

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1903

Chapter 1903

No one dared to utter a single word. Langston could fight against a Supernatural by himself, but the other Supernatural could annihilate them all with ease.

Just as everyone was silent, Tyrus spoke, "I've already broken the third shackle."

Upon hearing this, everyone turned to look at him.

Half a year ago, Langston brought back the Phoenix Essence and some phoenix blood after slaying the Phoenix. Though James was given the Phoenix Essence, Tyrus had been in closed-door meditation over the past six months absorbing the enormous power hidden inside the Phoenix's blood. Currently, he had broken free of the third shackle and was just a step away from reaching the Supernatural level.

Tyrus continued, "With the combined strength of me, the Blood Race's Grand Patriarch, and James, we can tie one of the Supernaturals down even if we can't defeat him."

"Let's get going then!" Kaiden Walchelin, the Grand Patriarch of the Blood Race, said, "Mount Bane belongs to Earth. We can't allow these outsiders to encroach on our land. We have to defend Mount Bane even if it costs our lives."

Thomas stepped forward and said, "While you deal with the Supernaturals, leave the rest to me."

Apart from Tyrus, James, and Kaiden, there were also many powerful martial artists present here. In fact, there were a handful of ninth-rank martial artists.

After a brief discussion, they reached an agreement. They would launch an assault on Mount Bane.

"Charge!"

They charged forward.

In the lead was Langston, who was followed close behind by Tyrus, Kaiden, and James. At the rear were the other ninth-rank martial artists.

Meanwhile, those who had yet to cross into the ninth rank remained at the foot of the mountain. This would be a battle to the death, after all. They could lose their lives anytime.

At the peak of Mount Bane...

“Your Holiness!”

Aman in a black robe rushed over to Conrad and knelt before him. Wearing a panicked expression, he said hurriedly,

“Something terrible has happened!”

Conrad was in the midst of discussing the affairs of the Sealed Realm with Juniper when his subordinate barged in. Furrowing his eyebrows, he asked, “What’s the matter?”

“Th-The earthlings have launched an assault,” the man said.

“Damn it!” Conrad stood up immediately. Then, exuding a terrifying aura, he swiftly rushed to the scene while Juniper followed close behind.

Halfway up Mount Bane, Langston and the other martial artists were ascending the mountain when a figure came crashing from the sky.

Fwoosh!

The figure radiated a blinding golden light. Like a celestial being that descended from the heavens, he stood thirty meters in mid-air and glanced downward at the earthlings scornfully. His face darkened, and he said coldly, “Do you have a death wish?”

Then, Juniper arrived.

“What do you think you are doing? I thought we had an agreement six months ago. You’re forbidden from trespassing into Mount Bane. Otherwise, you’ll be killed on sight.”

She was also radiating a powerful aura.

The group stopped. Langston looked at the two and said, “Mount Bane belongs to Earth. How dare you outsiders occupy our land? Get out of our sight this instant. Otherwise, this will be your final resting place.”

Faced with two Supernaturals, Langston was unafraid.

“Hahaha!”

Conrad cackled.

‘What a joke! The strong do what they can while the weak suffer what they must! This is an immutable law of the universe. You want to retake Mount Bane? Over my dead body!’

Then, he brandished his sword.

Swish!

Invisible Sword Light shredded through the air. His aura was so overwhelming that even space had become distorted.

“Do you think I’m afraid of you?” Langston roared and charged at him.

In the blink of an eye, he appeared before Conrad. Boom!

Their palms collided, and Langston was sent flying. Conrad, on the other hand, only staggered backward. Immediately, everyone knew that Langston was weaker than Conrad.

However, Conrad was undaunted.

After being sent flying, he collected himself and brandished his sword. Then, he charged toward Conrad once more.

A fierce battle broke out in the sky.

Wearing a solemn expression, Tyrus said, “We’ll make this quick. Once we defeat Juniper, we can go help my father.”

James nodded.

Swish!

Then, he brandished the Primordial Dragon Blade.

Tyrus, James, and Kaiden charged toward Juniper.

Seeing this, Juniper’s face darkened as she said coldly, “You’ve got a death wish!”

As she said that, she brandished her sword.

Swish!

Awave of Sword Energy shredded through the air. The three swiftly dodged the attack and dispersed.

Holding the Primordial Dragon Blade in his hand, James performed a terrifying sword technique. Ever since he broke free of the second shackle, his strength had increased by leaps and bounds. Juniper's aura no longer had any effect on him. His movements were quick and agile. In the blink of an eye, he appeared behind Juniper.

However, Juniper's speed was extraordinary. She simply turned and slashed with her sword.

Clank!

The swords clashed.

James could feel a terrifying power spreading from the Primordial Dragon Blade to his entire body. Immediately, the Blood

Energy inside his body churned, and he vomited a mouthful of blood. Meanwhile, he could feel his body being crushed by a mountain.

Unable to resist the overwhelming weight, he plummeted from the sky and crashed heavily into a pile of rubble. At the same time, Tyrus began his attack, and so did Kaiden.

However, Juniper was powerful. She sent Kaiden flying with a single move. Even Tyrus began losing ground.

The Supernatural level truly was terrifying.

Even though Tyrus had broken free of the third shackle, he was still much weaker than Juniper. Utterly beaten, he staggered backward while being inflicted a sword wound on his arm, from which blood gushed out like a cascading waterfall.

James crawled out of the rubble with great difficulty. As he had never fought against a Supernatural, he had no idea how terrifying they were.

He catalyzed True Lunar and Terra Energy to suppress his wound and scanned his surroundings.

Kaiden was injured and no longer dared continue the fight. Tyrus, on the other hand, was still on the back foot.

The battle on the other side was even fiercer.

Langston and Conrad were extremely powerful. Even though Conrad was the stronger of the two, he could not defeat Langston who used his full force.

Meanwhile, Thomas fought against Conrad's men alongside the Void Sect's disciples and the other ninth-rank martial artists.

However, they stood no chance against the enemy. Soon, many lay dead on the battlefield.

After scanning the battlefield, James joined in the fight with the Primordial Dragon Blade.

Sensing the looming threat, Juniper gave up on pursuing Tyrus and turned around. Upon seeing James, who was holding the Primordial Dragon Blade in his hand, her face darkened, "You have a death wish, don't you? I'll send you to the afterlife then."

Then, she charged toward James at terrifying speed.

Before she arrived, her Sword Energy had already burst forth. Holding the Primordial Dragon Blade in his hand, James catalyzed the True Lunar and Terra Energy to its maximum level. At the same time, he gathered the power of his blood and muscles into the Primordial Dragon Blade. His sword radiated a dazzling light.

Immediately, James' aura soared.

By catalyzing True Lunar and Terra Energy as well as the power of the blood and muscles, James' aura immediately increased drastically.

Holding the sword in her hand, Juniper charged toward him.

Clang!

The swords clashed.

James switched tactics and aimed straight at Juniper's vital point.

A chill ran down her spine. She never expected James' sword technique to be this bizarre, so she hurriedly switched tactics to deflect his attack.

After using all his strength, James was not only able to deflect Juniper's attack, but he could even perform the First Sword Art and the First Lunar and Terra Sword Art against her. Tyrus, on the other hand, managed to have a brief moment of respite. He hurriedly retreated into the distance and consumed a bottle of elixir.

Upon spectating the battle between James and Juniper, he could not help but sigh, "How powerful... His True Energy is almost equal in strength to mine despite only having broken free of two shackles. If he broke free of the third shackle, he would be able to stand his ground against a Supernatural easily."

Although James managed to stand his ground against Juniper, this was only temporary. Juniper was extremely powerful. Each time their swords clashed, he could feel his Blood Energy churn inside his body. He only managed to suppress the Blood Energy through enormous True Lunar and Terra Energy.

Clank!

Once again, the swords clashed. This time, Juniper used all her strength. Overwhelmed, James' arm went limp, and he was sent flying.

Fwoosh!

Juniper charged toward him at great speed. In an instant, she appeared before him and pierced his body with her sword.

James wanted to deflect her attack. However, her speed was too extraordinary. Helpless to do anything, his body was pierced by Juniper's sword.

At the same time, Juniper struck him with her palm and sent him flying.

"James!" Tyrus's face paled, and he charged toward Juniper once more.

"Darling!" Thea was in the midst of a battle against a ninth-rank martial artist when she noticed that James was injured. She hurriedly shook off her opponent and rushed toward James. Before James could crash into the ground, she managed to grab hold of him in time. Then, holding the injured James in her arms, she retreated into the distance.

On a huge rock in the distance...

Wearing an anxious expression on her face, Thea asked, "A-Are you alright, Darling?"

Not only was his body pierced, but he even suffered a blow to the chest. As Juniper went all out, he suffered grave internal injuries.

“I won’t die just yet.” James wiped the blood off his lips.

“Damn it!”

Thea was enraged. Upon turning around and seeing the fierce battle in the distance, she brandished the Malevolent

Sword and headed toward the battlefield. James tried to stop her, but it was no use.

Thea was overwhelmed with anger. The blood inside her body boiled, and her pupils turned blood-red. Powerful energy burst forth from within her body, and she exuded a terrifying aura that surpassed even Tyrus’.

In the blink of an eye, she appeared on the battlefield and slashed with the Malevolent Sword.

A Sword Light a hundred meters in length shredded through the air. Juniper, who was in the midst of a fierce battle against Tyrus, felt a chill down her spine as she sensed a powerful aura approaching from behind. As she turned, the Sword Light was almost upon her. Seeing this, she hurriedly slashed with her sword, and terrifying Sword Energy burst forth and deflected Thea’s attack.

Thea had demonized. Though her strength was drastically boosted, she was still slightly weaker than Juniper.

Upon seeing Thea’s bloodshot eyes, Juniper was stunned.

“What the... Does she possess the Supreme Spiritual Root? Could it be that she has been demonized after consuming a Holy Beast’s blood?”

As Juniper came from a Sealed Realm, she was knowledgeable about the affairs on Earth. At that moment, she was rather fearful not of Thea, but of her demonized version.
