THE STARS ARE ORIGINALLY A PAIR - CHECK THE RESULTS

Because the two people do not care, so An mother An father also did not put this matter on the heart, is a familiar person saw asked a few questions, but the two children are people with ideas, they do not care.

And the news online after a while it will be gone, after all, the two children are not what celebrities, attention is not so high.

After squatting at home for a few days, night Xiu Chen and An Xingyue finally set off, two people do a good strategy, prepare things, and run outside.

Not only them, even Zhou Junxing did not know how to convince Ji Yiyan, and then the two went out to travel together, at that time from Ji Yiyan that know the news, An Xingyue also deliberately asked Ji Yiyan, how Zhou Gongzi was the uncle and aunt to get it done, actually let her follow Zhou Junxing out to play.

Originally Ji Yiyan wanted to go with An Xingyue, but was later rejected by the two men in the same breath, what a joke? You can have a two-person world, why not? Even brothers can not be this way.

So finally everyone separated, but it's okay, after all, it was planned for two people in the beginning.

The two people have been traveling outside until the day before the results came out, the two people returned to South City, ready to check the results of the next day, originally An Xingyue is not going to come back, she thought that when the check and then tell parents, but the third day after the results of the check to go back to school to deal with the filling of volunteer matters, so it is better to come back early.

When I got home, Guan Yaxin was still on a business trip, while An Guo Ting told them he would leave work a little early tonight and cook for them both, after going out to play for so long, it was time to eat some home-cooked food.

The next day to check the results, An Guo Ting deliberately took time off at home, ready to share the joy or bear the sadness with the two children, after all, Mom is not at home, Dad will have to use more snacks.

An Guo Ting sat on the sofa in the morning, fidgeting, although he knew that the results could only be accessed from 12 noon, but An Guo Ting was already thinking about how he should comfort the two children if they did not do well, who knew that the two smelly children came out of the room at nine o'clock, simply a big heart.

"Yue Yue you guys why so late to get up ah? Today to check the results ah!!!" An Guo Ting said helplessly.

"Dad, isn't the grade check at twelve o'clock? It's only 9:30 now, there's no rush, and it's a question of whether you can squeeze in the website to check it, so you don't need to be so anxious, the results are there anyway, it won't change even if you check it early or late."

An Xingyue saw that his father was more anxious than them, very helpless, after all, they both did not see this matter as very important, anyway, no matter when to check, their results will not change.

The two of them slowly found out the pass, put the pass in front of An Guo Ting, and then opened the phone, and the two of them just played the game.

Seeing the two children are so relaxed, An Guo Ting also slowly relaxed, yes, no matter what, the results will not change, nervous also useless.

After convincing himself, An Guo Ting picked up the newspaper and read it carefully.

The two children are not nervous anyway, he is nervous a hair line ah.

Some people in the class group have already started to guess their own grades, and then everyone is considering saying that if their grades how how, then what kind of school to go to?

Before the second year of high school they would never think about this problem, because of the family, they never thought of their own efforts to study, and then An Xingyue came, and with the big brother also changed, in the subtlety of everyone began to work hard, now they are qualified to say that this is their strength to get into the school, although not very good, but this is their own efforts to get.

But night Xiu Chen and An Xingyue were playing games, so they didn't pay attention to the news in the class group.
