"Yeah, it's Thea from the Callahans. She'd been locked out from the family by Lex"

"Why is Thea coming to Yuna's birthday banquet?"

"I heard that Yuna invited Thea's whole class."

"It's rumored that the main reason she invited the whole class was for Luik Bertrand to attend

"Do you mean the son of Abundant Pharmaceuticals' chairman? Charles' son, Luke?" "Yeah, Luke has been pursuing Yuna for a very long time"

"Oh, so that's the case? Still, why is James here too?"

Thea?"

Luke's eyes lit up as he glanced at Thea, whose beauty was not inferior to Yuna and was even considered above her.

He was familiar with Thea and heard that her face was healed.

However, during this period, all his attention was focused on Yuna, so he could not be bothered by the rumors spread around He was astonished by her beauty after seeing her in person.

He walked over and greeted her affectionately. "Do you remember me, Thea? It's Luke Bertrand. The class monitor, Luke."

"Oh, Luke. Hello." Thea immediately reached out to shake hands with Luke

James reached out and grabbed her hand,

Luke's hands were already stretched out, but James pulled Thea's hand back. He could not help but glance at James with his brows raised "You are?"

Thea introduced him enthusiastically. "This is my husband, James."

"What?"

Luke glanced at James and scanned him head to toe There was nothing special about him, and he sneered, "So this is James, the infamous son-in law that married into your family? The useless guy who used some connections to borrow a car to put on a show in the military region? I heard that the authorities above are furious about it. Soon, he'll be punished and unfortunately, he'll have to spend the rest of his life in prison, right?" Thea had heard of the rumors before but never knew the severity of it.

"What? Is it that serious?"

Chapter 132 "Yeah. The consequences are going to be very serious I heard that the car unes borrowed belonged to a certain prominent figure when he returns to the city. James, the driver, and James' senior will all be sued in the military court"

"What?" Thea was frightened

She could not help but grip harder on James' hand

“Go and confess, Luke!”

With the prompting of so many people, Luke's self-confidence also exploded. His eyes swept across the crowd and found Yuna gathered with some women, chatting and laughing

He took out the diamond ring he had prepared a long time ago and walked to her under everyone's gazes.

He stood in front of Yuna.

"Huh?"

Yuna looked at Luke, who was approaching her.

Luke was dressed in a white suit. He had very good skin and prominent facial features. His hair was also styled very neatly, and he was very charismatic, just like a celebrity on television.

Luke knelt on one knee under the crowd's gazes.

"Yuna, ever since I laid my eyes on you, your face had been deeply imprinted in my mind. I dream of you every night. I'll have the whole world if I have you. Without you, I'll lose the whole world. I know that you love me too. Right now, I want to confess my love to you officially. Yuna, will you be my girlfriend?"

"Woah...."

"How romantic."

"I wish I was Yuna."

"Wow, that's so romantic! When will my prince charming show up?"

Chapter 133 Some girls were moved to tears and wished they were Yuna.

Yuna smiled.

She looked at Luke kneeling on one knee with his hand on his chest. She teased him with a playful expression, "Who gave you the confidence, Luke? In what aspect do you think you're worthy of me?" i "Capability? As far as I know, the Bertrands have some money, but you're just a spoiled rich laid who inherited the wealth. Even with the connections the Bertrands have, you haven't made a name for yourself.

"Family business? The Bertrands' assets are not even comparable to a branch of the Lawsons.

"So, who gave you the courage?"

"Who gave you the confidence?" Yuna's voice echoed. Luke was dumbfounded by her reply.

"This isn't how this is supposed to play out.

"Didn't you invite my whole class and me to the birthday banquet because you like me? 'You even waited for me at the entrance. 'W-why are you rejecting me?' thought Luke. Luke was stunned and continued kneeling on the floor in a daze after being rejected and belittled.

"Haha..."

to Longevity Pharmaceuticals but he got kicked out several times. I can't believe he has the guts to confess at Yuna's birthday banquet. Where did he get the courage? Does he really not know the gap between the Bertrands and the Lawsons?" "I know, right? Yuna didn't even bother with Bryan Grayson, let alone Luke." Hearing the discussions about him, Luke became anxious. He sweated profusely. "Yuna, this isn't right. You must be testing me. I'm not angry.

the crowd was petrified and taken

'The famous executive chairman of Longevity Pharmaceuticals likes a live-in son-in-law like James?

Hearing this, Luke understood and hurriedly said, "Yuna, I can do that too! I can marry into the Lawsons and be a live-in son-in-law!"

From Luke's point of view, he thought that Yuna, who was from a prominent family. would not be willing to marry into another family. She would want her husband to marry into the Lawsons.

Thus, he was willing to marry into the Lawsons for Yuna.

"Pfft!"

Luke's words made many of the onlookers burst into laughter. However, Yuna glanced at James in the distance and said seriously, "You've misunderstood me. I don't like a man who wants to marry into my family. Instead, I just like a man like James. Well, how do I explain this? Just look at him. Even with so many prominent figures present here, he is just calmly playing with his phone.” Yuna’s words left everyone stunned. Standing beside her, Thea was jealous and dissatisfied. “Yuna, are you trying to steal my husband from me?”

“Yeah. Can I?” Yuna winked and blinked at Thea.

Thea froze momentarily and immediately realized Yuna’s intention.

‘Yuna is trying to find an excuse to reject Luke,’ thought Thea.

“You can have him if you like. After all, my husband is quite useless. Keeping him at home costs a lot of money!” She played along and smiled.

Chapter 134

Luke confessed to Yuna but was refused decisively, belittled as nothing.

Additionally, she even said that she liked James.

Her words came as a surprise to everyone.

All eyes were on James In a high-class event, he dressed very ordinarily in simple clothing and was out of place with those around him.

hundreds of people staring at him. He scratched his head and was puzzled by the situation. Raising his phone, he checked whether something was on his face. “I don’t see anything,” he muttered. Luke, still kneeling, looked at James, and anger began to boil in his heart. Yuna chuckled and said, “You can pursue me when you become a man like James. You’re not qualified now, Luke.” After saying that, Yuna glanced at Thea mischievously. “Thea, you’re the one who said you’ll give him to me! Since that’s the case, Since Yuna disliked Luke and wanted to use James as an excuse, Thea also blinked her shiny eyes at James.

"What're you waiting for, James? Ms. Lawson is asking for a dance," said Thea. "Darling, ..."

"Who're you calling darling? I've already given you to Ms. Lawson." Thea smiled mischievously.

"Am I an object to give away to others?" James was put on the spot. "Mr. Caden..."

Yuna glanced at James with a touch of expectation on her mesmerizing face and said, "It's my twenty-fifth birthday today. Will you honor me with this dance?"

James glanced toward Thea as if asking for her opinion.

"It's a pleasure that Ms. Lawson wants to have the dance with you. Go ahead," Thea said as she pulled James up from the sofa and handed his hand to Yuna.

Yuna's hands were smooth and delicate.

As for James, he still had not grasped the situation.

"Darling, I..." "It's alright. Go on. I won't get jealous." Thea pushed James.

Chapter 135 Not only was Thea not jealous but she was also delighted. This woman was the executive chairman of Longevity Pharmaceuticals, Yuna. Even if James was just an excuse to reject Luke, it was still an honor for James.

Plus, James was her husband, so she felt proud.

Meanwhile, James was led to the dance floor by Yuna,

Music began to play.

Yuna stretched out her slender hands. One was placed on James' shoulder, and the other wrapped around his waist. Her whole body was almost leaning right into him.

On the other hand, James was stiff all over.

He was slightly nervous at that moment.

He clenched his fists tightly, and veins bulged on his face. Luke's classmates witnessed him being rejected and were in a very bad mood, so they did not dare to continue flattering him.

In the face of the unfriendly looks around him, James smiled disdainfully.

At another lounge area not far away.

Yuna sat on the sofa with her legs crossed, revealing her long and slender legs. Her eyes were fixed on James, and her eyes had an unconcealed admiration.

That man was the Black Dragon.

She had heard a lot about the Black Dragon when she was in the Capital.

The Black Dragon had always been her idol, and she never expected to meet him personally in Cansington. She met and danced with the Black Dragon, one of the Five Commanders. However, he seemed a little shy. Yuna recalled James' stiff body during their dance, and a charming smile broke out on her beautiful face. The farce did not affect the birthday celebration. It was only nine in the morning, and many bigwigs had not shown up yet. As time passed, more and more people attended to celebrate Yuna's birthday. Even the Callahans showed up. A few days ago, the Callahans had lost face and became the laughing stock of Cansington. They had kept a low profile ever since. However, after receiving a birthday invitation from Yuna, the Callahans felt a sense of Importance and thought they were indeed a part of the upper class. They received an invitation from the executive chairman of Longevity Pharmaceuticals. Wasn't this precisely what a wealthy family was?

Lex entered with his son, Howard, his grandson, Tommy, his granddaughter, Megan, and his grandson-in-law, Colson. In his hand, he held a dragon cane.

The cane made contact with the ground and produced a rattling sound, attracting everyone's attention.

Everyone was astonished when they saw the person was Lex.

Chapter 136 "W-what's going on?"

"Did Yuna invite Lex?"

"That's impossible. Lex humiliated himself outside the military region and even got thrown out by the general. He must've been so embarrassed, but why did Yuna invite him?" "Could it be that he came uninvited?"

The crowd began to discuss Lex's appearance.

Everyone at the banquet consciously stepped away, not wanting anything to do with Lex.

Tommy was complacent and said with a proud expression, "Grandpa, look at them. You're so famous in Cansington that these people are backing down to show respect to you."

Hearing Tommy's flattery, Lex was on cloud nine and wore an undisguised pride on his face.

He spotted Yuna and approached with his cane. With a smile on his face, he said, "Ms. Lawsons, I'm honored that you personally invited me to your birthday banquet."

Yuna frowned.

She nodded lightly and showed slight acknowledgment since Lex was the grandfather of James wife, Thea

Seeing Lex, Thea had a very complicated expression. After hesitating, she walked over and greeted, “Grandpa.” Lex raised his head.

He was stunned to see Thea in a white dress with her hair styled in an updo. She radiated with the temperament of a high-born lady.

“Th-Thea?” “Yes, Grandpa,” Thea nodded and greeted him again.

Tommy was in awe when he saw Thea.

He never expected Thea to look so gorgeous when dressed up. In both figure and appearance, she looked even better than the birthday girl, Yuna.

Megan immediately noticed the value of Thea’s outfit at a glance.

She was envious and sneered, “Did you go sleep with Alex again, Thea? It’s only been a few days, and now you’re wearing branded clothing? Your whole outfit adds up to at least hundreds of thousands of dollars, right?”

Thea approached to greet them but was instead met with Megan’s snobbish words.

No matter how good-tempered she was, she was slightly angered at that moment. She pointed at Megan, who was acting mightly. “Y-you shouldn’t spout nonsense!” “Nonsense? Isn’t it true? Where did you get the money to buy the clothes if it wasn’t because you slept with Alex?” The Callahans had been the center of countless scandals recently. The partnership between Celestial Group and the Callahans was the biggest one.

Even though Alex had already held a press conference to refute it, the rumors continued to spread that Thea had slept with Alex

Chapter 137 However, the more they denied it, the wilder the rumors that spread outside.

Lex noticed the countless eyes watching them and felt embarrassed because even he thought Thea was sleeping with Alex. Despite thea being the reason the Celestial Group agreed to cooperate with the Callahans, Lex cared more about his name.

“You-you have no shame!” Lex’s face darkened. “Grandpa, i-it’s not like that!” “Then, explain where you got the money to buy the outfit if it wasn’t because you slept with Alex?” Tommy stood up and shouted. “T-1...” Thea felt so wronged and was on the verge of tears She never slept with Alex,

However, she did not know how to explain the situation.

The money came from James, but she did not know where he got it from, and if she told them, there might be grave consequences. It was possible that James would have to go to jail.

James, concentrating on his game in the corner, heard the commotion. He stood up and realized it was the Callahans.

He hurriedly walked over, saw tears in Thea’s eyes, and asked, “What happened, Thea?” Tommy sneered, “You don’t even know your wife slept with another man again? She’s wearing branded clothes that cost more than hundreds of thousands. Tsk, tsk! The chairman of Celestial Group sure is generous!”

Everyone trembled as the man approached.

A-Alex...

"Who was gossiping about Ms. Thea?"

Another voice sounded, and a handsome man followed behind Alex.

It was the owner of the Gourmand, Bryan from the Graysons of the Capital.

Those who said a word about Thea better come out to kneel and apologize. Otherwise..." Yuna also stood up and said coldly.

"How presumptuous! Who dares to spout such nonsense?!" Outside the door, another voice could be heard. Immediately, an older man in his fifties appeared. Despite his wrinkled appearance, he walked in energetically, dressed in a black suit. "D-Dr. Fallon?" Everyone was shocked by the person approaching.

James also heard the uproar and looked over.

He subconsciously frowned.

"How could Jake Graham be Dr. Fallon? The Jay Fallon that Thea had mentioned?"

Chapter 138 Everyone at the banquet turned their heads toward the entrance. Three people walked inside the hall.

One was Alex, the chairman of Celestial Group.

Another was Bryan, the owner of the Gourmand. The last older man was Jay, the president of the Doctors' Association who had the title of genius doctor in Cansington. These three ranked at the top of the social pyramid in Cansington, Alex was the backbone of the Yates in the Capital. He could easily make the Great Four bankrupt with one word.

Bryan was a very low-profile person but had great influence. On the other hand, Jay was one of the most prominent figures. Cansington was the capital of medicine, and he was a genius doctor.

In this world, the richer one was, the more afraid of death they were. The collective influence of the people present may not necessarily even reach Jay's level. The three approached and became the center of attention. "Who was spouting such nonsense?" "Who bad-mouthed Thea?"

"Which one of you dared to run their mouths?" The trio walked forward and glanced across the room. The banquet fell into a dead

"Keep talking! Why aren't you guys talking anymore? Ms. Thea is so precious. How dare such lowly people insult her! Those who insulted her better step forward this instance!" "There is still room for forgiveness if you step forward, kneel down, and admit fault now. Otherwise..." Bryan glared at the people present with an indifferent expression and threatened them.

Many people were terrified. Bryan was true to his words. The whole Cansington would be turned upside down if he were to get mad.

“Who spoke ill of her? Step forward right now!” Jay did not dare to meet James’ gaze and frantically turned his eyes to the crowd.

Yuna frowned as she watched the three men’s behavior. ‘These three must already know James’ identity, so they’re desperate to shield Thea in order to please James.

‘How can I lose to them as the party host?’

There are surveillance cameras here, and I can easily check the footage to see who insulted her! Those who spoke out before were terrified.

Suddenly, one person from the crowd could not bear the pressure of several bigwigs and immediately knelt with his head on the floor.

The person was a corporation chairman with hundreds of millions of net worth.

He was a big shot outside. However, at this moment, he was kneeling on the ground like a lowly servant. Thea was taken aback by the scene, James and Yuna both held on to one of her hands She glanced left and right.

By now, more than 30 people were kneeling on the floor.

There was one more person who had yet to kneel-Luke. Luke stood aside, contemplating whether he should kneel. The Bertrands’ reputation would be ruined if he knelt. At the same time, the Bertrands could not withstand the power of these three prominent figures

After weighing out the pros and cons, he knelt down with a thump. All his classmates were shocked by his action. ‘The class monitor also knelt? “He was kneeling to Thea? ‘W-what’s Thea’s background?’

Thea froze and went completely blank as she watched the scene unfold. She panicked and was unsure how to deal with it.

Alex glared at Lex, pointed at him, and asked, “Did you insult her too?”

Hearing the question, Lex’s body trembled.

“Thea, do you want me to kneel to you too?” He glanced at Thea with a rather displeased expression

“G-grandpa, I would never. You can’t kneel. You mustn’t kneel,” Thea frantically replied.

Chapter 140 Thea would never have the courage to ask Lex to kneel.

After all, he was her grandfather.

“Get up, Tommy. “Y-you too, Megan.” She immediately helped Tommy and Megan up from the floor.

The two finally stood up.

However, the others did not dare to get up. “Ms. Thea, how would you like to punish them?” Alex asked as he glanced at Thea.

“Me?” Thea panicked again. She had never been in such a situation before.

The others immediately followed as soon as the first person began slapping himself.

The whole venue resonated with slapping sounds.

The other onlookers could only gasp.

The scene was once-in-a-century. "W-what are you guys doing? Get up! Stop this!" Thea was so shocked that she almost burst into tears. It was just a few words about her. It was not such a big deal. This was simply unnecessary! She glanced at the three prominent figures and pleaded sincerely, "P-please stop them!"

James glared at the people slapping their faces, and said, "My wife is kind and generous, so she is letting you guys off the hook. Hurry up and thank her. You all better remember the consequences if you dare to spout nonsense again." "Alright. Get up." Alex waved his hands and stopped them after hearing James.

The people kneeling on the ground finally stopped. They got up and stood in place, not daring to move an inch. James held Thea's hand and said, "You should thank them, darling." Hearing this, Thea immediately reacted. She glanced at Alex, Bryan and Jay gratefully and hurriedly thanked them, "Thank you so much!" "I'll make them bankrupt within minutes if you'd like, Thea." Alex smiled. Everyone present was shocked as soon as his words left his mouth. "Mr. Yates, I'm sorry! I shouldn't have spouted nonsense! Please forgive me!" A few who heard him immediately knelt again and pleaded. "Get lost."

Alex kicked them away. The man immediately got up and frantically dashed off.
