

THE STARS ARE ORIGINALLY A PAIR - NEW SEMESTER

Blink of an eye, the holidays have passed, and An Xingyue is still addicted to play! Magic! Magic!

Because once and big brother out to play, happened to be others in the street performance of this, An Xingyue feel quite interesting, and then big brother on the cool demonstration played a few times, and then An Xingyue is hooked.

Then until the beginning of the school year An Xingyue did not climb out of the pit of the Rubik's Cube, so when the school year began, An Xingyue's school bag put a Rubik's Cube.

A holiday has not seen, An Xingyue after stepping into the classroom to see is a bunch of this side, there a bunch of people catching up, in doing homework, noisy, but still familiar tune.

Perhaps they are tired of staying at home, so the first day of school everyone still arrived much earlier than when they were studying before, but An Xingyue thinks that everyone came back so early probably still want to make up for the homework.

After all, An Xingyue already knows, just a few days before the start of school, everyone has been in the group of fancy help, because everyone's winter vacation homework is a little different, so you can not copy, can only do it yourself or on Baidu or ask people.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

In a group of people, the presence of the big brother is the strongest, so has entered the classroom after An Xingyue met the big brother's eyes, perhaps not back to school with her today, so at this time the big brother look An Xingyue's eyes with a bit of sorrow.

An Xingyue sat back next to night Xiu Chen, with a grim look at her big brother did not retract the line of sight, An Xingyue indecently rolled her eyes, she did not mean not to come back with him, and yesterday did not go out together to play? So why hasn't the boyfriend accepted the fact that he couldn't come to school together this morning?

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

However, the self-deceiving big brother felt that this is not much use, because still so angry oh, feel missed a billion, why can not go to school together?

With the constant ups and downs of the night Xiu Chen's mood, the surrounding atmosphere is also a bit magical, An Xingyue held the forehead, she did not expect just today only, the boyfriend can be tossed to this.

Reach out a hand, touched a handful of night Xiu Chen's hair, An Xingyue think she better smooth the hair, otherwise the big brother can for this matter sulk for a day.

"A Chen don't look like this, not just not to go to school together? Anyway, today I am at school with you, good boy." An Xingyue finished kissing the side of night Xiu Chen, and then also took out a candy, peeled it, and put it into the big brother's mouth.

Witnessed the whole process of Zhou Junxing said the heart is very hard, why once back to enjoy this golden dog food?

Mad he also want to show love, but he looked at the young lady is not here ah, and the young lady has not let go ah!!!

"Fox, do you want to fall in love? Sweet kind?" Zhou Junxing asked lifelessly, after all, he wanted to, but Miss is not very much, "I have decided, from this semester I want to study well, like Brother Chen, with attitude and achievements to conquer Miss."

"Don't want to fall in love, it's too much trouble." Luo Junxian frowned a little and said, but Zhou Junxing's words made him a little curious, just how far can a person go for someone he likes?

Zhou Gongzi, who never loved to study, actually said that he would use his grades to conquer other young ladies and study hard? This is the power of love?

And at this time Ji Yiyin is in the office to deal with the matter of transferring classes, after all, such a good seedling, a class teacher how willing to let go of it? But Ji Yiyin has already decided to go, and the parents have also expressed their approval, and the class teacher of the class that people want to transfer to also expressed their welcome, so even if Li Ping how to oppose, or useless.

After all, Ji Yiyin had already said that she might have psychological problems due to the stress of staying in the first class, which would affect her studies, so changing classes was the best way to go.

But when she said she wanted to go to class 7, everyone was a little surprised and did not understand, after all, even if not in class 1, you can choose class 2 or class 3, ah, although not as good as class 1, but more than the top than the bottom, so why go to class 7? What are the students thinking now? Like An Xingyue, who could have gone to Class 1, but chose Class 7 directly.

Although they don't understand, their parents don't have a problem with it, so Ji Yiyin's transfer to class 7 was finalized.

Wang Ya with people to the classroom is still dizzy, this is a good thing ah, you know the teacher's bonus is linked to those of the monthly exams, if the students progress more, then their bonus is relatively more, so the top students for each class is very important.

And once the training is good, then when the college entrance exams are good, then they reap not only money but also the reputation that comes with it.

So when he found out that Ji Yiyin had chosen class 7 over others, Wang Ya felt he had been hit by a pie from heaven.

When Zhou Junxing was still struggling with not being able to share the same class with his sister, Ji Yiyin was already standing in front of the door of class 7, and then saw most of them lying on their desks playing with their cell phones or copying their homework.

But the cell phone alone has been a bit surprised, because a middle school with a private color, so for the cell phone these management is not very strict, but when in the first class, because it is the top class and Li Ping strict control, so Ji Yiyin's cell phone did not dare to take out so openly.

Although usually heard a lot, but still did not see with their own eyes to come true, before in a class far from the seventh class, even An Xingyue in the seventh class she rarely come, after all, usually are about the teaching building below and so on.

And Wang Ya noticed Ji Yiyang's surprise, touched the back of his head, "Hahaha, this group of rabbits has become a lot better behaved, not as before the classroom as KTV, and they do not play cell phones in class, so Ji students do not have to worry about affecting the class."

After all, this group of rabbits sometimes would rather sleep than play with their phones.

"Okay, I got it, teacher." Ji Yiyang smiled, through the short close encounter and the comments she usually got from them about Teacher Wang Ya, Ji Yiyang already had a rough analysis of Wang Ya in her heart.

After being brought into the classroom for self-introduction, Ji Yiyang witnessed Zhou Junxing's dumbfounded expression, and then laughed lightly a few times, very well, it scared people, just don't know if they were scared.

Originally Ji Yiyang intended to sit with Zhou Junxing, but Luo Junxian had been his tablemate, she suddenly split them both, she was afraid that teacher Wang Ya got suspicious, so she had to sit with others first.
