

THE STARS ARE ORIGINALLY A PAIR - PLAN (A GROUP OF SILLY CHILDREN)

Near the end of the school day, in addition to the morning appeared a little Wang Ya appeared again, "that, because tomorrow to test, so tonight's evening study canceled, the school wants everyone to use tonight's time to do the final adjustment, and then in the best condition to meet tomorrow's exams, so ah, we do not stay up tonight, after all, after the exams, winter break is more time to play. "

"Oh, more time for winter break, that's a lot of homework too, right, old class." Someone said loudly.

"Right oh, old class, when will the winter vacation homework be assigned?"

"Old Ben do you have a lot of winter break homework in this subject?"

"Old Ben, do you know how much homework other teachers assign?"

"Well, well, not yet winter vacation, so soon think about winter vacation homework, do not worry, so love you, how will set a lot of homework? So I do not have much homework in this class at all, as for other teachers I do not know."

"Also, ask so actively, people who don't know think you guys will be very serious about doing your winter break homework, who would know that you bunch of bunnies are all copying each other."

Wang Ya did not hesitate to poke at the essence of everyone, hum, there are some or back from the holidays copied, but also copied the four unlike

"Hee hee, the old class know in the heart is good, do not say it, we will be shy." Zhou Junxing said shamelessly.

It is true that most of the assignments of class seven have templates, and a complete assignment may appear in several different mutilated versions, and the teachers of class seven have a number in their hearts, but willing to copy at least better than not to hand in, after all, copied once at least a little impression, this is the self-congratulation of the teachers of class seven.

Wang Ya speechlessly looked at the following group of self-directed silly children, really can't bear to tell them, because this semester everyone is toward the good side, so those teachers heart rekindled hope, so this winter vacation homework will vary from person to person, even copy them can't copy, the thief poor.

But now it is better not to tell them first, so as not to affect their exams tomorrow, or it will be bad.

The homework is little but expensive in the fine ah, silly children. Wang Ya looked at the group of silly children who were discussing with a compassionate and sympathetic gaze, alas, it is good to be uninformed.

In order not to reveal their own fishy, Wang Ya said a little later after school to pay attention to safety, as well as once again explained that they do not stay up late tonight, and then hurriedly left, he was afraid that he listened to them again winter vacation homework who do which who do which, and then will laugh and cry.

After school, originally An Xingyue and night Xiu Chen two people together, then Zhou Junxing, Luo Junxian and Chen Eddie and a few of them insisted on together, and Zhou Junxing also somehow pulled Ji Yiyao and Su Zhiqing also came, and then Su Zhiqing came, her family bamboo horse also followed, so the two people line became a multi-person line.

There are many people and the day is cold, the most suitable for playing hot pot, so a group of people directly find a hot pot restaurant, asked for a private box, and then a group of people in it, chatting.

Once inside the box, Zhou Junxing and Eddie Chen two people immediately paralyzed on the chair, the posture is unpleasant.

While Luo Junxian picked up the cup on the table, turned it, then looked at the eight people, two pairs of couples, meow, why do they these single noblemen want to be with two pairs of couple dogs, maybe because the usual dog food is not enough to eat?

Chen and sister-in-law even if, why Su Zhiqing so quickly agreed to Mo Zhicheng, before is not still very squirmy? Why is it so quick to negotiate?

After eating a bunch of golden dog food, even Luo Junxian, a fox, can't treat them properly who are spreading dog food freely because they have lovers.

We agreed to be single together, but you have other dogs.

After eating the hot pot, we all chatted together and talked about the arrangements for winter vacation.

"Star boy ah, you want to go back to Kyoto for winter vacation?" Eddie Chen asked curiously.

"Back to it, originally my parents were ready to go abroad as a family, who knew that the Kyoto side called to go back, my father did not want to make the New Year too ugly by then, so should go back to go back, annoying." Zhou Junxing thought of the phone call from his father's street before, not to say that they do not recognize the family? And now shamelessly let them go back.

"I will also go back." Luo Junxian said indifferently.

"Then won't I be the only one playing in South City by myself??" Eddie Chen exclaimed.

"It's like this, MoMo and I will also go on a trip then oh, only you, alone, don't be too pitiful." Su Zhiqing said happily.

"You can go to Kyoto to find us then, ah, brother Chen and sister-in-law and Yiyao will also go to Kyoto, we can get together in Kyoto." Zhou Junxing said after thinking about it.

After all, An Xingyue and Ji Yiyao are going to Kyoto to participate in the competition, then after the competition, we can all hang out in Kyoto for a few days.

"Okay, then I will go to Kyoto then, and little chili you and your family this out to play back remember to bring us a handwritten letter." Eddie Chen looked at Su Zhiqing and said.

"No problem, is not to handwritten letter? When the time comes, one for one." Su Zhiqing heard Eddie Chen say your family this, face are red, and then replied loudly to hide their blush.

Too indisputable, did not say a sentence your family this?

We all chatted almost, and then only dispersed, and finally left, because it was rather night, so Zhou Junxing volunteered to say to send Ji Yiyan home.

An Xingyue thought it was okay, after all, Zhou Junxing's character is still okay, and this time Zhou Junxing often asked her about Ji Yiyan, she also guessed that Zhou Junxing should want to chase Meow Meow, and then A Chen said that Zhou Junxing is not as philandering as it seems, so An Xingyue is also happy to give him the opportunity to perform in front of Ji Yiyan.

After all, to forget the one you liked before, then it might be good to like someone again.

An Xingyue is to give Zhou Junxing an assist from time to time, as to whether he can take Ji Yiyan depends on his own cultivation.

Although Ji Yiyan did not mention Su Chon this person in front of her again, but like for so long, how can she easily believe Meow Meow's own words have almost forgotten.

The company's main goal is to provide the best possible service to its customers.

An Xingyue doesn't want Ji Yiyan to be sad when she sees him, so she can only hope that Zhou Junxing can occupy a place in Ji Yiyan's heart.

According to this, Zhou Junxing is premeditated ah, is not yet dare to strike, goose.

After watching Zhou Junxing and Ji Yiyan leave, night Xiu Chen and Luo Junxian and Eddie Chen said goodbye, and then pulled An Xingyue away.

The night is still long, there is no hurry, we go slowly.
