

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1881

Chapter 1881

Wilbert was severely injured and covered with wounds. His head was bleeding, and it caused his face to be covered in blood. Even his hair was messy.

However, he showed no fear.

As a person of the Void Sect from the Sealed Realm, he was not afraid of earthlings.

He was not afraid of death.

Even peerless powerhouses could not escape death in life.

Immortality?

Who could really live forever?

No one was really capable of living forever.

‘You’re at the brink of death, but you’re still acting so stubborn. I’d like to see if you’d still refuse to speak,’ Sky threatened coldly.

Then, he thrust his long sword.

His long sword pierced into one of the Void Sect’s disciples, who was sitting by the side. He retracted his sword, and blood splattered.

“Haha. You all are going to die soon...”

The disciple who was stabbed shouted.

After Sky stabbed the disciple, he made another palm attack on his forehead. His forehead bled, and he fell to the ground, losing all signs of life.

Sky made very decisive and lethal attacks.

There were many ancient martial artists from Earth, but none stepped out to stop him.

The Void Sect was from the Sealed Realm and came to Earth with evil intentions.

Showing them mercy would be shooting themselves in the foot.

The other Void Sect’s disciples glared at Sky with bloodshot eyes.

If their eyes could kill, Sky would have died many times over.

After Sky killed a disciple of the Void Sect, he looked at Wilbert nonchalantly and said coldly, "I'm giving you one last chance. If you don't talk, I'll kill another person. If you continue to refuse to provide me with answers, I'll keep killing until no one is left."

Wilbert's eyes were bloodshot, and he gritted his teeth, making him look ferocious and horrifying.

James knew what would happen next, so he refused to stay in the room any longer. He turned around and walked out.

He stood at the mountaintop and inspected Mount Bane's surroundings. Desolate screams came from the room behind him and continued to resound one after another.

James knew Sky was torturing the Void Sect's disciples.

He stayed outside for a while before reentering the room.

All of the Void Sect's disciples were dead in the room, leaving only Wilbert alive.

Even though Sky had killed all of the Void Sect's disciples, Wilbert did not say a word and kept his mouth shut.

Ultimately, Sky did not hold back and ruthlessly murdered Wilbert.

After Wilbert fell to the ground, many people returned to their senses. Thomas stood up and said, "What have you done, Sky? How could you kill them all? You didn't even leave one. Now that all of them are dead, where will we find out how to open the seal?"

Sky glanced at Thomas and said, "This old man watched his disciples' tragic deaths but refused to budge. If I didn't kill him, are we supposed to leave a possible threat to us in the future?"

Sky was decisive.

He killed every one of the Void Sect's disciples.

Sky showed no hesitation to kill others.

A martial artist asked, "What should we do now?"

"We don't even know what the Sealed Realm is and won't be able to obtain more information now that the Void Sect's members are dead. Since they could come to Earth, more powerful people from the Sealed Realm will surely appear in the future."

‘Yeah.’

“What do we do now?”

Everyone began to discuss.

James looked at Tyrus and asked, “Uncle, what should we do now?”

Many people’s eyes turned to Tyrus and waited for his answer.

Some people also asked the Blood Race’s opinion.

The strongest people present were the Blood Race’s Grand Patriarch and Tyrus.

Since ancient times, strong people were respected and had the right to make decisions.

Kaiden of the Blood Race replied, “I don’t know anything about the Sealed Realm. Since James knew about its existence, he must know more about it. You should be asking him.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1882

Chapter 1882

Hearing this, many people cast their gazes at James.

James shrugged, expressing that he had no idea too.

Tyrus stepped forward and said, “From my understanding, the Sealed Realm is located on Mount Bane, and the Void Sect came to Earth through the sealed gateway. We should find and guard the seal blocking off the Sealed Realm. If outsiders come through the sealed gateway to Earth, we’ll kill them without mercy.”

James stood up and ordered, “Mhm. Everyone, search the area and find the seal’s location.”

Everyone dispersed and began to search Mount Bane.

Although Mount Bane was vast, the unknown mountains that appeared were restricted and blocked off.

There were very few mountains they could search.

Thus, it would be easy for them to find the seal.

Soon, the seal's location was identified.

It was located in an empty area on Mount Bane's peak.

In the center of the area was an altar.

The altar was bizarre and was made with loess. The Grand Extremity and Eight Trigram were engraved on the altar.

Around the Grand Extremity and Eight Trigram, there were four mysterious stone carvings.

James stood at a distance and inspected the carving.

He remembered that the Omniscient Deity had mentioned the four keys had to be placed on the four-sided diagram to open the seal.

"Is this the seal?" James murmured doubtfully.

He walked over and stood in the center of the altar.

James squatted down and looked at the messy soil on the altar. He attempted to pick up the soil but could not do so. He was surprised.

"What a strange place."

Everyone gathered around the altar and scrutinized the four-sided diagram carved on the altar. They began to discuss it for a while but could not figure it out.

James also carefully inspected the altar.

The place was unusual, and the Emyrean Spiritual Energy was abundant.

James could sense Emyrean Spiritual Energy continuously oozing out from the altar into their atmosphere and dispersing into all parts of the Earth.

He was sure the altar was the source of the Earth's Emyrean Spiritual Energy. James approached Tyrus.

Seeing that Tyrus was also inspecting the altar, he could not help asking, "Uncle, have you found anything?"

Tyrus shook his head slightly and said, "I haven't grasped anything yet. How am I supposed to understand it when it's a seal that has existed since ancient times?"

“What did Grandfather go to do? If he were here, he would’ve been able to find some clues.”

Tyrus replied, “Father has gone to slaughter the phoenix.”

“What?” James was taken aback.

Kill the phoenix?

Tyrus said hushedly, “My father already guessed that the Void Sect had come from the Sealed Realm. In the future, there may be more martial artists appearing on Earth. The phoenix’s blood grants one immortality, so Father has gone to slay it to prevent its blood from falling into the hands of Outsiders.”

“Isn’t one already immortal after reaching the ninth rank? Does reaching this rank not grant one immortality?”

Tyrus smiled and explained, “The ninth-rank being called Immortality is just a title. If ninth-ranked grandmasters were immortal, there must’ve been people who’d reached the rank in Sol’s thousands of years of history. However, why aren’t there any immortals?”

Those who reached the rank had a much longer lifespan than ordinary martial artists, but there was an upper Limit.

He continued to explain, “The blood of the Four Holy Beasts can grant immortality, but not all of them. Apart from the Spirit Turtle’s blood, the dragon, phoenix, and qilin’s blood can give one immortality.

“And it’s highly likely the Omniscient Deity had slaughtered the qilin.

“Right now, only the phoenix is alive. Father has learned about the injured phoenix’s whereabouts from King Quavon’s Mausoleum, which is why he rushed overseas right after the changes began taking place on Mount Bane.”

James asked, “Why can’t the Spirit Turtle’s blood grant one immortality? It’s also one of the Four Holy Beasts.”

Tyrus expression became solemn after hearing the question.

“From my understanding, the Four Holy Beasts came from the Sealed Realm. Their blood is supposed to be gentle, but the Spirit Turtle’s blood is bizarre. King Quavon left a message that Earth’s ancestors left the Four Holy Beasts as a gift to their descendants. They did it so Earth's martial artists would become stronger. However, people from the Sealed Realm interfered and caused the Four Holy Beasts to go through the Four Calamities."

"Huh?" James was stunned

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1883

Chapter 1883

Unfortunately, Tyrus was not sure what the so-called Four Calamities were.

This was the information left by King Quanvon in his mausoleum.

Tyrus only knew human ancestors on Earth left the Four Holy Beasts, which seemed connected to ancestry conflicts and disputes. However, the Outsiders had tampered with them.

Tyrus explained the things he knew.

James had never heard of these things before and was surprised.

The Omniscient Deity was right. In reality, the Earth they knew was just a fraction of the whole world.

After the two chatted for a while, they continued to study the altar and the four-sided diagram on Mount Bane.

The diagram was strange. From a distance, it looked to be in the shape of the Four Holy Beasts, but a portion was missing.

Bzzt!

Just when everyone was inspecting the altar, a sizzling sound came from it.

Shortly after, a dazzling light burst out from the altar.

Everyone was startled and quickly retreated to the distance.

They stood afar and closely watched the changes in the altar.

The altar boomed with light.

Then, it began to spin.

As it moved, a void appeared in the sky.

The void looked as if someone had split open the sky with a sword.

As the gap formed, everyone saw the mountains, rivers, and lands inside the void.

woosh!

Suddenly, several figures flashed out of the void.

The altar came to a stop.

Several unexpected visitors appeared on Mount Bane.

Everyone drew their weapons, prepared to face the enemies.

Five people appeared.

A charismatic young woman with exquisite features and fair skin, about one hundred and eighty centimeters tall, stood in the lead. She wore a purple dress and a purple flower crown and held a long sword.

James recognized one of the people following her.

It was the Void Sect's senior disciple, Kaj.

Apart from him, James did not know the rest.

The woman hovered about Mount Bane and inspected the people before her.

Standing behind her, Kaj's face became solemn upon seeing the people in front of them.

He whispered, "Grand Priestess Juniper, the Earth's martial artists being here means they've already attacked, and our sect's disciples sent to guard this place have already been killed."

The woman in a purple dress was the Void Sect's Grand Priestess.

The Grand Priestess had a high status in Void Sect, only second to the Sect Leader.

Her name was Juniper Waseem.

She held great strength.

None of the seniors were on par with her in the Sealed Realm where she came from.

Even in the Void Sect, she was only inferior to the Sect Leader and a few elders.

The Earth's martial artists stared at the few unexpected visitors on Mount Bane.

James gripped the Primordial Dragon Blade and whispered, "Uncle, they don't have good intentions."

Tyrus gestured for James to not act recklessly.

Juniper stepped off the altar and looked at everyone.

Her eyes were crystal clear, and a faint smile appeared on her beautiful face. It looked as if she were harmless, but everyone's blood ran cold upon meeting her eyes. Her gaze was like a cold abyss, and it made them shiver.

Kaj followed behind the Grand Priestess and glared at James and the others in front of them, asking coldly, "Where are our sect's disciples?"

"I killed them."

There was no fear in Sky's eyes as he looked at the people that appeared.

So what if they came from the Sealed Realm? No matter how strong they were, there were only a few of them. He did not believe the few of them could pose a threat.

"What?"

Hearing this, Kaj's face darkened.

"Your Holiness, please kill these sinners and avenge our disciples."

Juniper's expression remained calm, showing neither joy nor sorrow. It was hard to tell what was on her mind.

She slowly stepped forward in a graceful manner

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1884

Chapter 1884

She looked ethereal as her dress swayed and her long hair fluttered.

'You killed our sect's disciples?'

Juniper glanced at the crowd. She spoke nonchalantly but emanated a domineering aura.

'Yeah, so what?'

Holding onto his long sword, Sky's face darkened as he replied, "You're on Earth right now, not the Sealed Realm. You better be powerful if you dare to cause trouble on Earth."

After speaking, Sky's body flickered, and he charged at Juniper rapidly.

Juniper remained calm.

Before Sky's attack could land. Juniper gently raised her hand and swung her sleeves. A powerful force swept forward and blasted Sky away.

Boom!

His body fell in the distance and slammed into the ground, causing dust to billow up into the sky.

"What?"

The Earth's martial artists were shocked.

Even James had a solemn look.

He knew Sky was a ninth-ranked grandmaster.

Although he did not break through the rank through his own efforts and could not sense

Empyrean Spiritual Energy, he still possessed a ninth-ranked grandmaster's strength.

Sky had launched a head-on attack but was blasted away.

His body crashed into the ground, and he spurted out a mouthful of blood.

He wanted to stand up, but his whole body was in excruciating pain, and he shouted in pain.

Everyone went silent after hearing his pained growls.

At that moment, everyone understood that the woman before them was powerful.

She was much more potent than Wilbert.

After Sky's defeat, no one dared to challenge her.

Even Kaiden and Tyrus remained silent.

The other martial artists could not sense Juniper's energy, but the two of them had broken free from two shackles and were aware of her strength.

She was a Supernatural.

The two of them knew she was a powerful Supernatural from the energy emanating from her.

"Where are they?" Juniper asked coldly.

Although her voice was calm, it rumbled in everyone's ears like thunder.

Even James' eardrums went numb from it, and he stumbled backward.

Swoosh!

Juniper suddenly unsheathed her long sword.

Everyone frantically stepped backward.

Only Tyrus stepped forward and approached Juniper.

Even though he knew Juniper was a Supernatural, he replied, "The Void Sect's disciples were indeed killed."

"Die."

Juniper's lips parted, and she uttered a word.

After speaking, she quickly made a move.

She inched closer to Tyrus instantly.

Tyrus's expression darkened, and he wanted to counter the attack, but it was already too late.

Juniper's sword gave him no time to react. The long sword pierced into his chest.

Then, she raised her hand and struck Tyrus.

Tyrus' body was sent flying, and he plummeted to the ground, unable to get back to his feet.

"Uncle!"

James' expression darkened, and he rushed over. He squatted down and checked Tyrus' injuries.

The sword had pierced through his chest.

However, it was not a lethal injury as he was of a high rank.

However, Juniper's palm attack was terrifyingly strong, shattering all of the meridians in Tyrus' body.

James immediately took out Crucifier and treated Tyrus' injuries.

After inserting a few needles, Tyrus' injuries were stabilized.

'You damned sinners.'

"How dare you kill our sect's disciples?"

'Your Holiness, hurry and kill them all!'

The accompanying Void Sect's disciples urged furiously.