

THE STARS ARE ORIGINALLY A PAIR - SHARE A BIKE

Holidays are always a good time to be lazy in bed, and An Xingyue, a genius, is no exception, even she likes to sleep and be lazy in bed more than others, if she didn't think she was going to the library today and had an appointment with Night Xiu Chen, how could she get up from bed before eight o'clock.

In order to go to the library and get up, she really does love to study very much. (Theo Theo) →

Gathering herself, An Xingyue then walked out of the bedroom and saw the breakfast on the table, but did not see anyone, she was used to it.

As expected, approaching the dining table, a small note was pressed on the table.

"Yue Yue, Daddy suddenly received a call from the research lab, there is an urgent matter to be dealt with, the vacation is cancelled, so Daddy is back to the research lab, you have to take care of yourself, Daddy has given you money in the card, if it is not enough, send a message to Daddy, if you call, Daddy may not be able to answer. --Daddy stay"

An Xingyue's mood was inexplicably low. The big liar, said that this will time will be home, really are big piggyback, obviously have been used to, why do not be happy.

Because the heart expects ah, even though disappointed many times, but once there is a little hope, or will have expectations, expect them to really do.

An Xingyue casually ate a few bites of breakfast, and then put it down.

The first thing you can do is to go down and take a walk. Whenever she thought of it, she did it. After picking up her keys and bringing all her things, An Xingyue went out.

There are still thirty minutes left before her appointment with Night Xiu Chen, so I guess I can wait slowly. But it does not matter, wearing headphones, listening to music, slowly enjoy the morning time.

When I got downstairs, I saw that the person who was supposed to appear half an hour later was leaning against a tree, head down, playing with his phone, and next to him was a mountain bike that was comparable to his status, but the back of the car was added to the back seat, and the face value of the whole car, well $\overline{\circ} (* \overline{\nabla} *) \circ$ was affected by a drop.

Night Xiu Chen, who was playing a game, felt someone staring at him, looked up and saw that the person he had been longing for was standing in that early sunlight, blurring her face. When she came towards him, the face gradually became clear, night Xiu Chen put the phone into his pants pocket, completely regardless of the game being played, well, what's fun about the game, accompanying the table is more important.

In the canyon crying blind teammates $\pi \dots \pi$...was about to win, because of the hanging machine of the great devil, oh expansive, flipped the car.

"Why are you here?" An Xingyue walked up to Night Xiu Chen and asked, she remembered that their appointment time was nine o'clock.

The first thing that happened to him was that he thought why did An Xingyue appear so early? When he heard her ask, he thought she was thinking of leaving early, so she could leave him behind.

It's hard to die, but you still have to smile and be strong ^ _____ ^ *

But still so angry oh.

An Xingyue watched his face flashed sad, angry, and finally stayed with a pretend happy expression. Why? Did she ask the wrong question, An Xingyue carefully thought about it, it seems to be a bit ambiguous.

Unnaturally ruffled her hair and asked, "We had an appointment for nine o'clock, you are here so early, if I didn't come down early, did you wait here for half an hour?" Perhaps already waited, after all, she came out and saw him, I wonder how long she waited before she came down.

Night Xiu Chen noticed that she said she came down early, so she wasn't trying to leave him behind, hehehe.

"Didn't wait long, I just thought you would see me when you came out, and how bad it is to be late for your first date." Night Xiu Chen smiled, the original cold and hard face became vivid, and the appearance is not bad, suddenly smiling is incomparably attractive.

So straightforward, but let An Xingyue became embarrassed, slightly red face, the cold face a few more popularity. And today she did not wear a skirt, but wore a light blue pantsuit and a looser jacket, the whole person more than a few playful and lazy.

The night Xiu Chen is a white sweater accompanied by light blue jeans, stepping on white shoes, the whole person looks particularly fresh, but such ordinary clothes can not hide its body innate nobility.

The first time I saw a shy An Xingyue, night Xiu Chen did not hold back, directly touching her head with his hand, until An Xingyue looked at him unkindly, only reluctantly hand back.

"Get in the car, table, I'll take you to the library by bike." He said, then pushed the mountain bike parked next to him, long legs, hands holding the front of the bike, turned his head to look at An Xingyue, indicating her to get on.

"Will it take long to go by bike? Can't you take the bus?" An Xingyue didn't quite dare to sit, well, couldn't trust the Great Devil.

"Today is Saturday, the bus should be crowded, do you want to crowd people?" How can night Xiu Chen let his little table to go to the bus, to know a man and a woman share a bike is a good opportunity to cultivate feelings.

"Could it be that you are very heavy at the table, so you don't dare to let me take you?" In order to let her ride the car, is also not afraid to die, to know the girl's age and weight is not to say.

"Roll, you are the one who is heavy, who is afraid to sit? Better tire you out." Know that it is provocative, but also took the bait, because do not want to crowded on the bus. (T _ T)

However, the lady forgot that in addition to the bus, there is a taxi ah.

Sideways sitting on the bike, the hand still holding the headphones just removed, one hand holding the cushion, said nervously: "Night Xiu Chen, you ride a little slower, I'm a little afraid." The time to goad or goad, the first time to sit, there is not much sense of security.

Night Xiu Chen heard her timid voice, looked at her, one ear wearing headphones, holding the cushion with one hand, well, a small one sitting behind him.

"You share the headset with me one, then hold my waist with both hands, do not hold the cushion, unstable." The time has come to make benefits for yourself.

An Xingyue readily divided a headset to him, and then looked straight at him, "Really hold your waist, can you refuse?" An Xingyue felt like her body was saying no.

"Little table, safety first, good boy. You know you are the first person to have this kind of treatment." After all, it was for you that the back seat of the car was put on.

Caught off guard by hearing such coaxing words from night Xiu Chen, An Xingyue slowly put her hand on his waist, her heart kept reassuring herself that this was done to safeguard life, not for his beauty.

After feeling An Xingyue's movement and feeling her hold steady, Night Xiu Chen slowly rode his bike and slowly accelerated.
