

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1571

Chapter 1571

He quickly decided to forfeit the battle and escape.

Swoosh!

Thea had been watching the battle from a distance.

Seeing that Tobias was trying to flee, she quickly moved and appeared in front of him, blocking his path.

“Think you can leave?”

Thea looked at him coldly and said, “You can’t leave now that you’re here. Mt. Thunder Pass shall be your resting place.”

After saying that, she raised the Malevolent Sword and swung it forward.

A hundred-meter-long Sword Light emerged.

Tobias quickly dodged the attack.

Boom!

The hundred-meter-long sword light smashed into the ground.

Immediately, the mountain began to shake.

All of Mt. Thunder Pass began to collapse.

At that moment, James joined in. He used the Blithe Fist of Abomination. His body flickered through the sky, and countless illusions of palms materialized in the air.

In just a brief moment, Tobias was struck many times by the palms.

Tobias had been beaten into a miserable state and no longer had his previous invincible and calm demeanor.

Thea attacked again.

Tobias frantically retreated.

Under the attacks of Thea and James, Tobias was beaten helplessly and kept receiving blows to his body.

“Damn it!” Tobias cursed.

His heart was boiling with rage.

However, James and Thea were too strong.

Previously in Malgudi, his arm had been severed. Although it was reconnected, it left sequelae, and severe pain spread in his shoulder.

While he was distracted, the sword hit him in the back again.

A bloody wound appeared on his back.

“Yeah, James’ defenses are terrifying. Tobias can’t deal any damage to him.”

“Thea’s attacks are really powerful as well.”

“Have you guys noticed how much stronger Thea is now than when she fought Tobias alone?”

The martial artists in the distance continued to watch the battle.

Everyone knew Tobias was about to lose at this rate.

Tobias’ defeat would mean his death.

“James, Thea, stop...”

At that moment, a voice resounded through the collapsed Mt. Thunder Pass.

A man appeared following the voice.

He was holding on to a woman.

The man wore a gray robe and a mask, making it impossible to see his face.

The woman he was holding was Maxine.

Maxine was being dragged along with a cold, long sword pressed to her neck.

Upon seeing Maxine taken hostage, James immediately stopped.

Thea paused as well.

The masked man approached and stood on the battlefield with Maxine as his hostage.

Tobias finally had a chance to breathe.

He put his hands on his chest and walked to the masked man.

“Had you been a little later, I would’ve died.”

As soon as he parted his lips, blood gushed out of his mouth.

From the distance, James stared at the person holding Maxine and said coldly, “Let her go.”

“Let’s go.”

The person holding Maxine took a look at the severely injured Tobias and said to him.

Tobias did not hesitate and quickly fled.

“Think you can leave?”

Thea’s face darkened.

A black steel wire slipped out of her sleeve.

The steel wire disintegrated instantly and turned into eighty-one black needles.

The black needles shot out and pierced into Tobias’ body like lasers.

Tobias slowly collapsed to the ground.

“Damn it.”

The masked man holding Maxine cursed and thrust his hand into Maxine’s back. Then, with great speed, he threw her aside, turned around, and dragged the collapsed Tobias away.

Thea chased after them with the Malevolent Sword.

Meanwhile, James quickly rushed to Maxine.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1572

The masked man wounded Maxine and pushed her away. Then, he quickly dragged Tobias, who had been pierced by the eighty-one needles, with him.

Thea chased after them.

She knew Tobias would die after being struck by Exalter.

The person who saved Tobias must have been his comrade.

Thus, he also had to die.

Meanwhile, James quickly rushed to Maxine.

When he got close to her, she had already collapsed into a pool of blood.

Blood constantly gushed out of her mouth.

James tried to help her but noticed that her back was also stained red with blood. He instantly tore off her clothes and saw her bloody back.

Seeing this, he panicked a little.

He quickly took her hand and checked her pulse.

James' expression turned solemn.

“What's wrong?”

Thomas showed up just then and said, “Move. Let me take a look.”

James did not have Crucifier with him. Without it, his medical skills were significantly reduced.

He immediately stepped aside.

Thomas quickly checked Maxine's injury and catalyzed his True Energy, placing his hands on Maxine's back. His strong True Energy entered Maxine's body to heal her.

Other people came one after another.

Omniscient Deity of the Jade Sect.

Jackson and Delainey from the Mount Thunder Sect.

Bennett from the Cadens.

Callan, the former Supreme Leader of the Gu Sect.

The other martial artists also rushed over.

These people stood aside and watched as Thomas treated Maxine.

James also observed from the sidelines.

Maxine's injuries were severe. She was on the verge of death after sustaining the blow. Had Thomas not been here to help, she would have died within a few minutes.

James believed in Thomas.

He trusted Thomas could save Maxine.

Soon, Thea returned to the scene.

James quickly walked over to her. He looked at Thea, who had long, white hair and was holding onto the Malevolent Sword, asking, "How did it go? Did you manage to catch up?"

Thea gently shook her head and said, "No. They were too fast. They entered the primary forest. I lost them after a short chase."

She looked at James with an apologetic expression.

"I'm sorry. I'm useless..."

James reached out and placed his hand on her lips, stopping her from speaking.

Looking at the beautiful Thea, he took her into his arms.

"You've already done a great job."

James embraced Thea tightly.

He never expected Thea to have secretly set up the Celestial Sect in the Capital in the past two months while he was meditating in seclusion.

James knew Thea created the Celestial Sect to help him.

He also remembered Thea saying that she would help him.

Now, he finally understood the meaning of her words.

Hearing James' compliment, Thea was pleased. She felt that all her hard work throughout this period was not in vain. Everything was worth it.

"Cough!"

At that moment, Thea suddenly coughed.

She coughed hard, and blood came out.

James immediately let go of her.

He noticed the abnormality in the color of Thea's blood. It looked different from ordinary human blood.

Normal human blood would be bright red.

However, her blood was mixed with some sort of white, which looked strange.

He asked worriedly, "What's wrong? Are you alright?"

Thea had a solemn expression.

She knew her body's condition.

Previously, after seeing the severed limbs and mistaking them for James', she suffered an Energy Deviation and continued to absorb the power of the Spirit Turtle's blood.

She had now almost completely absorbed the energy contained within the blood.

At present, Thea was extremely powerful, and it was not an exaggeration to describe her as invincible.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1573

Chapter 1573

Unfortunately, there was a problem with her body.

Her blood had completely transformed into the Spirit Turtle's blood. Initially, it did not affect her body, and the Spirit Turtle's blood was perfectly compatible with her organs.

However, there was now an incompatibility.

Her blood had lost its ability to regenerate, and if she lost blood, her body would not be able to compensate for it.

Her body had already stopped supplying blood to some of her organs.

Therefore, she had to force the blood to circulate to some of her organs.

According to her estimation, she only had a few more years to live.

Once her body ran out of blood to supply to her organs, she would die.

It was also possible for her to die from excessive blood loss.

“I-I’m fine.”

Thea gently shook her head.

She did not tell James about her condition, fearing he would worry about her.

Her only wish was for James to retire as soon as possible. She wanted to use her limited time to give birth to a son or daughter for James so their relationship would not be in vain.

“Let me check.”

James attempted to check Thea’s pulse.

“I’m fine. What could happen to me?” Thea smiled and stopped James from checking her pulse.

James was a strong martial artist and also a genius doctor. He would immediately know her body’s condition if he felt her pulse.

“Are you really alright?”

“I’m excellent, Honey. Trust me. I’m good. I’m really strong, and I’ll definitely live a long life. I just faced a little problem while cultivating, and it led to a backlash.”

The more Thea explained, the more worried James grew.

However, Thea refused to let him check her pulse, so there was nothing he could do.

Thea changed the subject and said, “Tobias was hit with my Exalter. He’ll definitely die. Once he dies, the Phantom Army will no longer have a commander. It’ll be much easier for you to continue your plans. “After everything’s settled, can we retire and live in seclusion away from all of this?”

“I’d love to have a child with you.”

Thea looked at James expectantly.

She was worried that she would not have enough time to have his child.

From her calculations, she could use her energy to maintain her blood circulation for about three to five years.

That was plenty of time.

However, if they delayed this any longer, she might really run out of time.

She did not want to die with regrets.

“Alright.” James nodded gently.

“I’ll resolve all these matters as soon as possible.

“By the way, who do you think is the man who rescued Tobias?” asked James.

Thea said, “The person behind Tobias is the King from a hundred years ago. The person who rescued him must be a subordinate of Lance. As for his identity, I’m not sure.”

James agreed with Thea’s speculation.

He looked at Thea with relief.

She truly was a different person from the past her in Cansington.

While the two communicated in hushed tones, everyone’s gaze was fixated on them.

Their hearts were in awe.

This young couple was terrifying.

Both of them had formidable strength, enough to be considered the greatest in the world.

The two together were truly invincible.

Who in Sol could stand against this united pair?

“Ahem, ahem. Congratulations, James,” Callan coughed a few times as he approached and said with a smile.

"I witnessed Tobias absorbing your True Energy and crippling you with my own two eyes. I've been brooding over it. I never expected you to recover and improve your strength so much in just half a month."

James looked at Callan and replied with a smile, "I was fortunate enough this time to narrowly escape death. I really thought I'd spend my whole life in a wheelchair."

"Also, Thea..."

Callan turned to Thea.

He did not say much and simply clasped his hands together.

"Respect."

He could say nothing more but that to her.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1574

Chapter 1574

Mt. Thunder Pass had been demolished.

The cliff collapsed, and trees were uprooted everywhere.

About half an hour later...

Thomas was done treating Maxine.

He slowly placed Maxine on the ground, letting her lie on her side.

"How is she?"

"Is she alright, Grandpa?" James quickly inquired.

Thomas replied, "Her injuries are under control. Her life won't be in danger for the time being. However, the injury she sustained from the palm attack is quite severe, and it'll require a long time for her to recuperate. She'll need constant True Energy to maintain the vitality in her body. Otherwise, she might die any time."

He turned to James and continued, "The only thing that can save her is Crucifier."

"Alright."

James nodded lightly and said, "I'll go look for Crucifier as soon as possible to treat her."

Maxine was taken hostage because of him and Thea.

James felt a little guilty.

“Alright, everyone, disperse.”

Thomas urged the martial artists around them to leave.

He scanned their faces until his gaze finally stopped on the Omniscient Deity. A faint smile slowly formed on his face.

After that, he did not linger around and quickly left.

The Omniscient Deity watched Thomas leave. He stroked his chin and murmured, “What was Thomas trying to signal?”

He was confused why Thomas smiled at him. There seemed to be something behind it.

What could his smile mean?

He could not figure it out and pushed the thought aside for now.

“James, I’ll take Maxine back to the Capital first.”

Bennett left a word and left with the injured and unconscious Maxine.

The others left one after another.

Jackson and Delainey walked up to James.

The both of them could not help but cast a few glances at Thea.

Thea calmly stood beside James.

She was gorgeous. She was tall and had long, gray hair, which added to her beauty, making her look a little more exotic.

“Congratulations.”

Jackson walked over, clasped his hands together, and said, “James, congratulations on improving your cultivation to a higher level.”

James smiled and said, “It was just some luck.”

“Goodbye.”

Jackson did not stay long. After a brief conversation with James, he looked at the Omniscient Deity and said, "Lord Omniscient, till we meet again."

The Omniscient Deity gently waved his hand and said, "Alright."

Jackson left.

However, Delainey stayed behind.

Jackson had permitted her to get closer to James.

Delainey introduced, "Mr. Caden, this is the Omniscient Deity of the Jade Sect, whom I've mentioned to you before."

Hearing this, James could not help but look at the Omniscient Deity.

He heard about the Omniscient Deity of the Jade Sect from Delainey before. They were a neutral force that had wide intelligence networks spreading all over the world. It was rumored that there was nothing in the world the Jade Sect did not know.

James had had plans to visit the Omniscient Deity.

Unexpectedly, the Omniscient Deity had personally come to Mt. Thunder Pass.

James parted his lips and greeted, "It's an honor to meet you, Lord Omniscient."

The Omniscient Deity waved his hand and replied with a smile, "In the ancient martial world, strength is everything. I'm not worthy of your honor."

James went straight to the point. "I have a question I'd like to ask."

The Omniscient Deity interrupted James, saying, "The Jade Sect has a rule. If you want information from us, you have to agree to one condition. The same rule applies to everyone. There aren't any exceptions." "What's the condition?" James looked at him.

The Omniscient Deity said, "Tell me what it is you'd like to ask first."

James replied, "I want to know where Xavion is."

He roughly explained Xavion's situation.

"Many forces are looking for Xavion right now. However, no one can find him. It's as if he's evaporated from this world. The Jade Sect possesses the strongest intelligence network in the world, so you'd surely be able to figure out his whereabouts, right?"

"Indeed."

After hearing James' question, the Omniscient Deity replied, "Since you've asked for him, I'll find him for you. However, I have one condition."

"What is it?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1575

Chapter 1575

The Omniscient Deity thought for a while and replied, "I want some of your blood."

James was stunned.

"You want some of my blood?"

"That's right."

"What do you need my blood for?"

"You don't have to know. I don't need much. Just a little bit will do."

While speaking, he took out a small syringe and handed it to James, saying, "Fill this syringe up. If you agree to my condition, I'll send you information about Xavion's whereabouts in three days."

James did not hesitate. He took the syringe, stuck it in his arm, and drew some blood. Then, he handed it to the Omniscient Deity.

"I'll be waiting for your good news."

"Goodbye."

The Omniscient Deity did not linger. He turned around and left upon receiving James' blood.

After he left, James pondered for a while.

After thinking for some time, he asked, "Delainey, do you know the Omniscient Deity well?"

Delainey nodded lightly and said, "Yeah."

James asked, "What kind of person is he?"

Delainey replied, "I often visit the Jade Sect, and from what I know, the Omniscient Deity is a good person with a great temper. He treats people equally regardless of whether they're evil or righteous. He answers everyone's requests, but always on a condition. However, his conditions are always reasonable, and they're never within the scope of murder and robbery."

Hearing this, James was relieved.

However, he still had doubts.

What did the Omniscient Deity want his blood for?

"Delainey, what do you think the Omniscient Deity is trying to do with my blood?"

Delainey shook her head and said, "I have no idea."

Since she did not know, James did not ask anymore.

He looked at Thea beside him and asked, "By the way, I remember hearing you mention Exalter. What exactly is that?"

James had wanted to ask her this previously but did not have the opportunity to do so.

Thea did not hide the truth and explained everything that happened in Medical Valley after she was injured in the battle against Simon, including her discovery of the Book of Malice.

Hearing this, James was shocked.

He never expected True Heavenly Breath to have a nemesis.

Moreover, it was his wife who could restrain him.

"Hehe."

Thea waved her fist and said, "Don't think you can do as you please after practicing the Invincible Body Siddhi. My Murderous Energy is the nemesis of the Invincible Body Siddhi. So, you better not mess around outside in the future."

James had an awkward expression.

He held Thea's hand and quickly changed the topic. "Let's leave too. We'll head back to Southern Plains City first."

James dragged Thea away.

Delainey silently followed behind them.

At that moment, Tobias was lying on the grass in the primary forest. He was on the brink of death.

A man stood in front of him. He took off his mask.

It was Sky.

Sky looked at Tobias, who was almost on his last breath, with helplessness.

He thought Tobias could make further progress, and he never expected him to be defeated so soon. Despite his efforts to save Tobias, he could not help him.

“S-Save me.”

Tobias looked at Sky standing in front of him and begged weakly.

As soon as he opened his mouth, blood rushed out.

“I’m sorry, Tobias. I really want to save you, but there’s nothing else I can do for you.”

After speaking, he raised his hand, and a force concentrated in his palm.

The force lifted Tobias into the air.

He put his palm on Tobias’ forehead.

“Y-You’re absorbing...absorbing my True Energy...”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1576

Chapter 1576

Tobias was a pawn that was hard to come by.

Sky did not want to give him up just yet.

However, he had no means of saving Tobias.

Thus, he did not want to waste Tobias’ True Energy.

At that moment, Tobias felt his True Energy being rapidly sucked out of him. He panicked and tried to fight back.

However, he was severely injured and on the brink of death. It was already hard for him to speak, so it was even more impossible for him to fight back.

Helplessly, he watched as his True Energy was absorbed.

Tobias' True Energy was very strong, and it took Sky an hour to absorb it completely.

The absorption of Tobias' True Energy made Sky feel bloated and uncomfortable. He had to look for a place to refine the True Energy. Otherwise, his body would explode.

Sky casually threw Tobias on the ground, leaving him to die.

Then, he quickly left the area.

Sky's departure left Tobias in silence.

Occasionally, some groans would resound in the area.

Rustle!

Footsteps approached.

There was the sound of someone trampling on fallen leaves.

Hearing the sound, Tobias opened his eyes, and he saw a person.

"T-Thomas...save me."

Tobias begged weakly.

He was wounded and beyond recovery, about to take his last breath.

He had lost all of his True Energy and would not last long in such a condition.

Thomas walked over, squatted down, and checked Tobias' injuries. His brows furrowed after analyzing Tobias' condition.

Exalter was a dangerous weapon.

It completely destroyed the vitality in Tobias' body.

He would have died much earlier if not for his powerful True Energy.

Now that his True Energy had been absorbed, he would not last much longer.

Thomas fell into thought.

Tobias was a strong martial artist and would be of great help to his plan to slay the dragon.

His dragon-slaying plan would be much more difficult without the help of other strong martial artists.

Tobias could not die.

After coming to a decision, Thomas reached out, tapped a few important acupoints on Tobias' body, and transfused his True Energy into Tobias.

True Energy entered Tobias' body, maintaining its vitality so he would not die so quickly.

After a while, Tobias felt better.

However, it was merely a small improvement from before.

He was still in bad condition, and he would not last more than an hour without the help of True Energy to maintain his vitality.

"I can save you, Tobias," said Thomas.

He could not bear seeing Tobias in such a horrible state.

After all, they were still brothers.

Even if they had different ways, blood was still thicker than water.

"P-Please save me. If you save me, I'll obey your every word. I'm your brother, Thomas."

Tobias began to beg Thomas.

He did not want to die.

He really did not want to die.

He had yet to refine the Spirit Turtle's core.

He had also mastered the Great Law of Absorption, one of the world's greatest techniques. With this technique, he was confident in becoming the best martial artist in the world.

The premise of that was that he had to survive.

"Take this first."

Thomas took out an elixir and placed it at the corner of Tobias' mouth.

Without any hesitation, Tobias opened his mouth to ingest it.

After swallowing it, he noticed something was wrong.

“T-This isn’t a healing elixir.”

“Did I say it was a healing elixir? It’s a poison I concocted. I’m the only one in this world who can detoxify

After I save you, you better obey my orders. If you do so, we’ll still be brothers. Otherwise...”

Although they were brothers, Thomas did not trust Tobias.

He could only control Tobias through such means.

“I’ll obey you. You have my word.”

Tobias had to compromise to survive.

He could not think about anything else at the moment.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1577

Chapter 1577

Surviving was Tobias’ top priority.

“I’ll pass on the Nine Scriptures of Ordeals to you right now.”

“What?” Tobias looked puzzled.

Thomas explained, “It’s the signature martial art technique James cultivated. It’s how James managed to recover his strength and become a top expert.”

“Alright, hurry...”

Tobias could not wait.

Thomas began to teach him the Nine Scriptures of Ordeals.

At the same time, he used his True Energy to maintain Tobias’ vitality and keep him alive.

Meanwhile, James was already on his way back to Southern Plains City.

He was completely unaware that Thomas had left earlier to look for Tobias and set up his plans to slay the dragon.

James drove back to Southern Plains City.

Thea sat in the passenger seat and stared out the window in a daze.

Delainey sat in the back row without saying anything.

The car ride was quiet, and the atmosphere felt a little off.

“By the way...”

James suddenly turned to Thea, who was staring blankly out the window, and asked, “Thea, is the Spirit Turtle’s blood really that strong? You’ve grown so much stronger in such a short time. You’re currently on the Skyward Stairway’s Fifth Stair, right?”

Thea regained her senses and smiled at James, saying, “I’ve just touched the threshold of the Fifth Stair. However, I don’t know much about the Spirit Turtle’s blood either.”

“Is your body really alright? I’ve absorbed the power of the Spirit Turtle’s core, and even I have a hard time suppressing the evil desires that come to me sometimes. The blood of the Spirit Turtle must be much stronger than its core. Are you sure you’re fine?” James asked with a worried expression.

James could infer that the more strength one acquired from the Spirit Turtle, the greater one’s evil desires grew.

He worried for Thea.

“I’m fine for now.”

Thea gently shook her head.

“I only have the desire to kill when I’m fighting. However, I’ve learned Ataraxia, the cultivation method created by the Malevolent King to suppress the Spirit Turtle’s blood. It’s not a problem for me to suppress “Moreover, I’ve almost completely absorbed the power from the Spirit Turtle’s blood, and it’s no longer causing me any harm.

“Also, I practice Demonic Breath, which has the same attribute as the Spirit Turtle. As long as I don’t have the urge to kill, I can maintain my sanity.”

James listened carefully.

Although Thea reassured him that she was fine, he was still worried.

“After returning to the Southern Plains, I’ll perform a complete physical examination on you.”

Hearing this, Thea did not respond and fell into silence.

Around eleven at night, James arrived at the Black Dragon Palace in the Southern Plains.

Thea lay down on a bed inside a room of the Black Dragon Palace.

James looked at her long, white hair and asked, “What happened to your hair? Is it because of the martial art technique you practiced?”

Thea gently shook her head.

She had no idea when her hair color changed.

It could have happened when she suffered an Energy Deviation because her emotions went out of control.

It could also be the result of completely absorbing the energy within the Spirit Turtle’s blood.

James picked up her wrist and felt her pulse to check her condition.

Thea did not stop him.

She knew she could not hide it forever.

Several minutes passed.

James’ expression became solemn.

“H-How is it so bad?”

He stared at Thea and asked, “Were you already aware that something was wrong with your body?”

Thea smiled and answered, “I still have plenty of time. With my current cultivation, I can maintain my blood circulation for at least three to five years. During this period, it’ll be enough for me to birth a child for you.”

James looked at Thea, who was lying in bed. He observed her beautiful face and long, white hair.

Slap!

James raised his hand and swung it at his cheek.

Thea turned around and got out of bed to hold his hand.

“Thea, I... I...”

James choked up while speaking.

He never expected Thea’s condition to be so severe.

“It’s my fault you’re... I...”

Thea pulled James close and threw herself into his arms. She sealed his lips with her own.

After a while, she let go of him.

“I-I still have a few more years. It’s enough. As long as I can help you extend your lineage, I’ll die without regret.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1578

Chapter 1578

Thea had no other wishes.

She simply wanted to use the limited time she had left to have a child with James as proof of their love. That alone was enough for her.

James looked at her and made a vow. “I will cure you. I may have lost Crucifier, but I’ll find it and help you extend your life span by returning your blood to normal.”

Thea fell silent.

She knew her body’s condition well.

Her blood had already fused with the Spirit Turtle’s blood.

Her blood had been engulfed by the Spirit Turtle’s blood, and the two types of blood fused into one.

After she absorbed the power within the Spirit Turtle’s blood, her blood mutated and could no longer regenerate. She could only rely on her body’s existing blood, which would not last her very long.

No matter how miraculous Crucifier was, it would not be capable of helping her blood regenerate.

There was no other blood like hers on earth.

There was no one who could transfuse blood to her.

However, she did not want to shatter James' hope. Hence, she said nothing.

Hope was necessary for one to continue living.

Without hope, one would lose all motivation.

She did not want James to end up like that.

For the next few days, James stayed with Thea in the Black Dragon Palace and did not go anywhere else.

Delainey read the room and left so as to not disturb the pair. The following day, she left the Southern Plains and returned to the Mount Thunder Sect.

On the third day, the Omniscient Deity showed up at the Black Dragon Palace in the Southern Plains.

James sat in the living room and looked at the Omniscient Deity opposite him. He asked, "Have you obtained the information I needed?"

"Yeah." The Omniscient Deity nodded.

James asked excitedly, "Where's the person I'm looking for?"

The Omniscient Deity replied, "He's being protected."

"Who's protecting Xavion?"

"The Yada Sect."

James was taken aback by the answer and inquired again, "What kind of force is the Yada Sect?"

"You'll understand once you return to the Capital and ask the King."

Upon hearing the Omniscient Deity's reply, James immediately understood.

The Yada sect must have been the King's force.

However, he was perplexed.

The King had colluded with Halvor even though it was not in his best interest to do so. Why exactly would the King protect Xavion? Being unable to obtain information from Xavion would affect not only Halvor's interest but also the King's.

James would have to return to the Capital and ask the King if he wanted to find out.

"By the way..."

James suddenly remembered something and asked, "I still have one more question I'd like to ask you."

The Omniscient Deity made a gesture for James to proceed and said, "According to the rules, you should tell me your question first. If I have the information you need, I'll state a condition. If I don't, I'll investigate the matter as soon as possible and make the exchange with you once I have the information."

"Where's Lucjan?" asked James.

While James was in Malgudi, Lucjan had taken Crucifier and the Blade of Justice from him.

Without the Blade of Justice, his strength had significantly reduced.

He had to retrieve the Blade of Justice.

Moreover, he needed Crucifier to help heal Thea's injuries.

"I know his whereabouts."

After hearing James' question, the Omniscient Deity said, "I have the answer you need, but you must first fulfill my request."

James looked at him and asked, "What do you need?"

"It's very simple. I'd like to ask you a question."

"Go ahead."

The Omniscient Deity thought for a while and said, "You've been around the Southern Plains for a long time and only left for Cansington last year. Have you ever been to the Prince of Orchid Mountain's ancient tomb during your stay in the Southern Plains?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1579

Chapter 1579

James shook his head and said, "I've heard of the Prince of Orchid Mountain's ancient tomb being in the Southern Plains, but I've never visited it before. I have no idea where it is as well. Why do you ask?"

The Omniscient Deity did not answer James' question and continued asking, "Then, have you ever met the Prince of Orchid Mountain's descendant?"

James fell into deep thought upon hearing the question.

A person suddenly flashed in his mind.

When he arrived at Mt. Thunder Pass, he met a man named Tyrus.

He had fought with this man.

Tyrus was powerful, and his True Energy was on par with James'.

However, he seemed to have profound knowledge of martial arts. James would not have been a match for him if not for the Invincible Body Siddhi.

He was unsure whether Tyrus was a descendant of the Prince of Orchid Mountain.

After thinking for a while, he said, "No. However, I did meet a man named Tyrus Lafleur near Mt. Thunder Pass about ten days ago and fought him."

The Omniscient Deity's curiosity was piqued, and he could not help asking, "Was he strong?"

"Very, very strong."

Thinking of the battle, James replied solemnly, "That was a formidable martial artist and was also very proud."

"What did he tell you?"

James thought for a while and explained his encounter with Tyrus and their conversation in detail.

The Omniscient Deity fell into thought after hearing James' narration of the encounter.

After a while, he took a deep breath and asked again, "I have a few more questions. If you can answer them honestly, I'll give you Lucjan's location."

The Jade Sect had an intelligence network stretching all over the world because they mainly exchanged information with information.

There were a few things the Omniscient Deity could not understand.

He wanted to use this opportunity to inquire about some information.

James gestured for him to proceed and said, "Ask away."

"Have you unraveled the Moonlit Flowers on Cliffside's Edge's secret?"

"Yeah."

"How did you unravel it?"

James did not hide the truth from him.

He explained the way he unraveled the painting's secret in detail.

James truthfully told him how he coincidentally found out his blood could change the painting's scenery and how he and Maxine discovered the 18-meridian diagram's secret."

The Omniscient Deity listened carefully to his answer.

He occasionally nodded as he listened to James.

"Last question. Has your grandfather told you what he planned to do in the future?"

Hearing this, James hesitated slightly.

He knew what Thomas' goal was.

However, it was an important matter, and it was not a secret for him to spill.

"Sorry, I can't answer this question."

James chose not to answer the question.

"Ha!"

The Omniscient Deity laughed. "To be honest, I don't need you to tell me. I can already guess what he's trying to do."

"Hmm?"

James looked at him doubtfully.

The Omniscient Deity said bitterly, "I actually made a deal with Thomas a few decades ago."

James was intrigued upon hearing this and asked, "What kind of deal was it?"

The Omniscient Deity replied, "He used the Spiritual Art's manual to exchange some information about the Four Holy Beasts from me. Now that the Spirit Turtle has been slaughtered, he must've benefited from it. If I'm not wrong, his next goal is the other three beasts. As for whether it's the dragon, phoenix, or qilin, I can't say for sure. However, if we take the timeline into consideration, it should be the dragon. The dragon was hurt one thousand and three hundred years ago.

"During that battle to slay the dragon, the strongest martial artists in the world were almost wiped out. However, the dragon also sustained severe injuries. Although more than a thousand years have passed, it might not have recovered. If I were Thomas, I'd definitely choose to slay the dragon first."

Hearing this, James could not help but admire the Omniscient Deity.

As expected from the Jade Sect, the force with intel from all over the world. The Omniscient Deity could easily guess what his grandfather was trying to do next.

"Lucjan has headed to Divine Sword Villa."

The Omniscient Deity stood up and said, "Divine Sword Villa has been forging a legendary weapon. It has been at work for more than one thousand and three hundred years, and it should be completed very soon. Lucjan knows this and is heading there to snatch the sword."

James became intrigued and asked, "Please wait, Lord Omniscient. What is this legendary sword?"

Chapter 1580

James stopped the Omniscient Deity from leaving.

However, the Omniscient Deity did not stop. He turned around and left the Black Dragon Palace.

James touched his chin and murmured, "What kind of sword is it?"

He had heard of Divine Sword Villa.

Some time ago, Callan had brought back Excalibur and headed to Divine Sword Villa, requesting them to help reforge the sword.

However, Divine Sword Villa refused to help.

Therefore, Callan fought with the owner of Divine Sword Villa.

After defeating him, Divine Sword Villa finally agreed to reforge Excalibur.

Another legendary weapon was about to be born from Divine Sword Villa.

Moreover, it was a sword forged for more than a thousand years.

What kind of legendary weapon was worth being forged for more than a thousand years?

James was intrigued by the sword.

On top of that, Lucjan had headed to Divine Sword Villa. Therefore, he would also need to visit them to retrieve Crucifier.

After thinking for a while, James sat down.

He looked at Thea, who had been seating aside silently throughout their conversation. He said, "Thea, let's head back to the Capital first. How about you stay there while I head to Divine Sword Villa to look for Lucjan? I'll retrieve Crucifier and try to treat you."

"I'll listen to you."

Thea had no objections.

"This can't wait. Let's head out right now."

Initially, James wanted to use this chance to purge the Southern Plains. However, with so many unexpected things popping out of the blue, he could only put the matter aside for now.

James and Thea left the Black Dragon Palace and headed to the military region.

"James, are we going back already? Weren't we supposed to purge the Southern Plains?"

Henry looked at James in the office and asked, "There are only about three months left before the election. Would we have enough time if we didn't straighten things out here first?"

James replied with a helpless expression, "A lot of things have happened, and I can't help it. I'll have to head back to the Capital first."

Henry nodded and said, "Alright. I'll arrange a private plane right now."

Then, he turned to make arrangements.

Soon, the private plane was ready.

James, Thea, and Henry boarded the plane back to the Capital.

A few hours later, they were back at the Capital.

Thea heaved a sigh of relief after finally returning to her house in the Capital.

"By the way..."

Thea suddenly recalled something and said, "Maxine was injured and is in critical condition. You should go to the Cadens' mansion to check up on her."

James shook his head and said, "Bennett's there. Things should be fine."

He wanted to spend more time with Thea.-

"I'm fine. You should go."

Thea pushed James out of the house and said, "After all, she was taken hostage and used to threaten us. She got hurt because of us. Sir Caden said her injuries did not look good. You should go check and see if you can provide any help."

"Let's go together, then."

"I'll stay home. I'd like to rest for a while."

Thea shook her head.

"Alright."

James did not want to force her.

He was indeed quite worried about Maxine, but since Thea's condition was also bad, he was more concerned about Thea's well-being.

"I'm heading out. I'll be back as soon as possible."

After bidding farewell to Thea, James left.

Outside, Henry waited in the car.

James opened the car door, hopped in, and ordered, "Head to the Cadens' mansion."

"Alright."

Henry started the car.

On the way, he asked, "James, I've heard rumors that Thea is the Celestial Sect's leader. Is that true?"

Although Henry did not go to Mt. Thunder Pass, he had begun cultivating and was considered a martial artist. Since he followed James around, he had gotten to know a few people and would hear news from the ancient martial world.

"Yeah." James nodded.

"Wow."
