

THE STARS ARE ORIGINALLY A PAIR - ACHIEVEMENT

A few days have passed since that night's horror movie, through this time the movie, the seventh class of rabbits have refreshed their knowledge of each other, it is really that night's scream is too impressive.

So now those teachers in class will occasionally tease them with this matter, if not the beating of the law, they all want to get rid of old Wang, ah ah ah, really watching horror movies should not be about him, that night of embarrassing things old Wang directly shared out, and there is a small video!!!

Now when you see Wang Ya, seven classes of people are looking at him with sad eyes, it is simply too much.

Wang Ya entered the classroom, holding the score sheet in his hand, put down what he was holding, stood on the podium, looked deeply at the people of class seven, and occasionally touched his round stomach with his hand.

Everyone was a little flustered by Old Ben's gaze, and then one by one they all began to mutter.

"Old Ben, what is the matter you quickly say, do not look at us like this, we are afraid."

"Old Ben, let's say something, don't do this, you look at us in panic."

"We haven't done anything bad in the first month of school, have we? Ben?"

"Damn, did one of you get into a fight? Or had an early love affair? Or were you caught going to an Internet cafe?"

"Old Ben, you don't look like you failed our monthly exam, do you?"

"How is it possible? Didn't we all do very well on the last weekly test?"

"Did someone turn in a blank paper?"

"Old class, old class, please, just say what you have to say? We're all mentally prepared."

You said one thing and I said another, the people of class 7 began to guess the reason why Wang Ya was so deep, after all, the class teacher looked at them a bit mysteriously.

"Hahahahahaha, okay, okay, all stop, what are you talking nonsense? I'm happy, look what nonsense you guys are talking about." Wang Ya waved his hand to make everyone stop, and then said spitefully.

Everyone under the podium looked at each other, what the hell? Happy? You look at us with that deep gaze and tell us you're happy?

"Ahem, this monthly exam everyone's results are beyond my expectation, much brighter than the results of the opening exam, now I can tell you with certainty, if everyone is in this state before the college entrance exam, then I believe that every student in our class can go to the second grade school and above."

"And this time, the first and second in science grade are still An Xingyue and Night Xiu Chen students in our class, but unfortunately, Ji Yiyao students only ranked fifteen in the grade this time, the teacher looked at your test paper, mainly math and physics are weak, and this time, the test paper, math and physics are more difficult, so it is obvious that the gap with the students in front of you is widened, so Yiyao Classmate, the teacher hopes that you can make up the two subjects of math and physics properly, and you can ask for help from the students who have better grades."

"Zhou Junxing is very good, although Zhou Junxing's overall score is not too high, but he is in the top ten of the class in mathematics, and you are still classmates, so it is convenient to ask questions, and with your friendly relationship, it is not easy for the teacher to assign someone else to you."

Wang Ya saw Ji Yiyao's total score is still very satisfied, but there is still a lot of room for improvement, after all, the two subjects of mathematics and physics she is really worse than other students ranked in front, but also thanks to the language and English pulled back, chemistry everyone is about the same look.

Hearing Wang Ya say friendly relations, seven classes of people do not unanimously laughed, ha ha ha, really very friendly relations.

Zhou Junxing heard Wang Ya's words and raised his eyebrows, "hehehe, thank you teacher for the compliment, I also think my math is great, so I will try to help my tablemate, after all, it's a friendly relationship."

"Since this is the case, the teacher also thinks that Yiyao students can also help you to make up for the language? After all, the teacher has never seen anyone who writes ancient analysis like you, but I can't say much about you, after all, it's the language, so you just wait for Mr. Lai to find you to chat, you are making Mr. Lai laugh."

Wang Ya thought of what the language teacher said to everyone in the office, not simply laughed, but hardened by the gas.

Compared to Zhou Junxing's openness and shamelessness, Ji Yiyao looked a little shy, especially when everyone still laughed, what the hell is the old class? For the old man, obviously already guessed the relationship between the two of them and still flirted with them, but it's true, their relationship is really good too.

"Now I will send everyone's results, you look at their own scores and ranking in the class, this time because math and physics are a bit difficult, so the top ten students in addition to the first two, the other changes are still quite large, because the two subjects pulled apart a lot of points, so there are weak subjects of students to enter quickly to make up for the shortcomings, and there are some students in every subject are about the same score The first thing you need to do is to get up the subjects you are good at, and then take your time with the rest."

"We are not in a hurry, take your time, because there is still time, so do not be too nervous, and from next week onwards we have to study at school on Saturday morning, and then go home from school at noon, and we have to go back to school on Sunday night, because we have to study at night on Sunday night."

Wang Ya told them the latest schedule, now senior high school, can use the time to be used, if not afraid of forcing too tight, these rabbits turned over, the school want to directly two weeks before a holiday.

Although a private component, not lack of money, not lack of resources or something, but in the entrance examination results do not want to lose to other schools, especially in the same city.

"And I would also like to praise our An Xingyue students and night Xiu Chen students in this English competition took a very good result, although not with those students in the first and second year of high school together in the competition class, but also achieved such good results, that the two students are very solid foundation, so we should learn from the two students. "

Wang Ya smiled more and more happily when he thought of the new trophies of the English competition in the honor wall and the prize money that was about to fly to him.

The two parties involved are very calm, as if Wang Ya is not talking about them.

The monthly exam ranked first or second in the grade, and then the competition also won a prize, how can it be so powerful? Everyone is learning this way, big brother is big brother, the god of learning is the god of learning, no less than a couple.

It's true that the good-looking ones are making friends with the ones with high face value, and even falling in love is related to learning.

This is what people really think when they see the photo of two people standing side by side on the wall of honor after class, and the two people are simply a match, no matter what their face value is or what their grades are.
