. After closing the door, she slowly turned around and looked at Guan Tang who was wrapped in the blanket on the bed. Her mood was indescribably good.

Guan Tang was crying. This time, she had fallen into a desperate situation. It was fine if she was with five or six men, but the problem was the reporters who caught wind of the matter. She thought about the possible culprit, wondering who wanted to deal with her like this. The biggest suspect was Jiahui, the woman who was born to be sworn enemies with her. She gritted her teeth, thinking that Jiahui was truly vicious.

"That's enough. There's no one here now. To whom are you trying to show off this pitiful look?"

When Yin Jia's frosty voice rang in Guan Tang's ears, she felt her ears buzzing.

Chapter 812: Loosening the Reins to Grasp Them Better

Yin Jia leaned down and pulled the blanket away before she slowly straightened her back. She did not hide the pride she felt.

"It's you?" Guan Tang did not expect Yin Jia to treat her this way.

Yin Jia sneered. "Didn't expect it?" She walked closer before she looked at Guan Tang and continued to say, "I heard that you want to commit suicide? Hmm, I think this is a good solution. If you die now, things will be much better. At that time, I can get people to describe you as chaste and kind. No one will know how shameless and vicious you are. With that, we can still salvage the Yin family and the Guan family's reputation a little."

Guan Tang glared at Yin Jia and asked in a slightly hoarse voice, "Why? Why?"

Yin Jia looked like she had heard the biggest joke. "Why? You have the audacity to ask why? Guan Tang, don't pretend to be dumb. Didn't I warn you not to touch Ye Cheng? Do you think I'll swallow my pride and turn a blind eye like before? You're too prideful, and you deserve retribution. After so many years, you seem to have forgotten that I'm the Eldest Young Miss of the Yin family. In your heart, you think my title is just an empty title. I'll show you now what the Eldest Young Miss of the Yin family is like. Guan Tang, I've let you off for so many years, and now, I'm going to take it all back. This is all your fault. You can't blame anyone."

Yin Jia took another look at Guan Tang's swollen face before she turned around and left. When she came outside and saw Ye Cheng surrounded by reporters, her mood was very good. Only when the reporters left did she go forward and held Ye Cheng's arm and said, "Let's go."

Ye Cheng looked back and asked, "Is Guan Tang okay?"

Yin Jia said bluntly, "Don't worry. Even if everyone in the world dies, she won't commit suicide."

At this moment, Ye Cheng seemed to realize he had lost his composure. He said, slightly embarrassed, "I didn't expect something like that would happen in M City. I wonder if your grandfather and father will be angry."

Yin Jia said calmly as she walked, "They'll definitely be angry, but so what? In the end, she's a member of the Guan family. Our family raised her for so many years, and we've done our best. Are people going to blame the Yin family? In the past, she was the fiancée of the Eldest Young Master of the Yin family. However, now, everyone knows that my brother has a fiancée whom he's been in love with for many years. Who is she to the Yin family?"

Ye Cheng did not expect such cold and ruthless words from Yin Jia. He asked, slightly surprised, "Aren't you going to settle the scores with those bast*rds?"

Yin Jia stopped in her tracks and looked at Ye Cheng. "Even if we're going to settle the scores, it's not the Yin family's place to do so. It should be the Guan family."

Ye Cheng blurted out in a moment of panic, "But Guan Tang has said the Guan family has no affection for her."

Yin Jia looked at Ye Cheng and slowly pulled her hand away from him before she said directly, "Ye Cheng, you know her very well. Do you feel sorry for her?" After a beat, she said, "You can lead the horse to the water, but you can't make it drink. I understand that matters of the heart can't be forced. So, go back and think things through. What exactly do you want? What Guan Tang needs now is a man who's considerate and will take care of her. If you choose her, then I wish you all the best. I'm the legitimate Eldest Young Miss of the Yin family, after all. It's impossible for me to marry a man with such intentions like you. I still have this much pride and self-respect left."

After saying that, Yin Jia did not wait for a reply before she left. Who did not know how to play hard to get? If Ye Cheng really turned around and looked for Guan Tang, she would really admire him. She had never met a man who could still be 'affectionate' after such a thing happened.

Ye Cheng immediately caught up and reached out to pull Yin Jia back. "Yin Jia, you've misunderstood."

Yin Jia stopped and sneered inwardly. 'Misunderstood? What's there to misunderstand?'

Yin Jia's heart was desolate, but she said nothing.

Chapter 813: Marriage Proposal

Yin Yi and Guan Tang had failed miserably at the last moment before departing M City.

Guan Tang became fodder for the media in M City. Her scandal spread like a wildfire in just an instant.

Just as Yin Jia had said, the Yin family did not stand up for Guan Tang.

Guan Tang was hurriedly sent back to S City, and the handling of the public opinion in M City was left to Ye Cheng, the future son-in-law of the Yin family, to handle. This was not difficult for Ye Cheng, but to handle it cleanly without leaving a trace was quite difficult. After all, the other parties involved were all young masters of wealthy and influential families in M City. There was nothing Ye Cheng could do to them.

As for Ye Cheng and Guan Tang, they both knew the culprit was Yin Jia, but there was nothing they could do to her. Even if they knew, they could not say anything.

The entire family was still immersed in the joy of Cheng Che returning to S City with them, but there was a small incident before they returned.

Unexpectedly, Ning Dong came to the Yin family to propose marriage. He did not bring any betrothal gifts and only handed Old Master Yin a tablet before he knelt in front of Old Master Yin. After that, he confessed that Yin Yi suggested being in a fake relationship to lie to the families. He also revealed that Yin Yi did not give up on Mu Chen.

Old Master Yin was so angry that he almost vomited blood.

Ning Dong told Old Master Yin that he had been schemed against in the hotel room and that the person Yin Yi had planned to sleep with was Mu Chen. Who knew something went wrong and Yin Yi came to his room instead.

Old Master Yin felt suffocated when he heard about his granddaughter's shameless behavior. He tried to calm down as he looked at the young man kneeling in front of him. He said, "Young man, thank you for keeping this a secret. The entire Yin family is grateful to you."

Ning Dong sighed in relief, but he did not get up.

Old Master Yin looked at Ning Dong and asked, "What do you want? I'll try my best to satisfy your request. After all, you've saved the Yin family this time." Then, he reached out to support Ning Dong up.

Ning Dong remained kneeling. He grabbed Old Master Yin's arm instead. He looked at Old Master Yin with a sincere expression as he said, "Old Master Yin, I've done something wrong so I don't dare to ask for anything. However, this concerns the reputation of the two families. I'd like to ask you to agree to my marriage with Yin Yi to cover this matter up."

Old Master Yin was stunned. Although he had some thoughts in his mind, he did not reveal them. He was now completely focused on Cheng Che. He would only deal with other matters after Cheng Che's matter was resolved; he did not think too much about his granddaughter's matter. However, he did not expect the tall and slightly thin young man in front of him to be so responsible. With Ning Dong's words, he recalled Ning Dong's background. Marrying Yin Yi into the Ning family would only benefit the Yin family.

Old Master Yin could not help but smile. He pulled Ning Dong up again as he said, relieved, "Good boy. I didn't expect you to be so responsible. Since you don't dislike Yin Yi, Grandpa will agree to the marriage and fulfill your wish."

With these words, Ning Dong finally rose to his feet and said excitedly, "Thank you, Grandpa. Then, I'll return and inform my parents so they can formally come and propose marriage."

Old Master Yin smiled and nodded. He did not expect the people of M City to be so good. They had not only solved the Yin family's problem, but even benefited the Yin family.

At this time, Ning Dong revealed a troubled expression as he said hesitantly, "But, Grandpa, I'm afraid it'll be difficult to change Yin Yi's mind. She has Mu Chen in her heart. I'm afraid she'll be unwilling to sacrifice her love and marry me."

Chapter 814: Dignity

Old Master Yin's gaze turned pointed as he said, "Her love? If it weren't because you're so responsible and thoughtful, the Yin family's dignity and reputation would have been trampled under someone's feet at this moment. Ning Dong, return and talk to your parents. I'll have to trouble them to visit our house. For the sake of the Yin family's dignity, I'll definitely prepare a generous dowry for Yin Yi!"

Ning Dong was very tactful. He glanced at the tablet on the table before he said, "Grandpa, only you, Yin Yi, and I know about this matter. Even if it's my parents, I won't say anything about it. I'll tell them that I like Yin Yi so I want them to propose marriage. As for that matter, let's just bury it."

Old Master Yin was in a great mood. He patted Ning Dong's shoulder, looking very appreciative.

After Ning Dong left, Old Master Yin could not hold it in any longer when he looked at the tablet. He summoned Yin Bin over. He naturally had to let Yin Bin know what his daughter had done.

Guan Ning's face paled after she looked at the tablet. She gripped the tablet tightly as she asked tremblingly, "Where, where did this come from?"

Guan Ning had lost her composure in front of her father-in-law, and her voice was very high-pitched at this moment.

Yin Bin's expression was unsightly as well. "Father..."

Old Master Yin waved his hand. "I've already convinced Ning Dong to marry Yin Yi. Do you have any objections?"

Yin Bin and Guan Ning exchanged a look.

Old Master Yin looked at the couple and said, "Ning Dong said he had been schemed against. Yin Yi's original target was Mu Chen. For the sake of the two families' reputation, he's willing to marry Yin Yi."

Guan Ning's heart skipped a beat. "Yin Yi didn't do it voluntarily! We can report him and sue him!"

"Sue him for what? For raping your daughter? What evidence do you have? Do you have any evidence? Your daughter did it willingly! If you insist on exposing the matter, I'm afraid the Mu family will get involved as well! Can you afford the consequences?" Old Master Yin said angrily.

Yin Bin could not help but say, "Doesn't this mean Ning Dong benefited for nothing? Although we intend to match-make them, we're not completely satisfied with the Ning family..."

Old Master Yin sneered. "This is all of your precious daughter's fault. What? You want to use the Yin family's reputation to seek justice for her?"

Yin Bin and Guan Ning did not dare to say anything else.

Old Master Yin looked at the duo and said, "Quit while you're ahead. That kid is quite scheming, but the important thing now is to suppress this matter. Fortunately, his family background is not bad, and he's not a bad match for Yin Yi. He'll ask his parents to come over to propose marriage. At that time, both of you better go with the flow."

Then, Old Master Yin switched the topic and said, "Our family also cannot interfere in Guan Tang's matter. It'll blow over eventually. If we help her, it'll only make things worse. Perhaps, we can use Yin Yi and Ning Dong's marriage to divert the public's attention."

"The most important thing now is Cheng Che. There must be enough pomp for his return to the family. We must show him how much we value him. Do you understand?"

The duo nodded solemnly.

Although Guan Ning was unhappy about her daughter's matter, she had no choice but to put it aside for the sake of her son. She had to prioritize matters so she would have to wrong her daughter for now.

Yin Bin thought about it for a moment before he finally told Old Master Yin about his original intention of wanting to make a connection with the Ning family.

Old Master Yin raised an eyebrow. "I didn't expect there to be such a relationship. This is even better. When the Ning family comes, have a proper chat with them. Don't create unnecessary problems."

Guan Ning lowered her gaze. 'Is my daughter going to be married off just like this? There's also Guan Tang. The Yin family protected her for so many years, but they suddenly let her go when Guan Tang needed them the most.'

Chapter 815: Hidden

After Guan Tang was secretly sent back to S City, she was not brought to the Yin family. Instead, she was placed in an unremarkable apartment.

The person who sent her back said coldly, "Miss Guan, the Old Master has instructed that you should hide here for a period of time. When the Eldest Young Master and the Young Misses' joyful occasions are over, your matter will naturally be forgotten. This is for your own good. The family has sent Mother Zhang over to serve you. You won't lack the daily necessities. I hope you'll behave yourself and not cause any trouble for the Yin family and the Guan family!"

The other party's voice was loud and clear.

Guan Tang felt suffocated and almost vomited blood when she heard those words. However, she only inhaled deeply and did not say a word. When one was down, even those who were lowly would dare to bully one.

Guan Tang soaked in the tub, trying to seek comfort. She closed her eyes and recalled what happened that night.

'Yin Jia, that ruthless woman!'

Guan Tang did not expect Yin Jia had only been showing weakness in the past and had finally bared her fangs. She had underestimated Yin Jia.

She was determined to turn things around. Originally, she planned to plant more spies in Zhuang Ji so that she could gain the upper hand with the Yin family. However, it was out of her expectations that the Yin family would disregard everything just to get Cheng Che back. Now, she had to review all the Yin family's actions again to gain clues. She would not allow the Yin family to abandon her just like this. It was impossible.

If they could not benefit from each other and co-exist peacefully, then she would rather die together with them. Since she had fallen into this state, she was not afraid of anything. She did not have a good outcome, she would not drag the Yin family down with her.

Song Ning was looking at Yin Zheng and Yin Jian's blood reports when Director Wang spoke to her about the Yin family again.

"Song Ning, I didn't think they would trade the life of the newly found child for those two animals. They're too inhumane," Director Wang said angrily. She was so angry that her chest was heaving heavily when she spoke.

Song Ning put down the report. She glanced at the two animals who looked like walking corpses on the monitor before she said, "People's hearts are biased. Even among children, there would still be favorites. Cheng Che's matter was caused by his biological grandmother. He had already left the family but was dragged back in the end. It's all fated. Director Wang, I need to go out and see Cheng Che and Mu Chen. I'll have to tell them everything in detail. Moreover, if Yin Yi is back, I'm afraid she'll put pressure on Director Li to deal with me. If my whereabouts are exposed, it'll be bad."

Director Wang's expression was cold as she said, "Don't worry about Yin Yi. Something happened to her."

Song Ning was surprised. "What happened?"

Director Wang said with a contemptuous expression on her face, "I heard that she schemed to climb into your husband's bed, but she climbed into the wrong bed and ended up sleeping with a rich young master. Who knew that rich young master would have a conscience and propose to marry her? I heard that his family background is quite good. In order to cover up this filthy matter, the Yin family naturally agrees to marry Yin Yi off. Since Yin Yi doesn't like that young man, she's naturally unwilling to marry. Hence, she won't have time to look for trouble with you now. Moreover, I've arranged a new identity for you. When you go to Xiao Yu's house, I'll announce to the public that Xiao Yu's parents hired you as her private doctor. There's no one in S City who doesn't know how concerned Xiao Yu's parents are about her condition. They've searched for many experts over the years so this matter won't be strange or surprising to the others. Moreover, when Yin Yi finds out that Xiao Yu's condition has improved, she'll definitely be furious. At that time, we don't even need to say anything. She'll definitely go look for trouble with Xiao Yu, and at that time, Xiao Yu's parents will be able to clearly see who harmed their daughter. This kind of direct evidence is the most convincing."

Chapter 816: Acupuncture

Director Wang's plans were meticulous. However, Song Ning knew these meticulous plans were refined day and night fueled by Director Wang's suffering. She could not help but reach out to hug Director Wang as she said, "Senior, I know what to do."

Director Wang turned her head away, not letting Song Ning see her tears. Over the past few years, she did not allow herself to cry since tears would not solve the problem nor could they help her seek revenge.

When Director Wang sent Song Ning to Bai Yu's home, Bai Yu's parents, who had already been informed, were waiting eagerly at the door.

Bai Yu's mother's eyes were red as she asked, "Dr. Song. can Xiao Yu really recover?"

Song Ning looked at Bai Yu's mother and said gently, "Doctors can only treat illnesses. We're not all-powerful. However, I'll do my best to treat and cure her. To do that, I need her to cooperate with me and work hard. After so many years, I'm worried Xiao Yu's psychological pain is worse than her physical pain. In regard to this, I'll have to rely on both your love for her."

Bai Yu's mother nodded repeatedly.

Bai Yu's father did not say anything, but his expression revealed his approval.

...

When Bai Yu saw Song Ning, she was startled. She called out softly, "Dr. Song."

Song Ning smiled and went forward before she asked, "How have you been feeling these days?"

Bai Yu's expression was somewhat sad as she said, "Dr. Song, they said I won't be able to recover."

Song Ning was briefly stunned. She looked at Bai Yu's parents, and they shook their heads lightly, indicating they did not know what Bai Yu was talking about. She asked gently, "What do you mean, Xiao Yu? After the previous acupuncture session, didn't your legs feel better? You even regained confidence in your recovery. What happened?"

Bai Yu's tears fell as she said, "I've checked. My nerves are injured, and they won't recover. I consulted many experts, and they said there's no hope. They said that you, that you..."

"That I'm lying?"

Bai Yu looked up with teary eyes as she nodded lightly.

Song Ning smiled. "Can you tell me the backgrounds of the experts you consulted? Or, can you tell me how you found them?"

Bai Yu looked at Song Ning, puzzled.

Song Ning thought for a moment. Then, she tilted her head and asked with a smile, "Then, why didn't you refuse to see me, Xiao Yu?"

Bai Yu's eyes flashed before she lowered her gaze. She subconsciously traced circles on her blanket.

"Is it because that feeling that day left a deep impression on you? You want to feel that pain in your legs again, right?" Song Ning asked softly.

Bai Yu looked at Song Ning with a pitiful expression on her face before tears fell down her face. She nodded.

Bai Yu's mother covered her mouth and turned away.

Song Ning patted Bai Yu's legs, which were under the blanket, gently. "Those who believe in me will have hope. Do you trust me?"

Bai Yu looked at Song Ning in confusion.

Song Ning reached out and took Bai Yu's phone by her pillow. She did not look at it and passed it to Bai Yu's father. Her voice was neither fast nor slow as she said, "Mr. Bai, look for a professional and check the phone. I think what Xiao Yu has learned was orchestrated. Also, it's best to check your house's Internet. I heard there was a family that was bugged without them knowing. They had no privacy at all."

Bai Yu's father looked at Song Ning in shock.

Song Ning turned to him and said with a smile, "For Xiao Yu's sake, you should trust me this time."

Bai Yu's father did not waste time. He took the phone and left.

Bai Yu and her mother were still in shock.

"Dr. Song..." Bai Yu's mother looked hesitant.

Song Ning smiled and said, "Let's start the acupuncture session now. This time, you'll feel it again." Then, she turned to Bai Yu's mother and said, "Help me remove her clothes."

Chapter 817: Enlightened

When Song Ning applied the needles, Bai Yu's mother stared at her unblinkingly.

In just a short moment, Bai Yu's back, buttocks, and legs were covered with needles. Then, Song Ning began to turn the needles. When she reached the needle at Bai Yu's waist, Bai Yu began to groan softly.

"Ah!" Bai Yu's mother cried out in surprise. She quickly covered her mouth, afraid of scaring her daughter.

Song Ning moved a few more needles, asking Bai Yu how she felt.

Bai Yu answered Song Ning's questions cooperatively, allowing Song Ning to understand her condition.

Song Ning said, "Xiao Yu, I'm going to slowly help you unclog your meridians. You'll gradually feel pain. Remember to tell me how you feel. This isn't something that can be completed in a day. We need patience and perseverance, understand?"

"Yes," Bai Yu replied obediently. As soon as this word fell, she suddenly cried out in pain.

Song Ning's hand stopped moving immediately.

Bai Yu said in a trembling voice, "Dr. Song, it hurts. It hurts all the way to the heels."

"Really? Song Ning's voice was filled with surprise and joy.

"Yes, it hurts. I've not felt this kind of pain in a very, very long time. Dr. Song, I really want to feel the pain. Let me feel it for a little longer," Bai Yu said as tears fell from her eyes again.

Bai Yu's mother's legs weakened, and she quickly supported herself on the bedside. She smiled through her tears, feeling distressed and joyful at the same time.

Song Ning withdrew her hand and said gently, "We have to do it step by step. We can't rush. All you have to do is believe that you'll be able to stand up, walk, and return to the way you were."

Bai Yu bit her lips and nodded as she cried.

After performing acupuncture, Song Ning was sweating profusely. She leaned back against the chair to rest as she said, "Xiao Yu, don't be happy too soon. Your condition was left untreated for too long so you won't recover so quickly. I hope you'll remain confident. I'm only your assistant. Ultimately, your recovery depends on you."

Bai Yu nodded determinedly as sweat and tears intermingled on her face.

After a while, Bai Yu finally fell into a deep sleep, and Song Ning and Bai Yu's mother left the room.

Bai Yu's mother held Song Ning's hand, looking extremely grateful. Just as she was about to speak, Bai Yu's father rushed back with Bai Yu's phone in hand. His face was ashen.

Bai Yu's mother quickly went up to her husband and asked, "Hubby, what's wrong?"

Bai Yu's father handed the phone to his wife and said, "Someone installed a special app on the phone that tracked her activities. They manipulated the information she looked up. I took every precaution, but I didn't expect someone to use this tactic to act. Dr. Song, how did you know?"

Song Ning looked at Bai Yu's father calmly and said, "Mr. Bai, if I were to say that Bai Yu was deliberately harmed, would you believe me? This includes her injuries. Someone has been making you think her condition is incurable. The goal is to have Bai Yu remain paralyzed for the rest of her life, destroying both her physical and mental health."

Bai Yu's father grew agitated. "This is murder! Who is it that hates us so much? They want our entire family to die!"

Song Ning looked at him and continued to say, "Why don't you check your business activities to see if there are any abnormalities in the past few years?"

Bai Yu's father looked at Song Ning in shock and disbelief.

Song Ning said calmly, "I'm just speculating. Apart from your family, the most important thing to you is your business. I'm afraid the culprit won't just stop at harming Bai Yu..."

Bai Yu's father said in a trembling voice, "Indeed, my business has encountered trouble over the past two years. However, I didn't give it much thought..."

"Mr. Bai, if you trust me, I'll introduce my husband to you. Perhaps, he can help you. My husband's name is Mu Chen."

Chapter 818: Sowing Discord

Bai Yu's father exclaimed in surprise, "Mu Chen? Are you talking about Chairman Mu Chen of the Mu Group in M City?"

Song Ning nodded slightly. "Yes. He's in S City now. It's just that it's inconvenient for him to let others know about his whereabouts. Mr. Bai, if you need it, I can help you get in touch with him."

Bai Yu's father nodded immediately. "Yes. I'd like to see him as soon as possible."

Mu Chen was quite displeased that his wife brought a stranger along to discuss business with him. After all, they had been separated for too long. He only wanted to hold his wife in his arms to alleviate the pain of lovesickness. Alas, his wife's wishes were the most important thing to him. No matter what, he had to complete the task his wife gave him.

Meanwhile, Bai Yu's father was sitting on pins and needles as Mu Chen and Han Mo analyzed the data with him.

When Cheng Che returned to S City, the entire Yin family was very deferential to him.

At this moment, Old Master Yin was showing him around the family home. As they passed by the ancestral hall, he said, "Tomorrow, all the members of the Yin family will gather so you can meet them. After that, we'll pick an auspicious day for you to hold a ceremony in the ancestral hall to worship and recognize our ancestors."

Cheng Che responded perfunctorily as he looked around. He did not seem to be in high spirits.

The Yin family was already used to Cheng Che's indifference. They did not dare to show their dissatisfaction and continued to coax him patiently.

Yin Bin and Guan Ning were very eager as they led Cheng Che to the room that was specially prepared for him.

As usual, Cheng Che was indifferent to this.

After dinner, Cheng Che said, "I'm going to stay in the hotel for a few days. It's more convenient for me to work there. I'll come over tomorrow morning to have breakfast with Grandpa."

The air froze immediately.

Finally, Old Master Yin said slowly, "Alright. You can go now. Remember to bring Jiahui over for breakfast tomorrow."

"Okay, Grandpa," Cheng Che said. A smile finally appeared on his face as he got up to leave.

After Cheng Che left, Yin Yang could no longer endure it. He said angrily, "Dad, look at how arrogant he is! I really wanted to slap him to teach him a lesson!"

Yin Bin said coldly, "He's my son. It's not your place to teach him a lesson. Moreover, you have no other choice but to coax him. Don't forget that Yin Jian's life is in his hands."

Yin Yang's face flushed red from anger, but he could not refute those words.

Old Master Yin coughed violently. After the coughing fit subsided, he said, "Enough! All of you can take your leave now. It's been so long since you came back. Don't you want to visit your sons?"

Yin Bin and Yin Yang shut their mouths immediately and left after bidding farewell to Old Master Yin.

After everyone left, Old Madam Yin walked over and stood behind Old Master Yin. She skillfully massaged him. After a moment, she asked tentatively, "Do you think Cheng Che can really save Yin Jian and Yin Zheng?"

Old Master Yin turned his body slightly and asked in a deep voice, "Don't you believe in Xiao Wang's skills? She's your niece. She relied on her own capability for many years to reach this position. You can't question her ability."

Old Madam Yin hastily said, "If it weren't for you and the Yin family, how could she have risen so quickly? However, her medical skills are indeed not bad. I don't doubt her diagnosis. It's just that I've always felt that Cheng Che is a little strange. I'm afraid that if he finds out about the truth, he won't agree to it. When that time comes, I don't know if the elders in our family will stand on our side."

Old Master Yin gestured for Old Madam Yin to continue massaging him before he said, "Cheng Che is a child who values relationships, and he's very upright. He's very similar to his mother. I really didn't expect bloodline to be so magical. His mother didn't even raise him for a day, but his character is so similar to her. Not only that, he really resembles her as well. If he agrees to save his brother and cousin, I'll have to consider his share of the inheritance."

Chapter 819: Coincidence

Upon hearing those words, Old Madam's hands stilled. However, she very swiftly recovered and continued to massage Old Master Yin. She said softly, "That's only natural. After all, Cheng Che's mother was forced to leave back then. If Sister Chengyi weren't so intolerant of us, how could Cheng Che be left outside all this time? We wouldn't have been separated from our flesh and blood." She sighed softly before she continued to say, "Speaking of this, my heart really aches for Cheng Che."

Old Madam Yin's soft sigh was like a feather that gently brushed past Old Master Yin's heart, which had a scar that would never heal. He scoffed loudly but did not say anything.

Old Madam Yin smiled. She knew her words were effective. She sighed softly again and continued to say, "I wonder where Sister Chengyi had been all those years. To think she really left her son and grandson and left on her own. I can't believe she has the heart to do this."

"Does she have a heart? Even if she has one, it's a rotten one!" Old Master Yin said angrily, smacking his thigh. The more he thought about it, the angrier he became. He said, "All of them are so stubborn! Didn't Cheng Che get his stubbornness from her?"

A smug smile could be seen on Old Madam Yin's face now that her goal had been achieved. She thought to herself gloatingly, 'Chengyi, don't blame me for being merciless. I'm going to use your grandson's life to save my grandson. If you have the ability, you can crawl out of hell and deal with me! Alas, you weren't a match for me when you were alive so you won't be a match for me even after you die!'

Zhuang Ning looked at the beautiful woman sitting across from her, feeling slightly apprehensive. The woman was not young anymore, but she was dressed very fashionably and uniquely.

The woman took off her glasses, revealing a face that seemed to tell a story. She said, "So you're the girl that Jiang Jin recommended to me. You're pretty."

The way the woman spoke was quite similar to Jiang Jin.

Zhuang Ning did not speak.

The beautiful woman continued to say, "Alright, from now on, I'm going to have to ask you to do a lot of things. I heard from Jiang Jin that you're also a child with a hard life. It's okay. Remember that your fate is in your hands, not heaven's. When this is over, Grandma will bring you to travel around the world."

'Grandma?' Zhuang Ning was a little shocked by the way the woman addressed herself.

The beautiful woman smiled. "Also, don't be curious about my identity. The things I'm going to ask you to do won't go against your morality. Even if you don't trust me, you have to trust Jiang Jin. She won't push you into the fire pit." After a pause, she continued to say, "First of all, you'll have another identity. You'll be the long-lost granddaughter of the Chairman of Tianyi Group. Meanwhile, continue filming as usual. I've seen all your works; you're really talented. If there's anything, I'll send someone to look for you."

After the woman left, Zhuang Ning was still in a daze. This time, she had come to S City under the pretext of filming. Her real goal was naturally to stir up trouble between Ye Cheng and Yin Jia. She could not just watch as Yin Jia jumped into the fire pit since Yin Jia was Cheng Che's biological sister. She also would not allow Ye Cheng to ally with the Yin family. After all, the Yin family owed her a blood debt, and she had yet to demand payment from them.

Before Zhuang Ning left, Jiang Jin found her and asked her to help her friend. She agreed without any hesitation. She was very grateful to Jiang Jin and the Mu family, after all. She was naturally willing to go through fire and water for them. However, she did not expect to gain a new identity just like that. She was rather confused.

Coincidentally, when Zhuang Ning looked out the window, she saw an incredibly flustered figure. It was Guan Tang.

Guan Tang also noticed Zhuang Ning at the same time. She hurried into the shop and ran toward Zhuang Ning. She grabbed Zhuang Ning's hand tightly as though she was grabbing a life-saving raft as she said anxiously, "Save me, Zhuang Ning! Please save me!"
