

THE STARS ARE ORIGINALLY A PAIR - CHANGE OF PLACE

Luo Junxian got up early and sat in the living room, kept sliding his phone screen to look at it, and looked up every now and then to see if anyone was up.

It wasn't until after 8:00 or 9:00 that everyone got up one after another. Eddie Chen saw Luo Junxian sitting there as soon as he came out and rubbed his eyes, "Fox, when did you get up?"

Luo Junxian looked at Eddie Chen who was a bit spicy in front of him and said disgustedly, "More than seven o'clock."

While the two were chatting, everyone? which touched which appeared in the living room and then started the day's schedule.

"I just looked at a hot spring resort an hour away from here is pretty good, and there are farmhouses inside." Luo Junxian said while sharing the webpage he just looked at to their group, "I sent the link to the group, you guys take a look."

This time, Zhou Junxing built a group and pulled everyone into it.

The two of them looked at it together.

"That hot spring resort also has sightseeing B&B ah, then why didn't we just book the B&B there in the first place?" Zhou Junxing looked at Luo Junxian after reading the information and asked in a puzzled manner.

"At first, the hot spring resort we chose is not this one, this is what I saw this morning, mainly because there are also farmhouses in this one, so I let you take a look." Luo Junxian turned the phone in his hand, looked at the people present, and slowly said.

So at the beginning we didn't see all of the B&Bs in Qingcheng?

Embarrassed.

"This resort is good, the hot spring area inside is known as the top ten quality hot springs in Qing City." Ji Yiyan said in surprise as she hugged a pillow and looked at the information.

"I think the B&B environment there is even better than our current one eh, lake view cabin, mountain view cabin, mountain and lake combination, and we soak in the hot spring and experience nongjia if put in a day to complete a bit of a rush, but separate two days, it will take several car rides, or let's see if the B&B there is still available, directly book there forget."

Zhou Junxing saw the pictures in the profile and felt that the environment there was better than this, and originally thought that the B&B they had chosen was already very good, but who knew that there was still a mountain to climb.

"I also think Xiao Zhouzi is right, and all the space over there is bigger, even without other things, living there alone can already spend several days." Su Zhiqing put her arm around Mo Zhicheng and spoke.

An Xingyue also felt that it was better to book a B&B there directly, then there would be no need to travel more than once, and Night Xiu Chen said his girlfriend's opinion was his opinion.

So the vote was unanimous to book the resort's B&B directly and then just experience the farmhouse and soak in the hot springs inside, and there's a superb lake view to see.

"Then everyone pack their things and then change places." Night Xiu Chen said indifferently.

The most important thing to come out to play is to have fun, since everyone feels that it is better there, and to meet other needs, then go, anyway, it is not bad for these few dollars.

The nine nines resort, away from the hustle and bustle of the city, the environment is quiet and leisurely, hidden in the 300 acres of lakeside in the bed and breakfast, surrounded by trees on all sides, the bed and breakfast is built on the lake, looking away from the mountains, brimming with lake and mountain in the field of vision infinite extension.

The private hot spring hidden in the wooden house has the purest water quality, and the water is tested by the Qingcheng University of Medical Sciences as a calcium sulfate spring with metasilicic acid, which is the best grade of high quality therapeutic warm mineral spring.

When we went to find that in addition to hot springs and farmhouse, there are some other entertainment projects, but it is winter, some water projects are not suitable for playing, a bit of a pity.

An Xingyue felt that the B&B here and the one they stayed in yesterday were both surrounded by trees, but it was obvious that this one had a wider footprint and had better recreational programs or otherwise.

After all, the one yesterday was next door to a tourist attraction, not a hot spring, farmhouse, and some other items like this one.

The chalets have floor-to-ceiling windows and are greeted by superb lake views and fresh air.

The group decided to experience the farmhouse first, and then go to the hot spring tomorrow, and also just saw a picnic, so we also want to try a picnic.

A group of people put things away after, directly run to the farmhouse.

"Hello, we have the specialties of the city of Qing, but also home-cooked small dishes, and you can also go fishing, pick your own vegetables, and then we help you cook, of course, if interested in cooking can also be done with our chef, depending on your choice." The person in charge of the farmhouse took night Xiu Chen and them to visit what their farmhouse has while slowly saying.

"Ah Chen, I want to go fishing, will you accompany me?" An Xingyue saw that there were already quite a few people there for fishing, she also wanted to try it.

"Good, I will accompany you to go fishing later." Night Xiu Chen stroked An Xingyue's head and said pleasantly.

After understanding a general, night Xiu Chen and An Xingyue two people decided to go fishing, while Zhou Jun Xing did not know how to convince Ji Yi Yan, and then two people also followed together to go fishing.

And Su Zhiqing dragged Mo Zhicheng to pick vegetables.

They are all a man and a woman, in pairs, were left with Luo Junxian and Eddie Chen once again face to face, why is this again?

Obviously that boy Zhou Junxing and Ji Yiyan are not together yet, but why Ji Yiyan also allows Zhou Junxing to follow her around and stick to her, why is this?

And why is Zhou Junxing's skin so thick? This is not yet a name and then start to declare sovereignty?

Eddie Chen helplessly patted Luo Junxian's shoulder, "What are we two big men going to do?"

"Just find a place to stay, or follow Brother Chen and the others to go fishing." Luo Junxian looked at those people who were divided into two directions and thought about it, he wanted to go fishing more than picking vegetables.

"Okay, let's go fishing together."

Because six of the eight people chose to fish, Zhou Junxing proposed a competition to see who caught the most fish within an hour, and the last one in line would have to cook three dishes for everyone later.

Just make three dishes, and there is no rule what kind of dishes, so for this everyone is okay.

So, when Su Zhiqing and Mo Zhicheng finished picking vegetables and came to them, they saw six people sitting in a row, fishing.

Su Zhiqing asked An Xingyue knew they were betting, and then looked at each of their fish baskets, the big brother is worthy of the big brother, even fishing is not a problem.

Su Zhiqing and Mo Zhicheng two people standing on the side, quite interested in watching them, and Su Zhiqing also moved to spit a few words.

Well an hour passed, night Xiu Chen had four fish in his fish basket, Luo Jun Xian had three, An Xingyue and Ji Yiyan both had two, and the party who proposed the competition as well as Eddie Chen had none, so these two people had to do the dishes.

"Why? Wow, how is this possible? How could I not have caught a single one??!" Zhou Junxing originally wanted to show off well in front of Ji Yiyan, who knew that Ji Yiyan even had two fish, while he, not one.

"Maybe you have a bad character and are not handsome enough." Su Zhiqing said next to him to insert a knife into his heart.
