

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1836

Chapter 1836

James visited the Omniscient Deity to get some information about the Void Sect.

He never expected the Omniscient Deity to reveal these secrets to him.

The recovery of Spiritual Energy, the drastic changes in the world...all of these were beyond what he could have imagined.

However, now that he had crossed into the ninth rank and was in contact with the Empyrean Spiritual Energy, he was able to accept these.

Even creatures like dragons had appeared. What else could he not accept?

The Omniscient Deity continued, "The four seals. During these years, I've collected three of them. There's still one more seal to go."

As he said this, he took out the three seals and gave them to James.

James was surprised and said, "Why are you giving them to me?"

'Take them.'

"Okay."

James took them and examined them in his hands.

Three seals, three different colors. The seals were plain, just like regular seals.

James examined them for a while but found nothing noteworthy.

The Omniscient Deity said, 'The last seal is in the hands of the Prince of Orchid Mountain. It's actually the Imperial Jade Seal that is in his possession. After gathering the four seals, take them to Mount Bane, find the four-sided diagram, place them in it, and the seal will be released completely.'

"Are we really going to release the seal?" James looked hesitant.

The Omniscient Deity said that after the seal was opened, the world would go through significant changes. As to how things would turn out in the end, even he was unsure of that. On the other hand, he also said that this might be a disaster for humankind.

“It must be released.” The Omniscient Deity’s face was solemn. He said, “Because humans will then have an advantage. Even if it is not released, the seal will gradually weaken. In a hundred years at most, the seal will be completely broken.

“The appearance of the Void Sect confirms this. If my assumption is correct, they are probably also looking for the four seals. They want to release the seal completely and get a significant head start.”

“James...”

“Yes, Lord Omniscient. I’m listening.”

The Omniscient Deity said gravely, “Once the seal is released, the Earth will definitely change. Whether humans can survive in the end times will be determined by the current generation of ancient martial artists. This crop of ancient martial artists is the leader of humanity. In the future, humanity will be completely reliant on this group of people.

“They’ll have to fight against foreigners, mutated beasts, and the harsh environment of the world. If they’re defeated, all humans will become extinct on Earth. Do you understand?”

The Omniscient Deity was speaking solemnly.

James scratched his head and said, “It’s not that serious, is it?”

“No.” The Omniscient Deity corrected, “It’ll be much more serious than that.”

He looked at James and said sternly, “You have great potential. Now, you’ve reached the ninth rank, just as the world is about to experience a major change. You need to seize the opportunity. In the end times, taking over control of territories will be the most important thing. Right now, your words carry the most weight in Sol. Build city walls and establish forts. All of these are necessary.

“In the future, many vicious beasts will appear.

“Currently, the vast majority of humans are ordinary people. They need you to step up.”

In recent years, James had paid little attention to the outside world. He had long since ceased to be the Dragon King of Sol.

The weight of responsibility that the Omniscient Deity was now heaping upon him made him feel a little suffocated.

He looked at the Omniscient Deity and asked, “What do you need me to do?”

The Omniscient Deity said, "In the future, food is very important. What you need to do now is seize control of Sol in the shortest amount of time, use the Capital as your base of operations, and construct forts, moats, and city walls. Aside from that, reserve food.

"There are far too many humans. We don't have time to take everyone into account. It's fine to just make sure Sol is safe. As long as Soleans can survive in the end times, humanity will be able to progress."

After he said that, the Omniscient Deity let out a sigh.

"I've kept these things hidden in my heart for so many years. For so many years, I've wished for someone to truly reach the ninth rank, so they could share a little of my burden.

"Suddenly, you showed up.

"With your help, I'm under much less pressure."

The Omniscient Deity spoke extensively.

He spoke of some things about the end times.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1837

Chapter 1837

They talked about what needed to be done right now.

"If you had taken too long to reach the ninth rank, I would have had to find a way to steal the seal from the Prince of Orchid Mountain and go release the seal. After the seal is released, I would have quickly taken over Sol and ensured the safety of Soleans.

"Now that you've reached the ninth rank, there's no rush to open the seal. We'll first stabilize Sol.

"Alright. I understand."

James nodded. He did not think the Omniscient Deity was joking.

Based on the small mysterious plant he had obtained, he could already be sure that the Omniscient Deity was telling the truth.

"Unknown humans, unknown vicious beasts, unknown world..." James muttered.

Currently, he was also a little excited about it. He was looking forward to opening the seal and fighting against many more powerful martial artists.

Nonetheless, Thea was still the most important right now.

He should first head to Mount Bane, fight with the martial artist from the Void Sect, and learn more about the Void Sect's inner workings.

James returned the three seals to the Omniscient Deity and said, "Hold on to these three seals first, Lord Omniscient. After I rescue Thea, I'll go to the Prince of Orchid Mountain and ask him for the Imperial Jade Seal he has in his possession."

The Omniscient Deity put them away once again.

James did not stay any longer and left Mount Jade in a hurry.

After he left, the Omniscient Deity stood up with a solemn expression on his face. "Four Holy Beasts, Four Calamities. The Four Calamities have yet to arrive. Even if all four seals are gathered, the seal will not open. The Four Calamities, what are they exactly?"

The Omniscient Deity's expression was grave.

He had told James about a lot of things, but there were still some things he had yet to say.

The Four Holy Beasts came from the Sealed Realm and would bring about the Four Calamities. Each of the Four Holy Beasts would cause a calamity.

The Spirit Turtle and the dragon were already dead at this time. However, the calamities had yet to appear.

Initially, he thought that the Spirit Turtle would cause Thea to suffer from energy deviation, and Thea would become one of the calamities. However, Thea had not yet caused too much carnage.

Therefore, his assumption was incorrect.

He took a deep breath and put it out of his mind.

Since the Empyrean Spiritual Energy had already returned and the Void Sect from the Sealed Realm had appeared, it was clear that the Four Calamities were approaching.

Now, he just had to continue to wait, patiently.

After James left Mount Jade, he made his way to Mount Bane without stopping.

Mount Bane was located on the border of Sol and Malgudi. It was a mountain range with an elevation of over seven thousand meters. The top of the mountain was covered in snow all year round.

After two days, James appeared at the foot of Mount Bane.

“He finally showed up. I’m so excited about the fight between James and the Void Sect’s martial artists.”

In the distance, a number of people had gathered.

Bennett from the Caden family.

Donovan from the Blithe family.

Spirit Master from the Heaven and Earth Sect.

Master Maha from the Sylvan Sect.

Simon, Jackson, and Delainey from Mount Thunder Sect.

Callan, Thomas, the First Blood Emperor, Sky.

Thunder King from the Kingdom of Merania, Zekiel from the Polaris Sect, and others.

Almost all of the world’s notable martial artists were in attendance.

Everyone’s gazes were fixed on James.

When James saw that there were so many people, he was taken aback, but he soon walked over to greet them with a smile.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1838

“James, you’re finally here.”

Callan was the first to approach him. He greeted him and asked, “Oh, right. You went to Mount Jade to ask the Omniscient Deity about the origins of the Void Sect. Did you get any answers?”

James’ expression turned solemn. He did indeed get answers.

However, the origin of the Void Sect was far too complex. If he revealed it, it would definitely cause an uproar. Otherwise, the Omniscient Deity would not have kept it a secret for so long.

“I’ve learned some things about it, but I’m still not sure.”

“What’s their origin?” Callan’s interest was piqued.

The others all looked at James.

James said with a smile, “Actually, there’s nothing much about it. It’s just a sect that stayed hidden for many years. They’ve been around for over two thousand years and have always kept a low profile. After the dragon was killed and many powerful martial artists emerged, the Void Sect came into existence.”

James made something up carelessly. Even though he trusted the Omniscient Deity, these things were not proven. He planned to first investigate the inner workings of the Void Sect.

Once he was absolutely certain, he would consult with someone else.

He made his way up the mountain, and the others trailed behind.

Mount Bane was a main mountain range. There was no one living there.

There was a lot of vegetation along the way and hardly any path. However, to a skilled martial artist, this was nothing. James ascended the mountain at a very fast pace.

After walking for a short while, he saw some buildings. They were very typical and made of wood.

As soon as James appeared, he drew the attention of the Void Sect. Several Void Sect disciples appeared immediately and blocked his path.

With a calm expression, James looked at the several Void Sect disciples who were standing in his path and said, “I just want to make sure Thea is safe right now.”

“Wait here. I’ll make a report.”

After saying that, one of the Void Sect disciples turned to leave and walked toward the building behind them.

Meanwhile, behind the building, Kaj was with an elder.

The elder wore a grey robe and had long hair. He was very old, with a white beard and wrinkles on his face.

“Sir,” Kaj, who was dressed in a golden robe and had long silver hair, regarded the elder with a respectful face.

“Is it true that after gathering the four seals, the seal can be opened sooner?”

“Mhm, it’s true.” The elder nodded. “The four seals were from ancient times. Over two thousand years ago, someone used the four seals to open the seal by force and entered the Sealed Realm. That’s what caused the Sealed Realm to loosen.”

“How long will it take for the seal to break completely without the four seals?” asked Kaj.

The elder pondered for a while and said, “At most, a thousand years. At least, a hundred years.”

He looked at Kaj and said, “This is an opportunity for the Void Sect. We must find the four seals and open the seal as soon as possible in order to seize the opportunity and get a head start. Then, in the future, we’ll be able to stand on top of the pyramid.”

“However, we’ve also been going around challenging ancient martial artists from Earth recently. Earth’s ancient martial artists are all relatively weak. No one was using the four seals either. We’re not even sure who has the four seals right now.”

Kaj’s looked puzzled.

According to the Void Sect’s understanding, the four seals could open the seal. Besides that, the four seals were also terrifying weapons. Every seal contained a frightening power. However, only martial artists in the ninth rank or above could use the four seals.

Right now, according to the Void Sect’s understanding, in Sol and even the entire Earth, only a few people had reached the ninth rank. The Void Sect had now challenged martial artists from all over the world. Only the Prince of Orchid Mountain, the Omniscient Deity, and the Blood Race’s ninth-rank grandmasters had yet to be challenged.

If the four seals were indeed on Earth, they were almost certainly in the hands of one of these people.

Then, a disciple walked over and knelt down on one knee.

“Sir, Mr. Waseem. James has arrived. We’ve stopped him outside, but he wants to make sure Thea is safe.”

After hearing that, Kaj turned around and looked at the person who was kneeling on the ground and said, "Alright, I understand. Let Thea go outside. The time of the fight remains the same."

Chapter 1839

"Yes."

The disciple turned around and left.

Kaj eventually said, "Sir, James is the only person who has defeated a Void Sect disciple. Before locating the four seals, we want to be in control of Earth. We must establish our reputation. I brought James' wife to Mount Bane to force James to show himself. They won't be willing to respect and follow us until we openly and honestly defeat James and every martial artist on Earth."

"Mhm." The elder nodded and said, "I trust in your abilities. I'll give you ten years of time. Find the four seals. At the same time, take full control of Earth. Once Earth is completely unified, it will be the time to open the seal."

After saying that, he stood up. There was a hint of greed in his expression.

"In the future, the world will belong to the Void Sect.

'The one who opens the seal will get the world's blessing and a great opportunity. Kaj, I have high hopes for you. As long as you collect the four seals and open the seal, you'll immediately receive the blessing of the earth and sky and grow rapidly.'

'Thank you, Sir.' Kaj's expression was equally passionate. He knew about the seal.

Earth had been sealed in ancient times.

What was sealed was the Earth's space. Inside the seal was the Emyrean Spiritual Energy, the Earth's Primordial Energy.

Once the seal was opened, the Emyrean Spiritual Energy would erupt and spread from Mount Bane to the entire Earth.

The person who opened the seal would receive a gift from the world.

'There's not much time left.' The elder lamented, 'The news about the Earth's seal coming loose has already spread. We must quickly locate the four seals and open the seal before the other races arrive. Otherwise, someone else will seize our opportunity.'

“Yes, Sir. I’ll pick up the pace.”

“Alright, you may leave.”

“Yes.”

Kaj then turned around and left.

Meanwhile, on Mount Bane, outside some wooden houses...

James was waiting.

Behind him were the strongest martial artists on Earth. They were all here to witness the excitement. Aside from that, they were hoping that James would be able to defeat the martial artist from the Void Sect.

After a short while, several people appeared.

A few Void Sect disciples were approaching with a beautiful, pregnant woman.

“James...”

Thea walked over and noticed James, her face beaming.

James took long strides forward as well and took Thea’s hands. With a concerned face, he asked, ‘Thea, did anything happen to you?’

“Why could possibly happen?” said Thea with a smile.

With a contrite expression, James said, “I’m sorry. I didn’t stay beside you, that’s why you...”

Thea stopped him in time and cut him off, saying, “I said I’m fine.”

Thea was fine, and James felt relieved. Thea, however, was starting to get anxious.

“Honey, are you really going to fight with the Void Sect?”

“Mhm.” James nodded and said, “There’s a lot of things you don’t know. Right now, you should first head back to Cansington. After I’ve fought the Void Sect, I’ll come back to you and tell you some things that I’ve learned in detail.”

“What is it? You can’t tell me now?”

“I can’t.” James shook his head.

These things were too bizarre.

If he talked about it right now, it would cause a commotion and the world would probably be in chaos.

He must be thoroughly prepared for this. At the very least, he should make sure Sol was not in disarray before the end times. He must ensure the safety of Soleans.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1840

Chapter 1840

James wanted Thea to return to Cansington first since it was too dangerous here.

However, Thea did not want to go back.

“I’ll wait for you, Honey. When you’ve defeated the people from the Void Sect, I’ll go back to Cansington with you.”

After giving it some thought, James decided that since he would be here to look after Thea, it would be fine for her to stay.

“Alright.”

Following that, James waited there for a few days.

Soon, it was the day of the fight. As promised, the fight between James and the Void Sect would take place today.

It was daybreak.

James was sitting in the lotus position on the mountaintop of Mount Bane. He was absorbing the Emyrean Spiritual Energy and turning it into his own True Energy.

During these past few days, many more martial artists had come to Mount Bane. The total number of people, both young and old, was around ten thousand.

These ten thousand people were the cornerstone of the current ancient martial arts world.

The sun was gradually rising. James stopped cultivating and stood up from the ground.

In the distance, there were some simple wooden buildings. Right then, a dozen of people appeared in front of the wooden houses.

In the last few days, James also learned that there were not a lot of Void Sect disciples. In total, there were less than twenty people.

However, these twenty people were all extremely powerful. The weakest of them was at the Ninth Stair of the Skyward Stairway. There were even a number of people who had entered the rank of Half-Saint.

As for the ninth rank?

James knew little about that. The only thing he could be certain of was that Kaj was a ninth-rank grandmaster.

Whoosh!

Under the watchful gaze of many, a man with long silver hair and dressed in a golden robe leaped and appeared mid-air in front of the wooden house. He hovered in mid-air and looked at James, who was at the summit of the mountain ahead.

James looked at him as well.

Their eyes locked.

James could see contempt in Kaj's eyes. Kaj could not care less about him.

"James..." Kaj began to speak, his voice resonating throughout the area.

"During this time, the Void Sect has challenged ancient martial artists all over the world. Except for the several ninth-rank grandmasters who were not challenged, nearly all of the world's ancient martial artists were defeated. You're the only person who has defeated a Void Sect disciple.

"I invited you to a fight on Mount Bane because I wanted to let you know that the most powerful sect in this world is actually the Void Sect. Before we start the fight, let me clarify some things.

"First, this is not a typical fight. This is a death match. During the fight, either you'll kill me or I'll kill you.

"Besides that, you can admit defeat. After you admit your defeat, you'll be my servant and do my bidding."

Kaj's voice rang out from the sky, echoing in the ears of many martial artists.

"Disgusting." Thea's expression immediately changed. She snapped, "Why is this person like this? This wasn't what he said before."

Thomas grabbed Thea just in time and tried to persuade her, 'Thea, stay calm. It's possible that James won't lose.'

"But Sir Caden, this is the Void Sect." Thea's face was filled with concern.

Callan stepped forward as well and said, "I believe in James too. He might not end up losing."

Other martial artists also began to discuss.

"This Kaj person is the senior disciple of the Void Sect. The other Void Sect disciples are already so powerful. As the senior disciple, he must be extremely powerful. If I guess correctly, Kaj is a ninth-rank grandmaster."

'With such confidence, he must be in the ninth rank.'

"I wonder how strong James is right now."

"Keep watching and you'll find out."

Quite a few people began to discuss.

Far away, in the area the Mount Thunder Sect was...

Currently, the head of Mount Thunder Sect was Simon.

"Grand Patriarch, do you think James will win?" asked Delainey, a hint of worry on her face.

Simon shook his head slightly and said, "I'm not sure. However, since James dared to show up, he must have been confident in his abilities. Let's be patient and keep watching."
