

THE STARS ARE ORIGINALLY A PAIR - SURPRISE

An Xingyue came out of the house, after entering the elevator, she saw her face helplessly from the elevator and rubbed her eyebrows, how could she expect that her parents would actually send her away just because she was getting in the way of them living in a two-person world?

An Xingyue was crying and laughing, why?

They were going out to have fun, so wouldn't she be at home just fine? Why did she have to come out?

An Xingyue was puzzled after she got out of the elevator, it was freezing cold, she, why did she come out?

A question from the depths of the soul.

But since she's out, let's go watch the fireworks, although it's a bit boring to be alone.

An Xingyue wore furry white gloves that could reveal her five fingers, then wore a long white coat, stepped on small boots, and had her cell phone in her pocket, and just casually walked out.

After looking up at the stars for a while, An Xingyue took out her cell phone from her pocket and found that her big brother hadn't looked for her yet, which was a bit wrong.

An Xingyue pondered for a moment, then put the phone back into her pocket as if nothing had happened, anyway, the day has not yet passed, no hurry no hurry.

A few steps forward, An Xingyue suddenly stopped and covered her mouth looking at the tree that was still a little distance away from her, although the light under the tree was dim, but after being together for so long, how could An Xingyue not recognize the figure of that person?

She did not expect at this time should have been in Kyoto will be here, and also in her home downstairs, is not if she did not come down by mistake, he is not going to let her know that he is in her home downstairs alone for New Year's Eve.

An Xingyue slowly approached the night Xiu Chen, at this time the man with his head down seemed to be aware, slowly raised his head, An Xingyue could see her in his eyes and the light that lit up.

Since they were discovered, they rushed straight over and crashed directly into his arms, and then were held securely in his arms.

An Xingyue tilted her head and looked at Night Xiu Chen with a smile, "Shouldn't Ah Chen be in Kyoto? Why is it under my house? Does Ah Chen want to explain?"

Night Xiu Chen when An Xingyue rushed over, he subconsciously hugged her, but in fact the whole person is still confused, how he did not expect his own little cute would suddenly appear, after all, this time are eating reunion dinner.

Hearing An Xingyue's question, night Xiu Chen unnaturally touched the tip of his nose, then placed his hands on An Xingyue's waist, his chin rubbed the top of her head, "It's the same everywhere, originally only wanted to be closer to you, did not want to let you know, who knew baby you would suddenly appear."

For him, it is better to spend New Year in Kyoto than to come to South City, after all, there is still her in South City.

"Are you stupid? Ah! Why didn't you tell me when you came back to South City, if I hadn't suddenly come down, how long did you plan to stay here? And the clothes are so cold to the touch, how long have you been staying?"

An Xingyue touched night Xiu Chen's clothes, felt the temperature coming from the clothes, reached out and pulled night Xiu Chen's face, and said angrily.

"Didn't stay long, nor did I intend to stay long, if you hadn't appeared, baby, I would have planned to leave." Night Xiu Chen grinned and replied curtly, if she knew he had been standing for more than an hour and was not ready to leave, I guess his girlfriend would storm out and get angry.

An Xingyue looked at night Xiu Chen's eyes flickering and knew he wasn't telling the truth, but he couldn't do anything to him, standing for so long, his whole body was a little cold, An Xingyue took off her gloves and put her warm hands in his neck.

Your own boyfriend's own heartache.

"In the future out A Chen to remember to ask for a scarf, otherwise the neck will be very cold." An Xingyue's hand was icy cold when it was close to his neck, then shivered.

So then, night Xiu Chen immediately took An Xingyue's hand away from his neck, then re-did her gloves and touched her head, "Okay, I will remember to wear a scarf in the future, and when I don't remember, Yueyue should remind me."

Night Xiu Chen seriously said, "But the baby must also remember to keep warm, not to remove the gloves to warm my neck like just now, I'm not cold."

"Humph, I'm not afraid that Ah Chen will catch a cold, the New Year, if you catch a cold how bad ah." An Xingyue skimmed her lips and said heartily.

"Also, has Ah Chen eaten dinner?" An Xingyue was afraid that he would really stay here without eating.

"Yes, I ordered takeout when I got home from the plane, so baby don't worry about me not eating." Night Xiu Chen kissed the corner of An Xingyue's eyes and replied.

"By the way, baby what are you doing down here? Are you in a hurry to go back?"

"My parents wanted to have a two-person world, so I came out, fortunately I came out, otherwise I wouldn't have known that you were actually downstairs in my house." An Xingyue thankfully said, "I'm not in a hurry to go back, maybe we can go watch a firework."

An Xingyue had planned to go watch the fireworks, only there was one person turned into two people.

"Okay, let's go watch the fireworks." The night Xiu Chen felt very lucky, had been ready to spend the New Year alone, but his little lovely suddenly appeared around, and also asked him to go to see fireworks, this look makes him feel that the heavens are still looking out for him.

An Xingyue let go of the hands that had been holding night Xiu Chen, and then took down the hand that night Xiu Chen had placed on her waist, and then placed one of her hands in his, and interlocked their fingers, and the two of them just held hands and set off.

Because there is a certain distance from the community to the fireworks show, so the two people are directly to the taxi, after all, the big brother also did not drive to.

When they arrived at the river, An Xingyue realized that there were many people, which is a sad fact.

But An Xingyue felt that it was still acceptable, and to be a little more serious, the people were actually not a lot, An Xingyue looked at Night Xiu Chen in confusion.

"There seems to be an event over at the center square as well, so it should be a portion of the people who went there." The night Xiu Chen recalled the activity of the center square in the previous year, and then said uncertainly.

Maybe there was an event over at Center Square this year as well.

"Oh oh, I saw it, Zhiqing and Mo Zhicheng were there at the center square." An Xingyue showed the photo that Su Zhiqing just sent to Night Xiu Chen, then said in surprise, she went shopping today and didn't even notice that there was an event there, really.

"Then does Yueyue want to go over there?" Night Xiu Chen hugged her from behind An Xingyue, then leaned down and kissed the side of her face and asked with a smile.

"Well, it's better not to go, there are more people over there than here, it's better to watch the fireworks here." An Xingyue pushed Night Xiu Chen, "Ah Chen don't just kiss me."

Then tilted his head to look at the fireworks that just rose and exploded, smiling, said the fireworks can look good.

"No random kiss, I am all very serious." Night Xiu Chen with a magnetic voice in An Xingyue's ear slowly replied to.

Every intimate contact he is very serious, which there is nothing casual.
