

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1771

Chapter 1771

The powerful attack caused an explosion enough to distort the space around them, making them feel like they were in an unreal dimension.

At that moment, the others continued to attack

They unleashed Sword Energies at the cyan dragon from a distance.

The dragon's scale continuously shredded, exposing its frightening red, bloody flesh.

Despite being injured, the dragon was still powerful, and its aura grew increasingly vigorous.

It kept attacking and dashing toward the martial artists.

After missing an attack, the dragon set its target on a psychic and dashed toward him in a sudden motion.

Knowing that he could not dodge the attack in time, the psychic activated a white halo to protect himself. He was planning on relying on his psychic power to resist the dragon's attack.

The cyan dragon flew toward him, swung its claw, and grabbed onto the psychic. Crack!

The white protective shield around the psychic was destroyed instantly.

His face went pale, and his eyes widened in fear. He shouted, "Captain, save..."

Before he could finish speaking, the dragon's claw crushed him into a bloody pile of flesh.

Seeing this scene, the martial artists were startled and quickly retreated, maintaining a certain distance from the dragon.

"Damn it," the Thunder King cursed furiously

"F*cker." Linna's expression darkened.

The Thunder King summoned lightning and continued to attack

Linna also unleashed her flames. In an instant, the flames materialized and surrounded the dragon.

Although the flames were not dealing substantial damage to the dragon, judging from the dragon's growls, they were still hurting it

At that moment, the other martial artists seized the opportunity and charged at the dragon.

More than a dozen long swords pierced into the dragon's exposed body, where its scales had already fallen off.

The moment the long swords pierced into its body, the dragon was enraged. Suddenly, an intense force erupted from it and sent the martial artists around it flying.

"Quick! Unleash your signature techniques!"

After being blasted into the distance, Thomas sputtered a mouthful of blood. Before he could wipe away the blood from his lips, he shouted, "The dragon's already injured, so stop saving your energy! If we don't kill it now, we'll never get a second chance!"

Everyone could see that the dragon was injured.

However, the energy emanating from the dragon was too strong, and they did not dare to approach it.

The dragon suddenly unleashed its breath.

One of the martial artists was careless and got swept up by the cyan energy ball spat out by the dragon. Before he could even scream, he was reduced to nothing.

The other martial artists were wary after witnessing the dragon's strength

Although the dragon's blood and essence were treasures, they would need to live to obtain them.

"Damn it."

Seeing that everyone was retreating, Thomas cursed out.

He had been preparing for a long time to slay the dragon. He refused to give up now that they were so close to killing it. He had to step up and take action first. Only then could he convince the others to follow suit and persuade them to go all out to kill the dragon.

"Sword Storm!"

Thomas roared out

Suddenly, he appeared above the cyan dragon.

He let go of the Malignant Sword, allowing it to float in front of him.

Bzzt!

A loud buzzing sound echoed throughout the sky

A Sword Energy burst out from the Malignant Sword.

One became two, two became four, and four became eight...

In an instant, hundreds of Sword Energies surrounded the Malignant Sword.

“Go.”

Thomas casually waved his hand.

The Malignant Sword dashed toward the dragon below him.

Following the Malignant Sword, the hundreds of Sword Energies also charged at the dragon with immense power.

What

Everyone was shocked by Thomas' signature martial technique.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1772

Chapter 1772

The hundreds of Sword Energies charged toward the dragon with destructive and terrifying power.

Sky squinted his eyes at the sight

He was taken aback by Thomas' Sword Storm. With shock in his eyes, he murmured, “What kind of sword Technique is that?”

Everyone retreated.

Bzzt! Bzzt! Bzzt!

The Sword Energies cut through the sky and made loud sizzling sounds

Rumble!

The Sword Energies struck the cyan dragon's body and exploded, causing its scales to burst open and the dragon to bleed.

The dragon's massive body plummeted from the sky and fell onto a collapsed mountain.

The mountain broke down and submerged into the sea along with the dragon's body.

Suddenly, a stream of water shot up from the sea.

The dragon soared up into the sky once again. It was furious and had crimson eyes. With a dazzling light radiating from its body, it swung its claw at Thomas, and several streaks of cyan light burst out from its claw

Thomas raised the Malignant Sword to resist.

However, his strength was inferior to that of the dragon.

He was blasted away and spurted out a mouthful of blood again.

At that moment, several masked men rushed over to him. They resisted the attacks together but were no match for the dragon and were forced to keep retreating.

Thomas stepped back for a moment and took out an elixir. He consumed it and quickly retreated to a safe area. Then, he shouted, "If we don't make a move now, when are we going to?"

As his voice resounded, Thea immediately struck

Holding the Malevolent Sword, she plunged her sword into the dragon's side with great strength to attract the dragon's attention. The dragon turned around and attacked Thea, relieving the masked men.

Seeing this, the others charged forward and unleashed their signature martial techniques on the cyan dragon.

James also joined in the fight.

He unleashed the unrivaled Fourteen Heavenly Swords.

Thirteen dazzling Sword Energies merged into one potent Sword Energy

The sword slashed the cyan dragon.

However, it merely took off some of the cyan dragon's scales and did not cause substantial damage.

His attack was not as strong as Thomas' Sword Storm.

After James landed his attack, he ran out of energy.

Seeing that he did not deal much damage to the dragon, he touched his nose and murmured, "Although I'm of a higher rank than Grandpa, I'm incapable of dealing as much damage as Grandpa did to the cyan dragon. Grandpa sure has hidden his strength well. "

At that moment, Thomas appeared in front of James and quickly took out a few pills, saying, "These pills can help quickly restore your True Energy. Have them and step aside for now."

"Alright."

James had lost his combat strength and could no longer continue fighting.

He quickly stepped away

After retreating to a safe area, he swallowed the pills.

Immediately, a surge of energy permeated his body and relieved him.

His True Energy rapidly recovered. In just a few minutes, he had recovered about one-tenth of it "Amazing" He could not help but marvel.

While recovering his True Energy, he paid close attention to the battle happening in the distance. Although the dragon was injured, it grew increasingly vicious as the fight played out.

Several martial artists, psychics, and foreign powerhouses had fallen, while others were injured

Thea retreated and appeared before James

Splurt!

She spat out a mouthful of blood.

James quickly approached her and asked, "Are you alright?"

Thea shook her head and said. "It's nothing serious. It's just my churning Blood Energy. The cyan dragon is far too overpowering. Even with so many of us attacking it at the same time, many have died, while those left are injured. If this goes on, I'm afraid our whole squad will be wiped out."

James asked, "Didn't you prepare high-tech weapons?"

"Mhm."

Thea nodded and said, "I'll notify them right away"

As she spoke, she took out her phone and notified the cruise ship's captain.

"Bring the cruise over. Do it quick"

After passing on the order, she stopped to treat her wounds.

Chapter 1773

Soon, her churning blood calmed down.

In the distance, the martial artists were still in a fierce fight with the cyan dragon.

The area surrounding the strait had collapsed and sunk into the sea.

The mountain range around the island had also crumbled into ruins. If the fight continued, the whole island would eventually sink to the bottom of the sea.

Everyone in the battle was injured and at a standstill with the dragon.

There were constant explosions over the sea

Enormous waves kept crashing

A man calmly stood on a mountaintop in the distance.

It was the Prince of Orchid Mountain that had secretly tagged along

Langston mingled on a cruise ship by the island, unbeknownst to the rest of the martial artists.

"I'm afraid this isn't going to work. Although the dragon is injured, it's a tenacious beast with terrifying combat strength. If this continues, everyone here is bound to die," Langston murmured to himself

He knew Thea had prepared high-tech weapons.

However, the cruise ship would become a big target for the dragon's attack if it came close

The cruise could very well be destroyed before the dragon was slaughtered.

Langston fell into thought.

After a while, he took out a mask from his wide sleeve and covered his face.

Swoosh!

With a flash, he disappeared.

Shortly after, he appeared in front of James.

At that moment, James was still trying to recover his True Energy

After consuming the pills from Thomas, his True Energy was being restored rapidly, and he was already halfway to full recovery

"Lend me your sword"

A voice suddenly resounded

James heard the voice and sensed someone approaching Startled, he raised his head and looked at the masked man. He stood up abruptly and asked, "Who are you?"

"That's not important Lend me the Primordial Dragon Bladed."

Langston held a hand out.

James hesitated momentarily

After a while, he tossed the Primordial Dragon Blade to Langston.

Langston caught hold of the sword.

As soon as he grabbed the Primordial Dragon Blade, he could feel the sword repelling him. A powerful force erupted from the sword, almost making him lose his grip.

"Amazing."

Langston never expected the Primordial Dragon Blade to be so potent

He mobilized his True Energy and forcibly suppressed the Primordial Dragon Blade.

At that moment, the sword made a crisp sound.

Swoosh!

Langston held the Primordial Dragon Blade and pointed it to the sky. Suddenly, a blinding Sword Light erupted from the sword.

He subdued the Primordial Dragon Blade with his strength and joined the battle with it.

“What?”

James was shocked by the scene.

“Who’s this man?”

He suddenly remembered the person who showed up on the island not long ago and fought with Wilbur

That man was also capable of suppressing the Primordial Dragon Blade.

He quickly denied the idea after thinking about it for a while.

The two of them had different auras.

“Huff!”

James took a deep breath and murmured. “Unexpectedly, there are many powerful martial artists in Sol. This person can also forcibly wield the Primordial Dragon Blade. It seems he must also be a ninth-ranked grandmaster. But, who exactly is he? The Omniscient Deity or the Prince of Orchid Mountain?”

He pondered about it for a while but could not figure out the person’s identity.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1774

Chapter 1774

James knew about the Omniscient Deity and the Prince of Orchid Mountain.

The Omniscient Deity gave Thea qilin blood, and the Prince of Orchid Mountain gave her phoenix blood.

This was enough for James to know that the two of them were immortals who had lived for at least a thousand years. With the addition of the Blood Race's immortal, quite a few immortals of this world had revealed themselves.

These immortals were all ninth-ranked grandmasters. James was unsure of who the masked man that showed up could be

He watched the battle from a distance

Langston joined the battle. The Primordial Dragon Blade in his hand was a legendary weapon. He appeared in front of the cyan dragon instantly and attacked it rapidly.

The Primordial Dragon Blade plunged into the cyan dragon's body.

Splash!

Immediately, blood splattered from its body.

The cyan dragon was furious.

It roared, and terrifying energy erupted from its body, forcing the Primordial Dragon Blade out of its body.

Even a powerhouse like Langston struggled to resist its energy. His body was pushed back, and his Blood Energy churned. His throat felt warm, and blood surged into his mouth.

He forcefully swallowed the blood.

'Damn it

Langston cursed out in his heart.

The cyan dragon is still so strong despite lacking its tail. I can't fathom how strong it must've been in its prime Langston was shocked.

He had never fought against a dragon before. He had previously fought the Four Holy Beast's Spirit Turtle, but the battle ended in failure

After being forced back, Lanston charged at the dragon again. He unleashed a terrifyingly strong sword technique and appeared behind the cyan dragon's back

He repeatedly swung the sword in his hand.

A series of Sword Energies quickly materialized and slashed the cyan dragon.

Everyone was dazzled by his Sword Energy.

The martial artists retreated to the distance and watched Langston fight the cyan dragon. They were shocked and bewildered by the scene.

“Who’s this person?”

“He’s so strong”

“His sword technique is incredible. I can’t even see his movements clearly.”

The spectators exclaimed.

James watched the fight and heaved a sigh of relief. Then, he murmured, “It’ll be much easier to kill the dragon with the addition of this strong martial artist.”

Langston fought a fierce battle against the cyan dragon

The Primordial Dragon Blade was a fusion of the Primordial Sword and Dragonslayer

The Primordial Sword was specifically forged to kill the phoenix, whereas the Dragonslayer was forged to kill dragons

With two swords fused together, their powers had multiplied, and this single fused sword was invincible. Although the cyan dragon had great defenses, the sword could still pierce its body. The dragon’s body was covered in wounds in just a short moment.

At that moment, Thomas stepped forward and shouted, Fellow martial artists, now’s our chance!”

After shouting, he took the initiative to attack

He appeared behind the dragon and slashed its broken tail with the Malignant Sword

The cyan dragon was furious

The dragon swung its broken tail, and a powerful wave of energy swept at Thomas.

Thomas was slightly careless and was struck by the force. His body plummeted from the sky.

Boom!

Thomas plunged into the sea and did not resurface.

“Grandpa ”

James shouted

He quickly rushed over and jumped into the sea but could not find Thomas.

“What?”

James searched the waters for a while, but Thomas was nowhere to be found. With a puzzled look on his face, he murmured, “What’s he trying to do? Could it be that he wanted to use this as a chance to hide so he could wait for the cyan dragon to be slaughtered and jump out and snatch the spoils?”

James could not find Thomas He started to doubt his grandfather’s intentions.

Soon, he resurfaced.
