

THE STARS ARE ORIGINALLY A PAIR - COMPETITION 2

A person who uses contests as a way to pass the time, social society, is the next to lose. (￣ ￣ | |)

That is to say if it is not to pass the time, An Xingyue simply will not be so easily agreed to participate in the competition, even at noon Ji Yiyan jokingly said that if she went to participate, it is estimated that the first is her, she was not moved at that time, after all, she did not take a few of these competition rankings, already do not care.

But now why so casually agreed, because she has learned that those two people in her family, winter break and busy, so only she is home alone, then it is better to go to the competition?

An Xingyue got the information about the competition, walked out still see night Xiu Chen standing there, it seems that the boyfriend did not listen to her words to leave ah, really, come to an office also do not feel at ease ah. (￣ ▽ ￣)

An Xingyue sneak up behind night Xiu Chen, patted his shoulder, want to see the big brother was scared, but bar An Xingyue did not expect the big brother was actually not scared, "A Chen, why are you not scared by me ah?"

An Xingyue looked at the night Xiu Chen who had turned around, there was no hint of being frightened on his face, and not only was he not frightened, there was a smile on his face.

Night Xiu Chen habitually rubbed her head and said gently, "I knew it was you when you came close to me, so how could I be frightened?"

After all, he is still very familiar with the scent of his own girlfriend. o(* ￣ ▽ ￣ *)o

"What is that you are holding in your hand? Is it the reason why the old king is looking for you this time?" Night Xiu Chen picked up what An Xingyue was holding in her hand and asked in passing.

"Mm-hmm, it's a language competition, teacher Lai said he wanted me to participate, let old class convince me, I see the final is in the winter holidays, and the location is in Kyoto, it's not far, so I agreed." An Xingyue took a look at the information held in the hands of night Xiu Chen and said.

The time to hear the final was silent for a while, after all, he also intended to stay in the southern city with his girlfriend during the winter holidays, not planning to return to Kyoto, but now his girlfriend is going to Kyoto for the winter holidays to participate in the competition, then he should also follow it, well, to see those people again. ￣ ^ ￣

"So, Luna is very confident about this final? After all, even the time to participate in the final, the place to go to understand." Night Xiu Chen said with a smile, but his own girlfriend's strength he still knows very well, I'm afraid that not only the final, it is estimated that even the top she can get.

Now so casually asked, but also just want to chat more with their own little lovely, and he likes to see the moon in front of him inadvertently flowing out of the arrogance, the thief cute. (? ω?)

"It has to be, does Ah Chen not believe in my strength?" An Xingyue tilted her head and glared at Night Xiu Chen, asking fiercely.

"How can I not believe in Yueyue's strength, my girlfriend is so powerful, the district final is just." Night Xiu Chen pinched An Xingyue's face, said quite funny, I guess An Xingyue didn't even know that she was cute as hell when she looked at him herself, she thought she was fierce, but in his opinion it was milky and fierce. ^ _____ ^ *

The night Xiu Chen felt that after being with An Xingyue for a long time, he would discover that side of An Xingyue that many did not show in front of others, this feeling made his heart sweet, sweeter than eating honey, simply sweet to the heart.

"Then does Ah Chen want to participate with me ah, I also took an extra registration form oh." An Xingyue squinted her eyes and looked tenderly at night Xiu Chen and said.

After all, she wanted to stay with her boyfriend during the winter holidays, and if she participated in the competition together, she would be able to play together.

An Xingyue did not know that even if they did not participate in the competition together, the big brother was thinking of accompanying her.

"Yes, the language competition, I think I can still do it." Night Xiu Chen thought for a moment and answered.
