

THE STARS ARE ORIGINALLY A PAIR - CLOSE BROTHERS

Seems to feel Zhou Junxing's uneasiness, apprehension, Ye An they smiled at him mercilessly, take care of yourself, rest assured, night Zihan does not go over, nothing will happen.

However, night Zihan's goal on the night Xiu Chen, now see the person, how can not go over?

The company's main goal is to provide the best possible service to its customers.

The two young masters of the night family are on each other, and they need to see the attitude of the two people, and go home and tell the adults to listen.

Night Xiu Chen was originally and Wen Zijun they have a word or two chat, after all, the big brother's mind are in their own little cute, if not read in really is not seen for a long time, he will not appear here tonight.

And although Zhou Junxing was chatting with them, but for the sake of life safety, he still paid attention to the movement of night Zihan, seeing night Zihan walking over, Zhou Junxing's whole body tensed up, and then kicked Ye An, signaling him that night Zihan is coming over.

Just when Wen Zijun and Night Xiu Chen were talking about some things that had happened in Kyoto for more than a year, Night Zichan came over and called out to Night Xiu Chen for his brother.

After seeing him come over, the whole person's face was as cold as if he had just entered the box, and it was even colder when Night Zichan called out to his brother.

The night Xiu Chen originally thought that going back to Kyoto was just because Yue Ya'er was going to participate in the competition, and he wanted to accompany her, and to accompany her to stroll around Kyoto after she finished the competition, and then go back to South City together, anyway, the big brother did not think about spending New Year's Eve in Kyoto in the slightest.

Therefore, Night Xiu Chen did not expect to get involved with the Night family at all, after all, the Night family was not put in his winter vacation plans at all, and he thought he had already shown the obvious by refusing their pickup.

Who knows, tonight still met night Zihan, the person he was jealous of since childhood, and even because of him, he learned that the family's eccentricity can hurt so much.

Since childhood, because night Zihan is younger than him, born with poor health, so everyone's heart is on him, but he is not much older than him, ah, is not just a few minutes earlier born?

In the past, night Xiu Chen has been very hard to study, very hard to attend various interest classes, just want to get the attention of parents and praise, but because of the existence of night Zihan, parents' attention will always be on him, as a child even if, at that time night Zihan's health is not good, but why after growing up or so? It is clear that night Zihan's body is no longer a problem, very healthy, but everyone still gives all the love to him.

He, who was born only a few minutes earlier than him, even though he was very good in his studies or in all aspects, was not given the care he deserved.

Night Xiu Chen suspected that he was not adopted, so secretly DNA test, it is a pity, they really have blood relations.

The last year, only the two of them at home, night Zichan himself accidentally rolled down the stairs, and he appeared behind him, so everyone thinks he pushed night Zichan down the stairs, and even his mother did not even give him the opportunity to explain directly convicted him.

It is really ridiculous, also her child, but so biased.

After that, night Xiu Chen will die, no longer expect from the family's love, but also no longer use the results of those to win their attention, after all, even if you do well, those people still do not have him in the eyes of ah.

So for the attitude of the night Zihan, night Xiu Chen from the beginning of jealousy to now indifferent, but still feel annoyed to see people.

It's really annoying, knowing that he doesn't like him, why do you have to come up to it?

Night Zihan did not get a response from night Xiu Chen also do not feel embarrassed, but also continued: "Brother, you come back to visit home, the family misses you."

"And brother, I'm sorry."

"How dare you let the third young man of the night say sorry, I wouldn't dare to." Night Xiu Chen teasingly said, "And that's your home, not mine."

Hearing the words of night Zihan, night Xiu Chen's hand holding the phone veins are showing out, you can imagine how much force was used.

And Zhou Junxing saw Chen's phone, a little worried, meow, night Zihan so bastard will not look at people's faces, if Chen got the force of his grip on the phone on him, it is estimated that he will be in the hospital.

Night Zichan did not expect night Xiu Chen would say this way, the whole person are point excited, "no matter how to say, brother you are always the night family, always my brother, this sound sorry, you can afford."

"Do not say wrong, I am not a person of the night family, after all, I have been expelled from the night family, so" night Xiu Chen glanced at night Zihan, "If it is to say these words of nonsense, get out of my way. "

Wasting his time here, and really want to leave ah.

"Brother, those words that mommy said at that time are just angry words, after so long, you forget it, go home and see." Night Zihan said undyingly.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services. A word of anger and you want to write off everything, how can you think so beautifully?

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers. Do you need me to help you?"

The height of night Zihan than night Xiu Chen bottom, so need to look up at night Xiu Chen, see night Xiu Chen eyes of indifference and ridicule, night Zihan's heart trembled, this brother of his really do not like him at all ah.

This perception makes night Zihan some powerless, obviously they are blood brothers ah, but in his brother's eyes, he is estimated to be not as important as those of his hair, right?

No, perhaps in his heart, he does not even have a place.

And Luo Junxian they stood up when they saw night Xiu Chen lift up night Zichan, they were afraid of night Xiu Chen hands ah, although the big brother did not fight a lot before, but the night Zichan hands, then, it is estimated that the relationship between Chen and the night family is even worse, although it is now no better.

And follow the night Zichan came together with people are also very surprised, hell, a word against the hands? So just?

In their eyes, night Xiu Chen has always been a good character, they do not seem to have seen his hands, and after knowing that night Xiu Chen and the night family fell out, they did not pay much attention to night Xiu Chen, even more do not know the big brother in the South City great achievements.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

Night Xiu Chen vigorously slammed Night Zihan on the ground and left.

"Ziyun, next time there are so many irrelevant people around just tell me, so as not to waste my time."

Zhou Junxing was relieved to see the big man leave without looking back, he was just afraid that the big man would do something.

"Zi Yun, next time change the place, or just at home, I don't want to meet some people who are that cheeky." Luo Junxian sneered at Night Zihan who was sitting on the floor and the people in the box, then tugged Zhou Junxing and left.

And Wen Ziyun and Ye An looked at each other and also followed to leave, after all, the main characters had left, so there was no need for them to stay, but next time it was really time to change the place.
