

THE STARS ARE ORIGINALLY A PAIR - BACK TO SCHOOL

The night Xiu Chen took her to a private restaurant, the environment what is better, and leaning towards the ancient style, and in order to be able to two people alone, night Xiu Chen also deliberately booked a private box.

The heart boy.

But An Xingyue itself is a relatively quiet person, so he is very satisfied to do so.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

When eating, night Xiu Chen like a demented man looking at An Xingyue, after all, the little tablemate eating really cute, cheeks full, like a small squirrel, completely without the usual cool, but also very elegant, or is related to the family environment. s

After all, the parents of the parent meeting day to see the moon child also does not look like ordinary people.

An Xingyue noticed that night Xiu Chen had been looking at her, took a look and found that he did not how to eat, then remembered that it seems that most of the dishes on the table are her favorite food, does night Xiu Chen do not like to eat these dishes?

"Ah Chen, is it that you don't like these dishes? You don't seem to have eaten much." An Xingyue opened her mouth and asked, not eating dinner doesn't seem to be good for the stomach, "If you don't like to eat, we can reorder over, there is still time." An Xingyue looked at the time and continued.

"Ahem, these dishes are quite delicious, there is no need to reorder." Hearing An Xingyue say that, Night Xiu Chen realized that he was only watching her eat, while he didn't eat much himself.

The two people finished their meal slowly before going back to school unhurriedly. One is indifferent, one does not care, excellent.

The people of class 7 may have found the joy of learning, the number of people in the evening study was a little more than at the beginning, and it was not the same as before, coming to the evening study just to play games for a change, but somewhat serious in reading books.

So when the two people, Night Xiu Chen and An Xingyue, returned to the classroom holding hands, everyone felt that the world was not too friendly to single dogs.

The first thing you need to do is to come back for a late study session and eat your dog food, that's enough.

But people with high face value walking together, really pleasing to the eye, with a face. Buzz (~ω~o)

A god of learning brought up a pit, big brother also began to move in the direction of the school bully. Some people in class 7 couldn't believe their eyes when they saw that Big Brother was actually doing his homework.

Although the big brother this time very serious listening to the class, but homework those still did not do much, actually is too much time wasted, and now, actually doing, want to ask big brother, face pain?

Others do not know, but sitting in front of them Su Zhiqing but a clear, she just heard very clearly, big brother actually take homework and Starry Moon to talk about the conditions, the point is that Starry Moon promised, so the big brother just started to do homework. Wooooooo~

Now Big Brother is as long as the girlfriend let do, he will pretend to hesitate for a while, and then take the opportunity to make benefits for themselves, and then agree later.

Big Brother is toxic, obviously also did not intend to refuse his girlfriend, but still to act, pretend that he can not do, to win the pity of Starry Moon Moon, and Starry Moon Moon also agreed. (~_~|||)

Later, Su Zhiqing mentioned it to her, and An Xingyue said she knew what Night Xiu Chen was thinking, after all, his acting skills were quite poor, but even so, she was willing to play along with him.

At that time, Su Zhiqing felt that An Xingyue's boyfriend power was exploding. (●~? ~●)

And at that time also quite envious of their two feelings, after all, in the relationship is willing to tolerate each other is actually quite difficult.
