Chapter 3540

How could Mr. Chu be in New York City on the other side of the ocean?

How could Mr. Chu and her meet her again in the long crowd in this foreign country?

It must be fake, it must be a dream.

Excited, He Yurou seemed to be trying to verify all of this. She stretched out her hand and pinched her arm, trying to see if it was true.

However, what made He Yurou a little disappointed was that no matter how hard she tried, she didn't even feel any pain.

Is this really a dream?

Just when He Yurou could not distinguish between dreams and reality, Mark, who had been silent for a while, said calmly, "You pinched my arm."

"what?"

"I'm sorry, I'm sorry, Mr. Chu." He Yurou's pretty face turned red.

Embarrassed and shy.

Standing there quickly apologized, like a kid who did something wrong.

"Mr. Chu, I'm sorry."

"I am so excited."

"I really didn't expect to see you again."

"I thought that Noirfork said goodbye, it will be difficult for us to meet again in the future."

He Yurou kept talking.

Mark watched from the side, shook his head and smiled: "It's okay."

"I miss you, I remember, your father, his name is He Lanshan. Back then, the governor of Noirfork."

"Yes, Mr. Chu. At the beginning, my father was beaten to the bottom because he offended you, and he was down to the grassroots level." He Yurou was immediately happy when he saw Mark even recognize himself.

broken.

Mark smiled bitterly: "At that time, if I knew that Governor He had a lovely daughter like you, I would definitely intercede for him and let Gritsberg treat him leniently."

Mark said with a smile.

But before he finished speaking, he felt that someone pinched his waist severely, and Mark grinned in pain.

Mark looked back and saw Tang Yun's eyes as cold as a knife.

"Mr. Chu has a lot of peach blossom luck."

"A foreign country, can you still meet a confidante?"

"Mr. Chu, this is the red flag at home, but the colorful flags are fluttering outside."

Tang Yun seemed to smile, but a few words made Mark sweat.

"me..."

"I just met a fellow villager, do you feel kind in my heart?"

Mark tried to explain.

He suddenly felt that being a man is really hard?

In the hot summer, Helen Qiu took care of it.

Nowadays, in a foreign country, Tang Yun is in charge again.

"This sister is?"

He Yurou suddenly looked over and looked at Tang Yun.

At first, He Yurou thought that Mark was accompanied by Miss Qiu Muchengqiu.

But when I heard the sound just now, it didn't seem to be.

He Yurou couldn't help but wondered, and asked curiously.

"She is..." Mark just wanted to introduce, but Tang Yun interrupted him.

Actively said: "Hello, I am Mark's cousin, Yu Yun."

Mark listened and tried hard not to laugh.

Anyway, he didn't expect that the master of Chumen would speak nonsense.

Dare to call himself his sister?

Mark knew that Tang Yun and his father Chu Zhenghong belonged to the same generation.

If Tang Yun is his younger sister, then Chu Zhenghong can also be called brother to Mark.

Of course, Tang Yun is only in seniority.

The real age is not much different from Mark.

When Tang Yun's sister and Chu Zhenghong were talking about marriage, Tang Yun was just a little girl.

In addition, the titled master had a long life, and Tang Yun took a lot of precious elixir since he was a child, and the appearance of his skin was even more radiant than He Yurou and the others.

After getting acquainted, He Yurou also sat down opposite Mark. The old deceased back then, but chatted about the sky.

As for the rich young man next to him, let it dry.

“Mr. Chu, are you here to play?” He Yurou seemed to be full of curiosity about everything about Mark.

“Yes.” Mark nodded, and didn’t elaborate on his situation.

“By the way, Yurou.”

“Do you know any better B&B hotels here?”

“We found several stores, but we were not satisfied.” Mark opened his eyes and wrote a nonsense.

When He Yurou heard it, her beautiful eyes suddenly brightened.

“Mr. Chu hasn’t found a place to live yet?”

“If you don’t dislike it, you can go to my apartment.”

“Anyway, I can’t use so many rooms by myself.”

“Two rooms can be freed up for Mr. Chu and Miss Yu Yun.”

“That’s great.” Mark immediately responded.

Chapter 3541

“How can this be?”

“Yu Rou, how can you live with a man?”

“I firmly disagree!”

After seeing that He Yurou actually invited Mark to live with her, the blond and rich young master named Jack Brown next to her was undoubtedly jealous.

Immediately objected.

But He Yurou didn’t bother to pay attention to him, and didn’t want to look at him.

“Mr. Chu, ignore him.”

“I have nothing to do with him except for going to a school,” He Yurou explained to Mark.

Mark smiled deeply, “But I see, this young master doesn’t seem to think so?”

“I don’t care what he thinks, it doesn’t have anything to do with me.” He Yurou seemed to be disgusted with this young master named Jack Brown.

“Mr. Chu, it’s too early, let me take you to my apartment first.”

“Just right, I will help you clean up the room.”

He Yurou couldn't wait to start living together with Mark. After taking a few sips of coffee, she invited Mark and Tang Yun to her residence.

And this undoubtedly fits Mark's intention.

Now both of them need a quiet and safe place to recover from their injuries.

"Sir, please settle the bill first."

At this time, the waiter came over to remind the account.

Mark nodded, and was about to get the money. But He Yurou was one step ahead and helped Mark bear it.

"Yurou, I really trouble you too much."

"You said you don't just control you, but you also control eating and drinking." Mark smiled and thanked.

He Yurou happily replied: "This is what it should be."

"Mr. Chu came from afar. You are a guest and I am the host. There is no reason why Mr. Chu will spend money."

"What's more, my father has offended you before. As a daughter, I should apologize to you for my father."

He Yurou smiled brightly and said softly to Mark.

Mark was not polite either, haha smiled: "Since you have said so, then I won't be polite to you either."

"In the future, I will return to Noirfork, this favor, I will definitely pay you back."

During the conversation, they got into a taxi and rushed to He Yurou's apartment.

"Yurou, wait for me!"

"Wait for me..."

"He Yurou, do you like the new and dislike the old when you see different things like this?"

Jack Brown's angry shout came from behind.

In any case, he played with classmate He Yurou, but who would have thought that He Yurou was so unfeeling that he would directly leave him alone and follow Mark and the two of them.

"Yurou, I think this person looks pretty good, and I'm very interested in you, so why not give him a chance?" Mark asked jokingly in the car.

He Yurou shook her head, "Mr. Chu, you must not be deceived by this guy's appearance."

"This guy is a sea king."

"There are so many beautiful girls entangled in school."

“And, as far as I heard, there are no fewer than five girls who have abortions because of him.”

“Besides, the character of others is extremely poor. This kind of person, no matter how good the conditions are, I would not consider staying with him.”

Mark nodded as he listened: “Indeed. Love and marriage are important events in your life. To be honest, family background, power and wealth, in my opinion, are all secondary. Choosing a person, character is the most important thing.”

“Yes, just like Mr. Chu.”

“I heard my father say that many years ago, Mr. Chu was just a son-in-law of the Qiu family and suffered humiliation in Miss Qiu’s family.”

“Even Miss Qiu doesn’t understand you.”

“If you change to someone else, you probably won’t bear the humiliation long ago and you will leave the Qiu family.”

Chapter 3542

“But Mr. Chu has always been the same, and will never leave Miss Qiu.”

“Even if he wins Wrifill and dominates Noirfork, his fame will move the world.”

“But I still don’t forget the wife of dross.”

“Ms. Qiu’s Mu Fan Group should be founded by Mr. Chu for his beloved wife, right?”

“Seriously, Mr. Chu, I envy Miss Qiu too much.”

“Envy her luck, envy her vision, and even more envy her for having Mr. Chu’s perseverance.”

He Yurou said softly, and in the low voice, there was full of yearning and envy.

To be honest, in the eyes of He Yurou or anyone else, Helen Qiu today is no longer worthy of Mark today.

After all, Helen Qiu is just the daughter of a Xiaomin Xiaomin.

The background is mediocre and the family background is mediocre.

More importantly, Helen Qiu had always been indifferent to Mark during the years when Mark joined her husband.

He Yurou also heard that Helen Qiu hadn’t let Mark sleep in her bed in those few years.

Therefore, after Mark dominated Noirfork and became the emperor of Noirfork, many people speculated that Mark would divorce his wife.

After all, Mark’s marriage with Helen Qiu was a joke from the beginning.

But the follow-up development is beyond everyone’s expectations.

Not only did Mark not neglect Helen Qiu, but instead pushed her to the position of Queen Noirfork, helping Mark control his hometown.

Even its subordinate groups have joined Helen Qiu's name.

Mr. Jiang Dongchu's true love and single-mindedness really conquered many people at that time.

While He Yurou said these words, Tang Yun, who had been silent for a long time, was in a depressed mood.

In those beautiful eyes, there was an inexplicable emotion.

Maybe she regretted it a little.

She regretted the decision that night.

She shouldn't have gone with Mark.

Mark already has a family, she is just a newcomer after all.

How could he ruin Mark's family because of his own impulse?

The more she thought about it, the lower Tang Yun's mood became.

The expression dimmed.

She suddenly couldn't see her and Mark's future.

But when Tang Yun was thinking about it, a pair of powerful palms quietly stretched out and firmly grasped her.

"No envy."

"Yurou, you are still young, and you will meet a good boy."

"Perhaps, he did better than me." Mark tried to divert the subject.

The matter of Helen Qiu and Tang Yun was a relatively sensitive topic for Mark after all.

Especially when Tang Yun is here, it is not good to talk too much.

"Mr. Chu, have you heard a word?" He Yurou asked suddenly.

Mark was curious: "What are you talking about?"

He Yurou looked at Mark, and said softly: "Once the sea was difficult to be watered, but Wushan is not a cloud."

"Sometimes, after seeing the stalwart shore of a high mountain, it is only the hills of Pingchuan."

"This..." Mark's eyes twitched, and he didn't know why, he suddenly felt a bad feeling.

Sure enough, at this time, Tang Yun beside him severely pinched Mark's arm again.

Mark, this bastard, is really a scumbag.

Peach blossoms everywhere, merciless everywhere.

Mark grinned in pain, but he screamed wronged in his heart.

The world is a lesson.

The mountain in He Yurou's mouth is definitely not him.

After all, he and He Yurou have only met each other a few times, at best they met together.

Tang Yun must have wronged him.

Seeing Mark's slightly changing expression, He Yurou smiled again and said, "Hey..."

"Mr. Chu, I was joking."

"It's still early for me to find a boyfriend."

"I just want to be better now so that I can be worthy of a better person."

After chatting all the way, the vehicle quickly took them to He Yurou's residence.

After cleaning the room briefly, Mark went back to the room to rest on the grounds that the boats and cars were struggling.

Chapter 3543

"Well, Mr. Chu, please rest first."

"I still have classes in the afternoon, so I'll go back to school first."

"If you have anything, just contact me at any time."

He Yurou said very intimately, and then said goodbye to Mark and Tang Yun.

After He Yurou left, Mark and Tang Yun didn't lose time anymore, but immediately went back to the house to heal their injuries.

Although Mark looked calm and calm in front of He Yurou.

But in fact, his heart is also extremely anxious.

Now the situation of Moon God and Gaia is unknown, and the people of Chumen may find them when they are, and Mark must restore some strength as soon as possible.

Then, together with Tang Yun, they broke through the card and returned to the hot summer to make peace with Yue Yao.

Yue Yao's medical skills are powerful, and as long as she reconciles with Yue Yao, Mark's injuries can be quickly recovered.

At that time, Mark, who had recovered to the top, coupled with Tang Yun and Moon God, with such a lineup, Chu Yuan really came to the door, and he was not afraid.

However, perhaps it was due to the turmoil in his heart. Soon after He Yurou left, there was a wave of True Essence running around in Mark's body. Mark's body trembled, and a mouthful of blood came out.

Hearing the movement, Tang Yun hurried over from the next room: "Mark, are you okay?"

Mark smiled, his face pale and scary: "I'm fine, I'm just a little impatient."

Tang Yun's eyes were full of worries. After experiencing the previous battle personally, others didn't know Mark's situation, but Tang Yun knew it.

This man overdrafted his body one after another on Mount Chumen, and then fled all the way. It was a miracle that he could survive until now.

"Well, Mark, let's double repair." Tang Yun said immediately under worry.

Upon hearing this, Mark immediately looked at the Lord of Truth in front of him with a somewhat "wretched" look.

Being stared at by Mark in this way, Tang Yun's pretty face immediately turned red.

She pinched Mark's leg severely: "When are you still thinking about these nasty things?"

"I mean, we use the yin and yang dragon body to heal injuries."

"Under the double repair of the yin and yang dragon body, there is a healing effect."

"In this way, our efficiency can be improved a lot."

Tang Yun yelled in shame. "Just tease you."

Mark naturally knew what Tang Yun meant. Looking at her like that just now, he just wanted to make her happy.

Having fun in hardship has always been Mark's enviable quality.

After making the decision, Tang Yun also went to Mark's bed. The two sat cross-legged, palms touching, and the Dragon God Body's method was running in the body at the same time.

The two forces of one yin and one yang circulated back and forth in the two bodies, and the water blended, slowly repairing the severe injuries in the two of them.

However, for fear of causing unnecessary misunderstandings.

When he noticed that He Yurou was coming home, Tang Yun and Mark immediately collected their work, and then both retreated to their rooms.

"Mr. Chu, Miss Yu Yun, are out for dinner."

He Yurou is also very empathetic, perhaps knowing that Mark and the others have worked very hard, even when they came back, they did not disturb Mark, but called them out for dinner after dinner.

Mark and the others did not refuse. After eating a little bit, they made excuses and returned to their respective rooms.

At night, He Yurou was watching TV in the living room alone.

She wanted to knock on Mark's door several times, but after all she held it back.

The movie tickets in his hand were of no use in the end.

"Mr. Chu manages everything every day, and he must be very busy."

"How can I have time to watch a movie..."

With a faint loss, He Yurou also turned off the TV and went back to her bedroom to rest.

Waiting in the middle of the night, the night is quiet.

Mark quietly went to the room where Tang Yun was, and continued to use the Dragon God Body to heal and recover.

Chapter 3546

At this time, He Yurou realized that Mark's eyelashes were so long, and his profile was so beautiful.

What if I had met Mr. Chu earlier?

I really envy Miss Qiu...

I don't know if I will meet someone as good as Mr. Chu in the future...

During the two-hour movie, He Yurou was thinking wildly throughout the whole process.

And Mark, of course, didn't look at it either.

This chain repair mad demon never forgets to improve his cultivation level even when he is watching a movie.

If He Yurou knew it, she would be pissed to death.

One night passed quickly.

After the movie ended, Mark called He Yurou to go back.

The longer time dragged on, the more worried Mark would be about Gaia and the others.

Moreover, the situation between him and Tang Yun will become more critical as time goes by.

However, what Mark and He Yurou didn't expect was that they had just left the movie theater when they saw Jack Brown blocking the door.

"Yu Rou, are you really here?"

"It seems that what Alice said just now is pretty good, you really did fool around with other men behind my back!"

Jack didn't seem to know where he got He Yurou's whereabouts, and said angrily.

After speaking, Jack immediately stared at Mark who was aside: "Boy, the last time I met me in the cafe, you were not pleasing to your eyes, but now you dare to covet the woman my master looks after?"

"I think you don't want to live anymore!"

"Today this young master will leave the words to you, Yurou is my Jack Brown's woman."

"If you dare to dig my corner and soak my woman, this young master will make you break your dog legs!"

Jack smiled in anger and pointed at Mark.

"Boy, don't ask, how does my Brown family exist in New York City?"

"Dare to dig my corner, you are the first one!"

Jack said angrily. Behind him, a dozen men with sticks had surrounded Mark.

It seemed that Mark really angered the rich young master, and planned to teach Mark a lesson.

Seeing this, He Yurou was immediately anxious, and hurriedly came over and pushed Jack aside to stand in front of Mark: "What nonsense are you talking about?"

"I said a long time ago, I have nothing to do with you, you have to die of your heart, I will not be your girlfriend."

"Yurou, I also said that feelings can be cultivated. Anyway, if you are single, I am also single. If we get in touch with each other, you will naturally fall in love with me. Yurou, I treat you sincerely. I know you never talked about it. In love, I still have a pure body, so I'm very cautious about emotional matters."

"But I just like your bingqingyujie."

"My previous girlfriends were all second-hand goods, and they were left over from other people's play. I also played with them."

"But I am serious about you."

"As long as you want, I can let you be the mistress of our Brown family."

Jack Brown pretended to be affectionate and said bitterly to He Yurou.

No one knows that in these words, a few words are from the sincerity.

However, for those who are familiar with Jack, one thing is certain.

That's the young master, who has mental hygiene.

Always pick some girls who have not had a blank person and emotions to start.

And He Yurou is undoubtedly the person Jack Brown has been looking for.

However, in the face of what Jack said, He Yurou was not moved at all, and, perhaps because of anger, He Yurou directly told Jack: "Well, since you said that, then I won't hide it from you."

"I already have a boyfriend, you have no chance."

What?

“Do you have a boyfriend?”

“impossible?”

“Hello sister said you are single a few days ago.”

“Is it him?” Jack suddenly glared at Mark, his eyes full of anger and disgust.

He Yurou nodded: “Yes, it’s my brother Mark.”

“We are already together.”

“Besides, I gave everything I had to Brother Mark when I was in bed last night.”

“So, I am no longer the icy and clean He Yurou you like.”

“I’m not good enough for you, please ask Master Jack to find another lover.”

He Yurou said categorically, not giving Jack any chance at all.

Chapter 3547

“You...you mean, you guys are already in bed?”

“No... impossible, you must be lying to me.”

“You are not such a casual person.”

“Yu Rou, you must be lying to me, right?”

“You just want me to give up on you, that’s why you said that, right?”

These words of He Yurou seemed to really hit a certain heartstring in Jack’s heart.

He suddenly became panicked, and his handsome face was full of anxious colors, pulling He Yurou to keep asking.

With that eager look, I hope that his words can be confirmed by He Yurou.

However, the result is undoubtedly cruel.

He Yurou didn’t hesitate, and still with an extremely certain and certain Yuqi, said to Jack: “Master Jack, don’t deceive yourself, okay?”

“I live in the same room with my brother Mark, a lonely widow, do you think that if it were you, something beautiful wouldn’t happen?”

“Moreover, now that we are out to watch the movie together, can’t it prove our love relationship?”

“Shut up!” Jack suddenly became angry and interrupted He Yurou forcefully.

“I don’t believe it, I don’t believe it!”

“You are my daughter, the girl I like. I never believe you will have * with other men.”

“Moreover, this bastard is so poor, not much worse than me.”

“You don’t even look down on me, how could you like this bastard!”

The words of He Yurou just now obviously made Jack a little shaken.

Yes, as He Yurou said, this Mark lived with her. It was hard not to happen in the same room as a lone man and a widow.

Anyway, if it is Jack, it must be unable to control himself.

However, he still didn’t want to believe that He Yurou, who was pure and clean, had already let Mark go.

He Yurou ignored Jack, but in front of him, she stood on her tiptoe and kissed Mark’s lips directly.

“Brother Mark, let’s go home and sleep.”

After kissing Mark, He Yurou took Mark’s arm and left directly.

Here, only Jack, who had a lot of storage and hundreds of holes, was left in a daze.

The eyes are red, and the mood is hard to calm for a long time.

“He Yurou, why?”

“Why are you treating me this way!”

“I have chased you for so long, you won’t even let me hold your hand!”

“And that bastard, you went to bed less than a day after you met.”

“why!”

“I like you so much, but you are so cruel to me!”

Unwilling, angry!

All kinds of emotions tore through Jack’s heart, making him almost crazy.

He could not accept the fact before him.

He spent so much thought, and finally got here with He Yurou.

But now, Hu was picked up by Mark.

One can imagine how angry Jack should be?

A kind of suffocated and useless!

In the end, this unwillingness turned into resentment and anger.

“He Yurou, you couple of dogs, this is what you forced me!”

“A woman I can’t get, don’t even think of any of you to get it!”

Jack clenched his palms, his eyes instantly became cold. No one knew what was brewing in this man's heart.

Naturally, Mark and the others didn't know Jack's reaction at all, and didn't care at all.

On the way back, He Yurou's face was blushing, almost embarrassed in embarrassment, and finally couldn't help but apologize to Mark.

"It's okay, Yurou."

"I know, you also have to get rid of that person's entanglement."

"Furthermore, you should have kissed for the first time. If you count it like this, you will be the one who suffers."

Mark was joking, trying to ease the embarrassment here.

"But speaking of it, I didn't expect that Yurou, you are very angry when you get angry."

Mark has always thought that He Yurou is the kind of weak girl who can only wipe her tears silently if she is bullied.

But now it seems that Mark is superficial.

The scene where He Yurou hardly beat Jack and forcibly kissed Mark just now was full of domineering.

Chapter 3548

Hearing what Mark said, He Yurou's pretty face suddenly turned red, and she whispered: "Then Mr. Chu, do you like gentle and charming girls or domineering girls?"

Mark thought for a while, and then said, "I think the men in the world prefer girls who are indifferent to themselves and domineering to others."

"There are thousands of people in the world, but only one person can conquer her."

"That sense of accomplishment is probably something that no man can refuse."

In the car, Mark and He Yurou chatted casually.

However, as the saying goes, the speaker is unintentional, and the listener is intentional.

These joking words of Mark undoubtedly made He Yurou remember.

Neither of them spoke for the next ten minutes.

Mark closed her eyes and took a nap, while He Yurou wanted to chat, but couldn't find the topic.

"Right, Mr. Chu."

"Do you know Erye Li of Wrifill, where did you go?"

"And Lei San from Fenghai."

“My father told me before that he had something to do with them, but he found that he couldn’t get in touch for several days.”

He Yurou knew Mark’s prestige and status in Noirfork, so he asked Mark.

Mark frowned when he heard this, “You mean, Ericson Li and Lei San are all gone?”

“When did this happen?”

“Just these few days.” He Yurou replied.

When Mark heard this, he seemed to have guessed something: “Yurou, can I use your phone?”

He Yurou nodded, although she didn’t know what Mark was going to do, she still handed the phone over.

After that, Mark boarded the browser, entered a web address, and entered the Wuzhe forum.

Just as Mark was worried, Old Han had issued the highest order of the Four Seas Dragon God Order, and he also publicly declared war on Chumen on the Martial Arts Forum.

“This is broken.”

Mark suddenly became worried.

It has been several days, and Mark estimated that at this moment those people under the Dragon Temple had already arrived in New York City.

Mark implemented the Fenghuo Liaoyuan plan back then, and it did gather a lot of people.

However, now that he is seriously injured, the situation of the four strong dragon gods is also unknown.

Without the top combat power to lead the team, these people rushed to Trumen, undoubtedly moths fighting the fire.

“No, it seems that you have to get in touch with them.”

After Mark made up his mind, he immediately used his cell phone to get in touch with Old Han.

“Who are you?”

“How do you know this number?”

Old Han’s solemn and gloomy words came over the phone.

Mark replied softly.

Dead silence, long dead silence.

After Mark said this, he fell into a boundless silence on the other side of the phone.

I don’t know how long it took before the trembling and choking voice of Old Han came out: “Little... little lord, old... old slave finally waited for your call.”

“I thought, I thought you...”

“Old Han, I’m still safe for the time being. If you talk about the past, I’ll talk about it later. Now, immediately help me all the personnel under the Dragon Temple who have arrived in New York City.”

“Tell them not to go to Chumen Mountain.”

“In this way, I will tell you a place in a moment.”

“You let everyone, wait for me there.”

“Within an hour, I will show up and join them!”

“Okay, little lord, I’ll do it now.” Old Han also knew that the situation was urgent, so he didn’t ask any extra questions.

After receiving Mark’s order, Old Han immediately began to operate.

And Mark, after hanging up the phone, opened the car window and threw He Yurou’s mobile phone.

“Yurou, sorry, for your safety, your cell phone cannot be used anymore.”

“If I have a chance in the future, I will pay you again.”

“Also, after I go back, I will leave with Yun’er.”

“Remember, no matter who you are in the future, don’t say you have seen me and Yuner.”

Chapter 3549

“Mr. Chu, what’s the matter?”

“What the hell happened?”

Mark’s reaction undoubtedly shocked He Yurou.

Although she has not experienced many world events, from Mark’s words, He Yurou can still tell that Mark must have encountered something.

“Yu Rou, don’t ask.”

“Knowing too much is not a good thing for you.”

“You just have to remember my advice to you.”

Mark frowned, his words were full of solemnity.

What I got just now is undoubtedly beyond Mark’s expectation.

He did not expect that Elder Han and the others would have summoned all the members of the Dragon God Palace to come to Chumen for support.

Things have gone beyond Mark’s control.

He must now meet with those people as soon as possible.

Otherwise, Mark is really worried about what impulse Ericson Li and the others are doing.

Even though the Chu family wanted to be part of their combat power, it was created by Mark.

But the strong men of the Tang family and the Jones family still have spare capacity.

More importantly, what Tang Yun said, the awakening of the strange beast under the Chumen Mountain undoubtedly made the current Chumen Mountain even more dangerous.

Now that Chu Zhengliang is dead, the Chu family is even more half disabled.

Mark's goal has almost been achieved.

In this situation, leaving here and returning safely to the hot summer territory is the most important task.

Anyway, it is definitely not the time to fight Chumen.

Seeing Mark's solemn look, He Yurou knew that the matter was serious, so he didn't ask any more questions.

Just like this, the two quickly returned to the apartment where they lived.

Tang Yun had already packed her things, and was waiting for Mark in the room.

After meeting Tang Yun, Mark didn't have any delay. After saying goodbye to He Yurou, the two left immediately, disappeared into the night, and met with Ericson Li and the others.

As for He Yurou, he was left alone in the apartment.

At this time, the dark night outside is gloomy.

The thick dark clouds obscured the sky, and the moonlight did not penetrate the black clouds.

"I don't know what trouble Mr. Chu has encountered."

"It must be safe."

In front of the huge French window, He Yurou stood alone, dragging her delicate face with her little hand, looking at the direction Mark and Tang Yun were leaving, but she couldn't calm down for a long time.

Always, worried about Mark's safety.

However, after watching, He Yurou remembered the scene in the cinema just now.

Especially the last kiss to Mark, even though it was forced by the situation, he acted on impulse.

But for He Yurou, this scene is not a scene that she has fantasized countless times in her dream.

Thinking about it, the charming girl in front of her showed an intoxicating smile on her delicate and pretty face.

There is shyness in that smile, more drunkenness and aftertaste.

It turns out that it feels like kissing someone you like.

can be when He Yurou has endless aftertastes.

嘭!

After hearing a bang, the door of the apartment was suddenly kicked open.

Immediately afterwards, a group of more than a dozen men, holding sticks, even with fine tattoos on their arms.

His fierce and wicked look made He Yurou's face pale with fright at that time.

"You...who are you?"

"What are you doing?"

He Yurou looked terrified, and she asked in horror as she stepped back.

But these big guys didn't speak. After they came in, they all stood on both sides, and then, facing the direction outside the door, bowed down and said, "Please Master Jack!"

...

"Please Master Jack!"

...

A dozen men drank together.

The loud and respectful voice trembled the entire hall.

Just like that, Jack Brown walked in slowly amidst the greetings of his subordinates.

"Jack, is that you?"

"You call so many people, what on earth do you want to do?"

"I warn you, don't think too much."

"My boyfriend has practiced martial arts, very good."

Chapter 3554

"Brother Mark, Leier thought, I will never see you again."

"Why are you so stupid..."

"Why do you come by yourself..."

"why did not you tell me..."

Xu Lei's tears were like rain, and the mournful cries kept ringing in the night.

Her parents died early, and her relatives are innocent.

It can be said that for Xu Lei, Mark is her only concern and relatives in this world, and it is the meaning of her life.

No one knew the sadness and worries in Xu Lei's heart when he learned that Mark rushed to Chumen alone.

She was really scared, so afraid that Mark would fall in Chumen, so afraid that her "juvenile" would never come back, so afraid that the only meaning of her living in this world would be gone.

When Xu Lei was crying sadly in Mark's arms, by the lake in the eastern suburbs, the team of King Kings from all over the world knelt down.

"Ten years of tolerance, drinking ice for a thousand days."

"I'll wait for the Dragon God Xinghuo to see the Dragon Lord!"

.....

The voices one after another trembled the whole world.

From a distance, the mountains and plains are all the sparks that Mark once planted.

In the winter of Xin Chou, the Lord of the Dragon God Temple and his three thousand children will finally meet the Dongjiao Lake!

Under the sky, beautiful lady Mark stood quietly in her arms.

Under my feet, the Dongjiao Lake was rippling.

In front of him was Xinghuoliaoyuan, the child of Dragon God.

Looking at these people kneeling at his feet, Mark seemed to have seen his youth for more than ten years.

Is this the career he has been struggling for half his life?

Is this the spark he spreads all over the world?

Just like what Adam Han said back then, the king's teacher has finally come!

However, at this time when he was supposed to be powerful and ambitious, Mark's heart was full of loneliness and misery.

"Everyone, you live up to me, Brian Chu, I am the one who bears everyone!"

"It's Brian Chu who is incompetent. After all, I lost to Chumen Mountain."

"It was me who failed everyone's hope."

"Not only failed to send my Dragon Temple to the top of the martial arts, but now I have to implicate you in a dangerous situation."

Mark was full of guilt, and his words were full of weight.

Although, the Dragon Temple Hall finally meets the teachers.

However, the defeat of Mark Chumen has already signaled that the general situation is over.

The high-level battle has already been defeated, and the remaining low- and middle-end battles cannot change any results at all.

“Do not!”

“Dragon Lord, you have done very well.”

“With the power of one person, you stepped on half of the Chu family.”

“If it weren’t for Chu Yuan’s appearance, whether the Chu family or the Chu Sect today, I’m afraid they would have been smashed by the dragon master.”

Among the crowd, someone shouted.

“Yes!”

“Furthermore, why not lose this time?”

“It’s a big deal, ten years later, we will come back.”

“At that time, I will wait for the Dragon God Xinghuo to help the Dragon Lord and reach the top of this world!”

“Since we can wait ten years, we can also wait twenty years, thirty years.”

“As long as the Dragon Lord’s heart is not quenched and the fighting spirit is not quenched, we will have enough patience to wait.”

“We all believe that the next time the Dragon Lord stands on this land, not only Trumen, but the whole world will tremble at the feet of the Dragon Lord!”

Everyone shouted, and in their words, there was full respect and sincerity to Mark.

Mark looked at them, and suddenly there was an inexplicable emotion in his heart.

It turns out that he is not alone in this world.

Behind him, there are so many people supporting him.

“good!”

“Since everyone can trust me.”

“At this time today, I’m here to swear.”

“In less than ten years, within three years, I, Brian Chu, will definitely come back!”

“Chu Yuan, Chu Sect, the current insults will be repaid a hundred times in the future!”

Mark clenched his palm tightly, but there was a raging fire in his eyes.

After that, Mark immediately ordered everyone to retreat to the hot summer!

And when Mark and Ericson Li and the others met, Chu Men's disciples who were scattered everywhere were also gathering in large numbers.

"Elder, in accordance with your request, we have also urgently recalled all expatriates who are stationed abroad on duty!"

"In addition to the wounded, my Truman disciple, there are still more than three thousand combatants!"

Tang Xian sits in a precarious manner in the Chumen Hall.

The disciples in the audience kneel down to report.

Chapter 3555

"Is there only three thousand left?" Tang Xian frowned immediately.

As the world's largest martial arts power, Chumen had 5,000 martial artists at its peak.

But now, there are only three thousand people who can fight.

In other words, Mark alone had killed nearly half of their Chu Sect disciples.

However, even though the Truman disciple only had three thousand left, they could still crush all the martial arts forces in the world.

After all, the total number of warriors in the entire European countries is no more than two thousand.

There are also hot summers, although there are 1.4 billion people. However, the number of martial artists registered in the Martial God Temple is only about one to two thousand.

In other words, when Mark went to Chu Sect, the warriors killed were equivalent to slaughtering the whole of Europe.

"no!"

"It's too bad."

"There are only three thousand people, which is far from enough."

"Now, immediately contact the Brown family, DuPont family, Adams family, and all other secular families that are affiliated to Truman."

"Let them immediately send manpower and use all military and political energy at their disposal to seal the entire New York City border!"

"Three steps one post, ten steps one post."

"All the port roads leaving the city will be garrisoned!"

"In addition, both the secular world and the martial arts world issued a wanted warrant for Brian Chu and the Dragon Temple."

"Anyone who is shirking is the enemy of my Truman!"

“Also, print 100,000 copies of Brian Chu’s photos and distribute them to all those involved in the encirclement and suppression operations.”

“I don’t believe it anymore. In my base camp of Truman, how can he escape because of the hot summer night?”

Tang Xian had a gloomy face and issued orders in an orderly manner.

At this time, Chu Yuan closed the door to heal his injuries, looking for Mark’s whereabouts to search and rescue Tang Yun, naturally all fell on Tang Xian’s body.

Tang Yun is the future and hope of their Tang family, and even the master of the Chu Sect. In order to understand and save Tang Yun, Tang Xian will naturally go all out to hunt down Mark.

As long as he found Mark’s whereabouts, he would immediately report it to Chu Yuan.

When the time comes, the old sect master king will come to heaven, without the protection of the four dragon gods and moon gods, as long as Mark shows up, it will be his death.

However, shortly after Tang Xian announced a full-scale siege of Mark in the martial arts world and the secular world, a message came from a certain affiliated family of Chumen.

“On the Brown family’s side, someone was attacked and killed by a powerful martial artist.”

“They suspect that that person is the Brian Chu we are looking for!” In the hall, the subordinates reported anxiously.

When the elder heard this, he was shocked.

“Really?”

-----

-----

the other side.

After Mark and others met up by the lakeside in the eastern suburbs, they began to evacuate out of New York City in an orderly manner.

However, Mark and the others were one step late after all.

At this time, all major departure ports were manned.

Even the entire coastline has sent a large number of people to wait and see.

Among them, there is no shortage of US coastal defense forces.

“Damn it!”

“How can this Truman give orders to so many people?”

“In order to catch us, this is probably at least 100,000 people.”

When Ericson Li, Lei Lao San and others learned of their current situation, their faces were gloomy and frowned.

“These are not from Chumen.”

“They are all secular forces.”

“Trumen has been operating here for generations, and the entire New York City is already Trumen’s basic dish.”

“Military, government, industry and commerce, in all fields, Chumen has a decisive influence.”

“Like some large families in the area, the Brown family, the Adams family, etc., are all affiliated forces of Trumen.”

When Ericson Li and others sighed, a woman with refined temperament next to her whispered back.

“Um?”

“Mr. Chu, who is this?”

Ericson Li and the others had already noticed this graceful woman who was walking with Mark.

Chapter 3558

He pointed to Mark’s direction, and his old eyes almost burst out.

“you you...”

I don’t know if it was because of shock or panic.

At this moment, Tang Xian was trembling all over and couldn’t say a word.

“how?”

“Didn’t the Great Elder look for me?”

“Now that I am here, shouldn’t you be happy?”

Mark smiled faintly.

However, at this time, Mark’s laughter fell in the eyes of Tang Xian and others, but it was so harsh and terrifying.

Feeling the strong killing intent in Mark’s words, Tang Xian seemed to have seen the demon who killed all quarters on the Chumen Mountain again.

At that time, the Truman elder only felt that the hairs on his back were standing upright.

However, Tang Xian did not sit still.

After a brief panic, Tang Xian immediately used the most ferocious words to sternly command to the surrounding men: “Everyone, listen to my orders, withdraw!!!”

After finishing speaking, Tang Xian turned his head and ran, jumped up and jumped out of the building.

Tang Xian is not stupid.

Since Mark dared to single-handedly come back to save people, it naturally means that he has relied on.

Moreover, looking at the majesty and majesty exuded by Mark just now, Tang Xian could not see any serious injuries and dying from his body.

Although Tang Xian is proud, he also knows himself.

He could at best bully Mark, who was seriously injured and dying. Once he recovered his strength, facing Brian Chu in a complete state, he had monstrous abilities, and that would only have to wait for death.

Therefore, after realizing that Mark's strength might be restored, Tang Xian turned his head and ran without saying a word.

"run?"

"Then I will give you a ride!"

Mark's expression was cold, and at the moment Tang Xian fled, Ye Fanlong's body burst out, almost breaking the sound barrier with a punch that suddenly hit.

boom!

The majestic power, exploded.

Tang Xian snorted, his whole body trembled suddenly, and then he vomited blood and flew out of the window.

Tang Xian ran away, but the remaining few people undoubtedly urinate.

Especially the Patriarch of the Brown family, almost crying.

I thought what the great elder was doing.

You worked hard to find the murderer of your son. Now that someone is here, why do you turn around and run away?

But if you want to run, you have to take him no matter what.

You are all martial arts practitioners, so you can jump at a height of more than ten meters.

But if he is a mortal, if he jumps so high, he will be half disabled if he doesn't die?

"Why, aren't you leaving?"

Mark's gaze fell over.

The Patriarch of the Brown family immediately looked bitterly at Mark with a smile on his face: "Master, misunderstanding... Misunderstanding, this is all Truman's attention, it has nothing to do with me. It's Truman. I'm here to arrest people, too... Truman wants to deal with your woman..."

"It has nothing to do with me."

A second, the Patriarch of the Brown family was still saying good things, but a second later, the middle-aged man rushed towards the top of the stairs.

“How troublesome is going up the stairs?”

“Let’s go through the window.”

Mark sneered, then shot out several palms.

The remaining people were also beaten out of the window following Tang Xian.

“Chu...Mr. Chu, you...what are you...what, you are back...”

After resolving these people, He Yurou’s dying voice came in her ears.

Mark hurried over and looked at the dying girl with bruises in front of him, Mark’s palm was immediately clenched!

He didn’t expect that Chu Clan, known as the world’s first sect, would be so cruel to an innocent girl who had no power to bind a chicken.

With ten fingers, what a beast did!

“Yu Rou, I’m sorry, but I didn’t expect it to hurt you!”

“However, don’t worry, I will help you get it back sooner or later.”

At this time, Mark’s expression was completely cold.

He Yurou is not the first one anymore. His mother back then, and later An Qi, and now He Yurou.

Mark remembered all these piles, piece by piece, in his heart.

In the past, he only wanted an apology from the Chu family.

But now, under the accumulation of all these contradictions and grievances, Mark has already recognized the Chu Family and the true face of Chu Clan.

At the same time, the idea of stepping out of the Chu Clan and pacifying the Chu family was swept out unstoppably at this moment.

“Chu Yuan is immortal, Chu Sect is immortal, I, Brian Chu, swear not to be a man!!!”

Chapter 3559

At this time, Mark’s eyebrows were cold.

The fierce murder opportunity surged in his heart.

However, this is all a later word.

It’s still too early to say this now.

Mark himself knows that it is still unknown whether he can safely recover the hot summer now.

However, once the tiger returns to the mountain, one day Mark will definitely stain half of the sky with blood.

“Yurou, let’s leave here first.”

Mark picked up He Yurou, who was dying, and jumped downstairs.

However, as soon as Mark landed, hundreds of strong people from Chumen surged over like a tide.

Surround Mark and He Yurou as much as possible.

Tang Xian, who had just been photographed from upstairs by Mark, wiped off the blood from the corners of his mouth and appeared here again.

“It seems that you really don’t know how to die?”

Mark glanced over, and in Senran’s words, it was as threatening as possible.

At the same time, a magnificent pressure and momentum also sipated from Mark.

The mountain-like majesty made the disciples of Chumen around him panicked and unconsciously stepped back a few steps.

Obviously, these people were also scared by Mark’s majesty of killing everywhere on Chumen Mountain.

The fear of being dominated by Mark is not only obvious in Tang Dynasty, but also by these disciples of Chumen.

“Big... Elder, I... Let’s withdraw.”

“You’d better hire the old door owner.”

BESIDE HIM, A GUARDIAN OF CHUMEN WHISTED IN A LOW VOICE AND PANIC.

The guy in front of me is a murderer.

Even the owner of the Chumen Gate was defeated in his hands. Chu Zhengliang, the owner of the Chu family, was now nailed to Chumen Mountain ghost crying and crying.

Almost two thousand people were slaughtered by Mark alone throughout Chumen.

Before this kind of unparaly killing embryo, hundreds of them were really not enough to see.

Before coming, these people thought that Mark’s dying body was not enough.

But now Mark looks like a seriously injured body.

When he was shocked by Mark’s terrible recovery ability, these strong people in Chumen in front of him also began to retreat.

“What are you panicking about?”

“Do you really think that in just a few days, Brian Chu can recover from a dying body full of blood?”

“He is just blagging!”

Tang Xian said with great voice and colour.

Just now, Mark suddenly came down and killed him in front of him. At that time, Tang Xian was also afraid, so that he lost his basic judgement ability.

However, just after being beaten away by Mark, Tang Xian, who calmed down, also came to his senses.

In his opinion, Mark's injury that day was the immortal alive, and it was impossible to heal his injury and return to the peak in a few days.

What's more, if Mark had really recovered from his injury, Tang Xian was not only as simple as the injury, but also died directly.

In a word, according to various signs, Tang Xian was almost nine percent sure that Mark was actually one of the golden jade.

"Don't be stunned!"

"Give it all to me!"

Tang Xian suddenly ordered in a low voice.

However, the strong people in Chumen beside him still can't dispel the fear of Mark in his heart.

They look at me, I look at you, and I dare not come forward at all.

"A group of waste!"

"At the critical moment, no one can be counted on!"

Tang Xian was so angry with these men.

In the end, Tang Xian had no choice but to take action by himself.

"Three unique people in Chumen!"

"Qinglong Jue!"

Although Tang Xian speculated that Mark was blurring, even so, he still did not dare to be carelessly underestimate the enemy.

As soon as you take action, it is Chumen's strongest martial arts.

Under the dark night, a blue dragon shadow cut through the sky and cut Mark directly.

Facing Tang Xian's sudden power, Mark forcibly urged the body of the dragon god, and the physical strength burst out in an instant.

He punched fiercely and hit the blue dragon vigour directly.

Boom!

A roar.

The majestic atmosphere spread out, and the cars on both sides of the road were directly shaken out.

Chapter 3560

Tang Xian snorted, stepping on the earth and stepped back a few steps in a row.

Mark also took three steps back under this huge impact.

At the same time, Zhenyuan rushed around in his heart, and the blood in his mouth was forcibly swallowed by him.

“Big Elder!”

“Are you all right?”

“I’ve said that Brian Chu is a demon.”

“Let’s withdraw first?”

“Go back and tell the old door owner, only the old door owner can kill him...”

Seeing the eldest brother’s blow, he was repelled. Several guardians beside him came again anxiously to persuade him and clamouring to retreat.

Tang Xian was so angry that he kicked them: “A group of fools!”

“Don’t you see it yet?”

“This guy is just tough!”

“Otherwise, if you are number one on the list, will you be retaliated by me with one move?”

Tang Xian roared with hatred that the iron could not be steeled.

Hearing this, the strong people of Chumen next to him suddenly realised.

“That’s right!”

“Only the elder’s ability, can he be repelled?”

“It seems that this boy’s majesty just now is really pretended.”

“What a cunning hot summer boy!”

“Unexpectedly, we were all cheated...”

“I just said, how can a dying person recover with blood in a few days?”

Finally, with Tang Xian’s personal experimentation, the panic in the hearts of these strong people in Chumen dissipated.

Subsequently, these people began to work together to besiege Mark, as Tang Xian said.

The facts are also as Tang Xian expected.

Today’s Mark’s tendons are damaged, and the interior of Dantian is even more empty.

He thought that what he could rely on was physical strength.

But even so, Mark can't stick to it for too long. Under severe internal injury, he can't support Mark's continuous high-intensity outbreaks at all.

Therefore, under the siege of the strongmen of Chumen, Mark soon gradually showed fatigue.

In the end, he could no longer suppress the qi and blood in his body. He took a mouthful of red and finally spit it out.

The Yunyang ancient sword, which had been carried by Mark, was inserted into the earth by him, supporting his body and did not fall down.

Once again, Mark was not too sad.

Yes, it's just guilt for the woman in her arms.

Thinking of him, Mark has been crisscrossing all his life. After all, he is a person involved too much.

"Yurou, if possible, after you go back to Noirfork, tell her for me. I'm sorry."

Mark whispered with a calm smile on the corners of his mouth.

Then, he wrapped He Yurou with all his strength and threw it out in the distance.

Mark just used soft power. In this case, even if He Yurou landed, he would vigorously help her lighten the impact.

Tang Xian and others did not care about Mark sending He Yurou away.

It's just an insignificant little person.

I left and left.

It's enough to leave Mark here!

"Ha ha..."

"Brian Chu, didn't you expect that you also have today?"

"The youngest titled master in the world, the supreme strongman in the sky list, and the unparalleled evil in the hot summer, will die in my hands today."

"To be honest, Brian Chu, I have to thank you."

"In the future, when the history book records this period of history, I, Tang Xian, will also follow you, Chu Tianfu, a celebrity through the ages."

Tang Xian was undoubtedly excited at the thought of his upcoming blade Brian Chu.

Thinking of such evils as Brian Chu, even after death, it will definitely be written into the history of martial arts and studied and admired by future generations.

After all, he was in his twenties and entered the title, stepped into Chumen, and ranked first on the list all day long.

Such evil spirits are definitely the first person in the ages.

It should be a history book.

And Tang Xian, the blade of Brian Chu, will undoubtedly become the most brilliant pen in his New Year's greeting life.

"Death!"

After laughing, Tang Xian instantly became embarrassed. The short knife in his sleeve instantly came out of the sheath and crossed Mark's throat!

"Shous up!"

At this time, Tang Yun, who had been hiding in the distance, could no longer sit still.

After all, she is the lord of Chumen. Naturally, she doesn't want her subordinates to know her relationship with Mark.

However, no matter how much scruples Mark has in his life and death, he is not scrupulous.

Chapter 3561

However, at the moment when this sentence fell, Tang Yun was about to rush to save Mark.

Suddenly, in the distant street, there was a guzzling of fire.

The overwhelming attack woven into a closed line of fire poured down towards the strong in Chumen.

At the same time, countless martial arts attacks also followed the flow of gunfire and quietly attacked.

This sudden artillery attack undoubtedly surprised the strong man of Chumen in an instant.

For a while, many people with weak forces immediately suffered casualties.

Even Tang Xian was caught off guard and was instantly regressed.

However, after Tang Xian was repelled, he immediately used the internal elemental force. Between Zhenyuan's operation, he directly supported an air wall in the world to block all those closed lines of fire.

Those who are strong above masters can have no fear of guns and cannons.

However, these fire-fighting attacks still pose a certain threat to warriors below the master.

In particular, when these firepowers are dense to a certain extent, they can completely kill martial artists.

Therefore, Tang Xian also had to be cautious and use special means to block these guns.

After the firepower lasted for a period of time, the world returned to calm.

Tang Xian dispersed the air wall, his eyebrows were majestic, and his tiger eyes stared into the distance:
"Wh who dares disturb me about Chumen?"

"I don't think you want to live anymore!"

Tang Xian shouted angrily.

However, no one replied.

There are only dense footsteps, like rivers rushing and rolling in.

In the end, the first one who appeared from the night turned out to be an old man with round heads and small eyes.

He was solemn, and his eyebrows were majestic. He led more than a hundred people behind him and rushed to Mark quickly.

Then, he hugged his fists and bowed to Mark: "I'm subordinate Ericson Li, lead the Wrilfill crowd, and come to protect the Lord!"

"The minister went down to Lei Laosan, led the Denham crowd, and came to protect the Lord!"

.....

"Chen Ao, the sinner, came to protect the Lord!"

....

With the appearance of Ericson Li, it was like a huge stone hitting the sea, which set off a huge wave in an instant.

For a moment, Chen Ao and Lei Laosan led their subordinates to kneel down to Mark.

"You... Why are you here?"

"Didn't I let you retreat to the hot summer quickly?"

Seeing Ericson Li and others who followed him across the east of the Yangtze River, Mark was undoubtedly shocked.

He didn't expect that Ericson Li and others would follow him.

You know, Chumen is a martial arts family, and the war in front of him is a war between warriors.

Ericson Li and others are secular people. Mark undoubtedly doesn't want to involve them.

"If Mr. Chen doesn't retreat, how can we retreat?"

"As Adam Han said, it is a spark, and it is also a faint light."

"Mr. Chu, my son of Noirfork, is by no means a coward."

"You can kill Chumen alone for the sake of friendship. I'll wait. I'm willing to be loyal and righteous, and I'm not afraid of life and death!"

Ericson Li, Chen Ao and others replied in a low voice, and their words were so loud that they only landed.

Then, the children of Noirfork who followed Ericson Li and others roared together, "Don't be afraid of life and death!"

....

“Don’t be afraid of life and death!”

....

Words from the sky converge into a stream, shaking the whole world.

Mark looked at them, but couldn’t help being stunned.

He didn’t expect that Mark, in the hearts of Noirfork people, would have such a status.

Unexpectedly, they were not afraid of life and death to cross the sea to protect themselves.

“Okay!”

“Mark also remembers the kindness in his heart.”

“If he has the honour to return to Noirfork in the future, he will definitely live up to the blessing of your asylum today!”

Mark hugged his fists and worshipped the people in Noirfork in front of him again.

“Ha ha...”

“What a big play of “father and son filial piety”.

“But Brian Chu, do you think you can be fished out of me tonight with these mob groups alone?”

“Don’t you think it’s too underestimated by my strong man in Chumen?”

Seeing that Ericson Li and others appeared one after another, Tang Xian quickly calmed down.

Chapter 3562

He smiled ferociously, and then ordered his men to surround Ericson Li and others together.

Although there are a lot of people, they still have weapons in their hands.

However, after all, it is some secular people who have no power to bind chickens. In front of the warriors, these two or three hundred people are not afraid at all.

“What about adding us?”

As Tang Xian’s voice just fell, a cold drink sounded not far away.

Then he turned his head and saw a heroic woman, dressed in a black windbreaker, like a queen, leading a crowd of Gritsberg to come here.

Among them, Xue Renyang, after seeing Mark, knelt on his knees and bowed down to the ground and worshipped: “Xue Renyang, King of Longyang, come to the Saviour!”

“What?”

Tang Xian saw the situation, and his expression immediately changed.

“And us!”

It’s another cold drink.

Qianchi Jing led the Japanese crowd and quietly appeared.

The dark crowd, like a tide, surged towards this place.

Iwai Zen, who followed him, also knelt down to Mark with Xue Renyang: “King the sinner Longyan, come to the saviour!”

“This...” Tang Xian’s face trembled again.

However, before Tang Xian came to his senses, in the darkness behind him, there was a male shout, like thunder.

“Give us!”

Bombardment...

In the dark night, several dull bangs suddenly sounded.

Then, a full ten burly figures in military uniform flashed to each other like ghosts.

Then, in the trembling eyes of the people of Chumen, these people actually knelt down in front of Mark’s face!

“Longchuan Wanglong Baichuan, leading his disciples, came to save the Lord!”

The soaring power, like dragon blood, in this dark night, is like a burning fire.

Like the wings stirred by butterflies, with the appearance of the four dragon kings, more and more people emerge from the night.

Eighty guardians, thousands of elite warriors, plus Noifork, Gritsberg and Japan.

Who would have thought that in just a few decades, there were three thousand people gathered here.

The dark crowd is like stars in the dark night, like a little spark full of sparks in the wilderness.

Perhaps, every one of them is trivial when taken out separately.

However, when thousands of stars convergence into streams, they can also draw the galaxy!

“I’ll wait and meet the Lord of the Dragon Temple!”

“Dragon owner will last forever!”

....

“Worship the owner of the Dragon Temple...”

“Dragon owner will last forever!”

....

More than three thousand people shouted together, and the sound of “Dragon Lord Eternal” shocked the world, and the world trembled closely.

Looking at the overwhelming crowd and the torrent that swept the whole neighbourhood, Tang Xian and the people in Chumen were scared to pee.

“Big... Elder, this... This...”

“How... Why are there so many people suddenly?”

“I... How do I know?” Tang Xian’s old face turned pale.

In order to encircle and suppress Mark, he also specially brought more people this time, almost one or two hundred.

Originally, Mark was surrounded and killed by virtue of the advantage of the number of people.

But now, not to mention besieging Mark, they are surrounded by Mark’s people.

One or two hundred, to three thousand?

How can I play this?

“This damn Brian Chu!”

“How can there be so many loyalists under me?”

Looking at the overwhelming kneeling clothes in front of him at Mark’s feet, he called Mark’s vast crowd through the ages. Tang Xian’s face was as gray, and his old face was as gloomy as water.

Originally, I thought that Mark relied on, but those great dragon gods were strong.

However, Tang Xian never dreamed that Mark’s men still had such a huge force.

In addition to those secular people, there are thousands of warriors with Qi and blood power alone.

Tang Xian remembered that there were no more than two or three thousand warriors in the whole Yanxia Kingdom.

And Mark’s men can withstand the first half of the hot summer?

“I’ll go fucking!”

“What has this abandoned son of the Chu family done in the past decade?”

“Unexpectedly, he secretly developed such a terrible force?”

“The key is that Chumen didn’t realise it?”

Tang Xian’s face was full of horror. He just felt that Mark was too terrible, which simply made people’s scalp numb!

Chapter 3563

Under New York City.

There was the roar of the mountain whirring like a tsunami.

Thousands of people knelt together.

The deafening sound, like a torrent of thunder, impacted the entire world.

Seeing such a majestic and spectacular scene, the hundreds of people in Truman were already shocked.

While looking forward in horror, he stepped back subconsciously.

“Elder, what should I do now?”

“Do you... want to fight with them?” The subordinate asked Tang Xian again.

In the past, these powerful masters of the Chu Sect, who had always been arrogant and domineering, were fearful and retreated when they faced another force for the first time.

Tang Xian was undoubtedly also silent.

Although, the strongest warrior on the opposite side is just the realm of the master.

He is a titled master, singles and nature is not afraid of anyone else.

However, no matter how much Tang Xian entrusted him, he categorically didn't dare to use his own power to fight the opposing thousand warriors.

He was not Mark, Tang Xian knew he didn't have this ability.

What's more, even though Mark was seriously injured and lost all his skills, his physical strength was still terrifyingly powerful.

If Mark bluntly punched him when he was fighting for a while, Tang Xian was afraid that he might fall.

The centipede is dead but not stiff.

Mark's horror, even now, has caused tremendous psychological pressure on Tang Xian.

After weighing the pros and cons, Tang Xian finally chose to take the best policy.

At this moment, Mark was so powerful that Tang Xian couldn't take the risk in this situation.

The wisest move was to return to Chu Sect and report to the old Sect Master Chu Yuan. Afterwards, they gathered their superior forces to wipe out Mark and the others.

However, just when Tang Xian was about to order a strategic retreat.

Suddenly, the earth began to tremble.

The whole block was like an earthquake, with sand and rubble undulating, and the windows and doors swaying.

Deep in the dark night in the distance, there is a deep and loud sound, from far to near, like a surging river, rolling in.

“This this...”

“Is this, is there any more?”

After feeling this extremely huge movement, Tang Xian trembled again with an old face, and then sank to the bottom.

The rest of the hundreds of powerful Chumen were even more desperate.

They feel that today, they are afraid that they are really going to be planted here.

However, when the Chumen were in panic, Ericson Li, Lei Lao San and others were undoubtedly equally surprised.

“What’s the matter?”

“Why are there still people?”

“Could it be that Trumen’s support has arrived?”

“But, it shouldn’t be so fast!”

This time, King Qin’s team, Ericson Li, Xu Lei, and the others have basically come in contact with them, and they are almost the same people in front of them.

Therefore, there is such a big movement suddenly, Xu Lei and the others also have no bottom.

Suddenly, whether it was Chu Sect or Dragon Temple, the strings in the hearts of these two forces tightened.

Everyone present was on alert.

In this way, in the solemn gazes of Tang Xian and Ericson Li and others, they saw a row of American soldiers with live ammunition at the end of the block.

Of course, in addition to these soldiers, there are armored combat vehicles wrapped in steel, with giant barrels slowly turning, huge energy waiting to be sent.

What is steel mixed flow?

This is the iron torrent!

Dozens of armored combat vehicles rolled over the ground, and the surrounding buildings trembled.

“Yes... the army?”

Xu Lei and the others, when they saw this scene, their pretty faces turned white immediately.

The master is not afraid of guns.

However, there are certain conditions.

When the firepower is intensive to a certain level, and when the weapons of the secular army are strong enough to be a titled master, there is no doubt that they will fall.

What’s more, most of them who came to support Mark now are not even martial arts masters.

In the face of Tang Xian, they can also win by number.

But if it is against the army, they will undoubtedly lose even this last advantage.

“Hahaha...”

“It’s General Osker!”

“Our friend is here.”

“Hahaha...”

“Brian Chu, it seems that heaven is going to destroy you!”

At the beginning, seeing this group of teams, Tang Xian was still guessing the number and identity of the other party.

However, after seeing the general in charge, Tang Xian no doubt smiled instantly.

They Truman, and Osker, are undoubtedly old acquaintances.

For so many years, the U.S. military has dispatched a five-thousand-man guard force to garrison near Chumen Mountain in the name of coordinating the defense of Chumen Mountain.

And Osker is the leader of this team.

He led troops stationed at the foot of Chumen Mountain for nearly ten years.

Tang Xian naturally knew the old friends before the house.

Therefore, after recognizing that it was Osker, Tang Xian jumped and went directly to Osker’s side, and then said with a smile: “General Osker, you are here just right.”

“This group of people smuggled into New York, gathered in a crowd, and deliberately killed people, seriously disturbing the city’s public order.”

“I hope that General Osker will immediately baptize with artillery and kill them on the spot!” Tang Xian persuaded in a deep voice.

Osk nodded: “Needless to say, the elder, I also decided to kill them on the spot.”

“Prior to this, please ask the Grand Elder and Truman’s people to step aside and hurt the innocent.”

“Good!” Tang Xian heard this, undoubtedly overjoyed.

He quickly returned to the team and led his men back to a clearing a few hundred meters away, preparing to watch Mark and the others from a distance, how they disappeared into the gunfire.

“Send my order, the artillery is ready!”

As Tang Xian and the others hid away, Osker began to give orders in an orderly manner.

Dozens of armored vehicles lined up, the huge barrels began to lift and rotate, and the prey, thousands of shells were all ready to go.

“Mr. Chu, go away!”

“Here, let’s block first...”

Seeing the situation here, it took a turn for the worse.

Long Baichuan and the others were suddenly solemn, as if they were approaching an enemy.

The others were also full of trepidation, and began to retreat to find buildings for shelter.

Everyone felt fear, but Mark was the only one who still stood in place.

He was expressionless, he stood proudly.

The deep eyes, looking forward, seem to penetrate the ages.

“Mr. Chu, let’s go...”

Seeing Mark motionless, Ericson Li and the others were undoubtedly frightened.

Could it be that this guy, thinking that he can’t carry shells with his body?

Of course, if there are only one or two shots, Mark is so awesome that he wants to carry it.

But now, there is an army of 5,000 people on the opposite side. Nearly a hundred armored fighting vehicles are standing there. In a moment, thousands of eggs will be thrown out. They are made of steel, and I am afraid they will be broken.

Mark had been injured, and if he resisted it hard, wouldn’t he be looking for death?

Panicked, Ericson Li and the others ran over in spite of the danger, pulling Mark to find a place to hide.

However, it was too late.

Osk’s order to fire has been issued.

The sound of artillery one after another, like a wave of thunder, quietly exploded in the dark night.

Everyone only saw that hundreds of cannonballs, like meteors under the dark night, across the sky.

After a few seconds, countless sparks will explode.

“Hahaha...”

“Brian Chu, it seems that heaven is going to destroy you!”

Tang Xian, who was hiding in the distance watching the battle, was undoubtedly lost.

I just feel that God is helping myself.

Originally, he planned to retreat, but who would have thought that as soon as the situation changed, the rescuers would arrive.

With this level of fire attack, the thousands of people under Mark weren't completely wiped out, and I was afraid that they would have to save one out of ten.

Tang Xian was in a great mood.

The feeling of turnaround in adversity is undoubtedly obsessive.

However, Tang Xian's happiness did not last long.

At this time, the subordinates around him who were quietly watching the excitement suddenly poked Tang Xian: "Elder, I...how do I think, then...the shells came at us?"

Tang Xian's expression changed: "Nonsense!"

"How can this be?!"

Chapter 3565

But Tang Xian's voice just fell.

I felt a scorching wave of air, like a tornado, whizzing.

Tang Xian looked up again, and he saw the overwhelming artillery fire, wrapping them all around the Truman.

"what?"

"Oske, what the hell are you doing?"

After realizing that Osker's attack was really against their Truman, Tang Xian exploded his scalp at that time.

He stared at him, while screaming frantically, he quickly mobilized Yuan Li to defend.

However, it was too late.

Before Tang Xian gathered his strength to resist these attacks for his men, the thousands of shells had already fallen.

All of a sudden, the open space was filled with flames.

The sound of explosion is endless.

The whole block, like an earthquake, trembled frantically and violently.

The shock wave of horror lifted the earth a layer of life.

The blood, bones, flesh and blood, and the high temperature directly exploded by the shells, evaporate into nothingness.

"This this.."

"What's the situation?"

"Is their group of gunners blind, or am I blind?"

Ericson Li and the others, who originally thought they would be baptized by artillery fire, were directly confused after seeing this scene.

Even, they thought they were wrong.

Up to now, they have not figured out what is going on in this particular situation?

Why did the rescuers invited by the people of the Trumen kill the strong men of the Trumen in the end?

Isn't it that the flood rushed into the Dragon King Temple, and the family blasted the family?

Boom boom boom...

The shelling continued.

After the round, Osker immediately ordered another round.

Although Osk is not familiar with martial arts, he knows how powerful and terrifying these martial arts experts are.

Even with this undifferentiated carpet bombing, Osker did not have much confidence to keep them all here.

really!

After the continuous bombing, several figures rose into the sky in the sea of flames.

One of them was Tang Xian, the great elder of Truman.

“Damn Osker!”

“How dare you take advantage of others?”

“Wait, then!”

“Not only you, but also your guards, and Brian Chu...”

“All have to die!”

“You all have to die!!”

Tang Xian's figure is embarrassed, and his face is unreliable.

After he rushed out of the sea of fire, an angry roar, with endless murder and hatred, swept the entire sky.

“All the survivors of Truman, give me orders!”

In the void, Tang Xian stood on the sky.

His face was severe and his eyes were red as blood.

Immediately, in the most ferocious tone, he shouted the loudest words!

“Follow me!”

When the words fell, Tang Xian stepped on the void, turned and retreated towards the Chumen Mountain in the distance.

In the sea of flames, the other figures who escaped followed Tang Xian and left.

After all, Mark at this time had already mastered thousands of troops.

And they, after the bombardment just now, fewer than ten people survived.

With ten people, the enemy's armies?

Ruthless people dare not play like this?

It is estimated that only wolves who are more ruthless than ruthless people dare!

Therefore, under these circumstances, Tang Xian naturally chose to retreat to Chumen Mountain, regroup, and then kill Mark.

With Tang Xian and the others retreating, the artillery fire here finally subsided.

The empty space where the Trumen stood has been reduced to ruins.

The fragments of limbs were scattered on the ground.

There was no whole body at all.

Over the past ten minutes, more than a hundred people were killed in the battle again!

Seeing this result, Ericson Li and the others were so frightened that they all gasped.

Even the warriors of Truman suffered huge casualties under this attack. If they had just been replaced by people like them, they would have died if they suffered these attacks.

However, how did Ericson Li and the others know that the reason why Chu Men was killed and injured so badly under the artillery fire this time was entirely because the incident happened so suddenly that they caught the strong Chu Men unprepared.

Chapter 3566

It can be said that quite a few of these people were bombarded to death without precautions.

If it is really on the battlefield, the warrior corps encounters these secular corps, and the last laugh is basically the warrior corps.

After all, the warrior's single combat capability far exceeds that of ordinary soldiers.

And the more powerful the weapon, the heavier it is.

The people over there have not been locked, the warriors here are probably already killed.

What's more, the titled master is not afraid of guns.

If Tang Xian had been prepared just now, he would let go a few big moves in advance, and those tanks and armored vehicles would have been misfired.

Therefore, on the real battlefield, the only warrior who can deal with the warrior is often the only warrior.

As for the secular army, only in the case of surprise soldiers that can beat people by surprise, can they cause a lot of deaths and injuries to the warriors.

After resolving the Truman powerhouse, Osker, the leader of the regiment in front, turned his head and looked in the direction of Mark and the others.

“Dare to ask who is Brian Chu?”

A deep and heavy voice sounded.

Ericson Li, Xu Lei and their faces immediately turned pale.

My heart was also suddenly worried.

Could it be that they now have to turn their guns and aim them at people like them?

Thinking of this, the thousands of warriors all gathered, into a combat form, facing the five thousand garrisons in front of them, tit for tat.

“I am.”

Mark stood there, his indifferent voice sounded immediately.

No fear at all.

Osk’s gaze also immediately fell over.

Then, he led the two adjutants next to him and walked in the direction of Mark.

“Brother Mark, be careful!”

Seeing the other party walking in Mark’s direction, Xu Lei and the others were suddenly worried.

Long Baichuan and a group of strong men rushed forward and stood in front of Mark, with a pair of formidable sights, all staring at Na Osk.

However, Osker did not pay attention to these torch-like gazes, he was expressionless and strode towards Mark.

Finally, in the trembling and shocked eyes of everyone, I saw that Osker clasped his fists and knelt down to Mark!

“Dragon Hidden King Osker, meet the Dragon Lord!”

“Subordinates are late for rescue, please dragon lord to punish!”

boom!

A few words, only if the thunder exploded. ,

At the moment when Osker knelt down, Ericson Li, Chen Ao, Lei Lao San, and Long Baichuan were all bewildered.

Tang Yun, who had never shown her face even if she had been hiding in the corner, was surprised and immediately covered her red lips with a pair of small hands.

She couldn't believe that this Osker was also Mark's person.

Osk, Tang Yun knows.

This is a sharp knife inserted by the U.S. military under Mount Chumen.

Although it is said to help defend Mount Chumen in name, it is actually monitoring Chumen to prevent him from threatening the rulers of the secular world.

However, Tang Yun didn't expect that Mark had planted one of his people just under Chumen's nose.

In Tang Yun's memory, Osker was already stationed at the foot of Chumen Mountain when she was not the master of the Chumen Sect.

In other words, didn't Mark tame Osker a long time ago?

For a while, everyone's admiration for the man in front of them became more intense.

I just feel that the title of this Dragon God Temple Master, Wushuang, is really unfathomable!

However, facing Osker's kneeling suit, Mark shook his head: "Long Yin King, you shouldn't have appeared."

"You should know that once your identity is exposed, the US military will take your authority."

"At that time, you will not be the commander of these five thousand soldiers."

Mark whispered.

Mark naturally knew about the existence of King Longyin.

However, in Mark's plan, after defeating all the powers above the title of Chumen, if necessary, King Longyin will give Chumen a final blow to completely end Mount Chumen and blow up the land of right and wrong.

"I know." Osker nodded, "But, if the Dragon Lord falls, I will hide for another ten years. What's the point?"

"Dragon Lord, there is no need to say anything extra."

"While there is still time, I will protect you from leaving!"

Chapter 3567

How big is the movement tonight, after Tang Xian returns to Chumen Mountain, the people of Chumen will undoubtedly make big moves.

After the confrontation tonight, Mark's whereabouts have undoubtedly been completely exposed. In this case, it can be said that they have no choice but to evacuate immediately.

Just like this, a group of people rushed toward the border in a mighty force.

As for the people who were sent by the Trumen to defend the border, after seeing the 10,000-strong team of the other side, they were naturally shocked and fled one after another, and went back to report.

At the dock, Osker has already prepared several large cruise ships, enough to accommodate Mark and others.

“Aren’t you going with us?”

The second class of Li and others have already boarded the ship one after another.

Osker was standing on the shore, watching Mark and the others leave.

Seeing his posture, he didn’t seem to have the intention to leave with Mark.

“Dragon Lord, I won’t go back.”

“This is my hometown and my career.”

“If the Dragon Lord makes a comeback in the future, maybe I can still use my Osker.”

Osker smiled lightly and waved his hands to say goodbye to Mark.

Yes, he didn’t plan to leave with Mark.

He is not a warrior, he has no superb strength, and no talent for business.

His greatest value is only the five thousand soldiers under his hand.

Therefore, Oske knew that once he followed Mark back to the summer, then he would be worthless.

Maybe Mark values his love and will do something for him.

But that was not what Oske wanted. He had been hiding for so many years, not just to linger, to be an insignificant person.

Therefore, Oske still chose to stay and continue to take charge of his five thousand army.

“But, you should know that once the things of last night are passed on, your superiors will definitely not tolerate you.”

“It is a serious crime to mobilize troops without authorization.”

“Have you ever thought about the consequences?”

Mark worried.

Osker waved his hand and said calmly: “Don’t worry, I have been here for so many years, Osker still has the ability to dredge up and down the relationship.”

“I will be fine.”

“It’s you, Dragon Lord, be careful.”

“Returning from the sea by sea may be able to block most of Trumen’s people. However, it cannot stop the top powers of Trumen.”

“Once they catch up, your situation will remain extremely dangerous.”

Osker reminded him from the side.

Mark nodded.

What Osker said, he certainly knows.

However, it is relatively safer to return home by sea.

At least, this vast sea is enough to stop all the strong below the title.

As for the rest, it depends on God’s will.

“Since you have already thought about it, then I won’t persuade you.”

“Take care of everything!”

“I hope next time, when I come again, I can see you again.”

Mark patted Osker on the shoulder, then turned around and boarded the boat.

blue sea and sky, vast waves of smoke.

Mark and his party went away by boat.

In the dark night, the melodious siren echoed in Tianhe.

On the shore of the coast, looking at the cruise ship going away, Osker stood at attention with his legs, raised his right hand, and gave an unusually solemn military salute to the direction where Mark was leaving.

“Send the Dragon Lord!”

Osker gave a long scream.

Brush Brush...

In a short time, the five thousand soldiers behind him also saluted.

“Dragon Lord, goodbye...”

The sky was full, and after watching Mark leave, Osker’s eyes were red, and he whispered.

Then, he transferred his troops and headed towards Chumen Mountain.

What is the Dragon Yin King?

is forbearance of a thousand days, the king who burst out all at once!

His role is only at the moment when his identity is revealed.

Like Osker, he arbitrarily transferred his troops and left Chumen Mountain.
