

Chapter 833: Fainting

Yin De glared at Cheng Yi.

Cheng Yi gnashed her teeth in anger before she said, "You have the audacity to say you don't want his life? You know he has a kind heart, and you think if you morally kidnap him, he'll definitely agree to your request. Others might not know you, but I know you very well!" She continued to say, growing angrier and angrier, "You'll definitely suck out the last drop of his blood and squeeze out all his value! Not only do you want him to give his life to the Yin family, but you also want to use your blood relations with him to devour the wealth he has amassed over the years! Your dream is really too beautiful!"

The crowd was in an uproar. Initially, they thought the matter was too unbelievable; it was too vicious, after all. However, after thinking about it carefully, they could not help the chills that ran up their spines. If it was true, it really showed how sinister the entire scheme was. They could not help but look at Yin De, wanting to hear his retort.

However, Yin De was so angry that his entire body was trembling. He pointed at Cheng Yi furiously with shaking hands, but he was unable to speak.

Cheng Yi only looked at Yin De with a mocking smile on her face.

Suddenly, Yin De's eyes rolled up, and he fell backward.

Yin Bin and Yin Yang, who were standing at the side, reacted quickly and quickly supported Yin De from each side.

One after another, the members of the Yin family exclaimed in shock.

"Dad!"

"Dad!"

"Grandpa!"

At this time, no one paid any more attention to Cheng Yi.

The Yin family members quickly helped Yin De to a chair, crying out at the top of their lungs for someone to call an ambulance.

However, the crowd only looked on coldly. No one stepped forward to help. The main reason was that Yin De's timing was truly wonderful. The timing was so wonderful that it made everyone feel rather unpleasant.

When the Yin family members finally left, Cheng Yi finally walked up to Cheng Che. Her eyes reddened as she looked at her tall and handsome grandson. "I've been stubborn and opinionated all her life. I've never apologized to anyone because I never felt I was wrong. The only people whom I feel I wronged the most in my life are you and your mother."

Cheng Yi's tears finally fell. However, she quickly wiped them and forced a smile on her face. However, her smile looked uglier than when she was crying.

Cheng Che looked at Cheng Yi, filled with mixed feelings. Jiang Jin had taught him a lot of things and holding grudges was not one of them. Even when he found out the Yin family did not want him in the past, he was not angry with them nor did he hate them. He only drew a clear line between them from that moment on. As for the sudden appearance of this grandmother who had brought his mother away from the Yin family and left him in the end, he did not hate her as well. Finally, he called out softly, "Grandmother."

Upon hearing this, it was as though the dam in Cheng Yi's eyes had broken; tears burst out immediately. She hugged Cheng Che and cried her heart out.

The arrogant and domineering woman with a sharp tongue seemed weak and helpless now. This sudden change made Cheng Che feel at a loss. After a long while, he finally reached out and gently patted Cheng Yi's back as he said, "Alright, let's go."

The formal recognition ceremony of the Eldest Young Master of the Yin family ended abruptly. It was said that the Old Master of the Yin family suddenly fainted and was hospitalized; it was also said that he suffered from a stroke.

Naturally, everyone also heard about the sudden appearance of Old Master Yin's first wife and how she had mercilessly exposed the Yin family's scheme and left in a carefree manner.

As for whether or not the Eldest Young Master of the Yin family truly returned to the Yin family was no longer important. What was important was that the former Old Madam Yin was a wealthy and influential figure.

Everyone also heard about how Old Master Yin and the former Old Madam Yin did not formally divorce. With this, everyone thought that the current Old Madam Yin was just a mistress who destroyed another person's family. There was also the legitimacy of her son, Yin Yang. It was said that the former Old Madam Yin questioned Yin Yang's biological ties to Old Master Yin.

The most shocking thing was the former Old Madam Yin accused the Yin family of only recognizing the Eldest Young Master of the Yin family only so they could use him to save the lives of the other two young masters of the Yin family! The Yin family wanted to use their eldest young master's life to exchange for the lives of the other two young masters!

This matter was so scandalous that it easily aroused everyone's interest.
