

THE STARS ARE ORIGINALLY A PAIR - CAUGHT OFF GUARD

Ever since he received the pen from An Xingyue, Night Xiu Chen's whole body was not good, why did he give him a pen as a gift? Want him to study hard? But I heard that top students like people with good grades, is it because his grades are too poor that she has not accepted him? >...<

The pen in his hand, night Xiu Chen puzzled, how can he know An Xingyue choose to give him a pen on the one hand is really want him to study well, but more because she can not think of what to give him? That's right, she didn't know what to give him before she gave him the pen. (●'?' ●)

After the results were released, the parent-teacher conference that everyone had been waiting for came and went.

Those who did poorly in other classes were afraid of being scolded by their parents, but the students in Class 7 were used to it, and at most their allowance was deducted.

Originally, most of the parents of Class 7 planned to have their secretaries or other people come, but I don't know what Old Wang said, which made them all change their minds and finally decided to be there in person.

So then, the people of class 7 were MMP. Originally thinking that other people came to the parent-teacher conference, everyone was planning to leave early to play, who knew that the change was simply lol. ε (ㄊㄚˋㄊㄚˋ...ㄊㄚˋ)ε

So before the parent-teacher conference started, everyone in class 7 stayed peacefully in the classroom and waited for their parents to arrive. There were also some people who were arranged by the old king to receive the parents who came.

But there were always some exceptions.

The two of them were Night Xiu Chen and An Xingyue, at least in their opinion. After all, both of them had told Wang Ya in advance that their parents would not come.

So among a bunch of people who were sitting obediently in the classroom waiting for their parents to come, these two desks secretly left, and there was no use for them to stay in the classroom anyway.

But unbeknownst to them, three cars slowly pulled into the campus.

"Tablemate, why did you sneak out?" Night Xiu Chen asked with his head lowered, looking at the person standing next to him.

An Xingyue's eyes dimmed and said, "No one came to the parent-teacher conference, why should I be inside, and didn't you also come out?"

"It's really fate. In that case, where are you going? I'm going to go to the basketball court to play for a while, do you want to go watch me play basketball?" Night Xiu Chen narrowed his eyes, smiled meaningfully and asked.

An Xingyue thought for a while, it seems that now also can not go to what, besides she has not seen him play, after all, before he appeared in the basketball court, his little fan girls are surrounded up to see, so many people, she did not go over to see, I heard that the boys who play basketball are very handsome, really?

No, it mainly depends on the face. (★ ω ★)

An Xingyue felt it, she should know more about the boy in front of her, so she agreed to play together on the basketball court.

And at this time in the classroom of the seventh class, old Wang looked at the parents who arrived, his heart trembled, indeed, the principal honestly does not deceive me, the students of this class family is either rich or that is expensive, even if the worse can have the upper middle class level.

"Ahem, thank you for taking time out of your busy schedules to come to the children's parent meeting, this meeting is just to talk to you parents about the importance of this second year of high school and the performance of the children in school, and also the first monthly exam of the second year of high school."

"Our class 7 students, usually very lively, is that some students in the study of this small thing a little not to care, but some students are doing very well, and this monthly examination of our class An Xingyue students achieved the first in the class in science, which is a very happy thing, and proved that not only in the key classes can have good results, in ordinary classes there are also people There are also people in ordinary classes who can do it."

Wang Ya spoke impassionedly on the podium, while An's mother, who was sitting on the stage, was a bit down, the results came out a few days ago, but Yueyue didn't tell them, she and her father thought it was because she didn't do well in the exam, so she didn't say anything, but why did she get first place, Yueyue didn't tell them either.

And other parents are standing around their own children, but Yueyang'er and her tablemates are nowhere to be seen, and she and this parent next to her are a bit confused.

Moreover, Wang Ya had planned to let An Xingyue speak as a representative to say her feelings and share her study methods, but she didn't see anyone!

After inspecting the podium for a few weeks and finding that she was really not there, Wang Ya asked, "Did any students see where An Xingyue went today? And night Xiu Chen classmate also disappeared."

Su Zhiqing, who was very nervous and wanted to see the fun, said loudly, "Teacher, the two of them left the classroom when they were receiving parents, and they left together."

Before hearing these words, Wang Ya did not think for a moment that those two people were missing together, although there were some whispers in the school, but he thought that with such a good person as An Xingyue would not look at Night Xiu Chen, although he was also quite good before, but it was said to be before.

But Su Zhiqing's words broke the peace in his heart, could it be true that the rumors in the school are true? The two people who are so far apart are really together? And why pick a time like this when both people are away? And why did they pick a time like this when neither of them was there? And they told him that no parents came to the parent-teacher conference? God knows how surprised he was when he saw their parents, after all, the parents who were clearly not coming came.

But what to do now? The bottom in addition to the students, there is a large group of parents in it, the most critical is the parents of the two people missing it, the class has a student early love this kind of thing how to let the parents know it, in case the parents think they are badly taught is bad.

Damn, two brats to see me not after the fall, but An Xingyue so well behaved, is certainly the night Xiu Chen that brat brought bad, see I do not nag him to death.

The old king who was deceived by appearances. (●ˇ? ˇ●)

The big devil king who became the backstabber. (˘˘˘˘˘˘)˘

Old Wang, who was hard and calm, named two people and told them to look for them and see where those two people were.

But Su Zhiqing is faster than him, because she ignored a large part of the class gaze, directly took the phone to call An Xingyue, and also turned on the speakerphone, yes, not too big for her, in front of so many people, especially behind the parents of the two parties, turned on the speakerphone.

After a few beeps, a cold voice rang out: "Zhiqing, why are you calling me, have you finished the parents' meeting?" An Xingyue, who didn't know anything about it, was really not at all defensive, mainly because she didn't know that her parents were coming and that the old king was planning to let her give her feelings in public.

"No, I just saw that you were not in the classroom, worried about you, so I asked where you went, and your deskmate also disappeared." Su Zhiqing suddenly had her IQ online and her acting skills exploded.

"Oh, I'm here with him in the gym, didn't go anywhere, you don't have to worry, after the parent-teacher conference is over, you can call and tell me again, I'll go back to the classroom to pack some things."

Su Zhiqing got the answer she wanted and immediately answered, and also hung up the phone.

Wang Ya was dumbfounded, you called her and asked where it was, why not call her back? Thinking and asked out.

"Teacher ah, let them come back to this kind of thing should you do, and it is you did not say well in advance with the moon, she left can not blame her ah, and the great devil is still next to her, I do not dare." The three words Su Zhiqing said so naturally.

And Zhou Junxing and Luo Junxian looked at the adults sitting in the position of the two big brothers, secretly took out their cell phones and sent a text message, as to what they would do, it depends on the luck.
