

THE STARS ARE ORIGINALLY A PAIR - MONDAY

Another Monday, South City First School customary criticism and praise meeting, will start after the flag-raising ceremony on Monday, before the appearance of An Xingyue, big brother is criticized daily figure, but now well, but no more.

After all, after having Missy, at least pay attention to their own image, otherwise Missy's those suitors all day to take him bad to say, the whole as if Missy and him together is how to think.

The flag-raising ceremony, everyone is a school uniform, even the usual prickly students will be good to wear the school uniform, which is the respect for the flag and the importance of the flag-raising ceremony.

After the flag-raising ceremony, the principal speaks, chattering for ten minutes, almost always the same recipe, the same flavor.

When the head teacher speaks, it is different, first of all, a bunch of typical elements of last week's fights, truancy, late and early to leave the class named once, except for the big brother and a few of them are not in it, the others are used to hearing the names.

After the criticism, the next is praise.

"Ahem, we all know that the last monthly exam, the best performance in science is the seventh class of An Xingyue students, followed by a class of Guanji students, followed by the seventh class of Lai Keer students, and An Xingyue students since the transfer to our school, small and large exams are at the top of the list, can be said to be playing very stable, so ah, we should be more to the front of the students So, we should learn from the students in front of us and strive to be on top next time."

After saying a bunch of words of praise, the head teacher let the top ten students in science and the top three students in arts go to the podium to receive the award, after all, as a rich school said scholarship is essential.

The night Xiu Chen looked at An Xingyue standing on the podium and Guan Zhi standing next to her, his face was dark.

The big brother did not forget that Yueyaer had asked him who Guanji was, and now Yueyaer knows! Originally, Yueyang'er did not care about this, even if the first few times everyone went on stage to receive the award, but right, since that person in the first class mentioned this person Guanji in front of her, Yueyang'er has more or less remembered.

What a nuisance. >___<

And big brother think it, standing next to his girlfriend should be him, meow, big brother once again regret, why in the first place because of those people a few words to give up study? Why? Maybe it's because he didn't expect to meet someone who would make him work for it.

Now the thieves are sad and regretful. : : >__< : :

Zhou Junxing looked at the big brother's cloudy face and secretly took a few steps back, away from the dangerous place.

Luo Junxian looked at Zhou Junxing's small action and puffed out a laugh, needless to say? The first thing you need to do is to see that your sister-in-law is not standing next to him, so you are not balanced? Look at the child's fright.

Zhou Junxing heard the laughter, glared at Luo Junxian, comprehended the meaning in Luo Junxian's eyes, gritted his teeth and said, "You try standing next to Brother Chen, meow, it's almost turning me into a popsicle, the weather is already cold, Brother Chen is constantly creating cold air, it's cold to death."

"Standing next to Brother Chen is a treatment I'm not blessed to receive, or Xiao Zhouzi, you come." Luo Junxian said with a smile, "And I guess next time it will be Brother Chen who stands next to sister-in-law."

"How is that possible? Although Brother Chen has improved a lot during this period of time, it's impossible for him to reach the second place in the whole class in the next monthly exam, right? I don't think he's that crazy, and he has to prepare for the language competition." Zhou Junxing also does not want to look down on Chen, but it is really difficult to do it, after all, those in front of the basic skills are still very solid, Chen is very difficult to overtake the car.

"For Brother Chen, what's this? How about we both gamble?" Luo Junxian said unsympathetically.
