

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2131

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2131—James had been watching from the large tree for some time.

The cultivators in black robes were not particularly powerful. Judging by their aura, they were only at the Seventh or Eighth Inner Gate. If he faced someone of this caliber, he was more than capable of killing them.

That was why he dared to reveal himself.

He stood in front of several guards, looking at the person dressed in a black robe and wearing a red mask, and said casually, "You're trying to kill every single one of them. That's too cruel, don't you think?"

"This is a matter concerning the Dark Keep. Do you want to be an enemy of the Dark Keep?" the cultivator in the red mask spoke again.

He could not tell how strong James was, so he mentioned the regiment he was a part of in the hopes of intimidating James. He was, however, mistaken. James was not from this world at all, but rather from Earth outside of it. He had never heard of the so-called Dark Keep.

James smiled faintly and said, "I don't give a damn about some 'keep' or whatever. Now that I've been presented with this situation, this concerns me as well."

"You have a death wish, brat."

The man in the red robe suddenly raised his sword and lunged at James.

He was the leader, and he was far more powerful than the other black-robed men. He had reached the Herculean rank. His movement was very fast. In the blink of an eye, he appeared in front of James.

"Be careful." The princess behind him gave a warning.

However, in this crucial moment, James raised his hand, stretched out two fingers, and clamped his opponent's sword.

"That's it?" He smiled faintly.

His fingers exerted some force.

Crack!

In an instant, the opponent's sword was broken. James then thrust his palm out with great force.

A terrifying energy swept through the area, striking the man in the red mask. He was immediately launched into the air and crashed to the ground.

"Wha-?"

The several hundred black-robed individuals around them were all shocked.

"Get lost," James said coldly.

With their swords in hand, these people were at a loss as to whether to remain or leave.

Then, James' aura grew dramatically. He appeared at a height of several dozen meters in the air and held up his hand. Powerful energy formed in his palm.

The surrounding people in black robes were all terrified as they sensed the formidable aura and fled in fear. Several people took their leader with them and soon vanished into the night. Only then did James smile, descended from the sky, and stood firm on the ground.

The princess walked over, her face filled with gratitude, and said, "Thank you for saving my life, sir."

James gave a small wave, took a glance at her, and asked, "Who are you? Why were you being hunted?"

Laelia was a little hesitant. James noticed that she seemed apprehensive. He smiled and said, "I don't mean any harm."

Exhaustion was evident on Laelia's beautiful face. When she was about to speak, a look of pain suddenly appeared on her tired face. She pressed her hand against her chest and spat out a mouthful of dark blood.

She could not stop herself from collapsing to the ground.

"Princess!"

Around her, the remaining dozen guards began to panic. They rushed over to help her up.

Laelia waved them off faintly, dragged herself up from the ground with difficulty, and sat cross-legged on the ground.

James was watching her as well.

He studied medicine. Just by looking at Laelia, he could tell she was poisoned. Moreover, it was a particularly horrible type of poison. If the poison was not promptly removed, her life would be in danger.

“You’ve been poisoned.”

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2132

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2132—James crouched down, looked at her, and said, “It’s probably a very dreadful kind of poison. If it’s not removed quickly, you could die very soon. If you trust me, I can save you.”

Laelia’s face was stricken with pain. She was being hunted, and the guards who were with her were all killed in the battle. She had no one to turn to now.

Right now, the only person she could rely on was James, a complete stranger to her.

She nodded softly.

After getting her permission, James took her hand and placed his hand around her pulse. He then smiled and said, “It’s quite simple to get rid of the poison.”

James’ body was unique. He had the ability to absorb any force and transform it into his own energy. The poison in Laelia’s body was highly toxic to her, but to James, it was nothing.

Holding Laelia’s hand, he used his True Energy to forcibly absorb the poison in her body into his own.

When this highly toxic poison entered his body, it was quickly refined and turned into his body’s Demonic Energy.

Laelia’s face gradually regained its rosy hue. She glanced at James. A look of surprise flashed across her beautiful face.

James stood up and said with a smile, “It’s done. You’re alright now.”

“Thank you for saving my life yet again,” said Laelia as she struggled to her feet.

James gave a small wave and said, “Don’t mention it. It was nothing.”

In the old-growth forest, a bonfire was burning.

James was looking at Laelia, who was sitting across from him and staring into space, and could not help but ask, “I heard they say you’re a princess?”

Laelia was snapped out of her thoughts. She nodded and said, "Yes. I'm a princess of the Tabal Empire. Laelia Targwyn is my name."

James knew nothing about this world.

He asked, "Is the Tabal Empire powerful?"

"Huh?" Laelia was stunned. She could not understand why James would ask this question. After giving it some thought, she still answered him, "The Tabal Empire is the most powerful sovereignty in this Sealed Realm. It has been around for ages. Currently, our empire has ten billion people and over a hundred million troops. It is undeniably a hegemon of this world."

After hearing that, James had to ask, "If you're the princess of the most powerful sovereignty, then why were you being hunted?"

"Well."

Laelia let out a sigh and said, "It all started when the seal weakened and the treasure passed down through my family revealed a vision. That drew the Dark Keep's attention."

"The cultivators of the Dark Keep appeared in my country and demanded my father to hand over the treasure of my family. Under the arrangement of my father, I left the capital quietly with the treasure. However, there was a traitor in our family, and my escape route was leaked. I was pursued the entire way, and the guards who accompanied me were almost all killed in combat."

James' interest was piqued.

"What kind of treasure is that?"

He was extremely interested in learning what the treasure actually was. It actually had at connection to the seal, and it only started to act strangely after the seal weakened?

Laelia's pretty face bore a hesitant expression.

James smiled and said, "I'm just curious. If you don't want to tell me, you don't have to."

Laelia regarded James with confusion on her beautiful face and asked, "Sir, you Who are you?"

James did not conceal the truth. He responded candidly, "Actually, I'm not from the Land of Tabal. I'm from Earth, outside of this world."

"Huh?"

Laelia stood up in shock. Even the guards nearby were staring at James with a look of surprise.

As people of the Land of Tabal, they all knew about the seal and about Earth. They were all aware that when the seal was broken, the three thousand Sealed Realms would combine with Earth to form a new world.

An opening of the seal had also appeared in the sky.

Following the appearance of the First Calamity on Earth, it was still quite easy to cross the gateway and arrive on Earth.

Furthermore, some cultivators from the Land of Tabal had entered Earth through the portal to compete for providence.

It was easier to traverse there. However, getting here from Earth was much more difficult. That was why Laelia was taken aback by James' statement.

James let out a sigh as well and said, "I'm a human from Earth. I came to the Land of Tabal because there was a natural disaster on Earth. There's a famine. I came here in search of more food."

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2133

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2133—James explained why he came here.

He knew this beautiful woman in front of him was the princess of the most powerful country in this land. If he could enlist the princess' help, he would have a good chance of acquiring food.

When Laelia learned of James' motivation for coming to the Land of Tabal, she was a little taken aback.

'Is the situation in the outside world really that bad that people are actually worried about food?'

She gave James a strange look.

James had no idea why Laelia was looking at him strangely. He touched his nose and asked, "Why are you looking at me like that?"

Laelia asked, "Is the outside world so impoverished that you even have to worry about food?"

James had no knowledge of the situation in the Land of Tabal. He also had no idea how this world operated. He gave a general overview of the situation on Earth.

After listening to him, Laelia understood.

“I see. So Earth is less developed than the Land of Tabal. To my understanding, the Land of Tabal’s standing in the Sealed Realms is already quite low. It appears that Earth is lagging further behind the Land of Tabal.”

With a pleading expression on his face, James asked, “C-Can you help me?”

Laelia’s pretty face looked troubled. “I really want to help you, but there’s a crisis in my country right now. My father made me leave with the treasure. I still don’t know how things are in the capital. The Dark Keep is the most dreadful force in this world. Even the royal family of Tabal is no match for them. I’m worried that my father...”

Laelia was in a bind. Though she genuinely wanted to help James, she was struggling to deal with her own problems right now.

After hearing that, James asked, “Is the Dark Keep powerful?”

“How do I put this?” Laelia thought for a moment and said, “The Master of the Dark Keep is one of the most powerful individuals in the Land of Tabal. If the elder of my family had not died, they could probably compete with him somewhat. However, they had already passed away thirty years ago. Currently, there aren’t any cultivators in my family who could take on the Master of the Dark Keep.”

“Just tell me what rank the Master of the Dark Keep’s cultivation base is.” James knew that if he wanted to have access to enough food, he had no choice but to help the Tabal Empire get through this difficult time.

“They are already an Immortal Ascension.”

Laelia had a solemn expression. She aspired to be of such rank. The only thing she could hope for was that the Master of the Dark Keep was not among those who traveled to the capital. Otherwise, the Targwyn family was doomed.

After learning the Master of the Dark Keep’s strength, James gave a faint smile and said, “That’s easy. Alright. Let’s make a deal.”

“Hm?” Laelia looked at James, confused.

James said with a smile, “I’ll help your family get through this plight and destroy the Dark Keep. After that, you’ll provide me with enough food and let me return to Earth with them. What do you think?”

“Really?”

Laelia seemed thrilled as she looked at James.

Grains were widely available in the Tabal Empire. Furthermore, they were not just any typical grain; they were spiritual grains, which had been specially planted.

After her initial excitement, Laelia calmed down and asked, “The Master of the Dark Keep has reached the Immortal Ascension rank. You... Can you really destroy them?”

“Of course.” James was confident in himself. He could even kill Magnus who was at the Third Stair of Immortal Ascension. So, he would have no trouble dealing with a cultivator who had just attained the Immortal Ascension rank.

“Alright. I accept.”

Laelia stood up with excitement and said, “There’s no time to waste. Let’s go right now.”

She was worried that something had gone wrong in the capital, and about something happening to her family. She wanted to rush back to the capital immediately.

James quickly scanned his surroundings and said, “Is there really any rush? We can still make it even if we set out after daybreak.”

Laelia was very worried about her family, but James had said they would leave after daybreak, so she did not say anything. Instead, she sat down by the bonfire.

For the time being, the issue with the food supply was settled. James felt a great sense of relief. Right now, the Targwyn family’s treasure had piqued his interest.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2134

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2134–‘What’s the treasure, exactly?’

‘It’s surprising that it’s actually related to the seal.’

He looked at Laelia, who was sitting on a rock, and asked with a smile, “Princess Laelia, what exactly is your family’s treasure? When the seal became loose, why did your family’s treasure become unusual? Does that have anything to do with the seal?”

Laelia shook her head absent mindedly. She knew little about the treasure that had been passed down through her family.

“What’s the treasure, then? Can you let me take a look at it?”

“That’s.”

Laelia was hesitant. It was a treasure that had been handed down through her family. How could she simply show it to a stranger?

“If you’re bothered, forget about it. I’m just curious.”

When he saw Laelia’s unenthusiastic face, James waved his hand slightly and did not say anything more.

Laelia looked at James and began to ponder.

James had saved her. Furthermore, he was very powerful. He was confident in his ability to destroy the Dark Keep.

If such a powerful person tried to take the treasure from her hands, she would be powerless to defend it.

After giving it some thought, she finally said, “The treasure that has been passed down through my family is actually just a jade pendant.”

As she said that, she took out the jade pendant. She handed it over to James and said, “This is it.”

James curiously took it and started to examine it in his hands.

The jade pendant was not particularly large. It was round and blood red. It was slightly warm in James’ hands. He flipped it over several times to inspect it, but he found nothing unusual about it.

“That’s it?” James asked, perplexed, “This jade pendant drew the attention of the Dark Keep?”

“Mhm.” Laelia nodded and said, “Since the seal showed signs of weakening, the jade pendant began to show visions.”

“What kind of visions?” asked James.

Laelia responded, “Previously, a crimson light emanated from the jade pendant and shot into the sky, projecting visions. There were scenes of countless cultivators killing one another, and blood flowing like a river.”

“In the end, all of these people lost their lives in the battle. They were buried in the barren land, becoming mounds of graves.”

Laelia briefly described the visions that the jade pendant had shown.

However, she was not sure why the jade pendant was revealing these visions. Even the cultivators in her family had no idea.

Given that this jade pendant had been passed down for many years, details about it had been lost to history. Her family was only aware that this jade pendant had a distinguished history and had been passed down since antiquity.

“This is the Burial Jade.”

At this very moment, a voice rang out in James’ head.

As soon as the voice appeared, in his mind, an image of the Celestial Abode’s interior materialized.

The Spirit Tool was standing at the Celestial Abode’s main entrance.

James was aware that the Spirit Tool was speaking. He promptly made contact with the Spirit Tool that was inside the Celestial Abode and inquired in his heart, “What’s the Burial Jade?”

The Spirit Tool said, “In ancient times when the entire world was at war, there were countless deaths. Even cultivators who were at the Emperor rank were not immune to the fate of their demise. After the battle, the world buried the cultivators that were killed in the battle. Then, from the consciousness that was left by the countless cultivators after they had passed away, a jade pendant was manifested. That’s the Burial Jade that you’re currently holding.”

The Spirit Tool’s explanation astonished James. He had no idea this small jade pendant had such an impressive backstory.

The Spirit Tool continued, “One can enter the Mausoleum of Gods with this jade pendant. Rumor has it that the gods have left a legacy in the Mausoleum of Gods. Back then, even Emperor Jabadi tried to find the Burial Jade. Unfortunately, despite searching the entire world, he was unable to locate it.

“Master, this Burial Jade is actually an antique. Even during the reign of Emperor Jabari, it was a thing of legend. Rumor claims that there is a great secret hidden in the Burial Jade.”

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2135

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2135–The Celestial Abode’s Spirit Tool once served an emperor, and he was very knowledgeable about many things.

Even during the reign of Emperor Jabari, the Burial Jade was a thing of legend.

The Spirit Tool went on, "According to my understanding, the Burial Jade once belonged to someone. Targwyn was his surname, and he was called the Guardian of the Tomb. He was extremely powerful. At one point in time, he was the most prominent figure in the world. However, for unknown reasons, he vanished along with the Targwyn family.

"I never imagined we'd come across the Guardian of the Tomb's descendant in this small Land of Taval."

The Spirit Tool could not stop himself from lamenting. The descendants of the most powerful person in history had fallen into such dire straits.

James asked in his heart, "How does the Burial Jade relate to the seal of the world, then? Why did the Burial Jade show visions when the seal became loose?"

The Spirit Tool explained, "The Burial Jade was manifested from the consciousness of countless cultivators after they died. The graves where they were laid to rest were shaped by the world itself. The current seal on Earth was also created by the world sealing itself off. Naturally, there are some connections between them. However, I have no idea what sort of connections there might be."

Hearing that, James was bewildered.

"The current seal on Earth right now, is that not related to the Demon Race?"

"It's not." The Spirit Tool explained, "Back then, the Demon Race appeared on Earth because there was something that attracted them. However, when the Demon Race almost took over Earth, they chose to leave Earth. As to why they wanted to leave Earth, I'm not sure. Also, the seal was not placed by the Demon Race, but by the world sealing itself.

"I only know that the world sealed itself off to protect the Earth. Considering that during the conflict that followed the Demon Race's invasion of Earth, the Earth was almost completely destroyed. I suppose this time the Earth decided to seal off itself in order to rest and recuperate."

The Spirit Tool revealed a lot of secrets.

In the past, James had always thought that the Demon Race was responsible for the seal on Earth right now.

He never expected that it was the world sealing itself off.

The Spirit Tool continued, "The four keys to open the seal are also formed by the world naturally. They are priceless treasures. However, because you are still weak, you're unable to activate the power of the four keys. Furthermore, the seal has yet to be broken. The four keys' power has yet to be manifested. Until the seal is broken, the power of the four keys will not be revealed."

Once again, the Spirit Tool provided James with some new information.

James continued to ask, "Then what's the use of this Burial Jade?"

The Spirit Tool said, "I've heard Emperor Jabari say that the Burial Jade is the key to the tomb. The tomb was also formed naturally by the world and held the world's ultimate secret. Of course, these are all still too far away for you."

"Oh." James did not really understand everything that was said.

Laelia noticed James was staring blankly while holding the Burial Jade, but she did not disturb him.

After conversing with the Spirit Tool, James came out of his thoughts and handed the jade pendant that was in his hand over to Laelia. He said, "Princess Laelia, here's your jade pendant. Keep it safe. Although I have no idea what it actually is, I have a strong feeling that it's a magnificent treasure."

James already knew what this jade pendant was.

Nevertheless, he remained silent.

He wanted to have Burial Jade. However, it was a Targwyn family heirloom. It did not belong to him.

James gave it back to Laelia. At the same time, he was contemplating how to obtain this treasure.

He believed that Laelia could not really make the final decision in this matter. He could only go to the Tabal Empire's capital, meet with the Emperor, and try to work out a deal with him to get this Burial Jade.

In any case, he could not use it right now.

Nonetheless, the Spirit Tool had said that the ultimate secret of the world was hidden in the tomb. He might be able to use it in the future.

Laelia nodded her head softly and put away the Burial Jade.

James said nothing else. He sat down on a rock with his legs crossed and closed his eyes to rest.

Laelia, on the other hand, was preoccupied. She was very worried about her family.

When she was fleeing, the capital was already surrounded by cultivators from the Dark Keep. She was worried that something bad had happened to her family.

Laelia took a quick glance at James and noticed that James seemed relaxed. She wanted to speak, and her throat moved slightly, but then she did not know where to begin.

“Your Highness.”

A guard moved closer to Laelia and said in a lowered voice, “As we were leaving the capital, a large number of the Dark Keep’s cultivators appeared in the capital and surrounded it. Three days have passed since then. If we don’t return right away, I’m afraid that...”

“I know, but...”

Laelia was extremely anxious. However, she would not be able to help even if she hurried back.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2136

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2136—Right now, in order to save the empire and her family, she needed James to return with her. “S-Sir.” Laelia could not bear to wait any longer and had to speak up.

Her voice shook James from his thoughts. He opened his eyes slightly to look at Laelia and asked quietly, “What’s the matter, Your Highness?”

There was a hint of pleading in Laelia’s slightly awkward face. She said, “When I escaped from the capital, the capital was already surrounded by Dark Keep’s cultivators. It has been three days since then. I-I’m worried that the capital has met with misfortune.”

“So, you want to hurry back immediately?” James glanced at Laelia.

He could see that Laelia was very anxious, however he was also calculating. Could he use Laelia’s anxiety and worry to make another deal with her and trick her into giving him the Burial Jade?

Laelia was unaware of the Burial Jade's history, but he knew about it. It was something that even the creator of the Celestial Abode had laboriously sought after.

"Yes." Without regard for her appearance, Laelia immediately knelt on the ground. With a pleading look on her pretty face, she said, "Sir, please set out for Tabal's capital right away and save the Targwyn family. If you can actually save my family, the Targwyn family will definitely repay you."

The more worried and anxious Laelia became, the more indifferent James acted.

He wanted the Burial Jade. However, he could not be too obvious about it.

James wanted Laelia to take out the Burial Jade and give it to him voluntarily.

"Your Highness, it's been three days. If anything were to happen to the Targwyn family, it would have happened already."

"But..." Laelia was extremely anxious.

James interrupted her with a small wave. He said, "Don't worry. It'll be alright. We'll leave at dawn."

Laelia let out a sigh of resignation.

James continued to rest with his eyes closed. He was secretly disappointed as well.

Why did Laelia not give him the Burial Jade and beg him to leave immediately?

Regardless, Laelia stopped asking after that, so he said nothing. He could not show his greed for the Burial Jade.

In the dead of night, the breeze blew in the forest, making the branches rustle.

James was sitting on the ground in the lotus position, absorbing Emyrean Spiritual Energy and cultivating.

The Land of Tabal had little Emyrean Spiritual Energy. It was significantly weaker than Earth, which had recovered Spiritual Energy. No wonder there were not any truly terrifying cultivators.

On the other hand, Laelia was walking around anxiously and kept looking at the sky, hoping for dawn to arrive more quickly.

Seconds and minutes passed.

For Laelia, every second seemed to last forever. She finally got through the night.

As soon as it was daybreak, Laelia eagerly appeared in front of James, who was concentrating on his cultivation, and woke him up. “Sir, it’s dawn. Can we set out now?”

“Is it daybreak yet?”

James stood up and exhaled a mouthful of impurities.

“Mhm, it’s daybreak. Let’s hurry and go,” Laelia said anxiously.

“Okay,” James spoke softly.

“Do you think it would be so easy to leave?”

A voice suddenly rang out.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2137

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2137—As the voice rang out. From a distance, the sounds of footsteps could be heard.

Soon, a large number of cultivators in dark robes and dark masks appeared.

At a glance, the area appeared to be densely packed with approximately three thousand people.

These people appeared quickly and surrounded James and the others.

From the sky, an elder descended. He stood firm on the ground.

The elder looked to be in his seventies. His face was wrinkly, and his eyes were sunken. His appearance was unsettling. He was dressed in a red robe and holding a red sword.

“Saturio Hadeucus?”

When Laelia saw this elder, her face turned pale. The remaining dozen guards were all so terrified they were starting to shiver.

James could not help but turn to face Laelia and said, “Saturio Hadeucus? Who is he?”

Laelia’s face was filled with fear. Her teeth were slightly chattering as she said, “The Dark Keep ...the Dark Keep’s Deputy Master. His ability is only second to the Master’s.

He is one of the top cultivators in the Land of Taval. Rumor has it that his strength is at the peak of Herculean Sixth Layer, just a step away from the Immortal Ascension rank.”

“I didn’t think such a young girl as you would know about me.” The elder in the red robe stroked his beard gently. With a relaxed smile on his aged face, he said softly, “Princess Laelia,

I don’t want to trouble you either. Give me the treasure, and I’ll spare your life.”

Saturio’s voice rang out. Every word he spoke pierced Laelia’s chest like a sharp blade. Her whole body was trembling in fear.

A cultivator at the peak of the Herculean Sixth Layer could easily kill her with a flick of a finger. She could not help but tug at James’ sleeves.

James gently took her hand and comforted her, “It’s alright. I’m here.

After hearing these words from James, the anxiety in Laelia’s heart slightly subsided.

James looked at Saturio and said in a soft voice, “I don’t want to kill anyone. If you know what’s best for you, leave now. Otherwise, don’t hold it against me for not being courteous.”

“Heh!” Saturio laughed. His laughter was icy and low. As he laughed, his face darkened. Impudent brat. Since you want to play the hero, I’ll send you on to your fate today.”

He raised his hand and gave an order, “Attack.”

Schwing! Schwing! Schwing!

The surrounding cultivators in black robes pulled out their swords all at once.

Their intangible Sword Energy was swaying. These people were the true elites of the Dark Keep. They were all very powerful, with each of them having reached the Seventh or Eighth Inner Gate.

As thousands of people drew their swords all at once, a dozen guards trembled in fear. Even Laelia’s expression turned grave.

Although James scared off some Dark Keep members yesterday, the person who showed up today was the Deputy Master of the Dark Keep. He was a cultivator who had almost reached the Immortal Ascension rank. She was worried that James would be no match for him.

James gave a small wave and said, "No need to worry."

James focused his mind, and the Primordial Dragon Blade that had been placed in the Celestial Abode immediately materialized in his hand. Holding the Primordial Dragon Blade, James looked around at the thousands of Dark Keep guards waiting to strike. His lips curled into a faint smile.

When it came to his foes, James never showed mercy.

"Kill him!" Saturio's cold shout resounded.

Following his command, thousands of cultivators that surrounded him held onto their weapons and charged toward James at the same time.

At this moment, James moved his body, and a brilliant Sword Light manifested from the Primordial Dragon Blade in his hands. The Sword Light swept the vicinity with frightening power.

Boom!

In the distance, there was a sudden explosion.

The Sword Energy struck many of the Dark Keep's guards. They all instantly died violent deaths.

Once James attacked, he was absolutely terrifying. He was only at the Herculean rank, but his physical strength was very powerful. It had already reached the Herculean Fifth Layer.

Furthermore, he had reached the extreme at every rank. His rank was at the Herculean First Layer, but his True Energy was far superior to the Herculean First Layer.

His speed was pushed to the limit.

Cultivators from the Dark Keep that moved closer to him were instantly killed.

In a matter of seconds, hundreds of people were killed.

As Saturio witnessed James' impressive strength, his face darkened. He promptly drew his sword and began to strike voluntarily.

Rumor had it that his strength was at Herculean Sixth Layer, but he had actually entered the Immortal Ascension rank.

The Immortal Ascension rank's cultivator struck with a dreadful aura. An incorporeal Sword Energy rippled through the area, shaking it up. The terrifying pressure engulfed Laelia and the others, and they were powerless to resist it. Agony was apparent on their faces.

“Die!” Saturio shouted coldly.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2138

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2138—As his voice reverberated throughout the area, incorporeal Sword Energy swept through.

A dozen guards around Laelia were killed instantly.

There was a flash of an afterimage. In the next second, Saturio was already in front of Laelia.

After slashing down with his sword and killing many of the Dark Keep’s guards who were approaching him, James appeared in front of Laelia with a flash and grabbed her.

Laelia’s body tipped, allowing her to avoid Saturio’s attack.

Sword Energy hit the ground, and the entire area trembled in an instant.

James drew Laelia along with him, stepped into the air, and appeared at a height of several dozen meters in the air. After that, he put away his longsword.

“Hold on to me!” he shouted.

Laelia knew James would be distracted if he dragged her along. She immediately held on to James.

James raised both of his hands. In his palms, two entirely different True Energies appeared. The two streams of True Energy instantly merged to form a new power.

“Cosmic Annihilation.”

An energy ball formed by the fusion of two True Energies swooped down.

Boom!

The ground trembled and the mountains shook. The mountain range beneath them was reduced to dust in an instant.

The Dark Keep’s guards below them tragically perished all at once.

When James was putting Cosmic Annihilation to use, Saturio, on the other hand, felt a dangerous aura. He dodged immediately, appearing in the distance in the sky and avoiding this fatal attack.

In a flash, James appeared on a mountain range ten thousand meters away.

Laelia let go of him.

James instructed her, "Stay here and don't move around. I'll go deal with Saturio."

"Mhm." Laelia nodded.

James stepped into the air and rushed forward.

"Brat, I want you to die."

In the distance, Saturio's roar could be heard. Immediately after that, fearsome Sword Energy hacked at him.

James dodged.

Boom!

The Sword Energy crashed into the ground. A mountain range was split into pieces.

Laelia trembled in fear and backed away quickly from the area of the battle.

Right then, Saturio was already dashing over, holding his sword.

His aura was very strong. With the magnificent Sword Energy of his sword in hand, he resembled an undefeatable war god. His moves were swift and fierce. Under his attacks, James was unable to fight back immediately.

Wielding the Primordial Dragon Blade, he continued to exchange blows with Saturio.

Clang!

Sparks flew as two swords collided.

Through the Primordial Dragon Blade, James felt a terrifying power engulfing his entire being. The sudden shock caused his Blood Energy to seethe and his arms to go numb. It jolted him to move back without stopping.

Before he could get rid of this force, Saturio was already charging at him. The longsword in his hand was aimed at James' vital point.

'How strong.

James was secretly astonished.

'Saturio is definitely not at the Herculean Sixth Layer. If he was, I wouldn't have such a difficult time dealing with his attacks. He must have already reached the Immortal Ascension rank'

Following the first round of combat, James had a general idea of Saturio's strength.

Swoosh!

Saturio was very fast. He was moving so fast that James could only see a blur in front of his eyes before the sharp longsword pierced his body.

"Ah?!" In the distance, Laelia saw the longsword piercing James' body. She screamed involuntarily. Her face turned pale in an instant.

"Die."

After Saturio stabbed James, he thrust his palm out once again.

The dreadful force from Saturio's palm struck James and caused his chest to cave in. His body was sent flying backward and slammed into the ground. A deep pit appeared in the ground, and he was buried.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2139

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2139—Laelia witnessed James' body being stabbed. He was even struck with a palm, sent flying, and collapsed to the ground. The ground had even developed a deep pit

Her face turned pale from the horror. Even her savior had died horribly at Saturio's hands. She would have no way out today.

"Your Highness." Saturio stood in the air. He smiled as he looked at Laelia, who was trembling in the distance. "Did you really think that this man could save you? How absurd "

James was already dead, as far as Saturio could tell.

"I'll give it to you."

Laelia decided to make a compromise. Even James was dead. If she did not hand over the jade pendant, she would also be dead and Saturio would still get the jade pendant.

If she handed over the jade pendant, she could at least preserve her life. As long as she lived, there was a chance for vengeance.

However, at this precise moment, a silhouette of a person shot up into the sky from the ruins below. His hair was unkempt, and his entire body was covered in blood. He looked like a mess.

However, the wound on his chest had healed.

With his hand, James wiped away the blood that had spilled from the corner of his mouth. As he looked at Saturio in the distance, a faint smile appeared on his face. He said, "How troublesome. It seemed that unless I employed my signature martial arts skills, I wouldn't be able to kill you."

"You?" When Saturio saw that James was safe and sound, he could not help but be shocked.

His longsword had pierced James' body. He had even used his palm to deliver a powerful strike to James. James could not possibly be alive.

Nonetheless, James was now standing in front of him, safe and sound. How could he not be taken aback?

James took a step forward while he was high in the air. After he took a step, the aura on his body became much more intense and powerful.

With every step he took, Saturio could sense an unseen force pressing down on him. His body tipped slightly, and he nearly collapsed to the ground.

James continued march forward with each stride.

Shortly after, he had taken thirty-three steps.

After he took the thirty-third step, Saturio had reached his limit. His body was already on the ground at this point, having been trod upon. Cracks had appeared on his body. It seemed like it could fall apart at any moment.

He was lying on the ground. Blood trickled out of the corner of his mouth.

"This... How is this even possible?"

His aged face bore a horrified expression.

James was standing in the air and smiling faintly.

Sacrilegious Ascension. One step forward would be taken after the creation of each vertebra. With each step, one could gather tremendous strength to stomp the enemy.

After he used Sacrilegious Ascension, he could kill cultivators who were at the Third Stair of the Immortal Ascension rank.

Saturio had just entered the Immortal Ascension rank. He had not yet struck, but Saturio was already wounded from being trampled.

“Die.”

James had become murderous.

As he concentrated his thoughts, a plethora of black energies emanated from his body. These black energies came together to form a black lotus flower.

The black lotus flower swept toward Saturio and countless black energies entered his body. Saturio's energy was instantly absorbed. In an instant, he was turned into a dry corpse.

After James' Natal Demonic Lotus absorbed all of Saturio's strength, James sensed that the black lotus' aura was slightly stronger. He could feel very potent Demonic Energy coming from the black lotus. This Demonic Energy was nourishing his physical body.

His body was gaining strength imperceptibly.

James clenched his fist and felt the strength from his body. His face broke into an evil grin.

“How powerful.”

When he was on Earth, he dared not use the Demonic Lotus carelessly. However, it was different in the Land of Tabal.

All of the other people's strength was absorbed by the Demonic Lotus. Part of this strength was returned to his body, and his body became stronger as a result.

His body was comparable to the Herculean Fifth Layer previously. Currently, it was at the Herculean Sixth Layer.

After he took care of Saturio, James dispelled Sacrilegious Ascension.

The spine formed by the power of heaven and earth vanished. James collapsed to the ground. He did not even have the strength to pull himself up. At this point, the Demonic Energy in his body began to flow automatically, repairing his spine.

In the distance, Laelia was bewildered as she watched everything unfold. She had witnessed James die in the fight and was about to accept her fate.

However, the battle quickly turned around. In a short period of time, James killed Saturio. Furthermore, the manner in which he killed him was unbelievable to Laelia. It gave her a fright.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2140

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2140—After a while, she finally arrived where James was.

She saw James lying on the ground. His aura was very weak.

As she was reminded of how James killed Saturio earlier, she was a little frightened and did not dare to move close to him. Instead, she stood several meters away from him, keeping a wary eye on James. She asked cautiously, “S-Sir, are you alright?”

James was lying on the ground and recovering. He said softly, “It’s nothing serious. I’ll be fine after resting for a while.”

After hearing that, Laelia let out a sigh of relief.

She did not dare to approach him and instead stood several meters away, staring at him.

Under her watchful gaze, James’ complexion gradually grew rosy. In just half an hour, James had recovered. He got to his feet and started to move his body.

“Wha-?”

Laelia was taken aback once again. She could clearly sense how weak James’ aura was. He was on the verge of death. However, after only half an hour, he was full of vim and vigor.

With a smile on his face, James said, “The enemy has been dealt with. Let’s hurry to the Tabal Empire’s capital.”

“Mhm. Mhm.” Laelia nodded her head.

They both started to walk, leaving this shattered mountain.

“Sir, this is too slow. Let’s speed up.”

James was moving at a slow, leisurely pace.

Laelia was very anxious, and James was frustrated as well. He had heard Laelia was about to hand over the Burial Jade.

‘Why isn’t she taking out the Burial Jade now?’

‘Will I have to resort to force?’

Many ideas started to surface in James’ mind. He then threw all of these messy thoughts away, pulled Laelia, and appeared in mid-air in a flash. He said, “I can travel fast. You’ll give me the directions. I’ll get you there.”

“Here.” Laelia reached out her hand and pointed forward.

“Alright.” James nodded, drew her along, and accelerated forward with all his might. With a single stride, they appeared at a distance of a thousand meters. After just a few strides, they disappeared from this mountain range.

He was moving forward at a rapid pace.

Previously, Laelia had been on the run for three days before arriving at this location. However, James traveled as fast as he could, and after only half a day, he arrived at Tabalham.

Tabalham was the capital of the Tabal Empire. It was an ancient city that had been around for a thousand years. The city gate was made of black rocks and stood a thousand meters tall. From a distance, it looked majestic.

Both of them appeared outside of the city gate.

The city gate was closed, and there was no one outside it.

Laelia started to have a bad feeling.

In the past, Tabalham was quite lively. Out side of the city, there was a constant traffic of both vehicles and people. However, the city gate was tightly shut and there was no one there.

She could not help but pull at James. “S Sir. Something might have happened.”

James waved his hand faintly and said, “Let’s first go into the city and take a look.”

He pulled Laelia along with him, took a stride, and appeared on the city wall that was a thousand meters tall.

When they stood on the city wall and looked out over the city, they could see mountains of dead bodies and rivers of blood.

“Ah!” As Laelia saw this, she let out a scream. The corners of her eyes became red and tears started to flow uncontrollably.

Even James furrowed his brow.

“The Dark Keep is so devoid of conscience that they actually butchered the entire city?”

“My father, mother, brother, little sister...”

Laelia started sobbing and darted into the city.

James followed behind.

The large city was deafeningly quiet and reeked of blood. On the ground, corpses were strewn about.

Blood had stained the ground red. It was extremely desolate and depressing.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-