

All For You Chapter 3

The blood transfusion process is quick.

The examination, the blood was drawn.

The nurse pulled out the syringe and admonished, "Miss Nian, after donating blood, it's best to take a rest before you go."

"Is that child okay? Can I go and see her?" Nian Xiaomu asked with some unease as she pressed the cotton ball on her arm.

"This may require the consent of the patient's family." The nurse hesitantly glanced at Nian Xiaomu, wanting to say something.

She didn't know much, she had only heard that this child was not an ordinary child, and shortly after entering the operating room, there was an extra group of bodyguards at the entrance of the operating room.

"By the way, Miss Nian, your things." The nurse carried the cake to the table.

Seeing the cake in front of her, a white light flashed through Nian Xiaomu's mind.

Oh no! How could she have forgotten the main event!

Nian Xiaomu stood up from her chair, pressed her dizzy brain, picked up the cake and ran out.

She was in a hurry to get out of the blood draw room and was just about to enter the lift when a tall figure suddenly appeared around the corner and rammed into her unawares!

"Ah..." Nian Xiaomu was knocked backwards and her feet slipped.

On survival instinct, she grabbed her hand forward and grabbed the other person's clothes straight away.

"Shout!" The sound of her clothes breaking in her ears, she only had time to see a pair of cold black eyes before she fell to the ground.

Before she could cry out in pain, the man's lips were pressed against hers

An unfamiliar scent that rushed into her nostrils with strong testosterone and a hint of mint.

Her first kiss was gone?

Nian Xiaomu's brain, a little confused.

Yu Yuehan did not think at all that such an accident would happen when he rushed to see his daughter, and his cold face sank slightly as he quickly stood up.

Without hesitation, he reached out and wiped his thin lips, and his eyes were filled with disgust.

A powerful aura caused the air pressure around him to lower.

"Young master, are you alright?" The assistant saw the scene in front of him and looked flustered.

Who didn't know that his boss didn't get close to women, but now, a woman popped up from nowhere and kissed him as soon as he arrived.

"....." Nian Xiaomu was jolted back to her senses by the startled cry.

This big brother, now she is the one who got hit, how can your young master be alright?

Now it is she who is not okay

Nian Xiaomu reached out to press her dizzy head, noticed that her hand was empty, remembered something and her nerves shot up!

Turning her head to the side, the cake that had tumbled to the floor, the cream had spilled out

"My cake!" Nian Xiaomu's chest ached as he climbed up and went to pick up the cake.

The box could no longer see the cake's original appearance, only a sticky, greasy mess remained

When she looked up again, the person who had bumped into her was actually leaving!

"This gentleman, wait a minute!" Nian Xiaomu dropped her cake and furiously rushed forward to stop his way.

If he hadn't suddenly bumped into her, she wouldn't have fallen down, only for him to leave without saying a word.

When she saw the man's face, Nian Xiaomu was slightly stunned.

Handsome A handsome word alone cannot describe the good looks.

But the aura on this person is also too cold, like an ice lump moved out of the ice cellar.

Being swept by him with his eyes, she actually raised her chicken skin.

The next second, she saw him narrow his eyes and cross over her to leave

“This young lady, our young master is in a hurry, how much compensation do you need, I’ll talk to you,” the assistant glanced at his boss and saw that his face was not right, he hurriedly stepped forward to explain.

From the time he heard that his daughter had been in a car accident, Yu Yuehan was almost frantic to rush to the hospital, and now before he could see anyone, he was stopped by a strange woman.

He was really afraid that his boss would kill someone!

“I don’t want money, I want him to apologise to me!”
