

THE STARS ARE ORIGINALLY A PAIR - SOUP DELIVERY

The two-day monthly exam is over, after the exam everyone is haggard, because these two days have been using the brain, and this time the monthly exam is modeled after the college entrance exam to test, but the difficulty is more difficult than the college entrance exam, especially in mathematics.

In the words of the teachers is now doing the questions are so difficult, to the college entrance examination you will feel that the topics are very simple.

But An Xingyue is curious, those teachers are not afraid to do so difficult topics before the college entrance examination, will make everyone more nervous? After all, usually such exams are not good, this way will not make everyone more confidence in the college entrance examination?

After the test came out, An Xingyue and night Xiu Chen went to the cafeteria, because we agreed to eat dinner together, so about the third floor, after all, there are large tables can we all sit together, and Eddie Chen and Zhou Junxing said that this test damaged many brain cells, so must go up to the third floor to make up, not to leave school, but to eat the best dishes in school.

Since the big brother took the road to school bully, he is surrounded by people more or less affected by a certain degree, look at Chen Gongzi, after enlightenment has been on cramming classes, and now the results are not as good as a few brothers, but better than the previous countdown classroom super much better.

An Xingyue and Ji Yiyang saw that everyone began to study hard, often give them the key points, and also put the notes those copies to them.

After eating, we all intend to go back to the dormitory to take a shower or lie down for a while, until almost time to go back to the classroom for evening study, An Xingyue so, rare not and night Xiu Chen outside, because after the test, after eating, and then this weather, it feels quite tired.

The first time I saw a woman, I was very happy to see her.

When An Xingyue returned to the dormitory, the other three people had not yet returned, Ji Yiyang should have been dragged by Zhou Junxing to go to the answer, because Zhou Gongzi couldn't wait to ask for a reward.

The other one is probably still not back from dinner.

So An Xingyue returned to the dormitory immediately turned on the air conditioning, and then looked for clothes to take a shower, so after entering the bathroom, did not hear the phone on the outside ringing.

And night Xiu Chen just returned to the dormitory, did not have time to do anything received a phone call from his future father-in-law, and then went out to get fruit and soup, yes, An father specially came to school to send soup to the two of them.

After going out, Night Xiu Chen realized that it was Big An Xingyue's phone that was not answered, so he called him.

"I just sent Yue Yue back to the dormitory, she was probably in the shower, that's why she didn't hear the phone ring." Night Xiu Chen took the soup and fruit from An's father's hand and explained.

"Then I'll text her later to tell her that there's nothing more, so that Yue Yue doesn't think I'm calling so much for something." An Guo Ting said with a smile, just did not call Yue Yue's phone he was indeed a little worried, but then called the night Xiu Chen's phone then know that there is nothing wrong.

"This soup you and Yueyue drink, is nourishing and summer heat, the weather is so hot, or drink more soup is better, I know the pinch beauty school also has, but always feel better home boiled." An Guo Ting looked at the soup in night Xiu Chen's hand and said, "Go back, wait for this weekend and then go out to play."

"Okay, uncle you drive carefully." Night Xiu Chen carried the things in both hands and turned around to go back.

Walking on the school road, attracted a lot of people's attention, after all, the big man carrying in his hands is not take-away those, obviously sent over from home.

The first thing to bring back to the dormitory, night Xiu Chen put them aside, then go to clean up after themselves, and then in the dormitory to sleep almost before going back to the classroom, because he and An Xingyue agreed to meet at 6:30 in the classroom, after all, there is still soup to drink.

An Xingyue came out of the shower and saw that An Dad had called her a few times and was a bit confused, because nothing would happen An Dad would not call her so many times in one breath.

Later, when she saw the text message, she realized that he had sent the soup over. An Xingyue was a bit amused that she was obviously a serious researcher, but she and her mother had become a family cook.

Then she saw that Night Xiu Chen asked her to meet him in the classroom at 6:30, so An Xingyue set an alarm clock for 6:15.

When I returned to the classroom, there were already quite a few people there. After the exams, everyone was relaxed, so An Xingyue entered the classroom and saw someone playing games, some watching videos or something, and then the big guy was sitting alone at the back, with a thermos lunchbox on the desktop.

Seeing someone looking back without thinking, An Xingyue knew that people were very curious, and after she came in, there were smiles and envy in her eyes, and some snickering.

Because there were two insulated lunch boxes placed, so everyone guessed what this represented.

"Ah Chen is really early, what kind of soup did dad make?" An Xingyue asked jokingly after sitting down and looking at the insulated lunchboxes laid out on the table.

"Uncle said it's a nourishing soup to relieve the summer heat, suitable for the current weather, and there are quite a few fruits, I carried them all back." Night Xiu Chen opened the lid, then put it in front of An Xingyue and replied.

"Tch, it feels like the treatment is all different when you reach senior year." An Xingyue said slightly helplessly, sending soup this kind of thing, An Dad also did it quite smoothly.

An Xingyue looked at the soup in front of her and texted her mom to tell her that An's dad actually sacrificed the time to do research to deliver soup to both of them.

"That's a good deal, uncle made the soup so well, but I wonder if uncle skipped work to make soup for the two of us, otherwise how would it be?" Night Xiu Chen thought about it, they exams a little early after school, An dad sent soup to the time but about 5:30, boiling soup to more than an hour or even longer, so An dad is what started skipping work to them boiling soup?

The night Xiu Chen thought of, An Xingyue also thought of, she is also curious, Dad is not skipping work? This is not like him.

An Xingyue and night Xiu Chen are drinking soup, people occasionally turn their heads to glance at so a couple of eyes, really curious about who sent the soup? And send two, obviously prepared, damn, envy and jealousy, in love are so bright and upright, although the beginning is this way, but the family so do not mind the attitude is really envious of dead.

You should know that early love or something, in the eyes of parents is very difficult to pass.

An Xingyue and night Xiu Chen drink a lot of taste, the next person to see want to replace it, although it is said to send soup or something, now at this time each student should be able to call home to send over, but big brother they this is a parent sent two soup over, also too will show.

After the two finished the soup, night Xiu Chen initiative lunch box put away, "I take back to the dormitory to wash, and then bring back when school is over on Saturday."

"Mm-hmm, then I'll trouble Ah Chen." An Xingyue nodded her head and said.
