

THE STARS ARE ORIGINALLY A PAIR - NO HELP

Because of Night Xiu Chen's unexpected confession, when she returned to class on Monday, An Xingyue was a little embarrassed and didn't know how to get along with him. The first thing you need to do is to make sure that you have a good idea of what you are doing. >The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're doing.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're getting into.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers. Why did you come back from two days of vacation and feel that your little friend has changed." (☺____☺)

"Heh, who knows? It's not like you don't know that the big guys didn't even come out to play during the two-day vacation." Luo Junxian looked at them carelessly, gave a light laugh and said, "You can't even get a date, you really are a big fan of sex."

Luo Junxian said the latter sentence very quietly, Zhou Junxing did not hear clearly, asked a question, Luo Junxian just smiled and did not say it again.

Su Zhiqing turned her head and asked An Xingyue with a big grin, "Xingyue, do you have confidence? I heard that the results are coming out today, are you worried? I'm so afraid that my family's emperor will come to the parent-teacher conference ah, I guess my pocket money will be deducted again."

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you want to do. I'm sorry.

"Well, not worried, anyway, good test poor test is no difference." Yes, the two people in her family are busy again, even before she said to have a parent-teacher conference, originally An dad decided to come, but again because of the research institute, and said there was no time. And An's mother said she would be away for a month, but now the time has been extended.

So the parent-teacher conference was nothing special for An Xingyue, she was thinking that it was her first parent-teacher conference for her sophomore year, and that the teacher would tell the parents about the importance of sophomore year and that she hoped the parents would cooperate well with the teacher's work and prepare their children for their senior year together. (Although there is still one more year to go) (____, ____)

But her parents were still unable to be there.

Su Zhiqing did not know An Xingyue's thoughts, just thought she had a good idea, so she was not worried at all, as for her saying that there is no difference between a good test and a bad test, Su Zhiqing subconsciously ignored it.

"Ah ah ah, if I to you as good grades would be good, it is estimated that my family too the emperor can put me to the sky." Yes, Su Zhiqing's father is very obsessed with her grades, but not very much, after all, the level of their own children to where, Su's father said he is still quite clear.

And Su Zhiqing is just hooting for her pocket money.

Money ah money $\cong \dots \cong$

"You believe me so much before you see the results?" An Xingyue never knew why on her first day here, Su Zhiqing was convinced that she got good grades.

"Mmmmmm, must be, and I was hoping you'd put Mo Zhicheng down. Let him control me all day long and bully me all day long because his grades are better than mine." When Su Zhiqing thought of An Xingyue getting better grades than him, she wanted to laugh and let him have his way in front of her.

However, Su Zhiqing forgot that An Xingyue's good grades have nothing to do with her, after all, people Mo Zhicheng is in charge of her, not An Xingyue.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're doing. (_ _ | | |)

The first thing I did was to get the results in the morning, but because Old Wang had to read through them first and analyze them before sending them down, some people had to be on tenterhooks all morning, until the last class in the afternoon, when Old Wang sent down the test papers.
