

THE STARS ARE ORIGINALLY A PAIR - DEPARTURE

After getting Night Zihan out of the way, Night Xiu Chen immediately set off from his apartment and headed for the airport, he was the one who was going to spend New Year's Eve in the same place as his girlfriend.

Before he got on the plane, he looked at the messages in his phone, replied to some of them, read the note to An Xingyue, smiled lightly, and then got on the plane with anticipation.

After night Xiu Chen got on the plane, night Zihan also returned to the night family.

The company's main goal is to provide the best possible service to its customers.

A bunch of people sitting in the house, see the night Zihan empty behind, and then found his mood is low, giggle, everyone's heart, and thought this year's New Year's Eve can change, did not expect or so.

The previous year this look everyone can accept, after all, is a bit too much, but a year has passed, the apology have apologized, the night family also showed weakness, why that child is still not willing to forgive everyone?

This way everyone has been uncomfortable, but is it possible that Xiu Chen himself will feel better if he does this? If so, I'm afraid there's nothing we can do, after all, with night Xiu Chen's temper, it is estimated that no one can make him change his attention.

The old man pondered for a moment, and then asked, "Did he go to the Han family?"

The old man looked at Han Yan Yuan and night Zi Han, slowly said, the New Year, not home where can go? The relationship between that boy and the Han family is much better than the night family, if not to the Han family where else would he go?

Han Yan Yuan replied uncertainly: "There should be no, my family side did not give the phone I."

If it was night Xiu Chen went to the Han family for New Year's Eve, then the old man should have called to tell her, and probably would have scolded her, but now there is nothing.

"Brother he seems to have gone to South City." Night Zihan replied weakly.

"Nonsense, what is he doing going to South City by himself? Is it because he wants to spend the New Year in South City?" The old man slapped the desktop and scolded loudly, having spent so many years in the military, the old man still has a fierce temper even though he is older now.

"It seems that brother has a girl he likes, and then the girl is from South City." So probably, maybe brother went to spend the New Year with a girl.

Night Zihan thought of the recent rumors about night Xiu Chen, said unnaturally, after all, recently they are all over the rumor that the big brother has a favorite person, and has been accompanying the girl to play, the whole person gentle, considerate people suspected of being fake.

The people of the night family were stunned when they heard the words of night Zihan, their night family's seemingly noble and untamed night Xiu Chen actually has a girl he likes?!

Are you serious?

Everyone looked at night Zihan with suspicion and curiosity, hoping he could give a reasonable explanation.

Pressure mountain night Zihan helplessly smiled, "I'm not very clear, but recently the circle rumors that brother has been accompanied by a girl shopping some time ago, and treat then girl very tender, before someone in the bamboo Pavilion to see brother took people to dinner, so ..... "

Night Zihan finished glancing at the surprised people present, not to mention them, when he just heard the rumor, was also stunned, after all, he also did not think night Xiu Chen will have a favorite person.
