

THE STARS ARE ORIGINALLY A PAIR - BACK TO SCHOOL

An Xingyue was sent home by night Xiu Chen when it was already eight o'clock in the evening, if not An Xingyue firmly said must go home, night Xiu Chen are trying to directly detain people in his home.

"Bao, tomorrow afternoon I will go back to school with you, come to pick you up then, you wait for me to call you you come out again know?" Night Xiu Chen circle hugged An Xingyue, buried his head in An Xingyue's shoulder, said in a low voice.

Now the weather is so cold, so night Xiu Chen does not want An Xingyue to wait for him outside when it is cold, but afraid that An Xingyue does not obey, waiting for him outside early, so repeatedly instructed her to wait for him to call her before coming down, this way there is no need to wait.

"I know, Ah Chen is so nagging now oh, it's been said many times." An Xingyue put her hands around Night Xiu Chen's waist, her nose sniffing the cool mint smell coming from his body, and said rather disgustedly.

Night-Mother-Xiuchen, understand.

"If it wasn't for a certain disobedient little aunt who didn't listen before, waiting outside early, and not keeping warm and catching a cold, how would I be bugging you again and again, little heartless." Night Xiu Chen stretched out his slender fingers and slowly flexed them, then gently knocked on An Xingyue's forehead.

"Welp, I even said that time was an accident na, you can not only think of that time ah, I also waited before not also did not catch a cold? A Chen only grabbed the time when people were sick." Knocked on the forehead by night Xiu Chen, An Xingyue discontentedly patted him on the back, then muttered.

"Mm-hmm, it's my bad, I shouldn't be like this, but Bao you have to remember that you will come down tomorrow after I call you, remember that." Night Xiu Chen readily admitted the mistake that was not considered a mistake, and then once again admonished.

Two people you and me for ten minutes, night Xiu Chen felt the temperature on An Xingyue clothes a little lower, before letting people go home.

The two of you have been in love with each other for ten minutes, and you feel the temperature on the clothes of An Xingyue is a bit low, before you let her go home.

An Xingyue returned home, pack up the things, open the phone, see their class group of messages increasing, An Xingyue are point surprised, those people at this time should not be in the night life? How do they have time to brush the screen?

The reason for their screen swiping was that the class manager had announced the results in advance, and then also included the rankings in the province, school and class, in the name of hoping that everyone would be able to wake up and understand their own position.

The reason for their excitement is that she and night Xiu Chen actually took the first and second place in the province, directly to the school's top brass excited bad, especially to see the big brother reformed, back to the original position, some teachers who know the strength of the big brother simply happy bad.

Originally, everyone was ready to give up on Big Brother, who knew that after a relationship, Big Brother began to slowly return, which made those teachers feel that this relationship Big Brother had a very good.

And the people of class seven feel that the two of them even the results to show a love, after all, a first, a second, the names are ranked together, is simply toxic.

An Xingyue probably took a look at everyone's results and found that they were all up from the midterm exam, and everyone's ranking inside the class was also up, but not by a large margin.

But at least there is progress.

An Xingyue thought back to when she first joined class 7, everyone either slept in class, or played with their phones with headphones, or read various extracurricular books, and then after Ah Chen started studying, he drove some rebellious students in the class, and then slowly everyone started to pay attention in their studies.

An Xingyue felt that if the people in class 7 were like this in the next semester and in their senior year, then she felt that everyone would be able to get into a more desirable university in the end.

An Xingyue watched them chatting for a while, then put down her phone and went to take a shower. After all, she took a flight this morning and then stayed at A Chen's house in the afternoon and didn't dare to take a shower, so she decided to take a bath now to relax herself.

After taking a shower, An Xingyue looked at the message sent by night Xiu Chen, the two people chatted on WeChat for more than half an hour, in the end it was night Xiu Chen who said good night first, after all, night Xiu Chen knew that today she was already a bit tired, so it was better to rest first, to chat then you can find other time, and tomorrow you can meet.

An Xingyue looked at the two words good night in the phone and quietly said good night.

Perhaps it was because she was back in her own home, lying in her own bed, so An Xingyue quickly fell asleep, and slept very soundly.

The moonlight outside the window was bright, the moonlight shone through the curtains and lit up a corner of the room, the person inside was sound asleep.

The next day An Xingyue dutifully waited for night Xiu Chen to call her before going down, otherwise she was afraid of being nagged by her boyfriend again.

When the two arrived at the class, they found that everyone from Class 7 had already come and were excitedly applauding and welcoming them as they entered the class.

An Xingyue was not quite used to all this and held tightly to Night Xiu Chen's hand.

Just a few minutes after they arrived, Wang Ya also walked into the class, holding their report cards in addition to their winter break homework.

"Ahem, I don't think I need to say anything about your results, first of all we have to applaud An Xingyue and Night Xiu Chen as a sign of praise, as you all know, they both took the first and second place in the province directly, which is something that didn't happen before, after all the first and second are in the same school, which is very rare."

Wang Ya said with a smile, this time he finally raised his eyebrows, worthy of his students, enough to compete.

"Because this time everyone's test is better, so I will not say more, anyway, your New Year's red envelope will certainly not shrink, hahaha."

"There is also the winter vacation homework as we all know, so these placed in my hand are the winter vacation homework of each of you."

After Wang Ya finished, everyone stared at the winter vacation homework placed on the podium, the whole class is here, so little, that spread down each person is not much.

Thinking of this, everyone looked at each other, and then grinned in the grin, but before cheering, Wang Ya added: "This small book everyone has one, and then what, your winter vacation homework is in it, now I read the name to come up to get the book and report card."

Then we all excitedly open the small book to find that the content inside is not a lot, as for no exercise book those because the teacher of each subject to buy their own section of the exercise book written into the book, let them go to buy their own.

The saddest thing is that many people have to do the exercise books are different, even like Mo Zhicheng these language thieves, the language teacher did not write in his book to buy exercise books to do, but he had to write more after reading.

Now we all know that this time the winter vacation homework can not copy, after all, are not the same.

Wang Ya after seeing enough of their change of face, stifled a few laughs, "Well, now everyone got their report card and winter vacation homework, I think we all found that everyone's homework is different, this is mainly the teacher of each subject for each student tailored winter vacation homework, so we should carefully complete, do not let down the class teacher's heart. "
