Chapter 2084

Compared to James killing the Son of Heaven, Thea killing Tristen was a more shocking event. Thea smiled and greeted these people one by one.

“Alright, let’s go.”

James stood up and said, “After Tristen’s death, I’m sure the Outsiders won’t dare to do anything to the Earth’s humans. However, as time passes, more powerful Outsiders would appear on Earth. We’re going to face a bigger crisis in the future. So everyone should go and practice hard. The Earth depends on all of you to protect it in the future.”

“Mhm, everyone should disperse now.”

Thea said, “I’ve been in seclusion for many years, and there are many things I still need to settle.”

After speaking, she pulled James and left.

Thea and James left Mount Bane under countless gazes.

James sat on a rock on a cliff out of Mount Bane’s range, and Thea stood beside him.

back

James talked about all the events that happened in the past few years, including Maxine kidnapping Winnie, him injuring Xain in Floret Palace with his signature martial art skill, him dying after exploding during the wedding, and then the custodian reforming his body with the Demonic Lotus to resurrect him.

Then, he told her about the Celestial Abode, which appeared after he was resurrected, and how he worked hard to obtain it.

In these years, James had experienced a lot, and he could not finish telling her all the stories even if he talked for days. Thus, he only brought up the main events.

Thea listened with a touch of distress on her face. She reached out her hand to touch James’ blood-stained face and said sorrowfully, “Thank you for working so hard for the past few years. The Earth would’ve fallen long ago if it weren’t for you.”

James grinned and said, “You’re the biggest hero this time. You killed Tristen and restored temporary peace on Earth.”

“By the way, how’s Winnie?” asked Thea.

It had been more than five years since she had gone to the Chamber of Scriptures to purify her Demonic Energy.

Winnie was already six years old.

Speaking of Winnie, James had a guilty expression as he said, "In the past few years, I only managed to visit her a few times. As a father, I've failed her."

Thea interrupted James and said, "I'm sure Winnie will come to understand, and in the future, she'll definitely be proud of you."

James nodded gently and asked, "What are you planning to do next?"

Thea shook her head gently and said, "I don't know. I'm still clueless about the current situation on Earth. But, for me, Winnie is my priority. I plan to accompany Winnie for a while if there aren't any major events."

James nodded and said, "Mhm. I think you should cultivate in the Celestial Abode. There's a Time Chamber in there and also countless divine objects. If you cultivate in the Celestial Abode, you should be able to improve very quickly."

"We'll talk about it after I spend some time with Winnie."

At the moment, Thea only wanted to see Winnie. She did not care about anything else.

James nodded and said, "Alright. I'll accompany you to Lothian."

Thea shook her head and said, "I can go myself. There are many things that you need to settle. Besides Wrymstead's affairs, Mount Bane's situation is pretty dire. Many Outsiders roam the area, and you'll need to figure out how to deal or negotiate with them."

The two chatted on the mountain for a while.

After their discussion, Thea headed to Lothian to see Winnie and bring her to Cansington.

She wanted to stay with her family in Cansington.

As for James, he went to deal with other matters.

James agreed with Thea's arrangements.

He had been in seclusion for a long time and did not know how Wrymstead was doing. Wrymstead was his country, which he carefully established. In the future, it would be humanity's safehold. Thus, he had to pay much more attention to its development.

His plan was to return to Wrymstead for now. Then, he had to discuss with the Omniscient Deity and Langston their following steps.

Moreover, there were only a few more years until the seal opened.

According to the timeline, there were only four more years left. When the seal opened, it would be Earth's doomsday.

Chapter 2085

After James chatted briefly with Thea, the two separated for the time being.

James headed to Wrymstead, whereas Thea headed to Lothian to bring Winnie to Sol's Cansington.

He planned to return to Wrymstead, go through the country's development, and discuss with Earth's martial artists how to deal with the Outsiders on Mount Bane and in Hazted City.

After finishing these matters, the two would meet up in Cansington.

James left Mount Bane.

Half a day later, he arrived in Wrymstead.

After so many years, Dragonville had developed rapidly and become a modern city. It was enormous and could accommodate at least 300 million people.

Additionally, four cities were built around Dragonville.

According to the scale, each city could accommodate 100 million people.

After James returned to Wrymstead, Delainey from the Mount Thunder Sect also returned.

At that moment, many people were gathered in Wrymstead's Imperial Palace's main hall. The palace was built because of Wrymstead's autocracy system.

These people were Wurmstead's core leaders and senior authorities.

Delainey took the lead and said, "James, the Black Dragon Army's soldiers have already all become martial artists in the past few years. Although their overall strength is relatively weak, they're still much stronger than ordinary humans. With high-tech weapons, they're a pretty unrivaled army."

"Mhm."

Seated on the highest platform, James nodded slightly and asked, "What's the average strength of the Black Dragon Army right now?"

Delainey replied, "Under the training of the Mount Thunder Sect's disciples, the Black Dragon Army soldiers are mostly first-ranked grandmasters. Only very few have entered the second rank."

After the brief report, James learned that the Southern Plain's Black Dragon Army had all become martial artists. However, their ranks were still relatively low.

Most were first-ranked grandmasters, and only a few had reached the second rank.

Sitting on the high platform, James touched his chin pensively.

What's the most important thing right now?

It was time.

James needed more time. If he had enough time, he could build an invincible army within a few decades or even a few hundred years.

Suddenly, he had an idea.

'Don't I have the Celestial Abode?'

James suddenly thought of the Celestial Abode and the Time Chamber.

He could send the Black Dragon Army into the Celestial Abode to cultivate for a while in batches. After training in the Time Chamber for a few years, they would be an unmatched army by the time the seal opened.

"James?"

While James was deep in thought, Quincy suddenly interrupted him.

Hearing the voice calling out for him, he looked in her direction.

Quincy stood in the hall wearing a red dress and high heels. Even her hair was red, and her lips too. Her figure was as hot as ever.

“Hmm?”

James looked at Quincy and asked, “What’s wrong?”

Quincy replied, “To develop Wyrmsstead, we’ve burned through a lot of money. Over the years, the savings from New Era Commerce has almost run dry. At this rate, New Era Commerce will not be able to provide any more funds in about six months.

“What?” James was taken aback.

Were they out of money?

He thought his country’s funds would continue to flow with New Era Commerce supporting them from behind the scenes.

After thinking for a while, he said, “I’ll come up with a solution for funds. What I need right now is to build a truly invincible army. Delainey, choose some high-potential, disciplined, and loyal soldiers from the Black Dragon Army. I’m going to focus on training these people up.” Delainey asked, “How many people do you need?”

James thought for a while and said, “One hundred thousand people is enough.”

The Celestial Abode’s Time Chamber was not really big and could only accommodate about a hundred people each time. It would be hard to allocate equal time for everyone if there were too many people. Moreover, it would also cause them to have a massive gap in strength. “Alright.”
