

Chapter 848: Rescue

Director Wang was shocked and speechless. She only stared at Xiao Yang with her mouth agape.

Xiao Yang lowered her gaze. Then, as though she was talking to herself, she muttered, "The lives of those girls they harmed were ruined. As for those who are dead, they can't rest in peace until now! Those wicked people are still finding ways. Do they think they can ruin others just because they have money? Do they think they can do illegal and wicked things just because of their wealth? No, no, no! There has to be justice in this world. There has to be justice."

Then, Xiao Yang raised her head to look at Director Wang and said calmly, "Director Wang, just like you, I want to deal with them. You left them with a glimmer of hope; isn't that because you want to keep them alive? How can the two young masters of the Yin family fall ill so silently without anyone knowing anything? Director Wang, rest assured. All you need to do is continue treating them. Let me deal with the young masters and the elders of the Yin family."

After saying that, Xiao Yang bowed deeply and left without looking back.

Director Wang was in a daze for a long time before she returned to her senses. It seemed like good and evil would be rewarded and punished accordingly. As it turned out, she was not walking on this path alone.

Ye Cheng was dumbfounded when he heard the news from Chen Chen. His eyes were slightly widened as he asked, "What did you say? Guan Tang is pregnant? And the child is mine?"

Chen Chen nodded slightly.

Then, Ye Cheng said, amused, "Is there no limit to her nonsense? She played with so many men, how can she determine the child is mine? In the end, doesn't she just want me to save her? She wants me to acknowledge another man's child as mine? How can she say such a thing to disgust me?"

Chen Chen did not dare to comment on the matter. He only said, "Madam Yin also brought a message saying that Miss Guan has a clue about Zhuang Ji's embroidery manual."

Ye Cheng was stunned. "Zhuang Ji's embroidery manual?"

Chen Chen nodded.

Ye Cheng stroked his chin. "How does she know about Zhuang Ji's embroidery manual? And how does she know that I want the embroidery manual?"

Chen Chen did not say anything, but he thought to himself, 'Shouldn't you ask yourself these questions?'

Ye Cheng frowned as he tried to recall his time with Guan Tang. He muttered, "I've never talked about Zhuang Ji's embroidery manual in front of her before. This means that the Yin family is also looking for the embroidery manual; that's how she knows about it. She wanted to obtain the embroidery manual first so she could negotiate with the Yin family. Now that her dreams of marrying into the Yin family have been shattered, and she's placed under house arrest by Yin Jia, if she wants to save herself, why didn't she look for the Yin family? The Yin family must want the embroidery manual, right?"

Cheng Chen's mind spun with all kinds of thoughts, but he forced himself to stay silent. He knew his boss would continue to analyze the situation himself.

As expected...

Ye Cheng continued to mutter, "Who could she look for in the Yin family? Yin Bin and Yin Yang have always been at loggerheads. She should choose Yin Bin since Yin Bin is her uncle. However, Yin Bin is also Yin Jia's father. There's no way Yin Bin would not be biased toward his own daughter and side with his wife and niece. The dynamics of a large family like the Yin family are complicated. Yes, the only person she can look for in the end is me..."

After Ye Cheng finished speaking, Chen Chen nodded. "Young Master Chen, should I bring her out then?"

Ye Cheng glared at Chen Chen and said, "How? Is it so easy to infiltrate Yi Garden? Can't you see that even Mu Chen is still wandering outside?"

Chen Chen felt a hint of disapproval. Outwardly, he said tentatively, "Don't we have Madam Yin?"

Ye Cheng thought about it for a moment before he said, "This matter must be handled very carefully and meticulously. We can't let Yin Jia know anything about it. Otherwise, all our efforts will go to waste. Until today, I, your young master, have to sacrifice myself because of her. Hence, this matter can only be a success; we can't fail. No matter what, we must bring Guan Tang out. If what she said is true, we'll benefit greatly. If she's lying..." He thought about it for a moment before he added, "If she's lying, we'll give her to Yin Jia. At that time, I can subtly plant the idea of human trafficking in Yin Jia."
