

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1951 –

Chapter 1951

Sacerdotal Sect's senior disciple's name was Xain Judah.

Xain was relatively young at about 30 years old. He was born in the Overworld, and was the Sacerdotal Sect's leader. In addition to that, one of the top ten powerhouses of the Overworld, was his teacher. As such, he had countless resources at hand.

Coupled with his own talent, he had amassed a formidable cultivation base at a young age.

His strength was above Conrad's.

Xain scanned the martial artists in the Floret Palace's main hall and was unimpressed. He thought that strong fighters like the Omniscient Deity and Prince of Orchid Mountain would have shown up. To his disappointment, the martial artists present were all weaklings.

He had reviewed the information of almost all notably powerful people on Earth.

Among the people gathered, only one was a worthy opponent- the groom, James.

He fixed his eyes on James and said ominously, "After I kill you, the rest will be a piece of cake."

He turned to Conrad, who was standing behind him, and gave his order. "Kill him."

"Understood." Conrad nodded.

He stood up, looked at James, and smirked, "No one will be able to save you today, James."

Despite the large crowd gathered in the hall, no one dared to speak.

"What're you doing?!"

Maxine broke free from Cynthia and Tiara's grasp, and walked towards them. At that moment, her lips were covered in blood and her complexion was ashen,

"You made an agreement with the humans on Earth, Conrad. Before the seal opens, you'll live in harmony with us. Are you going to break the agreement?"

Maxine's face was pale, yet she showed no fear to her formidable opponents.

“Haha! Live in harmony?”

Conrad sneered, and his expression darkened as he said, “Earthlings are all sinners. It’s your ancestors’ fault that our world became a prison. Once the seal is open, all of you will die!”

Xain chastised Conrad. “Why bother reasoning with these idiots? Hurry up and do as you’re told.”

“Yes, sir,” Conrad replied respectfully

Then, powerful energy erupted from his body.

Those present could not bear the intense force of his energy. Apart from James, everyone was blown away.

Boom!

The massive hall collapsed instantly.

James’ body flew out from the ruins and he stood atop the rubble.

Conrad’s energy was overpowering.

He looked at James and screeched, “Die!”

As soon as he spoke, he leaped forward and appeared before James in the next instant. He thrust his palm at James’ forehead, unleashing a potent Palm Energy that shook the surroundings.

James’ expression was desperate.

During this time, he had been training diligently.

He broke free from three shackles in the ninth rank but had not yet become a Supernatural. In the past six months, he used most of his time to improve his physique. Thus, his rank has remained the same ever since

On the other hand, Conrad was a Supernatural and obtained countless mysterious purple fruits half a year ago. It was not surprising that his strength improved tremendously in the past six months.

As soon as the battle began, James sensed a terrifying force bearing down on him. He quickly dodged and fled a hundred meters away. The place where he initially stood was smashed instantly.

Conrad's energy injured many martial artists in the distance, and a few weaker ones were bleeding.

Maxine was also injured, but she quickly stood up and got everyone to evacuate the area. Sacerdotal Sect's senior disciple ignored the fleeing martial artists since they were small fry to him.

It would be better to kill the stronger martial artists first.

Once he got rid the top powerhouses, they could easily take control of Earth.

Among the people he knew, only a handful posed a threat to him- the Omniscient Deity, Prince of Orchid Mountain, James, and Thea.

None of the others were strong enough.

Even the Blood Race was nothing in his eyes.

"Conrad, end this quick," Xain ordered.

"Alright."

After Conrad received the order, the energy he released intensified.

He dashed at James at the speed of light, appearing before him in the blink of an eye. Before James could react, Conrad had already struck.

Conrad lifted James up

James struggled to make a counterattack.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1952 –

Chapter 1952

James felt an intense pressure crushing down on him like a mountain had been placed on his back.

Conrad lifted James up and landed a punch on him.

James' meridians were broken instantly, and he spat out a mouthful of blood.

Conrad kicked James, sending him flying until he crashed into a distant mountain. Boom!

The ground and surrounding mountains trembled.

James collapsed into the mountainside and did not get back up.

“Wh-What. ?”

The people who fled to a distance were dumbfounded.

Although Conrad was strong, James was not exactly a pushover either. They never expected James to be unable to counter Conrad.

“Stay right there.”

Xain suddenly spoke.

His voice was calm but rang loudly in everyone’s ears like thunder.

Then, he appeared 30 meters into the sky and waved his hand.

Powerful energy emerged from his wide sleeves and swept across the surroundings. The martial artists that had fled to a distance were engulfed by the force and brought back to the Floret Palace’s ruins.

“Argh!!!”

Terrified screams filled the area.

Xain’s body descended from the sky and landed firmly on the ground. He looked at the hundreds of martial artists from Earth with disdain and said, “Boring. There isn’t any one of you worthy of fighting.” Maxine struggled to get up from the ground.

She looked to the mountain in the distance where James had landed.

“James.”

She had a solemn expression, knowing James might not have survived.

The person who attacked him was Conrad, a peerless Supernatural.

None of them were able to stand up to him.

Even the Prince of Orchid Mountain would be helpless against Conrad.

Maxine wept silently.

She knew the people around her might not leave this place alive.

“Don’t say I never tried to spare you guys. Right now. I’ll let those who submit to me and obey my orders live. Those who don’t shall die...”

Xain’s voice resounded.

A martial artist struggled up from the ground, glared at Xain, and said coldly, “No way Go ahead and kill us. You don’t need to waste time spouting such nonsense.”

“You’re a tough one, aren’t you?” Xain smiled maliciously.

He waved his hand, and potent energy swept toward the martial artists who talked back to him, bringing him close.

Xain grabbed the person’s hair and thrust his palm into the man’s chest.

Immensely powerful energy was sent through his body. Xain casually threw the person to the ground like a piece of garbage.

The martial artist’s body was ravaged by the energy and he died instantly

The hundreds of martial artists from Earth remained silent. None of them made a move.

Meanwhile, in the distant mountain...

James suffered severe injuries.

He had never been in such a bad state before. James never expected to be unable to fend off Conrad.

He desperately wanted to get up from the ground, but excruciating pain spread through his body when he moved.

His face was distorted from the pain.

James activated the Novenary Golden Body Siddhi.

Empyrean Spiritual Energy entered his body and quickly repaired his injuries.

“Hmm?”

Xain sensed the majestic Empyrean Spiritual Energy gathering in the distant mountain and stared in the direction with a shocked expression on his face.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1953 –

Chapter 1953

Xain was blindsided.

Earth's Empyrean Spiritual Energy was scarce, yet he could sense a very concentrated amount of it in the distance.

That meant the person gathering the energy was practicing a very advanced cultivation method.

He waved his hand, and a force shot out from his sleeve.

James, who had activated the Novenary Golden Body Siddhi in the ruin, was swept up by the force and was dragged in front of Xain.

He hasn't died yet? Now it was Conrad's turn to be dumbstruck.

With the strength he had just exerted, he knew no one other than a Supernatural could survive the attack. Unexpectedly, James survived it.

James' body slammed into the ground and further worsened his injuries. He could no longer suppress the rioting Blood Energy in his body and vomited out another mouthful of blood, dyeing the ground beneath him red

"James."

When she saw that James was alive, Maxine rushed over to try and help him up.

Before she could get close to him, she was sent flying again and sustained more injuries

She struggled up from the ground and glared at Xain, Conrad, and the other disciples. She said bitterly." What are you guys trying to do?"

Xain ignored Maxine and walked toward James. He stepped on James' hand and said, "Brat, what kind of cultivation method are you using?"

Despite being the Sacerdotal Sect's senior disciple, he himself could not gather such strong Empyrean Spiritual Energy in such a short period. Yet, a mere earthling was capable of doing so.

That meant James' cultivation method was much more advanced than the Sacerdotal Sect's.

He desperately coveted it

Xain stepped on James' chest, causing James to grimace from the pain.

Anger boiled violently in his heart, and he wanted to fight back. However, a piercing pain racked his body as soon as he activated his True Energy, dissipating whatever little True Energy he tried to gather

This was humiliating

James felt insulted in a way he had never experienced before. He had never felt so insulted before in his years as a martial artist.

"B'stard!"

He cursed hatefully, baring his bloodied teeth.

"Let him go!"

Maxine dragged her grievously injured body and charged at Xain with all her strength. Before she was able to come close to him, she was once again blasted away by the energy emanating from Xain's body.

Damaged further by the energy, she vomited out more blood.

Xain's immense strength was inexorable.

Despair crept into the hearts of everyone as they witnessed the displays of his formidable strength.

"Why hasn't the Prince of Orchid Mountain or the Omniscient Deity shown up yet?"

"If they don't come soon, Earth's martial artists will be finished."

Many people began praying in their hearts for powerhouses like the Prince of Orchid Mountain and the Omniscient Deity to show up soon and defeat the Outsiders.

Pinned under Xain's feet, James was unable to move an inch.

You're persistent, aren't you?

Xain's face darkened, and he said, "I'd like to see how much longer you can last."

He lifted his foot and brought it down on James' ankle all of a sudden.

Crack!

The horrible sound of bones breaking rang out

Argh

James screamed in pain, and his eyeballs began to bulge from the sheer agony. "Now, tell me. What kind of cultivation method do you practice?" Xain asked again. However, James refused to speak another word after letting out his agonized cry. Xain raised his foot again and repeatedly stomped on James' incapacitated body.

James' limbs were soon rendered useless, and he almost lost consciousness from the excruciating pain.

The group of martial artists nearby went pale.

Cynthia covered her mouth with her hand to prevent herself from screaming as tears flowed uncontrollably from her eyes.

Despite her desire to save James, she was weak, and stepping out would be tantamount to walking into her own grave.

Frightened, Tiara searched her surroundings to find Maxine. She wanted to ask Maxine to come up with some plan. However, Maxine sustained multiple severe injuries after she was flung back a consecutive number of times.

Thomas and the two powerhouses from Japura could only watch James being tortured with grim expressions.

Although they wanted to help, they had only just entered the ninth rank with the assistance of external substances and were too weak to do anything.

One attack from Conrad alone was enough to kill them,

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1954 –

Chapter 1954

Xain was much stronger than Conrad.

James pain tolerance exceeded Xain's expectations.

Your determination is commendable, brat. I underestimated you. By the way, today is supposed to be your wedding, right? I heard you were planning to marry three women at once. I'd love to see how much longer you can last."

A faint smile spread across Xain's face.

He waved his hand, and Maxine, who had crashed in the distance, was picked up by the force and dropped beside James.

Xain drew his sword.

A sick smile formed on his face as he pressed his long, sharp sword against Maxine's neck. "Wonder if your heart will be in agony if I kill her."

"Why bother with the nonsense? Just kill me."

Maxine's face was pallid.

She was not afraid of death at all. In fact, she was glad to die with James.

Maxine struggled to crawl toward James and reached out to hold James' hand.

James' limbs were disabled and covered in blood. Maxine's hands were slick with blood as she took his hand in hers.

"James..." She cried out in pain and held onto James.

Xain casually waved his hand and forcibly separated them. He held on to his sword and walked toward Maxine. His sharp blade pressed against Maxine's pale face and he swiped his sword across it.

The sword cleaved into her skin and left a gruesome wound on her face.

Maxine shrieked in pain.

James had almost fallen unconscious at that moment, but Maxine's agonized screams drew his attention back.

James attempted to get up, but his whole body felt weak. He barely had the strength to open his eyes. "Are you okay, Maxine?"

He uttered softly, making a sound only he could hear.

"You have impressive endurance to be able to stay awake."

Xain's voice came from above him.

James took a deep breath and fully activated Novenary Golden Body Siddhi.

The Novenary Golden Body Siddhi was a Supernatural Power capable of improving one's physique. The body can repair itself from damage and even turn the tide during battle.

James exerted all his strength and forced himself to sit in a lotus position.

His legs were already useless.

He could not feel any sensation below his thigh as it was numb from the pain.

However, he still forced himself to sit up.

He looked at Maxine lying on the ground, her face covered in blood. Then, he looked at the dead martial artist who had his body maimed by Conrad.

James took a deep breath. Then, he lifted his head weakly, looked at Xain, and mustered all his strength to say, "If you want my cultivation method, you'll have to let everyone here leave safely. I'll give it to you after you let them escape unscathed."

Hearing this, Xain looked at the martial artists in front of him and said emotionlessly. "Get lost."

The martial artists got up and scurried away.

They did not even spare a glance at James, who had saved their lives.

"James."

Cynthia and Tiara did not leave. They walked over and looked helplessly at James' mangled body which stood on the brink of death.

James looked at them and said weakly, "T-Take Maxine and leave."

At that moment, Maxine got up from the ground

Her face was covered in blood. With tears, she looked at James and said, "James, I'm sorry

James shook his head feebly, signaling her to stop talking.

"Winnie is at.."

"That's enough. Take her and leave now."

James ordered again.

What about you, James?" asked Cynthia

James replied weakly, I know what I'm doing"

The two left with the injured Maxine.

James closed his eyes and activated the Novenary Golden Body Siddhi, focusing on treating his wounds.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1955 –

Chapter 1955

“Are you going to give me the cultivation method now that I’ve already let everyone go?”

Xain threatened him in a low voice, “You’d better not try to pull a fast one on me. I can let them go, but I can also bring them back here just as easily. If that happens, they won’t be leaving alive the next time “

James opened his eyes and looked at Xain, saying calmly, “I’ve suffered serious injuries and might die any time soon. You should at least let me treat them. I’ll give the cultivation method to you after I’m done.”

After James finished speaking, he remained silent.

Xain was not in a hurry.

To him, James was a mere ant that could easily be trampled on and disposed of.

Many people gathered at the base of the mountain to Floret Palace

“What do we do?”

“Whoever has the Omniscient Deity’s contact details, please inform him of the situation immediately. I’m afraid he’s the only person who can save James now.

“I don’t have it. Is there anyone else who does?”

The martial artists gathered together and discussed how to save James.

Maxine also headed down the mountain with Cynthia and Tiara’s support. “Are you alright, Maxine?” asked Tiara.

Maxine’s face was pale, and there was a bloody gash on her left cheek.

At that moment, she regretted her actions. If she had known this would happen, she would have never proceeded with her plans, and James would never be at Xain’s mercy.

“What should I do?” Maxine became anxious

Meanwhile, James sat among the ruins on the mountaintop.

After activating the Novenary Golden Body Siddhi, Empyrean’s Spiritual Energy began to enter his body and nurse his injuries.

The more severe the injury, the stronger his physical strength would become after he recovered.

No matter how bad his injury was, he could recover as long as he was alive and breathing. Recovering from injuries would come with time.

In the blink of an eye, half a day had passed.

James’ injuries were almost completely healed, and even his crippled limbs recovered.

He stood up and stretched his body.

Xain looked at him in disbelief.

He knew James had been grievously injured and was on the verge of death. Yet, here he was alive and well after half a day

The cultivation method he used was nothing short of astounding.

A cultivation method of its kind did not even exist in the Overworld.

His heart was filled with greed.

“Quick, James. Give the cultivation method to me. From now onward, I’ll protect you and ensure your continued survival,” Xain said eagerly.

He desperately wanted to obtain James’ cultivation method.

James looked at Xain.

Xain’s strength exceeded his expectations. He had no idea what Xain’s rank was.

He was unsure whether his ultimate move would be enough to kill Xain.

His ultimate move was devastating

It was one he had never dared to use before because his current cultivation base and rank were insufficient to perform the move. He would die if he forced himself to use it

Even if he ended up surviving, he would most likely become disabled.

He looked at Xain and asked, "Before I give you the cultivation method, I have a few questions for you. If you tell me the truth, I'll give it to you"

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1956 –

Chapter 1956

"Go ahead."

Xain desperately wanted James' cultivation method.

To that end, he would be willing to answer dozens of questions to acquire it. Simply answering a few questions was relatively easy.

James asked, "Is there a crack in the Overworld's seal? Do the Overworld Outsiders pass through the gap in the seal to enter Earth?"

Xain nodded and said, "Yeah. There's a gap in the seal of the Overworld. Going through it will lead to Earth.

James asked again, "Are many Overworld Outsiders going to appear on Earth soon?"

Xain nodded and said, "That's right. Unfortunately, passing through the gap into Earth isn't as easy as it sounds. Perhaps only a hundred people will be able to pass through, whereas the rest will die in the process."

James sighed in relief.

Then, he asked again, "What's your cultivation rank?"

Xain replied honestly. "I'm at the Supernatural Consummation and am one step away from becoming a Herculean."

Hearing this, James was astounded.

He had no idea what it was like to be a Supernatural, nor did he understand the concept of Supernatural Consummation. The only thing he was certain of was the person standing before him was far from a pushover.

Seeing James' confused expression, Xain smiled and said, "The cultivation knowledge on Earth has long been lost. You probably don't have knowledge of ranks above Supernatural. I'll explain it briefly, so you have a vague understanding of it."

James looked at Xain and waited for his answer.

Xain explained, "Only those who have entered the ninth-ranked are called cultivators. The ninth rank is the true beginning of cultivation. There are three shackles in the ninth rank that one must break free of before becoming a Supernatural.

"As for the Supernatural rank, there are also nine Inner Gates. Each time an Inner Gate is opened, one's strength will increase tremendously. I've already broken through the body's nine Inner Gates and reached the Supernatural Consummation, meaning I'm only one step away from becoming a Herculean."

Xain was proud of his rank

In the entire Overworld, my strength is ranked at the top among those of my generation. Even some of the older, more experienced disciples are no match for me."

James felt a chill run down his spine

He never expected Xain to be so strong.

The Supernatural's Nine inner Gates, the Supernatural Consummation.

Xain was terrifyingly strong and was far beyond James in terms of rank

"Can I kill him if I cast Cosmic Destruction?"

James was undecided.

Cosmic Destruction was a devastating Supernatural Power, which was among the other mighty martial art techniques he learned from the island.

At his current strength, he was unable to unleash it. Forcing himself to do so would cause his body to be torn apart.

At that moment, James hesitated.

'Tyus had just become a Supernatural not long ago. Even if he obtained a number of purple fruits and broken free from two shackles in the past six months, he was still far inferior to Xain.

'On the other hand, the Omniscient Deity is shrouded in mystery. I don't know his cultivation rank, so I can't leave the fate of humanity to him.

If I can kill Xain with Cosmic Destruction, I'll be able to bring peace to humanity for a short time even if I die."

If I fail to kill him then my death will be in vain, but it'll be the same outcome as if I don't hand over the cultivation method."

Many thoughts emerged in James' mind right then.

After taking a whole to consider his options, James decided to put his own life on the line.

The best outcome is if he could kill Xain.

If he failed and survived, there was nothing he could do to stop Xain,

"I've already explained so much to you. Hand over the cultivation method, James. I promise to take you under my wing if you pass it to me."

Xain's voice interrupted James' thoughts.

James came to his senses, looked at Xain, smiled, and said, "Of course, I'll definitely fulfill my promise to you, but I've already practiced it to an advanced level. You might not be able to fully grasp it if I simply explained it to you. Come, I'll show you how to perform it myself."

Xain's face lit up with delight.

"Then what are you waiting for? Hurry up."

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1957 –

Chapter 1957

Xain was eager to learn James' cultivation method.

He knew the Earth's ancestors had raised many powerful men that have left behind top-tier martial art skills. He suspected that James had acquired one of them.

James wore a serious expression.

He had not made up his mind yet.

Seeing James' hesitation, Xain said, "Don't worry. I'll definitely keep my word. After you give me the cultivation method, I'll guarantee your safety from this point on. I'll ensure your survival even after the Earth's seal is open."

While Xain was trying to convince James, James was thinking about whether he could kill Xain with his signature martial art skill instead of having to bear the consequences of teaching him the cultivation method.

Xain was ridiculously strong.

If Xain were to suspect his intentions even the slightest bit, his plan would fail.

To successfully kill Xain, he would have to completely catch him off guard.

Xain would surely defend himself if James were to recklessly cast Cosmic Destruction.

James racked his brains to devise a plan to get Xain to completely drop his guard.

After thinking for a while, he looked at Xain and took a deep breath. Then, he said, "The cultivation method improves my physical state. It can temper my body and make it stronger. However, the cultivation method is brutal as it requires one's body to undergo destruction to be reborn, allowing one to break through in battle."

James parted his lips and uttered softly.

"In addition, I've also practiced another signature martial skill, which allows me to cultivate two types of True Energy with different attributes."

James raised his hand while explaining.

Lunar Energy and Terra Energy gathered in his left and right hands respectively.

Xain was astonished by the two bursts of energy that had appeared in James' palms

"Amazing."

According to what he knew, a person could only cultivate one kind of True Energy, and it was impossible for one to be compatible with two different types of True Energy. Yet, he was witnessing a martial artist from Earth wielding two kinds of True Energies simultaneously

His eyes filled with excitement.

"I want it! I want both of the techniques! Teach it to me quickly After you teach me, you'll be a Sacerdotal Sect member I assure you that no one will dare interfere with you from here on "

Xam became increasingly envious of James' cultivation method.

James nodded lightly and said. "Alright I'll show you the first signature martial art skill Eve acquired. You should watch carefully"

Xain fixed his eyes and watched intently

James raised his hand, and two True Energies of different aspects materialized.

The two True Energies drew closer to each other and gradually fused together.

Bzzt!!!

The merging of the True Energies let off a crackling sound.

Once they fused, the energy began to transfpr..

Terra and Luna alternated, Heaven and Earth merged, and Yin and Yang concentrated together to form an unprecedented power

The True Energy in James' body was constantly sucked out and consumed instantly

After the fusion, the strength of the energy was monstrous. Even James, the caster, could barely control it. Cuts formed on his body, and blood oozed out of them.

"S-Such strong energy!"

Xain stared at the concentrated True Energy that had fused in James' palms.

The power coming from the True Energy ball made him tremble in disbelief

James was not a Supernatural, yet he could summon such tremendous power.

If he were to learn it, he would be invincible on Earth once the seal opened.

Conrad was also shocked.

The True Energy ball in James' hand emitted a destructive aura, distorting the sight of their surroundings.

A strong magnetic field formed around James' body.

The martial artists that fled previously were gathered at the mountain's foot. After leaving Floret Palace, they did not disperse but chose to stay at the base of the mountain and waited for half a day.

"What insane energy!"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1958 –

Chapter 1958

“What’s going on? Why is there such a powerful energy?”

Everyone sensed the unbounded energy coming from the mountaintop and felt a sense of foreboding. Creak!

The mountain where Floret Palace was located showed signs of crumbling because of the sheer pressure from the energy, and the people at the mountain foot began to panick.

“This is bad! Run!”

They frantically fled.

James had fused the two True Energies on the mountaintop together and formed a brand new force. He tried his best to control it, but it was too large and too strong for him to manage..

He could hardly control the enormous force.

“Haha!” Xain let out a maniacal laugh.

The energy was powerful!

Its strength was overwhelming!

A martial artist who had not become a Supernatural could use the powerful skill not just to multiply his strength by several times.

“Amazing! This is amazing! Hurry and tell me what this move is called, James.”

His body trembled from trepidation.

Conrad and the other Sacerdotal Sect disciples felt a vigorous energy permeating the air. They could not withstand the energy and were forced to back away.

James stood in the ruins. He raised his hand, and a True Energy sphere the size of a basketball appeared. The True Energy ball shone with a dazzling light.

He looked at the excited Xain and said in a strained voice, “Listen carefully. This move is called Cosmic Destruction.”

“Good, good! This Cosmic Destruction is impressive! That’s enough. I’ve already witnessed this skill’s strength, so you can dispel it now. I can sense that your True Energy isn’t powerful, and forcing yourself to use this technique will result in destructive damage to your body. You’re invaluable to me right now. I don’t want you to die like this.”

Xain parted his lips and stopped James. He could hear James panting and knew James had exhausted all his strength to perform the move. He never thought that James would use it to attack him.

Although the move was strong, Xain knew it was not enough to kill him.

He had reached the Supernatural Consummation, so it was not enough to inflict fatal damage.

At that moment, James suddenly threw it at him.

The True Energy ball shot out in Xain’s direction.

Xain immediately sensed the danger, and his face darkened. “You bastard! You must have a death wish!”

After he cursed, he quickly dodged.

However, he was too late.

The distance between him and James was too close. James’ surprise attack shot out quickly. It appeared before him in the blink of an eye and exploded.

Xain was caught up in the terrifying shock wave from the explosion.

Boom!

The mountaintop where Floret Palace was located exploded instantly.

The explosion’s aftermath caused a shock wave, rippling through the air like water.

The shock wave destroyed everything in its path.

Many of those at the base of the mountain quickly fled.

Although they sensed the danger in advance and fled, the destructive power of the shock wave was tremendous, and the explosion caused mass destruction.

Some people who were caught up in the explosion’s shock wave were disintegrated instantly.

Sometime after the explosion, dust finally began to settle in the surroundings.

A group of martial artists stopped in a mountain far from the Floret Palace. They looked aghast at the fallen mountain in the distance.

“What destructive energy!”

“What happened?”

“James is still on the mountaintop. Since the area got destroyed, does this mean James....”

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1959 –

Chapter 1959

The mountain where Floret Palace once stood was completely demolished.

Everything within dozens of kilometers was reduced to ruins and rubble.

There were no signs of life in the vicinity where Floret Palace used to be. “Is James dead?”

“Did James use his signature martial art skill to kill the Outsiders?”

Many people were puzzled by what had happened.

After the dust settled, the martial artist that had fled returned to the area and tried to find James within the ruins.

Suddenly, rubbles began to move, and a bloodied figure from the ground.

He sat on a rock and gasped for air

“That damned bastard almost killed me.”

Xain was livid.

He did not expect James to suddenly attack him.

Since the attack was practically point blank, he was unprepared. Although he was strong, he almost died from being struck so close.

At that moment, he was covered in blood and looked extremely ragged.

He glanced around his surroundings.

Everything was destroyed.

Conrad and the other Sacerdotal Sect's disciple disappeared without a trace.

He narrowed his eyes.

At that moment, some martial artists approached him.

Seeing Xain get up from the ruins, they reacted in shock and they began backing away panickedly

"Die!" Xain's expression darkened.

He waved his hand, and powerful force swept across the area. The martial artists that approached him were drawn in front of him and slammed into the ground.

However, exerting himself worsened the injuries in his body, and he coughed up blood repeatedly

Maxine got up from the ground without hesitation and glared at Xain, shouting. Where is James? Where is he?"

Xain sneered, "I don't know if that b*stard is dead or alive. He took me by surprise with his attack. Since it even managed to injure me, I'm sure he perished along with the blast"

James actions greatly disheartened him

He felt like it was a waste that James had died before handing over the cultivation techniques Nain asked. Hurry for

Thinking of these, Xain felt furious

He raised his hand suddenly, and a powerful force appeared in his palm.

As soon as he made a move, the injuries in his body were affected, and the True Energy he had gathered dissipated. He could not help stumbling a few steps backward.

Seeing that Xain was injured, some martial artists thought to make desperate efforts to fight back.

Thomas looked at Tobias and Lucjan standing beside him, and gave them a subtle signal.

The two nodded simultaneously.

At that moment, the three suddenly launched an attack on Xain.

“You guys must really want to die!”

Xain was furious and wanted to fight back.

However, his injuries were too severe, and he could not mobilize his True Energy His current strength was less than a hundredth at his peak.

The trio’s attacks blasted him away.

He was subdued instantly.

Several blades were pressed against his neck.

“James! Where are you, James?!”

Maxine went crazy and constantly dug through the debris trying to find James.

Unfortunately, James did not respond, no matter how much she shouted.

The other martial artist went silent.

They knew James had sacrificed himself in the fight.

If Xain was that severely injured, then James who was in the center of the explosion, definitely could not survive it.

Meanwhile, a figure hovered above Mount Tai. She glided among the clouds and looked into the distance. The entire Sol was within her field of vision.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1960 –

Chapter 1960

That person was the Chamber of Scriptures custodian.

She witnessed everything that had happened at Floret Palace

A troubled expression flashed on her intangible face as she watched the area crumble to nothing.

“Doing everything for the sake of your country and its people You embody the spirit of the Earth’s ancestors, and the world needs people like you if everyone were to fear death, the Earth would not have been sealed but destroyed”

The custodian spoke softly at a volume only she could hear

“Gather, soul fragments”

Her spectral hands suddenly moved, and a mysterious mark formed in the air

Then, an invisible force swirled out from her hands.

The force spread across the land, converging at Floret Palace’s location

White specks of light appeared out of the ruins and floated into the sky, forming a translucent figure. The figure quickly left the area and flew toward Mount Tai.

The figure moved rapidly and appeared at Mount Tai almost in the blink of an eye, appearing before the Chamber of Scripture’s custodian.

“How? Ms Custodian?”

James suddenly regained consciousness.

He saw an immaterial figure standing in front of him.

“What happened?”

James was puzzled. He remembered his physical body perished from the force of the Cosmic Destruction he cast, and he lost consciousness instantly.

He checked his body Upon realizing it was intangible, he was shocked.

The custodian said indifferently, “Remember that from now onward, you should avoid acting recklessly no matter what situation you find yourself in. Only by surviving will you be able to carry hope

“A-Am I dead?”

Shock flashed across James’ face

“Theoretically speaking, you’re indeed dead Your physical body was destroyed instantly, and your soul is the only thing left. However, I used powerful magic to forcibly gather your soul fragments together as they had been damaged quite badly” explained the custodian.

Chock appeared on James face

"I'm dead? I died just like that?"

James expression shifted into one of regret

He still had a lot left to do

Now he would not be able to watch Winne grow up

Moreover Wymestead was not fully developed yet

Putting his regrets aside, he was concerned about whether Xain had died.

If Xain died, then his sacrifice would be worthwhile. Otherwise, he would have died in vain.

At that moment, James felt his consciousness gradually dissipating. He felt a mysterious power from the earth tearing his soul apart. His illusory body slowly dispersed and returned to several white specks of light.

The custodian stretched out her pale hands and gently touched the area where James' soul had dissipated.

Powerful energy flowed forth from her and gathered James' soul into an illusory body once more. James was conscious again.

He looked at the custodian and said pleadingly, "Please save me, Ms. Custodian."

"You're beyond redemption."

The custodian replied, "Your body was obliterated, and your soul will soon disappear from this world. When that happens, you will no longer exist in this world."

"Is there really nothing you can do?"

James looked at the custodian and said, "You're incredibly powerful, so you must have a way to save me, right? If you couldn't help me, you wouldn't have gathered my soul fragments."

He definitely believed the custodian could save him.

Otherwise, the custodian would not have gone through the trouble of gathering his soul fragments together

"Do you want to live?" asked the custodian.

James' illusory figure nodded repeatedly. "Yes."

"What's the reason you want to live? Drastic changes are about to take place on Earth. Even if you are resurrected now, you'll die again in the future."

James said with determination, "I can't die yet. I still have so many things left to do. I shoulder the responsibility of protecting the humans on Earth."

"Who placed that responsibility on you?"

For a moment, James could not respond.

After thinking for a while, he said, "As a human from Earth, how can I just watch as my kind perishes? How can I watch them die just like that? Although my strength is limited. I'm willing to give my life for the sake of our Earth's people without a second thought"

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-