

THE STARS ARE ORIGINALLY A PAIR - FINALS

An Xingyue didn't expect that she was the only one who entered the final of South City First High School, and then Su Chon also entered the final.

For this reason, Ji Yiyan kept nagging in front of her, saying that she could lose to anyone but Su Chon in the final, but she must not lose to Su Chon, An Xingyue was a bit helpless, why must she be like this? Not that I don't care anymore?

Now this way An Xingyue always feel that Ji Yiyan still has Su Chon in her heart, after all, if she really does not care, then she will not care so much, how will she still pay attention to him?

The answer Ji Yiyan gave to this is probably self-deception, and then in the end found that it is still not willing but can not do anything about it, so badly hope that he also have a bad time, so you can cover your ears.

An Xingyue after listening to a little bit do not understand, but can not say anything, after all, the feelings of this matter, cold and warm self-knowledge.

The day of the final, night Xiu Chen with a bunch of people in advance in the auditorium seated, originally he only wanted to come alone, but who knows Zhou Junxing pulled Luo Junxian said, Miss Xing Yue is the only one in the South City, so should go to support the final, to give Miss cheer.

He said so reasonable, night Xiu Chen also can not refuse, and even if he refused, Luo Junxian can also bring Zhou Junxing in, but goodness knows, Zhou Junxing said the mouth, said he liked the girl in the competition by the Northern University, and then a bunch of people to get together, directly cheeky followed.

Obviously he only wanted to quietly watch his girlfriend than a race, and then wait for her to finish the race he then bring her into his circle, who knows they are so anxious, and in order to see An Xingyue even his threat is not in the eye.

After entering the auditorium and sitting down, he took his cell phone and sent a text message to An Xingyue, but didn't say that a bunch of followers were also coming.

The final test is not only the ability to answer in writing, but also the ability to mobilize knowledge within a short period of time, and the ability to organize language, so the final depends more on the quality of the heart, after all, if you are too nervous, you may not even hear the topic.

The final is divided into three rounds, the first round of quiz, a total of fifty questions, one point per question, after the question quiz, to see whose score is high.

Then the second round of one-on-one draw pk answer questions, the last in the limited time to answer the fifteen questions, the number of correct answers to win, and the winner can add ten points, this round is a good opportunity to flip, after all, win can directly get ten points, and the highest score in the first round may not even get ten points.

The third round of five-minute essay, on the spot to give the qualifying words, and then the participants need to write out their thoughts clearly and clearly, and then according to their thoughts written down in order to the judges to state your reasons for writing this, each person's statement time is also five minutes, so to grasp the speech time, not too fast, not too slow, can end early, but only five minutes at most.

And the five judges according to the participants write, speak the score, the highest ten, the lowest zero, and then all the scores add up to equal the total score of the third round, the last three rounds of scores add up to the highest three have ten extra points in the entrance exam, and medals those.

The first round of quiz questions can be said to be similar to the type of semi-final exams, but the questions are more precise, and the time span of the fifty questions is also very large, it is possible that this question asks about modern literature, the next question is about the Tang and Song dynasties or the pre-Qin dynasties.

It is also possible that you have just transferred the content of Chinese literature from ancient times to the present, but the next question is really about foreign works, so it is not only a test of mental quality, but also a test of your ability to react and mobilize knowledge.

But the ten contestants who made it to the final are not to be underestimated, at least in terms of heart quality is a stable group, even if I do not understand, but also pretend that I understand, can not wimp.

And Miss An Xingyue said it is not difficult, it is a little annoying.

It can be said that all the participating schools have left, and then the remaining schools that have entered the finalists left, South City One was not forced to come to see the game, you can play on your own, as long as you do not lose yourself.

But the four people who came to the game decided that they did not enter the final but also to come to see, casual spectators of the big boys showdown, and they also want to give a call to the school god Miss.

Even the vice principal directly took the camera and began to video, in his words is to go back to the other teachers to see the excellent performance of their school's top students, can be said to be very good.

Three teachers have an inexplicable belief in Missy, it is estimated that in their eyes Missy has been able to enter the top three, but I heard that Missy came to participate in the competition is to go to the first.

In the first round of the quiz, An Xingyue ranked first with a slight advantage of one point, and failed to open up too big a gap in the first round, then it was dangerous in the second round.

After the ten people drew lots to decide their opponents for the second round, they had half an hour to relax, during which they could rest with their eyes closed, eat something to replenish their spirit, or go out for a walk.

Then after half an hour, the matches were played in order, and those who didn't get a turn could watch from the side.

During the interval, An Xingyue walked to her school, Ji Yiyuan handed her a water, then after listening to the three teachers' rounds of reminders and encouragement, she sat down next to Ji Yiyuan, then pillowed her shoulder and closed her eyes and started to rest.

After all, the answer really needs a high degree of concentration, or else listen to the wrong or miss a word means different.

And night Xiu Chen looked at his girlfriend pillowing someone else's shoulder in rest, the whole person is vinegar.

How can you just pillow someone else's shoulder? Even a girl can not.

But no matter what, An Xingyue has been pillowed, rest time is only half an hour, he is a little jealous, but will not bother her for this.

Zhou Junxing sat next to Night Xiu Chen, originally he wanted to greet An Xingyue after she came off the stage, but there were still quite a few people around, in order not to affect others as well as maintain the image, Luo Junxian stopped him, so An Xingyue did not see where they were.

The other people who came with him said how the great devil had such good luck to find a good-looking girl with such a good temperament.

After all, besides the face, they who are familiar with night Xiu Chen do not think he has what else is worthy of a girl?

Bad temper, high and cold, untamed, really is in addition to the face and family history nothing to get out of hand.

Ye An, because since he knew that Chen had a girlfriend, the mysterious woman who dared to offer herself to the twelve points of curiosity and admiration, until seeing the legendary girl, Ye An a little doubt is not his own brother Chen forced people to do his girlfriend.

Otherwise, how could such a good girl be blind to see their brother Chen?
