Chapter 1913

The earthlings were significantly disadvantaged this time because they were not strong enough. If they could intimidate Conrad, he would not have taken five berries.

James' desire to become more powerful grew increasingly stronger.

Then, he left Mount Bane alongside Thea and returned to the Southern Plains.

Soon, they returned to the Southern Plains.

The reconstruction of Dragonville had begun in earnest. Over six months of construction, Southern Plains City was demolished, and Dragonville Palace was completed. Now, many skyscrapers were erected from the ground up. There were also underground buildings designed for the apocalypse

After briefly checking on the construction progress, James left and headed toward Mount Thunder Pass. He planned to enter a closed-door meditation there. After absorbing the Phoenix Essence, he would then absorb the mysterious berry.

After a few days of closed-door mediation, a person appeared at Mount Thunder Pass

It was the Omniscient Deity. Wearing a white robe, he had a youthful appearance on his face as he looked at James who hurriedly stood up.

"What brings you here, Lord Omniscient?"

James was stunned. After all, the Omniscient Deity did not even show himself during the fierce battle on Mount Bane a few days ago.

"Is something the matter?" James asked.

"Yes." The Omniscient Deity nodded slightly.

James said, "Please continue."

The Omniscient Deity said, "I just so happened to miss the events on Mount Bane because I headed to a location mentioned by my master. If I had been there, Conrad Titus wouldn't have gotten away with so many berries."

Upon hearing this, realization dawned on James' face. So the Omniscient Deity had left during the event.

He looked at the Omniscient Deity.

Meanwhile, the Omniscient Deity continued, "Two millenniums ago, my master once told me that there was a place called the Chamber of Scriptures on Earth. This place was left behind by the ancestor of mankind. There are many long-lost martial arts stored away in the Chamber of Scriptures. My master told me to begin searching for the whereabouts of this place only before the seal is about to be undone. In the meantime, while I was gone, I managed to find the Chamber of Scripture as mentioned by my master."

Upon hearing this, James' curiosity was piqued.

Left behind by the ancestor of mankind? It must be a precious treasure.

So, he could not help but ask, "What exactly is hidden inside the Chamber of Scriptures?"

The Omniscient Deity shook his head slightly and said, "I don't know either. I managed to locate the place, but I couldn't find anything. My master once told me that only a selected few may obtain martial arts from the Chamber of Scriptures. I came here today to invite you to head over there alongside me. Maybe we might learn something out of this journey."

Upon hearing this, James' face lit up.

The Omniscient Deity looked at Thea and said, "Why don't you come along with us, Thea?"

Thea asked, "M-May I?"

"Of course." The Omniscient Deity nodded and said, "I heard about the events that transpired on Mount Bane. You managed to defeat Juniper Waseem who's at the Supernatural level. You are definitely qualified to enter the Chamber of Scriptures."

"However..."

The Omniscient Deity's expression turned grim as he said, "The Chamber of Scriptures is of great significance to Earth. You must never leak information. Otherwise, disaster will befall humanity."

"We won't."

James and Thea gave their assurances

"Let's get going, then."

The Omniscient Deity turned to leave, while James and Thea followed close behind. Then, they left the Southern Plains.

Along the way to the Chamber of Scriptures, the Omniscient Deity briefed them on the Chamber of Scriptures.

It was a place left behind by mankind's ancestors.

"Not just the Chamber of Scriptures, but even the Four Holy Beasts were left behind by our ancestors."

Chapter 1914

Upon hearing this, James' curiosity was piqued. He asked, "Lord Omniscient, what exactly happened on Earth in the distant past?"

The Omniscient Deity shook his head and said, "I don't know either I know little about the seal and the ancestors of mankind."

Upon hearing this, James did not pursue it further

At Mount Tai in Sol...

Mount Tai was the most prominent mountain in Sol. This was a place that held a special significance in history. So, every previous Emperor would choose this place to offer sacrifices to heaven.

"Mount Tai?"

Upon arriving at the foot of Mount Tai, James momentarily froze before asking, "Lord Omniscient, is the Chamber of Scriptures located at Mount Tai?"

"Mhm"

The Omniscient Deity nodded and said, "Based on my master's information, I searched Mount Tai and found the Chamber of Scriptures."

James asked, "Since we're here, should we inform the Mount Tai Sect?"

The Omniscient Deity shook his head and said, "The Mount Tai Sect knows nothing about this. Naturally. there's no point in informing them. Besides, the Chamber of Scriptures is located at Mount Tai, but it's not within the Mount Tai Sect."

"Alright, then."

James rested his case.

Under the Omniscient Deity's guidance, James and Thea entered Mount Tai and headed toward a forest nearby.

At a ravine in the forest, the Omniscient Deity pointed at the ravine and asked, "Can you see the stream inside there?"

"Mhm." James nodded.

The Omniscient Deity continued, "There's a cave in the stream, and the Chamber of Scriptures is located right there."

Then, he entered the ravine, while James and Thea followed suit.

The three entered the ravine and approached the stream. Then, they dove into the water and entered an underwater cave that extended deep underground.

The Omniscient Deity explained, "This is an underground tower that has nine stories in total. Each story has different martial arts. The ninth story, meanwhile, contains the invincible martial art skill left behind by our ancestors. Though I entered the ninth story last time, I didn't learn anything. This means I'm not fated to learn these martial arts."

James could see the entrance of the underground tower

The Omniscient Deity pointed at the entrance, saying, "Open this door and you'll arrive at the first story. Why don't you and Thea try your luck inside?"

"Alright." James nodded.

Then, he walked over to the door and pushed it open.

The space behind the door was only approximately fifty square meters in size, and it was surrounded by green stone walls on all sides. There was nothing inside.

Thea scanned her surroundings puzzledly and said, "There's nothing inside, Darling."

James said, "Let's have a look around."

The two began searching for martial arts inside the power. However, no matter how hard they tried, they could not find anything.

Then, the Omniscient Deity walked in.

James asked, "Why isn't there anything inside?"

The Omniscient Deity shook his head and said, "I don't understand either. My master told me that this tower has nine stories, and each story contains its own martial arts. However, when I first came here, I couldn't even find the entrance to the second story. I only brought you guys here to see if you're the ones my master mentioned."

The Omniscient Deity had learned everything from his master.

Hearing this, James was intrigued.

"Lord Omniscient, what sort of person was your master?"

The Omniscient Deity shook his head and said, "I don't know. He never told me anything about himself

He only instructed me to remain in Sol and wait for the seal to be undone."

Chapter 1915

Based on the information left behind by the Omniscient Deity's master, the Chamber of Scriptures was left behind by mankind's ancestors for their future descendants. This place was full of invincible martial art skills

However, no matter how hard James and Thea searched, they could not find anything. Not only that, but they could not even locate the entrance to the second story.

James inspected every corner of the story.

After failing to locate the entrance to the second story, James looked at the Omniscient Deity and said, "It appears that we won't be able to obtain the martial art manuals."

Pensive, the Omniscient Deity scanned his surroundings.

"This shouldn't be..."

He was puzzled.

This was the Chamber of Scriptures mentioned by his master. But why were there no martial art manuals here? Could it be that James and Thea were not the fated ones?

He had watched them grow. The two were the youngest and strongest amongst their earthling peers, not to mention that they possessed enormous potential. Moreover, they were also connected to the Four Holy Beasts. If they were not the fated ones, he had no idea what sort of person would be eligible to receive the martial art manuals from the Chamber of Scriptures.

Wait... These were no longer martial art manuals, but instead cultivation manuals.

“Why don’t we give up, then?” Thea said, “There’s nothing here. I don’t think these martial art manuals exist.”

“Mhm.”

The Omniscient Deity nodded and said, “Since we can’t do anything about this, let’s leave.”

After speaking, he turned to leave the tower, while James and Thea followed close behind.

The moment they exited the tower, Thea stopped abruptly in her tracks.

“What’s wrong?” James looked at her in confusion.

“M-My blood is churning all of a sudden!” Thea was confounded. Under normal circumstances, her blood would not churn unless she was in an agitated state. Now, however, it began churning for no reason. Powerful energy began leaking from her blood.

“What’s wrong. Thea?” The Omniscient Deity also stopped and turned to look at her.

At that moment, Thea exuded a bizarre aura while her black long hair flowed wavily in the air. Her pupils were blood-red in color, while her expression had turned hideous. It appeared that she was experiencing Energy Deviation.

Stunned, James called out to her, “Thea!”

Thea had no idea why she suddenly experienced Energy Deviation. At that moment, her vision blurred as she slowly lost consciousness. Upon hearing James’ cry, she tried to calm herself down, but to no avail.

“How dare a demon like you trespass into a human holy site?” an illusory voice spoke.

Swoosh!

Then, powerful energy came from inside the tower and sucked Thea in.

James rushed into the tower. There, Thea was confined in an iron cage in the middle of it.

Upon witnessing this, James yelled, "Who's there?! Show yourself!"

As soon as he saw the trapped Thea, the Omniscient Deity's expression turned grim. "My master once told me that are custodians guarding this place. Could this be their doing?" he murmured.

Then, he scanned his surroundings and clasped his fists, saying. I'm the Omniscient Deity of Mount Jade. Are you the custodian of the Chamber of Scriptures? My master is the Telepathic Master of Mount Springcastle. He was the one who gave me information about the Chamber of Scriptures' whereabouts. I came here today with these two to see if they are the fated ones."

The Omniscient Deity's voice boomed.

Upon hearing this, James was stunned. It appeared that the Omniscient Deity had kept many secrets from him.

However, he did not have time to ask questions. James rushed to the iron cage to try and save Thea. Just as he approached the cage, it radiated a black-golden light and exuded a terrifying aura that sent him flying

"Thea!" he cried out.

In the cage. Thea's eyes were blood-red, and she was wearing a hideous expression on her face as black veins popped up on her face.

Chapter 1916

Fwoosh!

An illusory afterimage gradually materialized. Though the appearance of the figure could not be discerned, they could tell that the figure was a woman.

"Mount Springcastle?"

The figure pointed at the Omniscient Deity and asked, "Are you a disciple of the Telepathic Master of Mount Springcastle?"

Yes."

The Omniscient Deity asked respectfully. "Are you a custodian of the Chamber of Scriptures?"

“That’s right, I’m a custodian of the Chamber of Scriptures.” Though the figure spoke in a melodious tone, her voice was ice-cold.

The Omniscient Deity hurriedly asked, “What is the meaning of this? Why have you trapped her?”

“This is a holy site of mankind. The Demonic Energy she exudes is far too overwhelming. If not for the human aura she exudes, I’d have turned her to ashes.”

The Omniscient Deity was at a loss for words.

James, on the other hand, stared at the illusory figure before him. He was puzzled. Who was this person?

Upon hearing Thea’s excruciating screams, he stepped forward and said, “Thea Callahan is my wife and a kind-hearted woman. There’s no way she’d be a demon.”

The Omniscient Deity chimed in, “She has Demonic Energy inside her body because she absorbed the blood of the Four Holy Beasts.”

“I know.” Then, the illusory figure said coldly, “Leave this place at once. Otherwise, don’t blame me for what happens next.”

After she said that, she waved her hand, and powerful energy sent James and the Omniscient Deity flying. Once they flew out of the tower, the entrance immediately slammed shut.

“Thea!” James rushed toward the door and tried to open it. However, no matter how hard he tried, he could not make the door budge.

Swish!

Brandishing the Primordial Dragon Blade, he slashed at the door repeatedly. However, the door was sturdy. Even though he wielded the Primordial Dragon Blade and had broken free of the second shackle, he could not make a single dent in the door.

The Omniscient Deity panicked and cried out, “Thea has never done anything harmful! Please reconsider your decision!”

An ice-cold voice came from inside the tower, “That’s because she’s still weak. Once her strength increases, the Demonic Energy will cause her to experience Energy Deviation. This would bring about a catastrophe for mankind. She has to die.”

“Argh!” Furious, James roared, “I don’t care who you are, but if you dare touch a single hair on her, I’ll tear you to pieces!”

Holding the Primordial Dragon Blade in his hand, he slashed at the door repeatedly. Waves after waves of Sword Energy struck the door. However, the door would not budge.

At the same time, on the first story of the tower....

The illusory shadow gradually materialized. Then, a beautiful woman wearing a white dress appeared.

She stared at Thea who was trapped in the cage as her expression turned cloudy. Clenching her fists, she exuded a terrifying killing intent. However, gradually, she unclenched her fists.

“Should I kill her?”

She was hesitant.

As the custodian of the Chamber of Scriptures, she had heard of the Four Holy Beasts. Naturally, she knew that the Four Holy Beasts had been tampered with and that Demonic Energy targeted the most distinguished and talented humans.

“It would be humanity’s loss if I kill her. But if I spare her life, she might be completely demonized and wipe out all of humanity

She was at a loss

Thea’s life was now in her hands.

Chapter 1917

The custodian knew that the greater one’s potential, the more terrifying one would be in the future after being contaminated by the Four Holy Beasts’ blood.

She really wanted to kill Thea. However, Thea was one of the martial artists who possessed the greatest potential. It would only be humanity’s loss if she was killed.

“Since her Demonic Energy is still weak, there are still ways to deal with it,” she murmured.

Outside, James slashed at the door repeatedly like a madman.

At that moment, the door opened, and a woman wearing a white dress walked out. The moment she appeared, a wave of Sword Energy struck her. However, the terrifying Sword Energy immediately dissipated upon making contact with her.

James' Sword Energy had no effect on her

She looked at James and the Omniscient Deity who was standing right outside.

"Who the hell are you?"

James yelled, "I don't care who you are. Release Thea at once. Otherwise, I'll tear you to pieces!"

The woman walked over to James and looked at him, saying coolly, "Don't worry, I won't take her life."

Upon hearing this, James breathed a sigh of relief.

The Omniscient Deity stepped forward and said, "Ms. Custodian, Thea really is a good person."

The woman waved slightly and interrupted him. Looking at James, she said, "That being said, she's required to stay here from today onward. I'll adopt special means to purify the Demonic Energy inside her body."

"What?" Stunned, James asked, "What do you mean?"

The woman nodded slightly and said, "You don't know how terrifying Demonic Energy is. There are still ways to eradicate the Demonic Energy inside her body now. Once the Demonic Energy overwhelms her, it'll be too late. Should you encounter any individual who possesses Demonic Energy in the future, bring them here. I'll purify the Demonic Energy inside their bodies."

Once he heard this, the Omniscient Deity looked at James.

James had consumed the Spirit Turtle elixir, the dragon blood, and the phoenix blood, and was in the midst of consuming the Phoenix Essence. Why did he not have any Demonic Energy on him?

Then, he looked at the woman and asked, "Ms. Custodian, can you sense the presence of Demonic Energy?"

"Of course." The woman nodded.

"I once consumed qilin's blood, whereas James has consumed both dragon and phoenix blood."

The Omniscient Deity was puzzled.

The custodian said, "Demonic Energy only targets the best of the best, the most distinguished among his or her peers. Once someone like her crosses into the Supernatural level, she will gain insight into the Grand Supernatural. Who do you think you are? You two are merely ordinary people. As such, Demonic Energy has little to no effect on you. Demonic Energy is, after all, designed specifically to target geniuses."

Hearing this, the Omniscient Deity felt awkward.

He believed that he possessed enormous potential. At least, he was the most powerful individual on Earth. James possessed enormous potential as well. Though the time he spent cultivating was short, he had already broken free of the second shackle.

He pointed at James and asked, "What about him? Can you sense Demonic Energy in him?"

The woman glanced at James and shook her head, "Just a bit, I'm afraid. Such tiny Demonic Energy would have no effect on him. He won't be experiencing Energy Deviation anytime soon."

The Omniscient Deity said, "Many Outsiders have appeared on Earth. It appears that the seal is about to be undone. I came here today in search of a few cultivation methods. I hope you can grant me passage." The Omniscient Deity stated his purpose for the visit.

The woman, however, said coldly. "The time hasn't come. You aren't allowed to obtain the manuals from the Chamber of Scriptures yet."

"Huh?" Anxious, the Omniscient Deity said, "Earth is about to descend into chaos. I have to nurture a few powerful martial artists to defend Earth."

The woman knew about the situation on Earth. To her, the situation was still calm for now.

Chapter 1918

The custodian thought about it and said, "In that case, follow me."

She turned and entered through the door, while the Omniscient Deity and James followed close behind

Though Thea was still confined in the cage, the blood within her body had calmed down. When she saw James after regaining consciousness, she cried out, "Darling!"

She wanted to head over to his side. However, the moment she approached the cage, she unconsciously staggered backward as if jolted by a lightning bolt.

"I..." James glanced at Thea before looking at the woman pleadingly, saying. "Could you release my wife?"

The woman waved her arm, and powerful energy gathered in her palm. Then, in an instant, the cage disappeared without a trace.

James was dumbfounded. What sorcery was this?

Thea rushed over to James, who grabbed her hand.

James looked at the woman and asked, "Does she really have to stay here?"

The woman nodded grimly and said. "This is for her own good. By remaining here, I can purify the Demonic Energy inside her body."

James asked, "How long do you need then?"

"I can't be sure about that. Maybe a couple of years, perhaps?"

"What?"

Confused, Thea asked, "What's wrong. Darling?"

James said, "She's the custodian of the Chamber of Scriptures on Earth. She said that the Demonic Energy inside your body is too overwhelming. That's why you need to remain here so that she could purify the Demonic Energy inside your body."

Hearing this, Thea furrowed her eyebrows.

The woman then told her about the severity of the situation.

"Thea, was it? The Demonic Energy inside your body currently has little effect on you. However, as your cultivation base increases, the more prominent the adverse effects will be. In the future, you'll be devoured by your Demonic Energy and become a machine that lives only to slaughter humans.

"That's why you have to stay here."

Thea was reluctant to part ways with James. However, the situation was grim, and she did not to be falsely accused of being a demon. Clenching James' hand tightly, she consoled him, "Everything's gonna be fine, Darling. As immortals, this is but a short and insignificant period of our lives."

Since Thea had decided to stay, the woman breathed a sigh of relief. With Thea's cooperation, things would go much smoother.

Then, she waved her arm, and a piece of bluestone appeared in the middle of the first story of the tower. The bluestone was about two meters in height and greenish in color. There were also mysterious characters inscribed on the stone.

"What is this?" the three asked in unison.

The woman said, "This is an aptitude stone that can evaluate your potential by pressing your palms against its surface. Different results will grant you access to different stories inside the tower. If you don't have potential, you won't be able to receive any cultivation methods since you aren't acknowledged by the Chamber of Scriptures.

"If your potential is sufficiently enormous, you might be granted access to the ninth story of the tower. The cultivation methods there are some of the most advanced and unrivaled that were left behind by mankind's ancestors. Each and every martial art skill there is unique.

"As now's not yet the time, I was initially reluctant to grant you passage. However, since you're here, I might as well let you test things out a little. Of course, my congratulations should you obtain the cultivation manuals. However, in the event that you fail to gain anything, do not be dismayed. The Chamber of Scriptures is, after all, a place specially prepared for the brightest and most talented individuals. Not everyone can be acknowledged, unfortunately."

Hearing this, the three were intrigued.

James pushed Thea gently and said, "Why don't you give it a try, Darling?"

Thea was thrilled as she knew she possessed great potential.

Were the claims true, though? Would she be acknowledged by the Chamber of Scriptures and be granted a cultivation manual?

With nervousness, she slowly walked toward the bluestone.

Chapter 1919

Thea headed toward the bluestone and stood before the object. Then, she turned her head and asked, "Do I just press my palms against the stone's surface?"

The custodian nodded slightly.

Seeing this, Thea raised her hands and pressed her palms against the stone.

At that moment, she could feel a power emanating from within the rock, which spread from head to toe. She felt a warm, comforting current circulating throughout her body. Then, the mysterious symbols on the bluestone glimmered

Crack!

At that moment, a crevice appeared on the ground, which gradually increased in size. Then, an underground passage appeared.

"Congratulations." The woman said delightedly. "You have been acknowledged and granted access to the Chamber of Scriptures. Once you enter through the passage, you will obtain a secret Supernatural art that corresponds to your strength."

Thea glanced at the underground passage and entered without any hesitation. The moment she entered, the door immediately slammed shut.

Next, the Omniscient Deity walked over to the aptitude stone in anticipation and pressed his palms against it. Soon, the symbols glimmered, and an underground passage appeared. Wearing a delighted expression on his face, the Omniscient Deity hurriedly entered the door.

Now, only James and the custodian remained

She looked at James and asked, "Would you like to have a try as well?"

James looked at her and asked, "Which story did my wife go to?"

The woman smiled.

Though James could not understand what the smile insinuated, he walked over to the aptitude stone nonetheless and pressed his palms against the bluestone.

At that moment, the bluestone trembled.

"What?"

The custodian was stunned. However, she collected herself in time

James also sensed the slight tremor, but he paid no heed to it. After a brief moment, he sensed a warm current circulating throughout his body.

Soon, the bluestone radiated a glimmering light, and an underground passage appeared before him.

“Congratulations,” the custodian said smilingly.

James did not hesitate and entered immediately.

The underground passage was only approximately ten meters in length. As he approached the end, he took a step forward. At that instant, the images before him disappeared, and he found himself in an unfamiliar place.

This was a room of about fifty square meters, and it was surrounded by mysterious light walls on all sides. Magical symbols and characters appeared only to disappear on the wall.

James scanned his surroundings puzzledly.

T-Is this the Chamber of Scriptures? What story is this? How am I supposed to obtain the martial art manuals?”

He slowly walked toward a light wall, on which mysterious symbols and characters glimmered. Believing that his hands could pass through the wall, he extended his arm.

Then, he touched a character

The character radiated a blinding light and charged out of the light wall, entering his brain.

In an instant, countless pieces of information abruptly flooded his mind. As the amount of information was simply too overwhelming, he could feel his head spin.

Soon, the uncomfortable motion stopped, and James was now wearing an overjoyed expression.

“Th-This is simply unbelievable!”

Much information passed through his brain. These were records of a mysterious martial art, which he deeply etched in his mind.

Just as he racked his brain to recall the memory, a mysterious energy came from inside the space and forcibly expelled

His vision blurred.

When he reopened his eyes, he was already at the first story of the tower.

Meanwhile, Thea and the Omniscient Deity were waiting for him.

Chapter 1920

“How did it go, Darling?”

The moment he appeared, Thea’s voice came.

Wearing a delighted look on his face, James said, “I got something impressive. How about you?”

Thea smiled and said, “Same here.”

“Alright.” The custodian walked over to them and looked at James and the Omniscient Deity, saying. Now that you each have obtained something, leave at once. Do not return here before the seal is undone.”

“Let’s go, Thea.”

James grabbed Thea’s arm and turned to leave.

“She cannot leave.” The custodian said while blocking his path.

Thea stopped in her tracks and looked at James, saying, “You should return, Darling. I’ll stay and purify my Demonic Energy”

“But”

James was reluctant to part ways with her. It would take years for them to reunite once more.

Thea said with a smile, “Don’t worry, it’s just going to be a few years. Once I’ve purified my Demonic Energy. I’ll return for you.”

Then, her expression turned wistful.

“Poor Winnie Remember to return to Cansington and spend some time with her

James took a deep breath. It appeared that he would not be able to take Thea away. So, he nodded and said, “Be careful, alright? Don’t worry, I’ll take good care of Winnie.”

Saying that, he looked at the custodian and said, "I'll leave Thea to you."

The custodian nodded slightly.

Then, James did not linger for long and turned to leave alongside the Omniscient Deity.

Soon, they arrived at the shoreline by the ravine. Looking at the river before them, the Omniscient Deity asked, "What did you get?"

James said smilingly. "An impressive secret Supernatural art that is more profound and advanced than any other I've encountered in the past."

"Cultivate well."

After giving a brief remark, the Omniscient Deity turned to leave.

Meanwhile, James continued staring at the ravine. He never thought he would part ways with Thea just like that. The custodian had told him that purifying one's Demonic Energy would require at least a couple of years. Now that they had parted ways, James could not help but wonder when they would meet again. Thus, he did not leave immediately. Rather, he sat in a lotus position on the ground and meditated, transmitting information about the secret Supernatural art into his mind.

The secret art was called the Novenary Golden Body Siddhi. It was a cultivation method used to cultivate one's physical body to release the Supernatural powers of one's physical capabilities. By cultivating one's body to the Grand Sage Realm, one could defend against any weapon with his body alone.

However, the Novenary Golden Body Siddhi was difficult to cultivate. Its earlier stages were particularly excruciating.

Regardless, once the physical capabilities had increased, one would be unbeatable amongst his peers in similar stages and could even surpass those at a higher rank. This meant that a ninth-rank martial artist could potentially defeat someone at the Supernatural stage.

Under normal circumstances, it was simply unthinkable. After all, the disparity in strength between the two was gigantic. However, by cultivating the Novenary Golden Body Siddhi, one would be able to recompensate for one's lack of strength by possessing an indestructible body.

James took a deep breath.

"The Novenary Golden Body Siddhi... What a magical cultivation method. Fortunately, my physical body is much stronger than the average Joe. Otherwise, I'd have to spend years in preparation"

Then, he stood up and looked at the ravine before him. Immediately, Thea's image came to mind.

"Don't you worry, Thea, I won't let you down. Once we meet again, I'll be a changed man."

James was confident in his own abilities.
