

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1775

Chapter 1775

Once James surfaced from the water, Sky appeared before him.

At that moment, Sky's hair was disheveled, and he was covered in injuries with blood dripping from the corners of his lips.

He looked at James and asked, "Where's Thomas?"

James gently shook his head and sighed 7 was too late. Grandpa has already sunk into the bottom of the sea. A shark appeared and swallowed him."

Sky was taken aback for a moment and said, "My condolences."

After offering a word of comfort, Sky left and rejoined the battle

Even though the dragon was injured, it was still powerful. Despite having strong martial artists in the battle, it would be hard to kill the dragon, even with the addition of Langston. If Langston had not joined, the battle's current situation would be much different.

They would have been defeated long ago if Langston had not joined them.

Wilbur watched the fight play out in the distance.

Seeing the fierce battle, the blood in his body began to churn, and the desire to fight rose in his heart.

His dark pupils turned crimson red.

"Ahh!!!" Wilbur roared

Then, he joined the fierce battle against the dragon with his long sword.

With another peerless martial artist joining the fight, the dragon sustained constant injuries.

James was recovering his strength and had not rejoined the battle. He simply watched it from below.

Meanwhile, Thea held on to the Malevolent Sword and exerted the Demonic Sword Art to its limit. Several black Sword Lights struck the cyan dragon's body. At the same time, she unleashed Exalter. Her eighty-one black needles flew around in the air

Exalter, coupled with Murderous Energy, dealt devastating damage to the dragon.

“Roar!!!”

The cyan dragon growled

It opened its mouth and spat out a stream of dragon's breath. A gust of wind instantly swept toward Thea.

The cyan dragon darted toward Thea, and its sharp claws grabbed her.

Thea felt pain all over her body.

She mobilized her strength and struggled but could not break free from the cyan dragon's claws.

“Thea!”

Seeing this scene, James immediately panicked.

He rushed out and appeared under the cyan dragon instantly. Then, he activated the Invincible Body Siddhi and thrust his palm at the dragon's claws with full force.

The cyan dragon felt severe pain and instantly let go of Thea.

Thea's body plummeted from the sky

James quickly sped toward her and caught her. Then, he fled from the battlefield and appeared in a safe place far away.

He placed Thea down on the ground.

At that moment, Thea's body was covered in injuries. Her dress was torn, exposing the bloody wounds on her body.

James immediately took out Crucifier and began to treat her injuries.

After inserting a few needles, Thea's injuries were under control.

“Are you alright?” James asked worriedly.

Thea sat in a lotus position, shook her head, and said, "I was careless. Thank you for saving me in time. Otherwise, I would've been doomed."

"Ahh!!!"

Suddenly, a miserable scream sounded in the distance.

James raised his head and saw an unfamiliar martial artist being bitten by the cyan dragon.

its sharp teeth pierced through the martial artist's body, turning him into a pile of bloody flesh. His remains fell from the sky into the sea and were swallowed by sharks instantly

James was stunned by the gruesome scene.

It was terrifying.

An eighth-ranked grandmaster was slaughtered so easily

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1776

Chapter 1776

An eighth-ranked grandmaster died just like that.

James finally realized the battle's cruelty

The dragon was still full of energy

More people would die if the battle was prolonged.

James did not pay much attention to the battle in the distance. The lives and deaths of these people had nothing to do with him. Instead, he hoped these people would die here so that no one would cause trouble in the future

The world would finally be at peace

He looked at Thea.

Thea was injured by the dragon and had severe wounds all over her body as well as some internal injuries. Fortunately, he had mastered using Crucifier and could help treat Thea's internal injuries.

There were only a few physical injuries left

With Thea's strength, those external injuries would not pose a threat.

“Thea, don’t rush back into the battle. Restore your strength first. According to my estimation, the dragon isn’t going to die any time soon. We can’t predict how many more people will be killed by the dragon. We should save our strength”

With that said, he took out the pill he got from Thomas and handed it to Thea

Thea took the pill and swallowed it

Then, she began to refine the pill to restore her True Energy

James did not stay idle and quickly began to recover his True Energy too.

Rumble!

The fierce battle continued on the distant island.

Swords cut through the sky, and several figures flickered.

The dragon was furious, and it destroyed everything in its way. Mountains were crushed, and boulders exploded due to the force, reduced to rubble.

Langston held the Primordial Dragon Blade and attacked with great speed, causing the other martial artists to watch him in awe

He appeared under the cyan dragon in an instant and slashed the sword.

The sharp Primordial Dragon Blade severed one of the cyan dragon’s claws

The dragon was furious.

It raised its head and spewed out a wave of blue energy

Langston raised the sword and slashed again. A terrifying Sword Energy erupted and scattered the cyan energy wave.

As the cyan energy spread out, he suffered a backlash from the powerful force and was forced backward.

Suddenly, Wilbur appeared above the dragon’s head and pierced his long sword into its head.

The cyan dragon flicked its head and sent Wilbur flying.

In the distance, the Thunder King commanded several psychics to continue throwing long-range attacks at the dragon.

The other martial artists from Sol and international powerhouses continuously looked for opportunities to inflict damage on the dragon. While inflicting damage, they also took out some vessels to collect the dragon's blood where it was wounded.

At this point of the fight, everyone except Thea, James, and Thomas, who was thrown into the sea, had obtained some of the dragon's blood.

The battle had gotten even more intense

In the blink of an eye, half an hour had passed

At that moment, the cruise ship had already shown up around the island but kept a certain distance. "Honey, the cruise ship is here. Should we launch the high-tech weapons?"

After receiving a call from the captain, Thea asked for James' opinion.

James took a look at the battle in the distance. At that moment, the dragon's energy had weakened significantly. There were still many surviving martial artists. None of the people he knew were dead, and the ones dead were either people he did not know or those who had stayed hidden for a long time.

He thought for a while and said. "The dragon is already very weak. It's injured, and its claw has been severed. Its combat strength has declined, so we should be able to kill it without the help of high-tech weapons."

"Alright." Thea nodded.

Then, Thea raised her phone and ordered, "Retreat from the island. Don't get close to the battle area. Be careful not to become the dragon's target."

"Alright

After the captain received the order, he quickly retreated

At that moment, James True Energy had almost fully recovered.

He stood up and watched the fierce battle from a distance.

Suddenly, a martial artist was hit by the force created by the dragon's broken tail. He spurted out a mouthful of blood, and his body flew out like a ball.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1777

James rushed out quickly and caught the martial artist who had been tossed away

James brought him to a safe area, put him down, and asked, "Senior Cabral, are you alright?"

Simon's hair was disheveled, and there was a bloody wound on his arm with blood dripping from it.

His face was pale as he replied, "Damn, that b*stard is hard to kill

After saying that, he prepared to rejoin the battle with his sword in hand.

James quickly tugged him and said, "You should treat your wounds first."

"True."

Simon realized the dragon was about to die soon. He had to quickly treat his wound, recharge his energy, and prepare to snatch the spoils

Bzzt!

Bolts of lightning kept sweeping across the sky.

The Thunder King stood in the distance and constantly generated lightning to attack the cyan dragon's body where its scales had fallen. The dragon's flesh was scorched upon being struck by the lightning.

Langston held the Primordial Dragon Blade and appeared a hundred meters above the cyan dragon's head. He raised the sword, and a terrifying energy emanated from his body. At the same time, the sword dazzled brightly.

He dashed toward the dragon.

A bright Sword Light erupted from the Primordial Dragon Blade and slashed the cyan dragon's neck.

The Sword Light pierced through the cyan dragon's neck.

The cyan dragon's huge head was cut off instantly.

Right before its head was severed, the dragon launched one last attack. It opened its mouth and spat out a black energy ball at Langston.

As the dragon's head fell, Langston was sent flying and spurted out a mouthful of blood. He lost grip of the Primordial Dragon Blade, and it fell from the sky onto the ground.

Boom!

The cyan dragon's corpse also fell from the sky, crushing a mountain range

"Hurray!"

"The dragon is dead!"

"Haha!"

"Finally, the beast is dead!"

After Langston severed the cyan dragon's head, its body fell from the sky, and everyone cheered.

Everyone rushed toward the remains of the dragon

Some went for the body, while some went for the head.

Sky dashed to the dragon's head the fastest. Immediately, he swung his long sword and slashed the dragon's head open.

A ball the size of a basketball flew out instantly.

The ball was cyan and radiated with cyan light.

"Haha! The Dragon Essence is mine!" Sky shouted.

He quickly picked up the Dragon Essence and was about to run away with it, but a masked man suddenly appeared behind him and pierced his body with a long sword.

The masked man also thrust his palm and attacked Sky

Sky's body was sent flying

The masked man picked up the Dragon Essence and held it in his arms. At the same time, two other masked men appeared. The trio stood together and stared cautiously at the people surrounding them.

At the most critical moment, Thomas had appeared

The three masked men looked at him and called out respectfully, "Master."

Thomas approached and looked at the people standing around them. He smiled faintly and said, Everyone, the dragon's body is not far away. The dragon's body is full of miraculous spoils. Moreover, the dragon is already dead and has plenty of fresh blood in its body right now. If you don't collect the blood now, when will you do it? Are you going to let the dragon's blood dry out?

The dragon's blood can grant you immortality.

"You don't have to fight over it. There's a lot of dragon blood to go around.

"The Dragon Essence, on the other hand, belongs to me."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1778

Chapter 1778

Thomas was domineering.

He immediately demanded that he took the Dragon Essence.

"Who do you think you are, Thomas?"

The Thunder King was the first to stand up against him. He raised his hand, and lightning flickered in his palm. He glared at Thomas and threatened, "Who are you to take the Dragon Essence? It belongs to me." As he spoke, several psychics approached and stood behind the Thunder King. They stared at Thomas and the three masked men warily. Once the Thunder King gave the order, they would take action.

"Haha," Thomas chuckled.

He did not take the Thunder King seriously at all

If not because he needed the psychics' strength to kill the dragon, he would have wiped out the Thunder King and the other psychics long ago.

"What's wrong? Do you have objections?"

Thomas looked at the Thunder King with a smile.

"Diel

The Thunder King did not waste any more words. He raised his hand, and a bolt of lightning struck.

Thomas stood rooted in place. He casually waved his hand, and a powerful force came from his sleeves, easily dispersing the lightning.

“Damn it!”

The Thunder King was enraged.

“What’s happening here?”

At that moment, Lanston walked over.

He was wounded, and the mask on his face was knocked off. His appearance was finally visible to all. Although he looked young, his hair was white, and his eyes looked like he had gone through a lot.

Seeing Lanston approaching. Thomas grew fearful.

“Hand it over.”

Langston stretched out his hand.

Thomas, who was holding the Dragon Essence, looked at Langston

He stared at him as he asked, “Who are you?”

“You can call me the Prince of Orchid Mountain,” Langston replied softly.

“What?”

Thomas stepped back upon hearing his introduction.

As a member of the Cadens family, he naturally knew of the Prince of Orchid Mountain.

Moreover, he also practiced the martial art techniques left by the Prince of Orchid Mountain.

At that moment. Thea and James also approached.

Both of them were shocked upon overhearing Langston’s words.

Thea asked surprisedly. “You’re the Prince of Orchid Mountain? Are you the one that gave me the phoenix blood?”

Langston turned to Thea and said with a smile, “You didn’t disappoint me, Thea. I never expected the Four Holy Beasts’ blood to be compatible with you. It took me a hundred years to completely refine the phoenix blood.”

James also curiously looked at Langston.

Was this the master of the Cadens' ancestor?

Langston's body flickered.

Thomas held the Dragon Essence in shock.

Before he could react, Langston appeared before him and quickly snatched the Dragon Essence.

Then, in a flash, Langston returned to his original spot.

Everything happened in the blink of an eye.

Seeing Langston holding the basketball-sized Dragon Essence, everyone was disappointed. Since it had fallen into a peerless martial artist's hands, it would be difficult for them to snatch it.

Langston held the Dragon Essence and said, "I'm not selfish. Thus, everyone will have a share of the Dragon Essence."

As he spoke, he casually waved his hand.

The Primordial Dragon Blade that fell in the distance flew over. He grabbed the sword and slashed the Dragon Essence.

The Dragon Essence was shattered from one piece into more than twenty pieces in an instant.

Everyone leaped into the air to snatch a piece for themselves.

James and Thea also obtained one each.

Langston took two pieces. After putting them away, he walked toward the dragon's corpse, sliced it, and collected some blood. Then, he turned around to leave.

The others also rushed to collect the dragon's blood.

At that moment, Maxine arrived at the scene.

She held some vessels in her hand and handed them to James, saying, "James, go collect some blood."

James looked at Maxine and nodded. "Alright."

He took the vessels Maxine had handed him and started collecting the dragon's blood.

The dragon was enormous, and although it was dead, it was still full of fresh blood, so everyone could obtain a satisfactory amount of it

James collected a whole bucket of blood.

The bucket was made of a unique material.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1779

Chapter 1779

Thus, the dragon's blood would not coagulate after being sealed.

After getting the dragon's blood, James turned his attention to the dragon's scales.

The dragon's scales had powerful defensive quality. He could use it to make clothes and resist attacks from peerless martial artists.

The other martial artists also began to collect other dragon spoils.

Dragon meat, dragon bones.

Soon, the dragon's spoils were completely divided among the martial artists

Thea was relieved that the martial artists did not get into a fierce battle after slaying the dragon.

James looked at Wilbur on the ruined island and wrote on the ground-Do you want to come back to Sol with me?

After seeing what James wrote, Wilbur shook his head slightly and wrote on the ground-Forget it. I don't want to leave. I'm used to living alone. I don't like crowds and like the quietness here

James wrote again-After we leave, I'm afraid no one else will ever come to this island. Are you sure you don't want to come with me?

Wilbur shook his head, turned around, and left.

James did not insist

After everyone had acquired what they wanted, they headed back to the cruise ship.

The cruise ship slowly began its journey back to Cansington.

Sky sat pensively in his room on the cruise ship.

Before he set out, his teacher had ordered him to kill everyone.

However, it was difficult for him to make a move now that Langston, a powerful martial artist, was on board

Langston was also the reason a fierce battle did not break out after the dragon was killed. Otherwise, Sky would have been able to secretly get rid of everyone.

He sat on the bed and began thinking of a plan.

He needed to come up with a plan to kill all the overseas martial artists.

However, after thinking for a while, he had nothing

1 can only bomb the cruise ship.”

Sky’s face darkened.

Blowing up the cruise ship was the only option left.

He quietly left his room. He wanted to head to the bottom of the cruise ship. He planned to blow up the ship and leave on a boat.

Upon walking out of his room, he found Thomas standing outside his door.

Thomas looked at him and smiled. “What are you trying to do, Sky? I’m warning you not to play any tricks”

Sky smiled and said, “Why would I? I’m just bored inside my room and want to head for a walk.”

“Is that so?”

Thomas stepped closer and quickly tapped Sky’s acupoints.

Since Sky was indeed guilty, he was startled and not prepared for Thomas’ sudden movements. Thus, he could not react in time.

“You”

Sky’s expression darkened.

Thomas picked Sky up and threw him on the bed inside the room. Then, he said calmly, “Your acupoints will be unsealed when we reach Cansington Until then, just stay here.”

After Thomas finished speaking, he turned to leave

He knew that Sky would not stay idle and was probably planning to do something in secret

He had been watching Sky since they boarded the cruise ship

Meanwhile, James, Thea, and Maxine were in another room

Both James and Thea had obtained a piece of the Dragon Essence

Since Langston smashed the Dragon Essence into more than twenty pieces, even Maxine, who arrived late, obtained one

In addition, James also acquired a large bucket of dragon blood, meat, bones, and scales

On the other hand, the other martial artists divided the various dragon remains.

As for who took what, James did not know

“This is the Dragon Essence?”

James looked at the Dragon Essence in his hand.

The piece he obtained was only the size of a baby’s fist The Dragon Essence was cyan and shone with cyan glow

“This thing is capable of increasing one’s cultivation base?” James murmured

Thea replied. “Mhm Yeah. The Dragon Essence can indeed increase one’s cultivation base”

“Then, it’s useless to me. My current cultivation base has reached its limit If I want to improve it, I’ll have to break through to the ninth rank”

James thought he was invincible in this world.

After seeing the ninth-ranked grandmasters, he realized he was nowhere close to invincible.

He knew his cultivation base could be improved, but he was at his limit for the time being unless he broke through to the ninth rank

Thus, he would have to enter the ninth rank to improve his cultivation base.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1780

Chapter 1780

The Dragon Essence was temporarily useless to him since he had no idea when he would be able to enter the ninth rank

It could take ten years, maybe decades, or he might not even enter the rank after a hundred Meanwhile, Maxine was ecstatic.

She never expected to hold onto a piece of the Dragon Essence.

With her strength, she was incapable of fighting for the Dragon Essence. However, Langston's actions allowed her to get a share of the pie. Although the piece she grabbed was smaller than James' and Thea's, she was still satisfied.

The Dragon Essence could significantly improve her cultivation.

At the very least, she would enter the eighth rank.

"Honey, what's next after we return to Cansington?"

Thea leaned into James, held his hand, and snuggled into his arms, not forgetting to cast a proud look at Maxine

Her expression seemed to be showing off to Maxine that James was hers and that no matter how hard Maxine tried, she could never have James

James said with a smile, "Since you've recovered, I've no other goals. After returning to Cansington, let's find a place no one knows about and live a normal life."

James had already thought it through

He wanted to live in seclusion since this world's affairs had nothing to do with him.

"Mhm."

Thea beamed with a bright smile.

Maxine did not say anything and sensibly left the room

Meanwhile, the Meranian Psychics gathered in another room.

Three of the psychics sat together.

Eight of them left for this island, but only three of them survived. They were the Thunder King, the beautiful and sexy Linna, and a Caucasian man who looked about forty years old.

His name was Fernando Oliver.

He was the other Meranian Psychics deputy captain,

His strength was not inferior to Linna's

He was pretty strong, considering he survived the battle

The weak ones were slaughtered by the dragon.

"Captain."

Fernando looked at the Thunder King solemnly and said. "Are you just going to let the ancient martial artists of Sol return with all the dragon's spoils? After they return and refine the dragon's blood and essence, it wouldn't take long for Sol to become the strongest country. When that happens, we're going to be restricted and suppressed."

The Thunder King said helplessly, "What am I supposed to do? We've suffered heavy losses, and only three of us survived. Meanwhile, there are plenty of strong Solean martial artists that survived. I thought Thea was the strongest, but unexpectedly, several more martial artists stronger than her showed up."

"Yeah. The Solean martial artists displayed great strength in the fight against the dragon. It would be difficult for us to kill them now," said Linna

"Are we just going to let it end like this?"

Fernando looked reluctant to give up.

The Thunder King took a deep breath and said, "Forget it. We should be thankful they aren't attacking us. Besides, we've gained quite a lot of benefits this time. After returning, we can train in seclusion and recruit ancient martial artists. Once we become ancient martial artists ourselves, coupled with our psychic abilities, we can regain power over them."

Initially, the Thunder King wanted to wipe out the ancient martial artists.

However, the ancient martial artists showed great strength, and he had no confidence in winning a fight against them.

The cruise ship quickly sailed back to Cansington

Many martial artists were injured after the fierce battle against the dragon.

After boarding the cruise ship, they all began treating their injuries in their rooms. At the same time, they were on guard and were cautious of the other ancient martial artists in case of any ambushes.

Three days passed in the blink of an eye.

After three days, the cruise ship docked at Cansington's dock.

As soon as the cruise ship came to a stop, the ancient martial artists did not bother bidding farewell to each other and quickly left with the spoils they had obtained
