

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2071 –

Chapter 2071

Seven days passed by quickly.

News of the fight between James and the Son of Heaven spread like wildfire.

James' action aroused the collective anger of Earth's martial artists.

Martial artists all over the world criticized James for acting recklessly and putting other human lives on the line.

Seven days passed in the blink of an eye, and the date for James' fight against the Son of Heaven had arrived.

Countless warriors gathered on a mountaintop in Mount Bane. The mountain was several thousand meters tall and was surrounded by other towering mountains. The crowd consisted of the Earth's martial artists and the Outsiders, adding up to more than 200,000 people.

A man that looked to be in his twenties appeared on the mountaintop.

He wore a white robe with a golden belt and had a long sword on his back. The man radiated an unearthly charisma.

He was none other than the Son of Heaven.

As soon as the Son of Heaven appeared, the Outsiders in the crowd began to scream.

“Son of Heaven! It's the Son of Heaven! The Son of Heaven is here!!!”

“The Son of Heaven will definitely win!”

A loud wave of cheers resounded, followed by even more deafening chants.

Everyone waited for James' appearance.

At that moment, James was still practicing in the Celestial Abode's Time Chamber. Seven days had passed outside, but in the Time Chamber, he had been practicing for almost two years. With Sophie's guidance, his sword technique had improved significantly in the past two years.

Finally, he integrated all the sword techniques he had mastered into one move.

“Good.”

Sophie watched as James merged the sword techniques into one. Pleased, she said, “James, the technique you’ve learned is from a powerhouse in ancient times.”

“Huh?”

James put away the Primordial Dragon Blade and looked at Sophie, asking, “Isn’t this sword technique a fusion of all the sword techniques I possess? How could it be someone else’s?”

“I might’ve worded it badly. I meant to say that this powerhouse basically merged all of the world’s sword techniques into one.”

“He merged all the world’s sword techniques into one?”

James was surprised.

Sophie nodded and said, “You can use this as a foundation. In the future, regardless of what new sword technique you learn, you can integrate it with the rest. The more sword techniques you possess, the stronger this move will be.

“This is the way of the powerhouse.

“However, his swordsmanship isn’t as simple as I make it out to be. Emperor Jabari had a few encounters with this powerhouse in ancient times and learned a bit about his swordsmanship.

“Emperor Jabari told me this powerhouse’s techniques are divided into five realms, Sword Skill, Sword Shadow, Sword Will, Sword Intent, and Fusion.”

James was dumbfounded.

Seeing the confusion on James’ face, Sophie said, “I know it’s hard for you to understand it. right now. In fact, I haven’t even comprehended it myself. Unfortunately, this powerhouse’s techniques have been lost. If you’re lucky enough to obtain his martial art technique inheritance, you’ll surely become one of the strongest people in this world.

“Alright, that’s enough. You’ve already mastered the technique, and it’s time for you to leave.”

James left the room under Sophie’s guidance.

Seven days had passed, and it was the day he had to fight the Son of Heaven.

James left the Celestial Abode, and it transformed back into a ring and slid onto his finger.

Martial artists surrounded a mountaintop within Mount Bane.

“Why isn’t James here yet?”

“He must be scared.”

“The Son of Heaven is incredibly powerful. He’s ranked top ten within Hazted City.

Meanwhile, James is just a martial artist from Earth. Earth’s people were given too little time. to develop. No matter James’ strength, there’s only so much he can improve.”

“James must be scared to show up. That means one of Earth’s cities will be eradicated.”

“Tsk, tsk! One city has to be eradicated, right? I wonder which city it will be. I suggest destroying Sol’s Capital. There are countless beautiful women there.”

Many Outsiders gathered and discussed.

The Son of Heaven stood on the mountaintop.

The breeze blew toward him, and his long hair fluttered in the air. He waited quietly with his long sword on his back.

He also concluded that James was afraid to show up.

Even if James had the courage to show up, he was confident he could kill him. He would be fine as long as he dodged James’ deadly attacks. He thought James only had one lethal signature. martial art skill, Cosmic Destruction.

Without Cosmic Destruction, James would be nothing but a weakling.

Martial artists from Earth gathered in an open space at the mountain foot.

The strongest people on Earth, the Omniscient Deity, the Prince of Orchid Mountain, Tyrus, and some other martial artists were also present.

In short, all the powerful martial artists of Earth had gathered.

The battle's outcome would decide a city's safety, so they had to come.

All of them wanted James to defeat the Son of Heaven. Although they knew the chances were slim, none of them wanted James to lose the battle.

One of them asked, "Lord Omniscient, what do we do? James must be scared to show up." The Omniscient Deity believed in James. Thus, he replied calmly, "Don't panic. Wait a little longer. I trust in James. He'll definitely show up on time and defeat the Son of Heaven."

James had revealed his strength to the Omniscient Deity. Thus, he was completely confident in James. All he could do now was patiently wait for him to show up.

After James left the Celestial Abode, he walked out of the primary forest. He was currently within Mount Bane's range. He did not know precisely where the battle would be held but spotted a figure after walking for some time.

A person was standing on the mountain in the distance.

He was none other than the Son of Heaven.

After seeing the Son of Heaven, James leaped into the air and appeared mid-air. He walked in the air and sped over. Soon, he appeared on the mountain where the Son of Heaven stood.

"Look! James appeared!"

"James showed up. I didn't expect him to have the guts to come."

"Kill him, Son of Heaven! Kill him! Kill him!"

"Kill James!"

Deafening chants came from around the mountain.

Those shouting were Outsiders. To them, earthlings were sinners and deserved to die.

The Son of Heaven looked at James, and a faint smile appeared on his handsome face.

"I didn't expect you to show up, James. If you had hidden, you could've at least lived for a few more days. Since you just can't wait to die, I shall fulfill your wish today."

"Haha."

James chuckled and said, "It's not certain who'll be the victor."

The atmosphere was tense before the battle even began.

Tristen and the others spectated in the distance.

There were some other powerful Herculean Outsiders standing behind Tristen.

Xain frowned and said, "Since James dared to appear, he must have a trump card. I hope this battle isn't met with unexpected failure. I'm worried the Son of Heaven isn't a match for James."

Xain was well aware of James' potential.

Although James was weak a few years ago, he inflicted severe damage on him and stripped him of his combat strength.

James showed up at the Celestial Abode a few years after that and displayed terrifying strength, even injuring the Son of Heaven.

Another two years passed, and it was unpredictable how much James had grown.

Tristen remained calm and said nonchalantly, "If the Son of Heaven is defeated, I'll personally kill James. No matter what, James must die today. After he dies, Earth will be ours."

Chapter 2073

Whether the Son of Heaven won or not was unimportant to Tristen.

If the Son of Heaven won and wiped out one of the Earth's cities, the martial artists on Earth would undoubtedly stand against them. It was a perfect opportunity to kill all of the Earth's martial artists at once.

If the Son of Heaven were to lose, Tristen planned to take action himself and kill James to avenge the Son of Heaven. His actions would also infuriate the Earth's humans.

James stood on a huge rock at the mountaintop. He wore a white robe and carried a long sword on his back. His hair had grown longer since he had no time to take care of it.

His current appearance made him look like an honorable knight with a strong sense of justice.

He looked at the Son of Heaven and said nonchalantly, "Make your move, Son of Heaven." "I'll fulfill your death wish."

The Son of Heaven looked at him coldly

At that moment, the Son of Heaven activated his True Energy, which flowed through his body. Suddenly, a powerful energy erupted from him and formed an invisible magnetic field. The energy caused the fallen leaves on the ground to rise and circulate around his body.

He stepped out, and the leaves swept toward James like sharp darts.

James stood in place, motionless like a mountain.

He did not do anything to block the attacking leaves.

Although they contained strong power and could kill a Supernatural martial artist instantly, they could not cause him any significant harm.

The leaves struck his body, causing him a tingling pain.

However, they did not inflict any substantial injuries.

Swoosh!

The Son of Heaven drew his sword abruptly.

His long white sword was sharp and had a dazzling glow to it.

The Son of Heaven plunged his sword at James' vitals, showing no mercy. Many people were watching, and he had to defeat and kill James in the shortest possible time.

James also drew his sword.

He had been practicing his swordsmanship in the Time Chamber. After he learned to integrate all his sword techniques, his current swordsmanship was very strong.

The Son of Heaven's movements and sword attacks were incredibly fast. Even a Herculean martial artist would have a difficult time parrying his attack.

As the Son of Heaven unleashed his technique, dozens of Sword Energies burst out from the sword and charged at James.

James calmly raised the Primordial Dragon Blade, and his body flickered, retreating more than a hundred meters away. He slashed his sword forward, and a Sword Energy materialized, charging to meet with the dozens of Sword Energies coming in his direction.

The Son of Heaven's Sword Energy was blocked easily.

However, it was not the end yet.

The Son of Heaven's physical sword was only one meter away from James and was about to thrust into James' body.

At the critical moment, James raised the Primordial Dragon Blade and blocked the tip of the Son of Heaven's sharp sword.

Clank!!!

The two swords met, creating sparks in the air

James felt a terrifying force charging against him like a wave. His body was shocked by the surge of energy and was pushed back. After flying back a hundred meters, James could finally disperse the terrifying force

The rocks under his feet were shattered, and the mountain was also destroyed.

Spectators around the mountain also kept retreating.

James' expression darkened.

After repeatedly condensing his True Energy and using the mysterious flames to refine his True Energy, he thought he would be strong enough to crush a Herculean. He never expected the Son of Heaven to be so strong and capable of pushing him a hundred meters away

The Son of Heaven was also shocked.

Two years ago, James could not even take a single blow from him in the Celestial Abode.

Right now, the Son of Heaven had reached the Herculean Second Layer

Yet, James could block his attack. He was only pushed back, unscathed.

His expression was terrifyingly grim.

"This brat has been growing rapidly. "

The Son of Heaven was shocked by James' strength.

This made the Son of Heaven's murderous intent grow stronger. Regardless of James' strength or resilience, there was only one ending for him today-death!

Many Outsiders and Earth's martial artists gathered around the mountain.

After James and the Son of Heaven exchanged some moves, an uproar ensued.

"H-How is James so strong?"

"I thought the Son of Heaven would kill him in one move. I wasn't expecting him to block the attack without sustaining any injuries. Moreover, he was only pushed back a little after the collision."

"This is the Son of Heaven we're talking about! He's a Herculean Second Layer!"

Many Outsiders exclaimed after witnessing the exchange.

Meanwhile, the Omniscient Deity was relieved to see James being able to block the Son of Heaven's attacks. With a faint smile, he murmured, "This kid sure is growing rapidly. It's only been a few years, but he can already stand against a Herculean. I, on the other hand, have not accomplished much in the past two thousand years."

Actually, it was not because the Omniscient Deity was inefficient in growing in cultivation. rank. The reason he could not improve rapidly was that the Earth's Emyrean Spiritual Energy had not been restored and was incredibly scarce.

Now, the Emyrean Spiritual Energy on Earth was gradually recovering, and many divine objects had appeared, accelerating martial artists' cultivation speed.

Standing on the mountain, James looked at the Son of Heaven solemnly after dispersing the force. Suddenly, a faint smile formed on his face.

"Is that all a Second Layer Herculean can do?"

James had a rough grasp on the Son of Heaven's strength. He knew the Son of Heaven could not inflict injury on him, let alone kill him.

He was confident in winning this battle.

“Damn it.”

Provoked, the Son of Heaven was furious.

He shot up tens of meters into the sky instantly.

“Take this! Blooming Spring!”

The Son of Heaven raised his long sword in the air, and a magical power burst out from his body. The power rapidly sucked all the surrounding energy into his long sword.

Suddenly, a strange phenomenon followed.

The scene of a blossoming field of flowers appeared in the Son of Heaven’s long sword.

“Is that the Four Seasons Sword Art?”

A few Outsiders exclaimed.

“It’s the Overworld’s strongest man, Saint Hazen’s signature sword technique, the Four Seasons Sword Art!”

The Son of Heaven unleashed a terrifyingly strong sword technique. It was ridiculously strong and one that was beyond his rank.

With a flash, the Son of Heaven appeared before James and slashed his sword.

The Son of Heaven slashed his sword at James again.

After he slashed his sword, Sword Energies manifested and formed hundreds of petals, each of which contained terrifyingly strong Sword Energy

The petals and Sword Energies fused to form an enormous sword.

James could feel the oppressive pressure from it.

At that moment, he raised the Primordial Dragon Blade and mobilized all his strength. All his energy concentrated into his long sword, causing it to glow with a dazzling gold light.

James raised his sword to block the attack.

As soon as he lifted his sword, his True Energy formed a Sword Energy and blocked the Son of Heaven's sword.

Boom!

The two Sword Energies collided, causing a massive explosion.

As a result, a monstrous shock wave swept the surroundings and instantly collapsed the mountain.

James was blasted away by the terrifying force. The powerful energy made James feel like his body was tearing apart. At the critical moment, powerful Demonic Energy was unleashed in his body.

The Demonic Energy surged throughout his body and healed his injuries instantly.

Even so, his body still slammed into the ground.

Boom!

He made a heavy impact on the ground, causing the mountain to shake and further disintegrate. Boulders began to crash down the mountain, and the whole scene looked like the end of the world.

James fell into the ruins and was buried by rubble.

“Is he dead?”

“That was the Overworld's strongest man's signature martial art skill, the Four Seasons Sword Art. The Son of Heaven merely used the first move of this technique. It's a formidable move. James has to be dead.”

All the Overworld's Outsiders were convinced that James was dead because the Four Seasons Sword Art was a famous sword technique in the Overworld.

The Son of Heaven hovered in mid-air. His hair fluttered in the air, and he looked incredibly mighty.

He looked down at the ruins below him.

His face was calm and confident. The sword technique was his teacher's signature martial art skill. It consisted of four moves, each of which contained terrifying strength. Even an opponent of a higher rank than him would not be able to withstand the attack.

James was struck by his attack and must have died.

Even though James had a strong physical body, he would not have made it.

"James is dead."

The Son of Heaven's voice resounded in the area.

"I will send my men to eradicate one of the Earth's cities. I've decided it to be Sol's Capital." "What?"

"What?!"

"He's going to eradicate the Capital?!"

The Earth's martial artists were shocked since most of them were from Sol.

They knew the importance of Sol's Capital. The world would surely be thrown into chaos if Sol's Capital was destroyed.

Everyone was shocked and dumbfounded by the announcement.

At that moment, the rubbles in the ruin began to move. Suddenly, a hand stretched out from the ruins and moved the wreckage out of the Way.

The surrounding rubble was swept away.

Then, a man covered in blood climbed out of the rubble on the ground.

He looked miserable as his white robe was stained with blood and dirt.

It was James.

James could not withstand the Son of Heaven's Four Seasons Sword Art. Although he sustained injuries, they were not severe.

His injuries were almost nearly recovered, and it would not affect him from continuing the battle.

He got up from the ruins and rested on a huge rock.

James murmured, "That was some powerful sword technique. I'm fortunate my physical body is strong enough. If he can't kill me instantly, I can recover from it. Tristen might be the only person who can kill me instantly."

The Son of Heaven was strong and displayed terrifying skills.

However, James was still confident in his own strength.

James was sure the Son of Heaven could not kill him regardless of his strength.

Chatter resounded around him.

"What? He's not dead yet?"

"James survived that?"

"Is he a monster? How is he still alive after sustaining such a powerful blow?"

The Outsiders were shocked.

The Earth's martial artists sighed in relief.

"James isn't dead. He hasn't lost yet."

"I underestimated James. He actually survived the Son of Heaven's ultimate move. Although he looks a little pathetic, he seems capable of continuing the fight. This battle is going to be interesting. Perhaps James might really win this."

Seeing James resting on a rock, many of the Earth's martial artists gained confidence in him.

"Get up and fight, James! Destroy the Son of Heaven!"

"Kill him, James!"

A few of them shouted in support of James.

Their deafening shouts resounded throughout the area.

James rested for a few minutes until the injuries on his body were completely healed. Under the gaze of thousands of people, he slowly stood up from the ground and stretched his body.

Then, he raised his head to the sky.

The Son of Heaven was hovering in the sky, looking at James from above.

He never expected James to still be alive.

“You sure are resilient, James. I’d like to see how many more blows you can take.”

The Son of Heaven raised his long sword, and his aura changed instantly, causing hot to sweep the surroundings.

His long sword gradually transformed into a fiery red color. Suddenly, a strange scene was projected on his long sword.

A scorching sun could be seen shining down on the grounds.

As the sun’s glare met the ground, the grounds caught on fire.

“It’s the Four Seasons Sword Art’s second move, the Scorching Sun. The first move is already challenging to learn, but he actually mastered the second move?”

“Amazing! He’s amazing!”

“James will surely die this time.”

The Overworld Outsiders were excited.

The Outsiders from different worlds were also shocked by the Son of Heaven’s technique.

Standing on the ground below, James could sense the heat and scorching air from the sky. If he were an ordinary martial artist, his body would not be able to bear the sweltering heat Waves.

However, the heat had no effect on James at all.

He had refined his body in the mountains on fire inside the ancient battlefield for a period of time. Moreover, he used the magical flames to refine his True Energy. Thus, his physical body and True Energy had become somewhat immune to high temperatures and flames.

James smiled faintly and braved the heat. He leaped into the air and slowly soared higher

“What is he doing?”

The Son of Heaven was dumbfounded.

The Four Seasons Sword Art had four attributes, each one stronger than the previous one.

He was casting the Four Seasons Sword Art’s second move.

Although he had not attacked with his sword, the energy emanating from his body was powerful. Even a powerhouse of the same rank as him would not dare to continue the fight.

Meanwhile, James was not even a Herculean yet.

“What a freak. I have to kill him.”

The Son of Heaven’s face darkened, and a murderous intent rose in his heart.

“Scorching Sun!”

Flames burst out from the long sword and shot up into the sky, forming a huge fireball.

The fireball hovered in the sky like a scorching sun.

As the fireball formed, the surrounding plants were burned by it.

The martial artists spectating the fight retreated into the distance.

The heat waves in the area were unbearable and even burned the plants. Some of the rocks on the ground could not stand the heat and exploded. A few ores on the ground turned red from the heat.

James stood in the center of the battlefield. Apart from feeling a little bit of heat, it was nothing to him, and it did not cause him any damage.

“Strike!”

The Son of Heaven floated in mid-air. He tilted his sword, and the raging fireball formed by his True Energy charged toward the ground.

James smiled faintly, and he flew in the fireball’s direction.

At that moment, his True Energy was completely restored. He quickly concentrated them into the Primordial Dragon Blade.

His sword glowed with a dazzling golden light.

Holding his sword, James approached the fireball formed from Fire Sword Energy.

James pierced through the fireball with his sword.

The fireball burst in the sky and disintegrated into thousands of Sword Energies, spreading out in all directions.

Rumble!

The Flame Sword Energies struck the ground, causing the land and mountains to tremble. In an instant, the skies darkened.

James broke through the Son of Heaven's Scorching Sun.

He floated in the sky unscathed and looked at the Son of Heaven, saying calmly, "Go ahead and use whatever tricks you have up your sleeves."

James was not afraid of the Son of Heaven.

He was determined to kill the Son of Heaven today to display his strength to everyone.

The spectators watching from a distance were dumbfounded.

"What just happened?"

"The Son of Heaven's attack was definitely destructive. However, it didn't even scratch James. How did James dispense that attack?"

Everyone was dumbfounded.

The Son of Heaven's second attack was evidently much more powerful than his first attack. Yet, James could break through the second attack despite being unable to block the first attack.

James' strength shocked the Outsiders once again.

On the other hand, the martial artists from Earth were excited.

The humans of Earth would have a more peaceful life in the future if James displayed great strength.

James calmly floated in the sky.

The Son of Heaven's face was livid and distorted.

He was not expecting James to break the Four Seasons Sword Art's second move.

"B*stard, I underestimated you. Haha..."

The Son of Heaven burst out laughing.

However, his laugh was hostile and contained strong murderous intent.

"Let's see you take my third move!"

The Son of Heaven's energy changed again.

He raised his hand and brandished his sword.

Another strange vision was displayed on his long sword.

Swoosh!

The autumn breeze blew up fallen leaves, causing them to flutter in the air.

The Son of Heaven's Sword Energy transformed into fallen leaves and swept through the sky. Every leaf had destructive power, enough to kill a Herculean.

The scene was magical and dreamy.

"What a powerful sword technique."

James was also shocked.

This time, the Son of Heaven's attack was much more bizarre and more substantial than his last one.

Before James could react, the Sword Energy pierced through the sky and turned into fallen leaves. The scene made it feel like they were witnessing a beautiful scenery in autumn.

Despite the beauty of the scene, it contained terrifyingly strong energy.

James floated in the air, and his energy was intense. The Primordial Dragon Blade shone with a golden light. At that moment, he unleashed his full strength and swung his sword. A powerful Sword Energy would materialize and slice the leaves each time he waved his sword.

Rumble!!!

The collision of their strong Sword Energies caused a burst of destructive force.

Despite that, James was slightly lacking in strength compared to the Son of Heaven. His movements were also slower. After barely parrying the Son of Heaven's attack, he was exhausted and looked disheveled.

He was injured by the leaves formed by Sword Energy, which attacked all his vitals-his chest, thighs, and arms.

In just an instant, his body was covered in injuries.

However, the injuries recovered at a speed visible to the naked eye.

James laughed out loud. "Haha! Son of Heaven, you can't do anything to me."

His arrogant and confident laughter echoed through the sky.

"You're still acting tough even when your death is imminent."

The Son of God looked at him coldly.

He charged at James and pierced his long sword at James' vitals at incredible speed.

James raised his sword to block the Son of Heaven's attack.

Clank!

The two swords collided.

James felt a powerful force spreading throughout his body along the Primordial Dragon Blade. His hands went numb from the shock, and his body was blasted down from the sky, plummeting to the ground.

Before he hit the ground, he dispersed the force and quickly landed, stumbling a few steps forward. As he took the few steps forward, the force destroyed a few massive trees, and some rocks burst instantly.

Sword Energies and leaves chased after him from the sky.

James was struck in the back.

The Sword Energy pierced through his body, causing him fatal damage.

His body was smashed into the ruins.

Before he could get up, he sensed a terrifying force approaching.

He immediately jumped into the distance like a spring.

Boom!

The area where he was before exploded instantly and crumbled.

“As expected from a Second Layer Herculean. He’s not an easy opponent.”

James panted.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2078 –

Chapter 2078

The Son of Heaven was too powerful.

Even though James had constantly compressed his True Energy and had extraordinary physical strength, he was still being suppressed by the Son of Heaven, who was a Second Layer Herculean.

“Four Seasons Sword Art, Freezing Snow!”

At that moment, a furious growl echoed in the sky.

The Son of Heaven was furious.

He felt tremendous shame from not killing James after the intense fight had extended for a long time.

He unleashed the Four Seasons Sword Art’s last move, which was also the strongest one.

Hovering in the sky, his aura changed again. Immediately afterward, he waved his sword in the air, and a gust of cold air swept across, freezing everything in its path.

The mountain below him froze instantly.

James was slow to react to the attack, and his body was frozen into an ice sculpture in an instant.

“It’s time you die, James!”

After freezing James, the Son of Heaven charged at him. His long sword was surrounded by white mist, and cold air swept across as he slashed at James.

“Die!”

The Son of Heaven’s expression was hideous and terrifying.

“This?”

The spectators were shocked.

Was James about to die?

The battle was about to end.

Everyone thought James was doomed.

Just when the Son of Heaven’s sword slashed out, James broke free from the ice at a critical moment.

The ice around his body shattered instantly.

James quickly drew his sword and appeared before the Son of Heaven.

The two seemed to have frozen in place.

The Son of Heaven stood there in a daze.

James’ Primordial Dragon Blade had pierced through his body.

“You...”

The Son of Heaven’s eyes widened in disbelief.

His blood was overflowing, and his life was slowly withering away.

Everyone speculating was dumbfounded.

They only saw James breaking free from the ice and charging at the Son of Heaven. Before they knew it, his sword had pierced through the Son of Heaven’s body. No one saw clearly how James made the attack.

The long sword pierced the Son of Heaven's body.

James looked at the terrified Son of Heaven calmly.

"You lost, and your defeat means death."

James drew his sword, and blood splurged from the Son of Heaven's chest.

Urging all his strength, James slammed his palm at the Son of Heaven. His powerful palm attack struck the Son of Heaven, sending him flying into the distance.

At that moment, James appeared tens of meters in the sky, and the Primordial Dragon Blade burst out with dazzling Sword Energy. The Sword Energy slashed down from the sky, slicing the Son of Heaven in half.

James' body slowly descended from the sky, and he stood on a rock.

Tens of thousands of martial artists were spectating the fight.

However, no one spoke, and the atmosphere was tense.

W-Was this the end?

The Son of Heaven was defeated?

The Son of Heaven died?

They were in disbelief.

No one could believe a Second Layer Herculean like the Son of Heaven would lose to James, an earthling.

The results were unbelievable.

"Amazing!"

After a momentary silence, passionate shouts suddenly sounded from a distance.

The shouts came from the Earth's martial artists.

Having been mistreated and suppressed by the Outsiders for many years, James finally avenged the Earth's martial artists today.

"You're amazing!"

"Good job, James!"

“Nice one! Nice one!!!”

Some martial artists had family members killed by the Outsiders, and they were on the verge of tears.

James remained calm.

He did not feel conceited after killing the Son of Heaven.

The Son of Heaven was not considered strong. There were many other people on Earth who were more potent than him. Moreover, the batch of Outsiders currently roaming the Earth was considered weak. Once the seal opened, many powerhouses would descend on Earth.

It would be hard for Earth’s martial artists to fight back when the time came.

Chapter 2079

The Son of Heaven was dead.

His sliced body fell to the ground, marking the end of his life.

The Son of Heaven had extraordinary prestige in the Overworld.

Moreover, he was adopted from birth and taught by the strongest powerhouse in the Overworld. He grew up with a golden spoon and practiced unrivaled sword techniques.

With his talent, he would have a bright future if he remained alive.

However, he was dead.

He tragically died on Earth.

Meanwhile, Earth’s martial artists were rejoicing.

After being suppressed by the Outsiders for so long, James finally avenged them.

“You’re amazing, James!”

“James is invincible! You’re the pride of the Earth’s humans!”

Following the Son of Heaven's death, the martial artists who criticized James previously were elated and shouted in joy.

In the distance, Tristen and the other Outsiders had grim expressions after witnessing the Son of Heaven's death. They knew the Son of Heaven's strength, and even they themselves were not a match against him, let alone be able to kill him.

However, Tristen remained calm.

One of the Outsiders asked, "Lord Tristen, what should we do now?"

Tristen replied calmly, "What else can we do? We'll have to seize this chance to kill James and arouse the anger of the Earth's martial artists. Then, we'll wipe them all out at once."

After speaking, Tristen flew toward the ruins. Floating tens of meters in the air, he looked at James below him condescendingly. With a grim expression, he said coldly, "Do you know what you've done, James?"

James did not expect Tristen to appear at that moment.

He frowned and looked at Tristen, asking, "What do you mean?"

Tristen said coldly, "You should've held back in the battle. Yet, you were ruthless and showed no mercy. You killed the Son of Heaven and didn't even leave his corpse in one piece. You're a merciless human and will become a scourge if I don't get rid of you. Today, I must eliminate the potential threat toward my people and kill you."

His voice resounded.

Hearing this, Earth's martial artists were furious.

The Omniscient Deity was the first to step up and express his displeasure. "What's the meaning of this, Tristen? This was supposed to be a death duel, and both gambled their lives. If James won, the Son of Heaven was to die. If James were to be defeated, the Son of Heaven would send men to eradicate one of the Earth's cities. Yet, you're accusing James of being ruthless?"

"That's right!"

"Do you want to go back on your words?"

"You guys have no credibility at all!"

The other martial artists from Earth began to speak out and stood on James' side.

Tristen's face darkened, and he snorted. "Hmph."

"James broke my city's rule by committing homicide. As for the bet, it was between him and the Son of Heaven. It has nothing to do with me or Hazted City. Today, I must end his life! Are you guys going to stand against me?"

"Does anyone have any objections?"

His words resounded through the sky, echoing in the ears of Earth's martial artists.

The Earth's martial artists were frightened and did not dare to speak out, fearing they would anger Tristen and cause their own deaths.

"Kill James!"

"Avenge the Son of Heaven!"

"Kill him!"

The Outsiders shouted furiously, especially the Son of Heaven's subordinates. They knew they were not a match against James. Otherwise, they would have taken action to slaughter James with their own swords.

"James, do you accept your fate of dying by my hands?"

Tristen's voice resounded again.

"I'll give you a chance to live. You can make a move against me. If you defeat me, you can live. If you lose the battle, you'll be buried here."

"You..."

James stared at Tristen, who was hovering above him. His heart was boiling with anger

Tristen had permitted the battle between them. Now that he had killed the Son of Heaven, he accused him of being merciless.

"Don't go too far, Tristen."

James gritted his teeth.

Tristen's face darkened, and he let out a cold snort. "Hmph."

Chapter 2080

With a flash, Tristen appeared in front of James. Before James could react, he was struck by a terrifying force and blasted into the distance. His body slammed into a cliff in the distance.

Boom!

The cliff collapsed instantly, and James' body fell into the rubble.

Tristen's attack was horrifyingly powerful.

He was at the Herculean's Sixth Layer and only one step away from reaching the Immortal Ascension

His rank was a few layers higher than the Son of Heaven's.

Thus, his strength was much more substantial than James'.

James was powerless against his attacks.

After falling into the rubble, he struggled to get up from the ground. He sat on a rock, covered in blood. He glared at Tisten, who was floating in the distance.

"Do you have no morals, Tristen? How can you not keep your promise? You clearly agreed to my battle against the Son of Heaven..

Before he could finish speaking, Tristen appeared before him again and landed a strong. kick James was sent flying again, and his body curved into an unnatural position. He would have died instantly if not because his body had been reformed with the Demonic Lotus.

His body slammed into the ground and crushed a boulder.

"Damn it."

"B*stard."

"That b*stard isn't going to stay true to his word."

The Earth's martial artists were furious.

Despite their displeasure, they were powerless against Tristen. Even the Omniscient Deity could only stand aside with a sullen expression as he watched James being tortured.

He wanted to help James, but he was inferior to Tristen. If Tristen was determined to kill him, he would not be able to fight back at all.

“What should I do?”

The Omniscient Deity was anxious.

Thomas approached the Omniscient Deity and said pleadingly, “Lord Omniscient, please help James.”

Even Langston, Tyrus, and some others came to the Omniscient Deity and begged him to rescue James.

Apart from James, the other strongest person on Earth was the Omniscient Deity. He was the only person who could save James.

However, the Omniscient Deity wore a troubled expression as he replied, “I also wasn’t expecting Tristen to go back on his word. I’d love to help James, but there’s nothing I can do. Moreover, even if I have the strength to go against him, I can’t. My guess is this is Tristen’s plan to infuriate us to fight back against him, allowing him to wipe us all out at once.”

The Omniscient Deity saw through Tristen’s motives.

“Then, what should we do?”

Delainey said anxiously, “We can’t just watch James be beaten to death by an Outsider, right?”

The Omniscient Deity fell silent.

There was nothing he could do to help.

In the distance, Tristen dragged James’ body up from the ground and struck him consecutively. James’ chest sank, and blood gushed out from his mouth.

At that moment, James looked miserable.

He desperately wanted to fight back but was being immobilized by Tristen’s powerful energy. Moreover, his True Energy was sealed, and he could not mobilize it to resist Tristen’s attacks. Thus, he could only be beaten.

Tristen was too strong, and James was powerless to resist.

“What do we do? What do we do?”

The Earth’s martial artists became anxious.

Swoosh!

Just when James was at his last string, a burst of energy cut through the area.

A long black sword fell from the sky.

“To whoever dares lay a hand on James, I’ll annihilate your entire family

A voice echoed.

Hearing the voice, everyone looked for its source.

In the distance, a figure walked in the air.

It was a woman dressed in white. She had long, black hair, delicate features, and fair skin, making her look like a goddess.

“Thea?”
