

THE STARS ARE ORIGINALLY A PAIR - COMPETITION

Since the end of the mapping test, everyone started waiting for the results again, after all, the results were to be ranked in the city this time, so the results didn't come out so soon.

The first week was spent in the apprehension of the test and waiting for the results.

Of course apprehension what does not include the big brother that a few.

But after this mapping test, everyone has a few more points of knowledge that they have not mastered, so they started to make up for the shortage again, and since the seventh class people began to study, most of their families have hired additional tutors.

So one by one, how high did they play before the first year of high school or longer, how pathetic they are now.

An Xingyue and night Xiu Chen metaphor for the college entrance examination has been ten to nine, so now they mentality what is more relaxed, and just the beginning of the school Lao Wang told them there is an English competition to go play, after all, they have more time, can go to get a few awards back.

Originally the competition or something to the senior year, the teacher those are not recommended to senior students to participate in, because there is a bit of a delay in revision, but An Xingyue and night Xiu Chen two are not ordinary people, so the old king thought about it, asked the party's opinion, and then helped them both to sign up.

The person in question does not matter, the school side is more than okay, after all, getting the prize is also good for the school.

So while everyone was getting ready to pack up and start checking the gaps, the two school gods started preparing the materials for the English competition. For the two of them, not what the ambition is to participate, but to get the award to go, although can not add points, but in the file will look a lot better, although not bad this one.

Ji Yiyao silently worshipped when she knew that her own best friend was ready to participate in the English competition, after all, they were still struggling with how to do the review, while they had finished their own review and then had time to participate in the competition these.

Because the two are ready to participate in the competition, so every day together to do the topic, practice speaking, and also each other to change the speech or something, anyway, the two people who speak well are even usually chatting in English, just to say more fluent.

Even Zhou Junxing they recently did not dare to get together with the two big brothers, after all, not every word can be understood, even listen to understand, why play together?

They still play together with the questions.

Let Tatsu and Missy play together.

When the two people left to participate in the competition, Ji Yiyao often called to complain about Zhou Gongzi's tendency, why this question will be, but a different way of asking he will not, so annoying oh.

Although it is so said, but An Xingyue can still feel the tone of their own best friend's pro it, and An Xingyue think that on the basis of Zhou Gongzi is her boyfriend's brother, then the IQ should not be so touching, is estimated to be playing with meow.

Because their school to participate in the competition only she and night Xiu Chen two is senior, so the schoolchildren are very surprised, after all, these two have been so crazy? They're in their third year of high school and they're participating in these competitions, so they don't have to prepare for the entrance exams?

That said, although often seen on the posting bar by these two dominant screen, but the real person is the first time to see ah, a little excited, after all, is a few can openly talk about love, and the school is not opposed to, and two or school bully.

It sounds very exciting to participate in a competition together or something.

Because the game the night before the arrival of the S city, so dinner is the leader of the teacher to take everyone to eat together, and because the city for the first time here, so An Xingyue is thinking and everyone together after dinner, and then and the teacher said, she and big brother out to see.

And night Xiu Chen would have listened to his girlfriend on everything, so what the young lady said.

But because everyone is here for the first time, so they all think about going out to see, so the two-person trip became a team trip, a bunch of people went out to see together.

An Xingyue thought of all the same school, so did not refuse, after all, we are not familiar with, or safer together.

The city of S is particularly busy and bustling at night.

An Xingyue pulled the night Xiu Chen walked behind everyone whispering, mainly spit on the pile of people who study hard in school, Meng Ming tired of doing exercises every day, but always in the group to brush up on their presence, the beautiful name is to relax and unwind.

And also let her and night Xiu Chen back with a hand letter, what the hell, they are to the game, do not know also think they are to travel.

But so to speak, but An Xingyue in the shopping time still bought a little trinket intended to bring back to them, and small trinkets to take the convenience, will not take up too much space.

Night Xiu Chen looked at the side and did not stop, anyway, An Xingyue took, he was responsible for the bill.

Finally a bunch of people are tired of walking, intend to eat a snack, so a group of people in the night market to find a barbecue stall, intend to order barbecue to eat.

An Xingyue's eyes lit up when she saw the stall, ever since A Chen knew she had a bad stomach she rarely took her to eat these heavy things, but she was gluttonous.

An Xingyue blinked her big eyes at night Xiu Chen, then tugged his clothes, night Xiu Chen helplessly nodded the tip of her nose, said dotingly: "Just this once, but can not eat more."

"Mm-hmm, I'll eat this once." Hee hee, as for eating more, who knows where the boundaries are.

After the order came up, An Xingyue picked up what she liked to eat and handed it to Night Xiu Chen for a taste before she slowly ate it like a hamster.

The night Xiu Chen holding a tissue in his hand, afraid An Xingyue were dirty, the peers said that the school bully is really all the time concerned about the young lady, perhaps they heard in school before the school bully bad temper, do not approach those rumors is a lie.

Sitting next to them is a group of people with bladders, and tattoos, looks very fierce group of people, and may be drunk, see next to a little sister want to molest, the girl scared enough.

Then probably because An Xingyue's face is more prominent, those people directly ignored the evil dragon next to her and reached out to touch An Xingyue's face, and then was directly hit back by night Xiu Chen.

Those people drink and want to make trouble, the boss of the barbecue stall saw a conflict and wanted to persuade, but and a group of alcoholic reasoning is useful? No use.

And that group of alcoholics also dislike the boss annoying, directly pushed him to the side, others see which dare to come up, and night Xiu Chen see those people on his family's little cute mouth full of profanity, but also on the hand to molest girls, the whole person is angry.

Just when the head of the group wanted to move An Xingyue directly, night Xiu Chen pulled her whole person behind him, and then kicked people away, in front of him to move his baby, simply looking for death.

The others saw that the head was beaten and directly surrounded them. An Xingyue looked around nervously, afraid that someone would sneak attack, although Ah Chen is very powerful, but those people were drunk, who knows if they would do anything out of the ordinary?

When all the people were knocked down, An Xingyue went up to touch here and there, afraid of where night Xiu Chen was injured.

And at this time there are also police arrived, because the hands, so according to the process everyone still followed back together to record a statement.

The other people saw the big brother hands to know that the rumors and what is true, the school bully fight, who can not compare.
