

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2161

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2161—There was now a crack in the seal to the Three Thousand Worlds. Those who were relatively weaker could easily pass through the seal to Earth.

The seal was powerful, and stronger people could not easily travel through to Earth for the time being. Even if they were to be able to pass through, they would have to pay a heavy price for doing so.

Laelia's strength was mediocre, as such she would easily have been able to pass through the seal.

However, Earth was currently in a chaotic state, and she would not be able to compete for the treasures. Thus, she might as well stay in the Land of Tabal.

The two returned on the same path.

A few days later, they arrived back at Tabalham.

Upon their arrival, the Targwyns bombarded James with questions. However, his answer remained unchanged. He told them he obtained nothing.

The Targwyns were not surprised that James' trip to the island was fruitless. So many of their family members had gone to the ancestral land in the past, but all were to no avail.

James stayed in the Tabal Empire for the time being.

In the meantime, the Emperor of the Tabal Empire collected food from across the country.

In the blink of an eye, a week had passed.

James practiced in the independent courtyard behind the palace in the morning. Laelia appeared and said merrily, "James, we're almost done collecting all the food you requested."

Hearing this, James was elated.

After having come to the Land of Tabal for so long, he was finally close to completing his task.

"Thank you, Laelia."

Laelia said smilingly, "You saved our family. This little favor is nothing in comparison. The food is stored in the military base right now. My father asked me to bring you there."

“Alright.” James nodded.

Laelia gestured to him. “This way, please.”

Afterward, she turned around, led James out of the palace, and showed him the way to the military base outside of the city.

Soon, they arrived at the military base.

Along the way, the soldiers that noticed Laelia’s presence respectfully greeted her.

After entering the military base, James saw some tents full of sacks. He could tell the sacks were filled to the brim with food.

Laelia and James walked side by side.

She opened her mouth and said, “The food my father asked the people to prepare isn’t just any ordinary food. It’s spiritual grain.”

“Spiritual grain?”

James was surprised.

Laelia explained, “Spiritual grain is much more sophisticated than ordinary grain. It contains Emyrean Spiritual Energy. Cultivators consume spiritual grains in the Land of Tabal, whereas ordinary people take regular grains.”

Hearing this, James fell into deep thought.

After a while, he asked, “Could I have some of their seeds?”

“Sure.” Laelia smiled.

She looked at James and asked, “Are you going to move all these grains into the Celestial. Abode to bring back to Earth?”

James nodded and said, “Mhm. That’s the only way I can bring them back.”

He was not worried his possession of the Celestial Abode would be exposed because there were no threats left in the Land of Tabal. Even if word got out, no one would dare to snatch it from him.

With a thought, the ring on his finger burst with golden light and fell onto the open space before him.

The golden light grew stronger and turned into a 100-meter-high abode. The Celestial Abode was surrounded by golden light, and many soldiers in the military base were attracted to the mysterious sight.

Soon, a crowd gathered around the Celestial Abode.

They inspected the Celestial Abode with astonishment.

James opened the Celestial Abode's gate.

Laelia immediately ordered, "Gather here. Move all the grain into the Celestial Abode."

As soon as she issued the order, the soldiers in the military camp took action and began moving the grain.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2162

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2162—James was not in a hurry and waited patiently. James walked into the Celestial Abode with Laelia as the soldiers moved the grains.

As soon as James walked into the City Lord's Mansion inside the Celestial Abode, a purple bird flew over. It gradually shrank to the size of a sparrow, then landed on James' shoulder.

"Oh!"

Laelia could not help exclaiming upon Seeing the sparrow-sized Gorger.

James turned around and looked at her, asking, "What's wrong?"

Laelia stared at the Gorger intently. After a few seconds, she said with a smile, "It looks very similar to the red bird at the village in my family's ancestral lands."

James felt a shiver run down his spine after hearing her words.

The little bird at the village in the Targwyns' ancestral land?

James did not pay attention, so he did not know there was a similar bird in the ancestral land. However, if Laelia pointed it out, she must be correct.

James knew the purple bird was a Gorger.

'Could there be another Gorger in the Targwyns' ancestral land?

'Could it be the parent of this purple Gorger?'

Thinking of the possibilities, James' blood ran cold.

Laelia asked, "What's the matter, James?"

"It's nothing."

He came to his senses and said nonchalantly, "I guess birds more or less look alike."

Laelia nodded. "Mhm, that's true. The bird in our ancestral land has red fathers, but this one is purple. Your bird is gorgeous."

After speaking, she reached out to touch the Gorger on James' shoulder.

The Gorger immediately flew away. It flapped its tiny wings in the air and chattered at Laelia.

Laelia said smilingly, "I see this little guy has a bit of a temper."

While this was happening, James' thoughts were fixated on what Laelia had mentioned just now.

He wondered whether there was another Gorger in the Targwyns' ancestral land and if it was the one that had a cultivation base close to the ultimate rank.

The ancestral land was not a simple place if his conjectures were true.

James felt slightly anxious after considering all the possibilities.

"James."

Sophie walked out from the mansion gate and greeted James with a bright smile.

James straightened up and replied, "Ms. Sophie."

Sophie nodded lightly in response to James. Then, her eyes locked onto Laelia, and a white glow shone from her eyes, scanning Laelia.

At that moment, Laelia felt like everything had been laid bare and no secret would escape unnoticed by Sophie.

She took a few steps backward.

Soon, the white glow on her body disappeared.

James knew what Sophie had done and was exasperated. He reprimanded her, "What are you doing, Ms. Sophie? Why would you scan her the moment you just met her?"

Sophie said smilingly, "I just felt a different aura about her and wanted to know why."

Hearing this, James was also intrigued. He asked, "What's the result?"

By now, he was somewhat used to Sophie's quirks.

If Sophie thought that Laelia was unusual, that meant she must be very extraordinary.

Sophie said with a faint smile, "Even if I told you, you won't understand. I'm going to the training grounds in the back of the city to check on your army."

She then turned around and left.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2163

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2163—As usual, Sophie refused to explain.

She left the City Lord's Mansion and went to the training ground behind the city.

James had no way of dealing with her.

Afterward, he took Laelia around the city and briefly told her of the Celestial Abode's origin.

Laelia's face was full of astonishment.

Meanwhile, the soldiers quickly moved the grains into the Celestial Abode and completed their tasks swiftly. Laelia ordered them to bring some seeds for James to bring back to Earth.

After all the grain was moved into the Celestial Abode, James stood outside and shrank it down.

Many people were gathered in the military base, including the Emperor of the Tabal Empire, Zoe, Laelia, and other Targwyn family members.

Laelia waved at James sadly. "Let's meet again one day, James. I'll devote myself to my training and find you when the Land of Tabal merges with the Earth."

Zoe walked toward James and said, "Mr. Caden, are you sure you don't want to stay a while longer? Is there really such a rush to return to Earth?"

James nodded and said, "I've already been here for quite some time and I have no idea what the situation on Earth is. The current situation there is extremely tenuous, so I don't dare to stay any longer."

Hearing this, Zoe did not continue to persuade him.

James waved goodbye to the Targwyns and immediately leaped into the air, entering through the crack in space.

Under the gaze of many people, James disappeared.

Laelia's pretty face was full of sadness. Although she had not known James for a long time, she could sense he was a nice person. James had many chances to steal their family's heirloom, the jade pendant, but he did not.

She was impressed by his virtuousness.

James relied on the Netherpeal he borrowed from Marcello to come to the Land of Tabal.

However, he did not need any external help to return to Earth.

After passing through the seal, he returned to the earth. However, he had no control over where he would be sent to and reappeared over an oceanic region.

James hovered above the sky and looked at the sea below him with a frown. "Where am I?"

He took out his phone from the Celestial Abode and tried to check his location. However, his phone was out of battery. Seeing as he had no choice, he took out his power bank and charged his phone for a while.

James found an uninhabited island along the ocean and sat on a rock.

He held his phone and used its GPS to find out his precise location.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2164

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2164—Sword Lights flickered, and True Energy swept through the air. The terrifying True Energy rippled through the surroundings like waves of water, causing 100-meter tsunamis to form in the water.

The tsunami crashed toward James. His body was like a boat swaying along with violent motions.

James stepped forward and appeared higher in the air.

He looked at the island in front of him with a frown and said, "Why are cultivators fighting in the Pacific Ocean? Has some kind of treasure appeared here?"

James felt that the only reason cultivators would fight each other so fiercely was over some sort of valuable treasure.

The people who fought against each other had powerful auras. James could sense that these people were at least the Fifth Stair of Immortal Ascension.

Strong men of such ranks would be considered elites even within the Three Thousand Worlds. They were perhaps only slightly weaker than some Outsiders but were fully capable of fighting over any boons that appeared on the Earth.

James did not want to interfere because he was not confident in beating the people on the island, even if he activated the Sacrilegious Ascension.

However, he would miss out on obtaining the boon that appeared if he were just to leave.

After thinking about it, he decided to stay and take a look.

James planned to inspect it covertly.

After he made the decision, he quietly approached the island. Suddenly, a gentle reminder came from within the Celestial Abode. "Be careful, James. Some people here are Grand Supernaturals."

Stunned, James asked, "What are Grand Supernaturals?"

Sophie explained, "These so-called Grand Supernaturals are a nickname for people considered prodigies. However, not all prodigies are fit to be called Grand Supernaturals. Only those who possess terrifying Supernatural Powers are worthy of being called Grand Supernaturals.

"From my understanding, a person born with Grand Supernatural Powers can reach the pinnacle of cultivation if they don't encounter too many adversities. Such people can choose to seal themselves when they reach a certain age to awaken in a more suitable era and reach grander heights.

"Our current era is a very bright one."

"It's rare to get a glimpse of a Grand Supernatural. I never expected two of them to be on this small island at once. I can't tell whether these two were from ancient times or were born in this era. It could also be possible they were just freed from their seals."

James had a clearer picture after he listened to Sophie's explanation.

At the same time, he took a deep breath.

Being born with some kind of Supernatural Power meant they were definitely devastatingly strong people.

Sophie continued to explain, "Under normal circumstances, Grand Supernaturals are also born with Supreme Spiritual Roots. Conversely, those with Supreme Spiritual Roots aren't necessarily born as Grand Supernaturals. Do you understand?"

"More or less."

James knew how formidable one was with a Supreme Spiritual Root.

Outsiders feared the rise of people with Supreme Spiritual Roots on Earth. Thus, they meddled with the Four Holy Beasts because they wanted to eliminate the humans with Supreme Spiritual Roots.

From those actions alone, he could already tell how formidable a Grand Supernatural was.

Regardless of the era they were in, meeting a Grand Supernatural was still an incredibly rare occurrence. Miraculously, there were two of them on this small island.

This meant whatever appeared on this island must be exceptionally unique.

"Ms. Sophie, for two Grand Supernaturals to appear here, I'm guessing some sort of amazing treasure must have been unearthed in this place. I'd like to see if I can obtain it. It would be amazing if I could get it in my hands. Can you help me?"

Sophie refused outright. "No. I told you before I can't help you directly."

"Alright."

Since Sophie was unwilling to help, there was nothing he could do.

Boom!

As he was speaking with Sophie, the battle on the island intensified, and the collision of True Energy grew more forceful.

At the same time, a beam of white light shot up into the sky from the island. It immediately caught James' attention.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2165

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2165—The white light was unusual, and it was hard to see if one was not paying careful attention.

The lights began shooting up one after the other and grew from one ray of light to ten.

After the first light beam shot up, many more followed after it.

The light beams appeared only for a few seconds before disappearing.

James looked at the island in the distance and began to ponder. He concluded the light beams must be shooting out from the treasure on the island. However, he was unsure of what the treasure could be.

He would have to get closer to find out.

The battle on the island was intense, and the atmosphere was heated. Even from a distance, James could sense the terrifying aura from the battle. He would very likely die if he were to approach carelessly and get discovered.

He watched the battle in the distant sky.

Many people were involved in the battle.

However, there were two people who were mostly stationary.

One was a woman in a white dress with a pair of white wings on her back. These dazzling wings were formed by True Energy and had some mysterious symbols flowing through the wings.

It looked mysterious and eerie.

She hovered in the air, and a white light radiated from her body.

The white light enveloped her body, masking her appearance. Judging by the outline of her facial features, it was apparent she was gorgeous.

A man stood on the other side.

The man wore a blue robe, and a blue cloud swirled under his feet.

The two looked at each other.

Although they did not make a move, a harsh aura radiating from their bodies.

In the space between them, more than 20 cultivators fought fiercely against each other. They were powerful and their strength was likely at the Immortal Ascension's Fifth Stair. These people were evidently subordinates of the two powerhouses that had not moved.

James frowned and thought to himself, 'If their subordinates are already so strong, wouldn't those two be even stronger?'

Just as he was thinking about how he could get close to the island to find the treasure, a group of people appeared in the distance.

"Hehe! It's very lively here."

Before anyone could get a proper glimpse of her, her laughter carried through the air.

At the sound of the woman's laughter, the fierce battle on the island stopped.

The two powerhouses' subordinates retreated from the battlefield.

Everyone looked into the distance.

James also looked in the direction of the sound and saw a man wearing a black robe in the lead. The man was handsome and had long hair, but there was a wicked expression on his face.

"Jace?"

James' brows furrowed together.

The person was none other than Marcello's senior from the Demon Realm, Jace.

Many people were walking behind Jace. In total, there were about 20 people. Although they did not take action, their energy was very strong and subdued the previously battling people.

James analyzed their strength.

Jace's subordinates were at the very least on the Immortal Ascension's Sixth Stair, or even stronger.

Standing behind Jace was a charming woman wearing a long black dress. She radiated with a glamorous and ethereal atmosphere.

From afar, James looked at the many powerhouses from the Demon Realm with a frown and muttered, "Why are they here? What exactly is on this island?"

He was unsure of what secret lay in the island.

Initially, he was wary of carelessly exposing himself on the island.

However, he was on relatively good terms with Marcello, who had just appeared.

After considering it for a while, he showed himself. In a flash, he flew toward Marcello, who was approaching from the distance.

Before he got close to Marcello, one of Jace's subordinates appeared in front of James, blocking his path. The subordinate drew his sword and thrust it at James.

His attack was incredibly fast, and James could not react in time.

At that moment, he was in the Pacific Ocean, far away from Sol. Since he did not have a plane, he would have to travel using his own means. He guessed he would probably run out of True Energy before he reaches Sol.

However, he had no choice.

After figuring out the direction, he put away his phone and stepped forward, appearing 100 meters in the air. He stimulated his True Energy and covered a lot of ground. However, traveling like this would exhaust his True Energy much faster.

After traveling for two hours, a deafening explosion occurred on an island below him.

Suddenly, a terrifying wave of True Energy swept in his direction. James flew with all his strength to avoid the force but was struck by it and plummeted from the sky.

Before he fell into the sea, he dispersed the force and righted his body in midair. He balanced himself steadily above the sea and stared at the island in front of him.

It was a huge island that was full of towering mountains.

A figure flickered above the island.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-