

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2086 –

Chapter 2086

Delainey nodded and said, "I'll make arrangements right away."

"Mhm."

James trusted Delainey to take charge.

Moreover, there were plenty of Empyrean herbs in the Celestial Abode and the Time Chamber.

There were four more years left before the seal was opened. Within four years, he would definitely be able to create an army of Herculean soldiers.

They would be an invincible army.

"That's it. Everyone's dismissed."

James slightly waved his hand.

Everyone left one after another.

James and the Blithe King sat in the palace's backyard on stone chairs.

The Blithe King said worriedly, "Earth's situation has become increasingly dire in the past few years. As time goes by, more Outsiders will appear on Earth. If this continues, Earth will perish sooner or later."

James smiled faintly and said, "There's nothing to worry about. Whatever comes our way, we'll figure something out."

The Blithe King looked at James and asked, "Do you have any plans for the future?"

James said, "I want to build an invincible army."

After he spoke, he casually waved his hand.

A ringer slipped off his finger and fell to the ground. It gradually grew in size and turned into a small house.

James waved his hand, and the little house floated onto his hand. Then, he placed it on the stone table.

“What’s this?”

The Blithe King was surprised.

“I-Is this the Celestial Abode that appeared on Mount Bane?”

It had been more than two years since the Celestial Abode had appeared on Mount Bane. Since Blithe King was now an important official in Wrymstead, he naturally heard about it.

“Yeap.”

James smiled faintly. He held on to the Blithe King’s hand, and with a thought, the two disappeared and were transported into the Celestial Abode.

They appeared on a mountaintop within the Celestial Abode.

James pointed to the Emyrean herbs around the mountain and said, “This is what I’m going to use to build my invincible army. There are still four more years before the seal opens. I’ll train one hundred thousand people into Herculeans.”

As a human of Earth and a senior authority of Wrymstead, the Blithe King also had the chance to visit the Celestial Abode on Mount Bane.

Thus, he had been inside the Celestial Abode before.

However, the Celestial Abode looked completely different from the last time he had been in it. He never expected the Celestial Abode to have been claimed by James.

“You want to train one hundred thousand people into Herculeans within four years. Don’t you think you’re overreaching, James?”

A burst of laughter resounded.

Suddenly, a woman in a white dress appeared.

It was Sophie.

She smiled at James and said, “You haven’t even become a Herculean yourself.”

James chuckled and said, “It’s different now. I have the Celestial Abode and the ability to build an invincible army. Plus, I have you to help me bring them into the Time Chamber.”

Sophie rolled her eyes in thought.

“I’ll help you, James. I can help you train them not just into Herculeans, but I could even help them reach the Immortal Ascension! And I can also teach them powerful formations! A super formation that one hundred thousand people can perform!”

Sophie looked at James with a smile.

James looked at her and asked, “What do you want this time?”

“Haha! You know me very well. I’d like to see Time Avenue’s inscription. Just nod and agree to it. Then, I’ll help you.”

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2087 –

Chapter 2087

“The Time Avenue’s Inscription?”

James was stunned. He had no idea what that was.

Seeing James’ puzzled expression, Sophie explained with a smile. “You don’t need to know what it is yet. As long as you nod and agree, I’ll go and take a look, and you won’t lose anything.”

James was worried Sophie was scheming against him, but he sighed in relief after hearing her reassurance. He nodded and said, “Alright, I agree to it.”

Sophie laughed and said, “Alright, then. I promise to help you train up an invincible army!” After speaking, her body flickered, and she disappeared.

James touched his nose.

The Blithe King gave him a thumbs up and said with admiration, “I never expected you to have become the Celestial Abode’s master, James.”

James smiled and said, “With the Celestial Abode, it won’t be hard to train up an invincible army within a few years. So, when the Earth falls into chaos, I’ll have the strength to resolve all the problems that come our way.”

“I’m looking forward to it.”

The Blithe was excited to witness James accomplish his plans.

Afterward, James showed the Blithe King around the Celestial Abode.

Then, they left.

James decided to temporarily live in Wurmstead in the Southern Plains.

As for Delaney, she quickly made arrangements to select some disciplined and responsible soldiers from the Black Dragon Army.

Soon, the selection of one hundred thousand soldiers was completed.

The Celestial Abode was to remain an absolute secret. James did not want others to know that he had acquired the Celestial Abode. If he were exposed, he would definitely be targeted by people with wicked intentions.

He made the selected soldiers sign a non-disclosure agreement to ensure nothing went wrong. Henry appeared in Wurmstead's Imperial Palace's backyard and approached James, who was sitting on a stone chair in a daze. He shouted, "James, we've already finished the process of signing the non-disclosure agreements."

James returned to his senses and nodded lightly. "Mhm."

Henry sat down and asked, "What're you trying to do after choosing one hundred thousand soldiers this time, James? Will they be going on some secret operation?"

He was still clueless about James's intention of training an army of 100,000 soldiers.

For now, the Blithe King was the only person who knew about the details.

Even Delaney was unaware of James' real intention of selecting these 100,000 soldiers.

James stood up and said with a smile, "You'll find out later. For now, relay the message to them to gather and head to Mt. Thunder Pass. Remember, act separately and ensure that our tracks are covered. The whole world has its eyes on Wurmstead right now. I don't want our every move to be known by the other countries."

"Alright." Henry nodded immediately.

Then, he went to the military region and relayed the order.

In a few batches, the 100,000 troops secretly made their way to the Southern Plains' Mt. Thunder Pass.

On the other hand, James had already departed to Mt. Thunder Pass before them.

James stood on Mt. Thunder Pass' peak, and several people were standing behind him—the Blithe King, Henry, and Delaney.

At that moment, James' ring transformed into a house-sized courtyard on Mt. Thunder Pass. "What?"

Henry and Delainey were shocked.

Delainey's pretty face was full of astonishment. She exclaimed, "Isn't this the Celestial Abode that appeared on Mount Bane?"

Surprised, Henry also asked, "James, you got through the ninth barrier and obtained the Celestial Abode?"

James smiled faintly and said, "That's right. I passed through the ninth barrier and claimed the Celestial Abode. This abode will become our hope in surviving the impending apocalypse. These one hundred thousand soldiers we've selected will be sent into the Celestial Abode to undergo special training to build an invincible army."

Henry recollected himself from the shock.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2088 –

Chapter 2088

"No wonder the Celestial Abode disappeared from Mount Bane. Turns out it was with James!"

Delainey looked at James with admiration and said smilingly, "Right now, the Outsiders are guessing who obtained the Celestial Abode. No one would've guessed you were the one who obtained it!"

James said, "The one hundred thousand soldiers are coming in batches, and it should take some time before they reach Mt. Thunder Pass. Come, I'll show you around the Celestial Abode first."

He casually waved his hand, and the Celestial Abode's gateway appeared. James took a step forward and entered the Celestial Abode.

The three followed behind him.

After entering through the gateway, they appeared on the mountaintop.

The mountain was huge and full of Emyrean fruits, all of which were excellent tonics. After they appeared on the mountaintop, they could smell the pleasant smell of the Emyrean fruits. Moreover, the Emyrean Spiritual Energy in the Celestial Abode was a few times greater than that in the outside world.

“James, can we pick these fruits?”

Henry had also been to the Celestial Abode. Back then, the abode did not have an owner, and he really wanted to pick the fruits when he saw the mountain full of them.

“Of course.” James nodded.

Although his rank was relatively new, and he was not entirely in control of some of the Celestial Abode’s functions, he could still freely pick the fruits.

“Woah!”

Delainey cried out in joy.

“There are so many mysterious fruits that contain powerful energy! These fruits can increase one’s strength by leaps and bounds!”

James replied proudly, “Yeap.”

The Celestial Abode was his treasure, his ultimate weapon to save humanity.

“Come on. Let’s head into the city. I need to speak to Sophie.”

James led the trio down the mountain.

In the past, there were countless formations down the mountain. One would get killed if they were not careful. However, the formations disappeared after James became the Celestial Abode’s master.

Soon, they reached the city center.

In the city center, there was a mansion for the city lord.

The City Lord’s Mansion was majestic and extravagant.

“Master.”

When they reached the gate of City Lord’s Mansion, Nova appeared and greeted him respectfully.

“Where’s Sophie?” asked James.

Nova replied, “That girl went to inspect Time Avenue’s Inscription. Master, you sure are generous. You allowed that girl to read such a precious thing whenever she wants. Her current rank is not enough to inspect it, and something might happen to her.’

James waved his hand and said, "How would I know?"

"Who said something would happen to me?"

At that moment, a pleasant voice resounded.

Following the sound, Sophie appeared in a white dress.

Nova looked at Sophie and reminded her, "There are many things in the Celestial Abode that you shouldn't touch even with the master's permission. It's for your own good."

Sophie stuck out her tongue mischievously and said, "Alright, I understand. I know the boundaries."

James did not overthink it and entered the City Lord's Mansion.

In the mansion, he found a place to sit down and rest.

He looked at Sophie, who was following him, and asked, "Ms. Sophie, how do you plan to train the army I brought?"

She thought for a while and said, "I read a formation from the library chamber previously and thought it would be perfect for these soldiers. I plan to teach them this formation. However, one hundred thousand people aren't enough. We would need four teams, each having at least one hundred thousand people to perform it. In total, that'll be four hundred thousand people. Plus, it'll require four powerful people to lead it."

"Four hundred thousand people?"

James frowned slightly.

It would be easy to get four powerful leaders.

However, it would be challenging to get 400,000 people.

Standing aside, Delainey said, "How about I return and get another three hundred thousand people from the Black Dragon Army?"

"That'll be the only option for now." James nodded lightly.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-