

THE STARS ARE ORIGINALLY A PAIR - THE EXAM WAS IN PROGRESS

The first subject is language, after entering the examination room, An Xingyue put down the pen bag, and then put the milk tea that he had been holding in the upper left corner, and then looked back at night Xiu Chen, and then sat down, waiting for the teacher to issue the paper.

The reason is that for An Xingyue, the language subject can be a piece of cake, after writing the essay there are still forty minutes of time, bored to turn the pen in his hand, there are still ten minutes to turn in the paper early na.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

The first time I saw her, I found out that she hadn't missed any questions or mistakes, so I packed up my things and waited to turn in my paper with An Xingyue later.

When the time came to turn in the paper early, An Xingyue immediately raised her hand to indicate to the teacher that she wanted to turn in the paper early, and then when she walked out of the examination room, she looked at Night Xiu Chen and found that he had also stood up, so it was obvious that he had also turned in the paper early.

And other people in the same examination room, see the two of them turn in early, some of them panic, I did not finish writing my essay, you actually fucking turn in early, this is not teasing me?

And in view of the prestige of the two people in the last final exam, so no one suspected that the two of them turned in their papers early because they could not do it, so when most people had not finished writing or started writing essays, you turned in your papers, which did not invariably add pressure to the others?

An Xingyue waited for a few seconds at the entrance of the examination room, night Xiu Chen came out, and then the school bully casually took the things in An Xingyue's hand, and then the other hand smoothly took the hand of the little table, and the two people just left.

Because it is not yet time for the exams to end, so the first and second floors of the canteen have not yet started serving meals, but the third floor is different, after all, the third floor is not only a canteen or a dessert station, and sometimes also acts as a cafe, so night Xiu Chen is taking An Xingyue to the third floor.

Find a more quiet place to sit down, night Xiu Chen re-order a cup of milk tea for An Xingyue, and then himself ordered a cup of coffee, thinking that later to eat lunch, so did not order a cupcake for An Xingyue.

Thinking that everyone's exams don't come out that quickly, after all, not everyone turns in their papers early like he and Yueyue, so night Xiu Chen sent them a text message directly, asking them to go up to the third floor directly after the exam, he and An Xingyue wait for them.

Although it is said that the phone is turned off during the exam, but night Xiu Chen firmly believe that the group of people from the examination room out of the first thing must be the first thing to turn on the phone, so he is not afraid that they did not see the text message.

"Ah Chen what do you think of the language paper this time?" An Xingyue waited for night Xiu Chen to finish texting and put down her phone before taking a sip of warm milk tea and squinting her eyes contentedly as she asked.

"It's not bad, but the difficulty is a little harder than the provincial exam, it seems that the provincial exam paper is still a little easy." Night Xiu Chen propped up his chin and looked at An Xingyue and replied.

This time the language paper is a little bit harder, and some topics are also a little bit deeper, and the range is also wide, it is estimated that this time the results will generally be lower than the provincial exam.

"Well, the teachers who came up with this paper really put a lot of thought into it, but I don't know if the difficulty of other subjects is also adjusted upwards, if so, it is estimated that the total score there will also be low, this way I am afraid that many people in the class will have to surrender their red packets."

Although An Xingyue rarely speaks in the group, but it does not mean that she did not peep screen ah, so just returned to the day the class trolling she still knows a little bit.

"Should not all upward adjustment, at least the subject of mathematics the provincial examination is more difficult, so this time the difficulty should not be higher than the provincial examination, probably flat or even downward adjustment, after all, too powerful at once is easy to lose confidence." Night Xiu Chen raised his eyebrows, said carelessly, for them although they know the difficulty is relatively large, but will not cause any impact, because this kind of difficulty is not beyond their ability to range.

"Then is Ah Chen sure he can surpass me?" An Xingyue felt that even her boyfriend could not be able to surpass her so casually, but remembering his previous performance, An Xingyue was a bit vain, especially when helping him to tutor, it was clear to realize how powerful his brain was.

"Only one subject has been tested, baby you are asking me like this, how do you want me to answer you?" Night Xiu Chen asked with a smirk, "But if but the language subject I am not as good as baby you." The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

The two people seem to be very serious to discuss the problem, Su Zhiqing has dragged Mo Zhicheng over, since the two people confirmed the relationship, Mo Zhicheng followed Su Zhiqing began to integrate into their circle.

"Yue Yue you wouldn't turn in your paper early with Big Brother and then the two of you enjoy milk tea here, right?" Su Zhiqing asked with a big blow, although she already had a plan in mind when she saw the time sent by text message, but that didn't stop her from getting a confirmed answer from An Xingyue again.

"Mm-hmm, me and Ah Chen have been sitting for half an hour, I thought this and meow of your house would turn in early, who knows neither." An Xingyue thinks Mo Zhicheng's language skills are not bad, so this paper is not difficult for him, probably to wait for Su Zhiqing is not early to turn in the paper.

I don't know if Meow Meow is also so slow for Zhou Junxing?

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the website.

An Xingyue is a little unfamiliar with physics, so the speed of the questions is slowed down, carefully looking at the questions, but in the heart of thinking, the difficulty of mathematics is lower than the provincial exam, but the difficulty of physics rose not so little two points, so An Xingyue think this time the first is definitely the boyfriend, after all, the subject of physics alone, An Xingyue think they have no hope.

Then An Xingyue in a small corner of the heart, drew a circle cursing the physics teacher who issued the paper, is really too cruel.

But there is a reason why physics is so hard, because the physics competition is about to start, so that group of physics teachers hope to select the right people through this exam, and then open a small kitchen together, and then participate in the competition together afterwards.
