The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2181—Hearing the sound, James looked over.

In the distance, a man quickly flew toward him, appearing in just a few seconds.

James saw the man's appearance. He did not look too old, about twenty-five or twenty-six. He wore black armor and had a long sword on his waist.

He stood a few meters away and looked at James with a grim and hostile expression.

"Who are you?"

James was puzzled as he could not recognize the man before him.

Enemies?

The man in black armor said, "Let me introduce myself. I'm Quade Hach from the Overworld."

Hearing the Overworld, James had a bad premonition in his heart. He had slaughtered many Overworld Outsiders and had grievances with those from the Overworld.

After a brief shock, James clasped his fists together and said, "Pleased to meet you, Quade..."

"The Son of Heaven and Magnus were my juniors."

Quade's expression was grim. At that moment, powerful energy erupted from his body. James was knocked into the distance as though a mountain had crashed into him.

His Blood Energy churned.

"How strong..."

James was startled. He did not expect this man to be the Son of Heaven and Magnus' senior.

Both the Son of Heaven and Magnus had died in his hands.

It seemed he would get caught up in an intense battle today.

"The challenge has been activated."

Just as James was preparing to face his opponent, a voice sounded from the distant sky. Yet, the sound was so clear, as if it was coming from right beside him.

James was startled. 'Is this how challenges are activated?'

"Huff!"

James immediately took a deep breath.

At that moment, Quade was slightly stunned. Obviously, he also heard the voice and knew that they had activated a challenge.

"Die!"

Quade's face darkened, and he roared furiously.

Then, he clenched his fist and threw a punch at James.

His attack contained terrifying power.

Before James could react, his terrifying fist was already swinging toward him. In a panic, he raised his hand to resist.

Boom!

The two forces collided and caused a huge explosion.

A shock wave swept over the surroundings, and the mountain under James' feet was demolished into rubble.

James was knocked back by the force.

He felt the terrifying force travel through his fist and permeate his entire body. The force damaged his body, and his body showed signs of disintegration.

James would have died from Quade's punch if not for his Demonic Lotus body.

Although he was only slightly injured, he was shocked.

He was at the Herculean's Fifth Layer, and his physical strength had reached the Herculean's Sixth Layer. However, he was still not a match for Quade.

James thought, 'How strong is he?'

While still shocked, the Demonic Lotus in his body unleashed Demonic Energy. The Demonic Energy flowed through his body and healed his body's injuries instantly.

James seized the chance and quickly backed away, keeping a safe distance from Quade.

Seeing an injury forming on James' fist and permeating his body, Quade concluded that James would die. However, James' body recovered as he backed away.

"I underestimated you."

His face darkened and was hostile.

Clank!

Quade drew his sword and gripped it, causing a terrifying force to sweep toward James. He leaped into the air and dashed toward James, slashing his sword forward.

James quickly dodged the attack.

Quade's sword slammed into the ground, and an explosion burst out, causing a bottomless pit to appear in the ground.

James knew it would be impossible to kill Quade without using Sacrilegious Ascension.

At that moment, his energy reservoirs let out a few waves of True Energy. They permeated his whole body and shattered his spine. He took a step forward, and heaven and earth's power gathered toward him.

His body absorbed heaven and earth's power and formed a new spine.

He took a step forward, and Quade felt a powerful force crushing his body.

However, the power was not enough to knock him back.

Quade gripped the long black sword and slashed at James.

His sword slashed out a storm.

James took several steps forward, and a few of his vertebrae were reformed. At the same time, he dispersed the storm.

Sacrilegious Ascension was a potent signature martial art skill of the Primordial Divine Ape Race. After James took a few steps forward, Quade was knocked back by the force. Meanwhile, James continued to step forward.

Soon, he took thirty-three steps.

Thirty-three of his vertebrae were reshaped.

At that moment, his energy completely merged with the surrounding Empyrean Spiritual Energy.

A powerful energy emerged under his feet.

The mountains in the area crumbled into ruins.

James floated in the air and looked down at Quade. With a calm and confident expression, he said, "I didn't want to kill you, Quade. However, since you have a death wish, I'll send you on your way."

Sacrilegious Ascension gathered a strong magnetic field around James.

Quade felt as if the pressure of heaven and earth was crushing down on him as he stood within the magnetic field. Although he was at the Immortal Ascension's Sixth Stair, he could not withstand the force. His Blood Energy churned uncontrollably.

His True Energy also churned and showed signs of leaking from his body.

"Damn it."

Quade roared furiously.

He stared at the pressure formed by Sacrilegious Ascension and raised his long sword, slashing aggressively. The long sword burst out with powerful energy and instantly shattered Sacrilegious Ascension's power.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2183—After Quade killed James, another person appeared before he could catch his breath.

It was a powerful person who had much stronger energy than him.

After a brief contact, he was knocked away.

Another fierce battle broke out in the area.

At that moment, James was lying weakly among the ruins below them.

His strength had improved tremendously after casting Sacrilegious Ascension. However, it was only comparable to the strength of someone at the Immortal Ascension's Sixth Stair.

Meanwhile, Quade had reached the peak of the Immortal Ascension's Sixth Stair and was close to the Seventh Stair.

Although their strength were both in the Immortal Ascension's Sixth Stair, the gap between them was relatively big.

James was severely injured but not dead.

The Demonic Lotus reformed his body, so Quade's strength was not enough to kill him.

Sensing the movement above him, James knew another fierce battle had broken out.

Thus, he remained under the ruins in the ground and did not show himself, using the opportunity to heal his body.

Demonic Energy surged through his body, and he quickly recovered from his injuries. In less than a minute, he had fully recovered. His strength had returned to its peak, but he did not choose to reveal himself. Instead, he waited within the ruins.

The fierce battle above him continued.

Terrifying energies swept across the surroundings and destroyed everything.

The mountains were destroyed, and the ground was full of bottomless pits.

The fight lasted for about half an hour.

James sensed that Quade and the other cultivator were not dead yet but wounded.

Quade sustained a wound on his arm and was bleeding. He stared at his opponent, who was wearing a black robe.

The black-robed man also panted and stared at Quade. He said coldly, "I wasn't expecting you to be so resilient. However, you'll die since I'm your opponent."

At that moment, a black lotus silently shot out of the ground. The black lotus appeared in the sky and released black energy.

“What?”

Quade and the black-robed man were shocked.

At that moment, the black lotus released Demonic Energy. The energy swept the surroundings and engulfed the black-robed man.

The black Demonic Energy entered the black-robed man’s body. Suddenly, he felt like his True Energy and Blood Essence were being swallowed up.

At that moment, he was terrified of his impending death.

“Argh! No...”

His eyes widened, and he exerted all his strength.

Although James’ Demonic Lotus was terrifying, the black-robed man was at the Immortal Ascension’s Seventh Stair. He broke free from the Demonic Energy.

Afterward, his body flickered, and he appeared in the air. His long sword slashed the Demonic Lotus, and a terrifying Sword Energy burst out.

Upon being struck, the Demonic Lotus transformed into black mist and quickly disappeared into the deep pit in the ground.

James, who was hiding in the pit, spat out a mouthful of blood.

His Demonic Lotus was sliced apart, and he suffered injuries from the backlash.

At that moment, he felt a dangerous energy approaching him. His body flickered, and he quickly rushed out of the deep pit.

After he escaped, several Sword Energies slammed into the ruins on the ground, creating a bigger mess.

James appeared in the distance and gritted his teeth.

“That was so close.”

The two who were previously engaged in the fight noticed James.

Quade was shocked. He pointed at James in the distance and said, “Y-You’re a demon?”

The black-robed man also was frightened of James.

When the Demonic energy entangled him, he was overwhelmed with the fear of death. Fortunately, he was strong enough to break free. Otherwise, it would have been the death of him.

James looked at the black-robed man and Quade with a frown.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2184—The two had fought an intense battle and were both injured. Their strengths were no longer at their peaks. Despite that, they were still relatively strong.

“Damn it. I made a mistake. I showed up too early. I should’ve waited until they no longer had combat power.”

James slapped his forehead.

He regretted taking action and revealing himself too early.

The two looked at James with fear, especially the black-robed man. At that moment, he was covered in cold sweat.

Meanwhile, James was deep in thought.

He had no grudge against the black-robed man. The black-robed man would probably avoid conflict if he did not attack. However, he had a grudge to settle with Quade.

James decided to get rid of Quade first.

After he made up his mind, James said, “Your time is up, Quade.”

James’ cold voice resounded, and Demonic Energy emerged from his body to form a black lotus.

The black lotus hovered above his head, surrounded by black mist containing terrifying power. The black-robed man slightly backed away upon seeing the scene.

Meanwhile, Quade held on to his sword and slashed out to cut the black Demonic Energy that swept at him.

Quade was powerful, and James could not kill him so easily, even with the Demonic Lotus. However, Quade was injured and was slightly powerless against Demonic Energy.

After a while, he was struck by the Demonic Energy and was sent flying.

James seized the opportunity and urged the black lotus' energy.

The Demonic Lotus quickly floated toward Quade, and countless strands of Demonic Energy swept over to surround him.

The Demonic Energy enveloped Quade and absorbed his True energy and Blood Essence continuously. The Demonic Lotus transmitted the power to James. James' physical strength improved rapidly by the second.

“Ahh!!!”

Quade let out a miserable scream.

Soon, his screams died down.

Quade was turned into a pile of bones.

The Demonic Lotus had completely absorbed his True Energy, flesh, and blood.

Quade could not find the chance to use the token given to him after James' Demonic Energy surrounded him.

At that moment, the Demonic Lotus reacted strangely. A white hue could be seen on the Demonic Lotus. It looked very strange.

The Demonic Lotus had transmitted the energy to James, helping him to improve his physical strength and True Energy.

“Challenge completed.”

After Quade's death, a voice rang in James' ears.

Suddenly, his body disappeared from the area, and he was transported to a city.

“Where am I?”

After appearing in the city, James was slightly taken aback.

He scanned the city.

It was a very old city, and many people were walking down the streets.

These people were powerhouses from the Three Thousand Worlds.

“Congratulations on completing the first challenge and coming to Infinity City.”

After James appeared in the city, the voice sounded again.

James listened attentively.

“Infinity City is the starting point of the Provenance. Outside the city are some very dangerous places where challenges can be triggered. After completing your challenge, you’ll be transported to the next city.

“Each city represents an era.

“In this city, you’ll find the Infinity Stele, which records the information and events of this era.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2185—“The Infinity Stele?” James’ curiosity was piqued.

The information about the era they traveled to was engraved on the Infinity Stele. Since he was transported to Infinity City, he was no longer in his original era and had traveled back into the past.

James scanned his surroundings.

There were many cultivators in the city.

These were people who had completed their challenges and entered Infinity City.

Infinity City was the first stop of their time travel.

James walked around the city and soon found a mysterious slab with inscriptions. It was a black slab 100 meters high and more than 20 meters wide. Many strange words were engraved on it.

Many people were gathered below the slab.

At one glance, James saw a densely packed crowd. There were at least 100,000 people.

‘What does the text on it mean?’

“The Infinity Stele sure is amazing.”

Many cultivators who could not understand the text discussed the Infinity Stele.

Soon, James came to the Infinity Stele and scrutinized it.

There were mysterious scripts on both edges of the Infinity Stele.

At the center of it were many names.

The names were written in ancient scripts, and it was hard to tell which era they were from. James could not read a single word.

“Ms. Sophie, are you there?”

James telepathically communicated with Sophie, who was in the Celestial Abode.

Soon, Sophie replied, “I’m here.”

James asked, “What exactly is the Infinity Stele? What are these words on it?”

Sophie’s voice came from the Celestial Abode. “I’m not very sure either. But, I’ve heard Emperor Jabari say the Infinity Stele is the representation of the Infinity Cities. There are one hundred and eight Infinity Cities in total.”

Surprised, James asked, “So, if I travel through one hundred and eight Infinity Cities, I’ll return back to the beginning of the world?”

“Haha. You’re so naive.”

Sophie laughed, saying, “The Infinity Cities are only the starting point. The real time traveling begins after you go through the one hundred and eight Infinity Cities. Countless powerhouses have entered the Provenances, but none have reached the world’s beginning.”

“Then, do you understand the text on the Infinity Stele?”

James could not understand the words, so he could only ask for Sophie’s help.

Sophie said, “They’re ancient scripts. I can’t tell you what it means. You’ll have to reach a certain rank to be able to comprehend it.”

“Okay...” James was confused.

Sophie suddenly remembered something and said, “By the way, I heard Emperor Jabari say that the Infinity Stele has existed since the beginning of the world and is a valuable treasure. Emperor-ranked powerhouses of the past have tried to take it with them, but it backfired.

“Even Emperor Jabari had come to try and take it but failed. He told me that only a person with a weak cultivation base can take the Infinity Stele.”

Sophie explained, “Emperor Jabari also said that there are ancient scripts on the Infinity Stele. They are very powerful and will have a strong resistance to strong people. However, it won’t resist average cultivators.

“He also told me only unrivaled powerhouses can enter this place, but at a hefty price. On the other hand, Ordinary cultivators aren’t capable of entering this place. However, the Space – Time Portal appeared to be connected to this place. There’s also an age restriction where those over one hundred can’t enter the place.”

After speaking, Sophie fell into deep thought.

Then, she continued speaking, “Combining the conjectures made by Emperor Jabari, I think the treasure hidden in this place isn’t just the secret of the world at the beginning of time. It’s possible that even the Infinity Stele itself is a treasure.”

Stunned, James asked, “What you’re trying to say is that the Infinity Stele is a treasure I can take away?”

“I don’t know, but give it a try. After all, powerhouses at the Emperor Rank have comprehended the Heavenly Path. Since these are Emperor Jabari’s conjectures, it must be close to the truth.”

Sophie replied, “How would I know? I’ve never been to Infinity City or the Provenance before.”

“Alright.” James nodded gently.

After a brief conversation with Sophie, he learned that the black Infinity Stele in front of him could be an extraordinary treasure and had existed since the beginning of the world. It would greatly benefit him if he could take it away and learn to control it.

The Infinity Stele was not inferior as a tool for learning the secret of the world.

However, James did not know how he could take it.

He fell deep into thought.

Afterward, he walked toward the black Infinity Stele and tried to lift it.

However, the Infinity Stele would not budge.

It was too heavy as if it was grounded to the world, not moving even an inch.

‘How am I supposed to do this?’

James looked at the Infinity Stele and fell into thought again.

More cultivators appeared in the first Infinity City. After these cultivators showed up city, they quickly left to trigger more challenges to move on to the next destination.

There were challenges of different levels.

After completing a difficult challenge, one could skip through a few Infinity Cities. Eventually, they would reach the one-hundred-and-eighth city.

Arriving at the last city was not the end. Instead, it was the real beginning of time traveling.

More and more people began leaving the city.

There were also many people still gathered around the Infinity Stele.

However, no one could understand the scripts on the Infinity Stele. No one knew the origin or meaning of the scripts. After inspecting it for a while, they chose to leave.

After a while, James was the only person left.

One would lose their sense of time inside the Provenance.

James stood under the Infinity Stele. It seemed as if only a few moments had passed, but at the same time, it felt like an eternity had passed.

His sense of time was already obscured.

Everyone else left Infinity City, leaving only James behind.

“James.”

Sophie’s voice sounded from the Celestial Abode.

James regained his senses and asked, “Hmm? What’s wrong?”

Sophie said, “I went to study the ancient scripts on the Infinity Stele. Although I couldn’t figure it out, I think my power should be able to trigger it.”

A white light flashed in front of James.

The white flash fell to the ground, and a beautiful woman in white appeared.

It was Sophie.

She ordered, “Step back, James.”

“Alright.” James quickly stepped away.

Sophie floated into the air, and a mysterious symbol and powerful force appeared out of her palm.

The force dragged the Infinity Stele and tried to lift it.

At that moment, the mysterious scripts on the Infinity Stele seemed to have come alive. Powerful energy burst out and knocked Sophie away.

Sophie fell from the sky and slammed into the ground. Then, she spurted out a mouthful of blood.

James walked toward Sophie and helped her up from the ground. He asked worriedly, “Are you alright?”

Sophie gently waved her hand and wiped the blood dripping from her lips. Then, she replied, I'm alright. It's the backlash from the Infinity Stele's power. It contains incredible strength. As expected from an extraordinary treasure that even Emperor-ranked powerhouses can't touch."

James asked, "Then, what should we do now?"

Sophie fell into deep thought.

After thinking for a while, she replied, "Even I can't lift it since there are inscriptions on it. There are also the names of some Emperor ranked powerhouses on it, which contain extreme power. Powerful people will have to resist the Infinity Stele and the tremendous power of these Emperor-ranked names. You should try it, James."

"Me?"

With a helpless expression, James said, "What can I do?"

"You won't lose anything from trying."

James nodded. "Alright."

He jumped into the air. Looking at the black Infinity Stele, he mobilized all his strength.

He urged his whole body's strength and True Energy.

"Move!"

James roared, and his powerful True Energy swept toward the black Infinity Stele.

However, he could not lift it, no matter how hard he tried.

He tried a few more times but to no avail.

Eventually, he gave up.

He descended to the ground and sat down. He leaned against the Infinity Stele and looked at Sophie, asking, "This doesn't seem to be working, Ms. Sophie."

Meanwhile, Sophie stood in front of the Infinity Stele with a thoughtful expression.

Even with her strength and past experiences with ancient scripts, she could not understand the meaning of the scripts on the Infinity Stele.

Sophie waved her hand. "There's no rush. I'll research it."

James was not in a hurry either.

He sat on the ground and waited patiently.

Sophie scrutinized the Infinity Stele.

Time seemed to have frozen at that moment. However, it also felt like an eternity had passed.

Sophie suddenly stretched out her hand and pointed at the Infinity Stele.

Powerful energy emerged from her fingertip.

The force struck the Infinity Stele, causing it to shake.

Suddenly, a powerful force emerged from the Infinity Stele and wrapped around James and Sophie.

The next moment, the two appeared in an unfamiliar place.

The space was incredibly bright and did not have any darkness.

Many white lights floated in the air, forming a spectacular view.

“What’s going on, Ms. Sophie?”

James looked at Sophie in a daze.

Sophie wore a confused expression. She shook her head slightly and said, “I’m not very sure either. I simply tried what I had in mind. It seemed I was right. The Infinity Stele used to have an owner. We must’ve entered a dimension stored within the Infinity Stele. The previous owner must’ve left it behind.”

“Ahh...’ ”

Suddenly, some of the white lights floated toward Sophie.

Sophie’s face distorted in pain.

Infinity Stele will attack me, so I can't stay any longer."

Sophie's voice came from inside the Celestial Abode.

James was puzzled by her words and asked, "Why am I fine?"

"It's because your cultivation base is relatively weak. You're far from the point of coming to understand the ancient scripts. Thus, they won't attack you."

James asked again, "Then, what should I do next?"

Sophie said, "There's no rush. A powerhouse must've left this place behind. His soul fragments must've been left in this place."

After Sophie finished speaking, some white light gathered together and formed a silhouette.

James could vaguely see that this person was dressed in a white robe. He had long, black hair, and his facial features were fairly handsome.

"Has someone finally shown up?"

The silhouette looked at James. It looked like it was talking to James, but at the same time, it looked like he was talking to himself.

At that moment, Sophie wanted to talk to James.

However, she realized a powerful force had forcibly severed James' connection with the Celestial Abode. No matter what she said, James could not hear her.

Meanwhile, James could not be bothered with Sophie.

He looked at the silhouette floating before him. He clasped his hands together and said respectfully, "My name is James. It's an honor to meet you.

"Mhm."

The silhouette nodded gently in response to James.

The silhouette uttered, "The heaven and earth's seal is opening, and the Provenance has opened. It seems this day has finally come."

“May I know your name?” James asked tentatively.

The silhouette finally cast a glance at James. Immediately, he replied calmly, “I’m Tatum Warderm.”

Although James had never heard of a Tatum Warderm, the person before him must have been a well-known powerhouse from ancient times. He was probably also the Infinity Stele’s owner. James was interested in obtaining the Infinity Stele.

Sophie said it could be as good as understanding the world’s secrets.

James asked respectfully, “Mr. Warderm, are you the Infinity Stele’s owner?”

Tatum looked at James but did not answer.

At that moment, James was not a person in Tatum’s eyes. Instead, he was in the form of weird symbols constantly changing.

He was a powerful man that could see through anything and anyone’s life.

However, he could not see through James.

He could not see James’ future. It seemed like a powerful force was preventing him from doing

“You’re full of variables.”

Tatum said softly, “Since you’ve managed to arrive here, it must be fate. Whether you can take the first piece of the Infinity Stele depends on your capabilities.”

Overjoyed, James inquired, “How can I acquire the first Infinity Stele?”

Tatum replied, “Since you’ve come here, you must be destined to. However, the Infinity Stele is no ordinary item. Once you acquire it, you’ll have to bear the consequences and Karma. After becoming its owner, you’ll be burdened with a lot of things. To become the Infinity Stele’s owner, you have to be good in all aspects. Being able to come here doesn’t mean you’ll definitely obtain the Infinity Stele.”

James was slightly confused and could not understand Tatum’s words.

He asked, “Please tell me how I can obtain it.”

“It’s straightforward. It depends on whether you can bear the consequences and Karma that come with it. I can’t see your future. It’s full of unknowns and variables.”

Tatum murmured and immediately disappeared from James’ sight.

After he disappeared, countless white light dots in the area quickly gathered together, forming a few mysterious words that enveloped James.

At that moment, James was bewildered and confused.

However, this only lasted for a few seconds.

A few seconds later, he disappeared from the glowing space. When he reappeared, he was back in Infinity City under the Infinity Stele.

“Ms. Sophie, are you there?”

James did not understand, so he resorted to asking Sophie.

“I’m here.”

Sophie’s voice sounded from within the Celestial Abode.

“A powerful force cut off your connection with the Celestial Abode just now. I couldn’t get to you. How did it go? What happened?”

James recited Tatum’s words.

Then, he asked, “Ms. Sophie, what do you think he meant?”

Sophie thought for a while and said, “It probably means you’ll have to meet a certain qualification to obtain the Infinity Stele. You’ll probably have to be able to take and put it away.”

“I see.” James nodded.

He walked toward the Infinity Stele. With a leap, he appeared several meters in the air and activated his True Energy, having them surround the Infinity Stele.

Previously, he could not move the Infinity Stele, no matter how hard he tried.

Surprisingly, he could now lift the Infinity Stele.

“What?”

Sophie, who was watching from the Celestial Abode, was also shocked.

She quickly reminded him, “You can do it, James. Quick, allow the Infinity Stele to recognize you as its owner.”

James asked, “How can I make it recognize me as its owner?”

Sophie said, “The Infinity Stele is a divine object that has existed since the world was created. It’s not an item that can be refined. You can’t use your blood to make it recognize you as the owner. Instead, you’ll have to communicate telepathically with it.”

Sophie briefly explained how to make the Infinity Stele recognize him as its owner.

James followed her instructions.

Soon, James connected with the first Infinity Stele and became its owner.

After he became its owner, the Infinity Stele kept shrinking until it was the size of a fist. Then, it moved and landed on James’ palm.

Sophie exclaimed from the Celestial Abode, “Woah!”

“I never expected you to obtain the first Infinity Stele. You’re really lucky, James. Even powerhouses of the Emperor-rank couldn’t claim it. I’m envious of your luck.”

Sophie had an envious expression.

James chuckled and played with the Infinity Stele in his hand.

The Infinity Stele was heavy in its original form, but now, it felt very light in his hand.

After scrutinizing it for a long time, James still could not figure out what was so extraordinary about the Infinity Stele. The names on it were already a supreme power.

Sophie explained, “You’re still very weak right now. When you become stronger, you’ll understand how good of a treasure it is. Putting aside everything else, the names are already a supreme power.”

Although the Infinity Stele was powerful, James' current strength was weak, and he could not comprehend it yet.

With a thought, the Infinity Stele grew bigger in an instant.

It returned to its original form, which was 100 meters in height and 10 meters in width.

The black Infinity Stele smashed at a distant building with destructive force.

Boom!

The entire building was destroyed with a loud bang, and Infinity City trembled.

However, it immediately restored itself.

"It's incredibly powerful."

James took a deep breath.

At that moment, the Infinity Stele in James' body revealed some information and transmitted it to him.

After being in a daze for a few seconds, James said with joy, "It seems there's a portal between every Infinity City. There's no need to complete the challenges to move on to the next city." The Infinity Stele revealed a lot of information to James.

After James obtained the information, he did not linger anymore and walked to the back of the city.

Soon, he reached a wall of light behind the city.

James knew he would appear in the next Infinity City after passing through the light. Ordinary cultivators were not capable of passing through it so easily. However, James could easily pass through because he had the Infinity Stele.

Without hesitation, he passed through the wall.

His body disappeared and reappeared in the next city.

It was the second Infinity City, which was completely identical to the previous one. The only difference was it was of a different era.

Within the second Infinity City, there was another Infinity Stele.

There was no one in the second Infinity City. The other powerhouses that entered the Provenance had not completed the challenges from the first to move on to the second city.

James quickly walked toward the Infinity Stele and tried to lift it up.

He became the Infinity Stele's owner and put it away without much effort.

Then, he traveled to the next Infinity City. He kept moving and collecting the Infinity Steles.

Soon, he reached the last Infinity City and obtained the last Infinity Stele.

He stood at Infinity City's gate.

His heart skipped a beat as the 108 Infinity Steles materialized out of his body and hovered in the sky. The sight was spectacular and shocking. "Haha."

At that moment, a burst of laughter sounded.

"Who's there?"

James quickly put away the Infinity Stele and scanned his surroundings warily.

After the voice sounded, a blurry silhouette appeared in front of James. It gradually formed the outline of a middle-aged man.

However, James still could not see the face of the man clearly.

“Wh-Who are you?”

The man smiled faintly and said, “I didn’t expect the Infinity Stele to have a new owner. You’re pretty lucky, young man.”

James looked at him warily.

The man reassured him, “Don’t worry. I don’t have malicious intentions.”

James asked again, “Who are you?”

The man replied, “My identity doesn’t matter. You no longer need to continue advancing further. You won’t be able to go beyond Infinity City with your current strength. Since you’ve already obtained a great treasure from the Space-Time Portal, you should return to where you came from. Then, train very hard. I’ll be waiting for you in the Provenance. I’m sure we’ll fight side by side sooner or later.”

Then, his body became blurry again, and he gradually disappeared.
