Chapter 1995

Mount Bane was a mountain in Sol. Ever since the seal appeared, many unknown mountains suddenly sprung out from nowhere. Many of them were sealed and impossible to navigate, whereas a few were not. At the peak of Mount Bane, James wielded the Primordial Dragon Blade.

Wearing a composed look on his face, he simply gazed at Yandel who was a hundred meters away. Faced against a powerful figure from the Overworld, he was undaunted. Even when his strength was weaker three years ago, he had managed to gravely injure Xain after performing his ultimate move. Now, although his realm was still a distance away from Xain, their strength was comparable. Since Yandel was not any stronger than Xain, James was not afraid.

Wearing a white robe, Yandel swung the fan in his hand as he exuded a charismatic aura. The fan was his weapon. As the fan moved, a mysterious power began to emerge.

“You have a death wish.”

Yandel’s expression darkened.

Then, in an instant, he took a step forward and appeared before James. As he opened his fan, razor-sharp blades appeared by the side and burst forth toward James’ vital points.

Although James was not afraid, he nonetheless proceeded with caution against someone as powerful as Yandel. Unwilling to take him on directly, he hurriedly dodged and appeared a hundred meters away. Rumble!

As the blades struck the ground, the earth shook.

Seeing that his blades missed his target, Yandel accelerated his speed and charged toward James. He appeared ten meters in the air and swung his fan violently, creating a powerful force that shredded through the air.

Boom!

After being struck by the force, the earth rumbled, and a crevice appeared on the ground.

James managed to dodge his attack once more.

As Yandel’s attacks were too ferocious, he was suddenly on the back foot.

“Do you think you can win just by dodging my attacks?”

Seeing that his attacks had missed twice in a row, Yandel was enraged.

Meanwhile, James only smiled faintly.

Then, he charged toward Yandel with extraordinary speed while holding the Primordial Dragon Blade. A Sword Light glimmered, and Sword Energy burst forth. In the blink of an eye, he appeared before Yandel and slashed with his sword.

Yandel raised his fan to block the attack. Powerful energy gathered in his fan, blocking James' attack.

At that moment, James could feel a powerful energy surging forth from the Primordial Dragon Blade. His arm went limp, and his grip on the sword loosened. Before he could react, Yandel struck James' arm with the fan

The Primordial Dragon Blade plummeted to the ground and made a clear clanking sound.

James was obviously at a disadvantage. He was considerably weaker than Yandel both in terms of strength and True Energy

Hahaha

From afar, Wynter snickered. Is this the man who killed Matias? Is this all he's got?”

Saying that, she looked at Xain and giggled. “Yet, you couldn't defeat him. Tell me honestly now, did you go easy on him?”

Xain only smiled faintly.

Indeed, James' realm was weak. However, his power came from his physical body and the black lotus inside his body.

Hence, he remained silent and continued watching the battle. mysterious

Chapter 1996

Samarth approached Xain and whispered, “Xain, why don't we join forces and annihilate him?”

Xain looked at Samarth

Samarth had a murderous look on his face as he said, "I've been observing him for some time. His abilities are bizarre. If we let him go, he'll completely overwhelm us in just a few short years."

Xain thought about it and said, "There's no need to rush things. Let's observe for now."

Meanwhile, James was still engaged in a fierce battle against Yandel

Now that his weapon was gone, he could only fight against his opponent with his physical capabilities. However, even though his physical capabilities were powerful, there was still a disparity of power between him and Yandel. After a few rounds of battle, he began suffering injuries.

However, his physical body was weird. It seemed to be able to rejuvenate by itself.

Boom!

Their fists collided once more

James staggered backward and vomited a mouthful of blood. Then, he lowered his head to look at his palm, on which there were tiny cuts and bruises.

Meanwhile, the injuries were recovering at a rapid speed.

Upon seeing this, James laughed.

Even though he was completely overwhelmed in battle, he was unafraid.

At that moment, he hurriedly retreated to a safe zone as his body exuded a dark aura, which gathered to form the black lotus. The black lotus exuded a bizarre aura that sent a chill down everyone's spines. "What?"

Yandel was stunned.

Staring at James, who oozed Demonic Energy, he cursed, "How dare you cultivate the Demonic Arts?! Today, I shall exterminate you for the sake of the world!"

He immediately appeared a hundred meters in the sky and released his fan, which gradually increased in

Then, the giant fan moved, creating a hurricane that shook even the earth.

James slowly staggered backward. As the powerful energy struck his body, he began to bleed from his skin while enduring the excruciating pain.

As he retreated, the black lotus soared to the sky and discharged a dark fog, which gathered to form a materialized sword

The sword pierced through the hurricane and struck the fan, causing it to disintegrate.

“What?”

Yandel’s face paled as he stumbled backward

At that moment, the black lotus appeared above him and transformed into an illusory mountain, plummeting from the sky and crashing toward him. Unable to withstand the sheer weight of the mountain, Yandel crashed from the sky and collapsed heavily to the ground

Boom!

He collapsed into a pile of rubble.

Meanwhile, the black lotus materialized into a black sword, which descended from the sky and crashed toward where Yandel was located.

Boom!

Immediately, a crater a hundred meters wide was created. Meanwhile, the mountains surrounding Mount Bane disintegrated while the earth shook.

Many witnessed this scene from afar.

Upon seeing Yandel being defeated, they were dumbfounded. Yandel was at the Supernatural Consummation rank. How was he defeated by a martial artist from Earth?

At that moment, James was standing on top of the black lotus. He radiated an overwhelming Demonic Energy, which sent chills down everyone’s spines.

From the rubble below, Yandel dug his way out. His hair was disheveled, and he was covered in blood. He no longer exuded a charismatic aura.

In the distance, Xain and the others were wearing grim expressions.

Leandro glanced at Xain before turning to look at Samarth and Wynter with a murderous look on his face, saying. “This man is too evil. He has to be exterminated. Let’s join forces and wipe him out now.”

Chapter 1997

Leandro Xamir was the butler of the Son of Heaven, a mere servant. However, as the Son of Heaven wielded enormous influence, no one dared cross Leandro. Under normal circumstances, his words represented the Son of Heaven. Upon seeing James' terrifying strength, he intended to exterminate him on Mount Bane.

They looked at one another and nodded.

"I have long wished to annihilate him," Xain said.

After James killed his disciple, he had been thinking of ways to enact revenge. However, he was afraid of James' strength. Now that they joined forces, he was no longer intimidated.

In the distance, Yandel was covered in blood, his hair disheveled. He looked at James furiously and roared, "You've provoked me, you b*stard! I'll tear you to pieces!"

Fwoosh!

At that moment, the sound of the wind could be heard.

James scanned his surroundings.

Xain, Wynter, Samarth, and Leandro had appeared, blocking his path to retreat. They all exuded terrifying auras.

All of them had broken free of the Nine Inner Gates and were now at the Supernatural Consummation rank. As they were merely a few steps away from reaching the Herculean rank, they possessed enormous strength. Their aura began to form a powerful magnetic field.

Trapped in the middle, James could feel terrifying pressure from all sides. James began to have trouble breathing. In just a short amount of time, he was showing signs of plummeting from the sky.

As he discharged waves of Demonic Energy, he turned to look at his opponents.

"Ganging up on me now?"

He smirked coldly.

Leandro said coldly. "As a descendant of sinners, not only did you not repent, but you even followed the path of your ancestors. Today, I shall exterminate you for the sake of humanity."

"Hahaha!"

James burst into a peal of laughter.

"For the sake of humanity? Don't make me laugh."

"Leandro, no need to waste your breath on him. Just do it." Samarth said.

Saying that, he brandished his sword.

Though his sword looked ordinary from the outside, it radiated a white blinding light as it left its sheath He was the first to make a move.

In the blink of an eye, he appeared before James and slashed at James' chest

Before even making contact with the sword, James could feel a terrifying pressure emanating from with immediately, the black lotus below him appeared in front of him and blocked the attack. As the glimmering white light pierced through the black lotus, it was immediately devoured

As Samarth knew how terrifying the black lotus and Demonic Energy were, he hurriedly abandoned his sword and retreated for fear of being contaminated by the Demonic Energy the black lotus possessed James now had a murderous look on his face. It appeared that negotiations would not go through by playing nice

He had no choice but to engage in a battle against them. Though he did not wish to resort to violence, he had no other choice.

"Argh!"

Like a ferocious beast, he roared.

Many living beings had come from the Overworld in the vicinity of Mount Bane over the past three years. James' appearance and his battle against Matias had spread far and wide. Sensing the energy fluctuations in the air, many hurriedly made their way there to spectate the battle. Although they were not as strong as Xain, Samarth, Yandel, and the others, they were no pushovers either.

In a short amount of time, thousands gathered. Upon seeing James surrounded by some of the most powerful figures of the Overworld, they were stunned.

Chapter 1998

“Wh-Who’s that earthling?”

“Why are so many big shots surrounding him?”

“He’s surrounded by so many cultivators at the Supernatural Consummation rank. Even a Herculean might not be able to emerge victorious.”

Many conversed.

Meanwhile, on the battlefield.....

Though Samarth made the first move, his attacks were easily deflected by James. This deeply embarrassed him. His face darkened as he looked at the others, saying. “What are you standing there for? We should attack all at once!”

The others brandished their weapons

Swish!

This time, Leandro was the one who made the move. Holding a sword in his hand, powerful materialized Sword Energy gathered and charged toward James with great force.

The only thing James could rely on was his awakened Natal Supernatural. The black lotus immediately appeared before him and blocked Leandro’s attack. As Leandro’s Sword Energy made contact with the black lotus, it was immediately devoured.

At that moment, James realized that as the Sword Energy was devoured, he could feel a surge of energy gushing through his body, which he instantly absorbed.

“What?”

This discovery delighted James.

It appeared that the black lotus was connected to his body. After consuming energy, the black lotus would transfer the energy to his body, thereby increasing his strength in battle.

Just as he was overjoyed, Yandel appeared behind James in the blink of an eye and struck with great force. At the same time, Xain, Wynter, and Samarth launched their attacks.

James could perhaps hold his ground against a single opponent. Now, however, he was overwhelmed. His back was struck by a fist, his arm was slashed by a sword, and his thigh was struck by a wave of Palm Energy.

At that moment, he was gravely injured. He would have lost his battle prowess if not for his invincible body. Now, he would not have to worry about anything despite being severely injured. That was because his body would rejuvenate at lightning speed.

“What a freak!”

“How is he not dead yet?”

“He’s too powerful. To think that there’s such a terrifying guy amongst the earthlings”

The crowd was stunned by James’ power

Meanwhile, on the battlefield

it was James turn to go on the offensive. As he knew that he would not stand a chance against their combined strength, he had to focus all his attacks on a single individual to take him out. Only then the enemy’s numbers dwindle.

Currently, only Yandel was severely injured.

So, he focused all his attention on him.

As he catalyzed the black lotus, threads of Demonic Energy surged forward in Yandel’s direction.

Upon seeing this, Yandel’s face paled, and he hurriedly fled.

In the meantime, James was attacked once more. Sword Energy, Palm Energy, and terrifying True Energy struck his body. Although his body was severely injured, he would not die. With his overwhelming rejuvenation ability, he took the attacks head-on while directing his attacks toward Yandel alone.

Yandel fled, while James was close on his heels.

Threads of Demonic Energy gained on him and enveloped him.

Trapped, Yandel let loose an agonizing scream.

“Break, goddamn it!”

He roared.

Then, he catalyzed his full force and broke free of the Demonic Energy that enveloped him. Boom!

The Demonic Energy that enveloped him dispersed.

However, Yandel also suffered injuries. At that moment, he was covered in blood from head to toe. Swish!

At that moment, a sword pierced James’ body. At the same time, James was also struck in the chest by a fist. He crashed heavily to the ground and smashed against a mountain.
